The Excellence of Following the Sunnah

Dr. Muhammad Ibn 'Umar Bazmool
Professor at Umm al-Qura University, Makkah, Saudi Arabia
The Excellence of Following the Sunnah
By the Noble Shaykh, Muhammad Bin ‘Umar Bin Saalim Bazmool
Translated by Naasirud-Deen Bin William Ferron
Verily, in following his (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah is the perfection of blamelessness and the accumulation of generosity whose light cannot be extinguished and its proofs cannot be disproved. Whoever adheres to it is safeguarded and whoever opposes it is blamed and censured. It [the Sunnah] is the fortified fortress and the strong pillar which explains his excellence and strengthens his rope. Whoever adheres to it prevails and whoever desires to oppose it perishes; so the ones who cling to it are the people in this life.
The Excellence of Following the SUNNAH

Dr. Muhammad Ibn 'Umar Bazmool
Professor at Umm al-Qura University, Makkah, Saudi Arabia
Table of Contents

Author's Introduction .................................................................................................. I

The Definition of the Sunnah ................................................................................... III
  * As-Sunnatul-Qawliyyah: The Speech of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) ........................................................................... IV
  * As-Sunnatul-Fi'liyyah: The Action of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) ........................................................................... IV
  * As-Sunnatul-Taqreeriyyah: The Tacit Approval of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) .................................................... V
  * As-Sifatul-Khuluqiyyah: The Moral Description of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) .................................................... V

The Divisions of the Sunnah .................................................................................... VII
  1. Sunnah Sareehah (a clear Sunnah): Its connection to the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) is clear and apparent. VIII
  2. As-Sunnatud-Dimniyyah (The Implied Sunnah) ........................................ VIII

What is this Sunnah? .............................................................................................. VIII

The Benefits of Following the Sunnah ...................................................................... X

The 1st Benefit: From Following the Sunnah is Acquiring Protection from Blameworthy Ikhtilaaf and Becoming Distant from the Religion .............................................................................................................. 1

The 2nd Benefit: Following the Sunnah and Adhering to it is the Protection from (splitting into) the Sects Whose People are Threatened with the Fire ........................................................................................................ 7

The 3rd Benefit: Adhering to the Sunnah is the Attainment of Guidance and Safety from Misguidance ................................................................................................................................. 13

The 4th Benefit: Adherence to the Sunnah is Entrance under the Name of the Prophet, (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), and its Abandonment is an Exit from His Name ...................................................................................... 17
The 5th Benefit: In the Excellence of the Sunnah and Following It Is Freedom from the Paths of the Shaytaan ................................................................. 21

The 6th Benefit: In Following the Sunnah is the Attainment of the Prescribed Law and the Deen ................................................................................ 29

The 7th Benefit: Following the Sunnah Removes Humiliation and Insignificance from the Ummah ................................................................. 39

The 8th Benefit: In the Sunnah Is the Description of the Disease which Afflicted the Muslim Nation and the Description of Its Cure ................................................................................................................................. 45

The 9th Benefit: Following His (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah Is Perfection of Character – Its Beauty and Noble Traits .......... 49

The 10th Benefit: In Adherence to the Sunnah Is Safety from al-Fitnah and the Painful Torment ................................................................. 51

The 11th Benefit: In Following the Sunnah and Adhering to It Is the Realization of Faith, the Attainment of Happiness in the Two Abodes and Safety from the Fire ................................................................. 55

The 12th Benefit: To Follow the Sunnah and to Act upon It Is to Ensure Its Revival ...................................................................................... 59

Glossary of Important Arabic Words and Phrases .................................................. 63

Index .................................................................................................................... 69
Author’s Introduction

Verily, all praise is for Allaah. We praise Him, we seek His aid and we ask for His forgiveness. We seek refuge in Allaah from the evil of ourselves and our sinful actions. Whosoever Allaah guides, there is none who can misguide him, and whosoever that He misguides, there is none who can guide him.

I bear witness that none has the right to be worshipped except Allaah alone without partners, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger.

O you who believe! Fear Allaah as He should be feared and do not die except as Muslims.
[Soorah Aali-'Imraan, 3:102]

O Mankind! Be dutiful to your Rabb who created you from one soul, created from it its mate, and from them both He scattered many men and women. And fear Allaah through whom you demand your mutual rights and do not cut the ties of the womb. Surely, Allaah is an All-Watcher of you.
[Sooratun-Nisaa’, 4:1]
O you who believe! Fear Allaah and always speak the truth or be straight to the point. He will direct you to do good deeds and He will forgive you your sins. And whosoever obeys Allaah and His Messenger has achieved a great achievement. [Sooratul-Ahzaab, 33:70-71]

The most truthful speech is the speech of Allaah, and the best of guidance is the guidance of Muhammad (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam). The worst of affairs are newly invented matters, and every newly invented matter is an innovation, and every innovation is misguidance, and every misguidance is in the fire.

This lecture is called: "The Excellence of Following the Sunnah." It focuses on the following sections:

1. The definition of the Sunnah
2. The divisions of the Sunnah and its types
3. The benefits of following the Sunnah, which are:
   - It is the path of salvation from al-ikhtilaaf (differing)
   - It is the path of liberation from splitting into sects
   - It is the path of guidance from misguidance
   - In it is the noble link to the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam)
   - By following it we are saved from the paths of Shaytaan
   - By following it the Muslims are freed from lowliness and saved from humiliation
   - In it is the diagnosis of the disease and the cure for it
   - In it is the attainment of the religion in its totality
Author’s Introduction

- By it, the righteous and noble character is completed
- By it, the Muslim is saved from the painful torment in the Fire
- By it, the Muslim obtains entrance into al-Jannah (Paradise)
- By it, the Sunnah will be revived

This is the summary of the lecture, the following is the explanation.

The Definition of the Sunnah

As-Sunnah

Linguistic meaning: The way of life and the path. Thus, to say that an individual is upon the Sunnah of another, means that that individual is following the other’s path or his way of life.

Religious meaning: To follow whatever commands came from the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and to abandon whatever he forbade. So it comprises, in the religious sense, all that the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) came with, of the obligatory and highly recommended affairs, and the abandonment of the forbidden and disliked affairs. Then, after that, the technical usage of as-Sunnah in the view of the scholars becomes clear.

As-Sunnah, according to the scholars of hadeeth (muhaddithoon), means whatever is connected to the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) pertaining to his speech, action, tacit approval, physical and moral description.
Author's Introduction

As-Sunnatul-Qawliyyah: The Speech of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam)

Regarding the speech of the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), this means a hadith which contains his (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) sayings. For example, the hadith of 'Umar bin al-Khattaab, (radiyallaahu 'anhu), who said: “I heard the Messenger of Allaah, (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), saying:

‘Verily actions are but by intentions and every man will have what he intended....’” This is a spoken Sunnah (Sunnah Qawliyyah).

As-Sunnatul-Fi’liyyah: The Action of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam)

It is (called) As-Sunnatul-Fi’liyyah: It is related to us that the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) used to do such and such a thing or he used to abandon such and such a thing. For example, the saying of Anas, (radiyallaahu 'anhu): “The Messenger of Allaah used to enjoy [eating] pumpkin [ad-dubbee’].” This is from the actions of the Messenger, (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam). Also (what is) from As-Sunnatul-Fi’liyyah is whatever was mentioned about the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), concerning actions in the prayer or actions with regard to az-zakah (obligatory charity), or sawm (fasting), or hajj (pilgrimage); all of this falls under As-Sunnatul-Fi’liyyah.
As-Sunnatut-Taqreeriyyah: The Tacit Approval of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam)

As for the tacit approval, then this is (called) As-Sunnatut-Taqreeriyyah: An action takes place in front of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) or during his lifetime, and the revelation descends (as a result of that action) and the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), affirms that (action) and the revelations also affirms it - not censuring or changing it. Thus, it is a legislative “tacit approval” due to the action (which was done in the presence of the Prophet (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and he did not check it or correct it). The evidence that As-Sunnatut-Taqreeriyyah is merely highly recommended is weefah (weak or incorrect).

As-Sifatul-Khuluqiyyah: The Moral Description of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam)

In regards to the moral description (As-Sifatul-Khuluqiyyah), it is whatever has been conveyed to us of the Prophet's (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) character. For example, Aa'ishah, (radiyallaahu 'anha), was asked about the character of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), she replied:

"His character was the Qur'aan."

As for the physical description (As-Sifatul-Khuluqiyyah), it is whatever is conveyed to us about his (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) appearance. For example, some of the ahaadeeth mention that the Messenger of Allaah, (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), was of medium height - neither tall nor short. When he stood among the tall people he outshone them. He had a light complexion and his face was like a half-moon. The Messenger,
Author's Introduction

(sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), was such and such (a description) to the last of what was mentioned about his physical descriptions.

So the Sunnah, in the opinion of the scholars of hadith, is whatever is connected to the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) - his sayings, actions, tacit approval, physical and moral descriptions.

The Sunnah, in the opinion of the scholars of the principles of the religion (al-Usooliyyoon), and the scholars of jurisprudence (al-Fuqahaa), is whatever is connected to the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) - his statements, actions and tacit approvals because they consider the Sunnah from the point of view that it is a legislative proof, and consequently, it does not take on the characteristic of proof except in these three matters: the statement, the action and the tacit approval.

This is the meaning that the scholars of jurisprudence intend when they mention the Sunnah, noting that this meaning is used technically. Sometimes it (the meaning) is generalised with the meaning of al-mustahhab (highly recommended) and al-mandoob (also highly recommended), deeming it to be one of the ranks of the legislative rulings. The legislative rulings are five:

1. al-waajib (obligatory)
2. al-muharram (prohibited)
3. al-makhrooh (disliked)
4. al-mubaah (permissible)
5. al-mustahhab (highly recommended)

It has become the widespread opinion among some of the people that the Sunnah is only the highly recommended acts (al-mustahhab) - the one who does it is rewarded and the one who leaves it off is not punished. In reality, this usage is a new concept that the scholars of the principles of the religion and jurisprudence proceed with, in clarification of one of the ranks of the legislative ruling. However, it is incorrect to explain a Sunnah statement (hadeeth) of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), statements of the sahaabah, taabi’een or the great Imaams with the meaning of al-mustahhab. The Sunnah, in their opinion, is more general than that. It does not only include the highly recommended and the obligatory acts, but also whatever causes an individual to be a disbeliever if he opposes it (the Sunnah).

Due to this, the Imaams of the Salaf and the great Imaams of the three meritorious generations have authoured and compiled books about the Sunnah. These books called Kutubus-Sunnah, explain matters of creed, and the matters (opposing the Sunnah) which make one a disbeliever. Among them are, Kitaabus-Sunnah of Ibn Abee ‘Aasim, Kitaabus-Sunnah of ‘Abdullaah Bin Ahmad Bin Hanbal and Kitaabus-Sunnah of Al-Marwazee.

So it is necessary that one does not rush into explaining the word of the Sunnah. The term al-mustahhab is a new term which did not exist in the time of the sahaabah, the Imaams of the taabi’een or the great Imaams, it is inappropriate to use this term alone to explain their speech.

When this becomes clear then we proceed to the next element.

The Divisions of the Sunnah

The Sunnah is divided into two parts:
1. Sunnah Sareehah (a clear Sunnah): Its connection to the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) is clear and apparent.

   We hear and read in the statements of hadith: The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said, the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) did, the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) was such and such, or such and such occurred around the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam). So there is a clear connection to the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) - this is Sunnah Sareehah (a clear Sunnah).

2. As-Sunnatud-Dimniyyah (The Implied Sunnah)

   It is a Sunnah that is unknown by some of the people. The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) did not explicitly say or do an action, however, its ruling is the ruling of the clear Sunnah, and it (the action, speech, etc.) is traced (back to him).

What is this Sunnah?

It (As-Sunnatud-Dimniyyah) is the statements of the Sahaabah which are explicit - there is no room for opinion or ijtihaad (reasoning). If this is so, then where did they take it from? This is so, because they took it from the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam).

These are:
The statement of a Sahaabee which was not opposed (by anyone): This has the ruling of the Sunnah that is traced (back to the Prophet (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam)). Some of the people of knowledge say: “This is a silent agreement (or tacitly approved ijmaa’ (consensus)).” If the Sahaabee makes a statement and the other Sahaabah do not deny it, then surely, this is a proof that the statement of this Sahaabee is Sunnah, either it is a clear Sunnah by means of this agreement or it reaches the level of proof by means of the agreement of the Sahaabah. Thus, its ruling is the ruling of the silent agreement (ijmaa’).

The statement of a Sahaabee concerning the causes for the revelation of the Noble Qur’aan: This also has the ruling of the Sunnah that is traced (back to the Prophet (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam)) when the wording which he used to express the cases for the revelation was clear. For example, when he said: “Such and such happened so Allaah revealed such and such.” So, it is clear that this event occurred in the time of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam).

The statement of a Sahaabee concerning the explanation of his reports: So whenever the Sahaabee heard the hadeeth from the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) he learned the contexts which surrounded this hadeeth, therefore, his explanation for whatever he narrates from the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) takes precedence over the speech of others. Rather, perhaps in the foundation will be this understanding (of the Sahabee) or the meaning which he explained the hadeeth which probably came from the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam).

These categories are classified under "the implied Sunnah" (As-Sunnatud-Dimniyyah) – that which is hidden from the minds of some of the people, except Ahlul-Hadeeth who are the ones, from mankind, who pay the most attention to it. When they author works of hadeeth, they narrate the ahaadeeth that trace back to the Prophet (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) as well as the discontinued narrations (the narrations about the Sahaabah) because it (the hadeeth) will comprise of the proofs of, and the indications of one of the Sunnah. Due to this, it is upon the seeker of knowledge to show interest in what has been related from the Sahaabah regarding the matters of knowledge.

The Sunnah is neglected with respect to:

i. Lack of concern for the clarification of the authentic from the inauthentic narrations. This is the most common form of neglect.

ii. The absence of records of the statements of the Sahaabah concerning the issues.

iii. Discrediting the ascription of the saying to the Sahaabee before verifying if there were two statements from him or not (i.e. seeing if it was the last of the views he held on the issue or not).

After we explain the definition and the divisions of As-Sunnah, we will now mention to you the excellence of following it, and the benefits which the Muslim derives when he follows the Sunnah of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam).

The Benefits of Following the Sunnah

I say, as an introduction to these benefits (of following the Sunnah): The speech concerning the excellence of following the prophetic Sunnah is the (very same) speech concerning Al-Islaam, with its laws, rulings and manners. The Sunnah, then, makes up the entire religion.
And whoever seeks a religion other than Islam, it will never be accepted of him, and in the Hereafter he will be one of the losers. How shall Allaah guide a people who disbelieved after their belief and after they bore witness that the Messenger [Muhammad] is true and clear proofs came to them? And Allaah guides not the people who are Thalimoon [wrong-doers]. They are those whose recompense is that on them (rests) the curse of Allaah, the Angels, and all of Mankind. They will abide therein [Hell]. Neither will their torment be lightened, nor will it be delayed or postponed [for a while]; except for those who repent after that and do righteous deeds. Verily, Allaah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

[Soorah Aali-'Imraan, 3:85-89]

So the religion is Al-Islaam, and Al-Islaam is the Sunnah, thus, the religion is the Sunnah. In this lecture, I will attempt to shed light upon the most important merits of following the Sunnah and entering into it - may Allaah make us and you from its people.

I say, (seeking Allaah’s assistance) the following are from the most important benefits and results of following the Sunnah...
Author’s Introduction
The 1st Benefit:
From Following the Sunnah is Acquiring Protection from Blameworthy Ikhtilaaf and Becoming Distant from the Religion

The blameworthy Ikhtilaaf (differing) is a sign of weakness and the person is not safe from it except by the obedience of Allaah and His Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam). He, The Most High, said:

وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَلَا تِنْزِعُوا فَتْخَافُوا وَتَدْهِبَ رَحْمَتُنَا وَأَصِيبُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الصَّادِقِينَ

And obey Allaah and His Messenger and do not dispute [with one another] lest you lose courage and your strength departs, and be patient. Surely Allaah is with the patient ones.
[Sooratul-Anfal, 8:46]

So, in following the Sunnah and holding onto it is obedience to Allaah and His Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and that is the path of salvation from the blameworthy Ikhtilaaf.

In the Sunan of At-Tirmidhee, The Book of Knowledge, chapter: “What is Reported Concerning Holding onto the Sunnah and Avoiding the Innovations” and Abu Daawood, The Book of Sunnah, chapter: “What's Reported Concerning the Neccessity of the Sunnah,”al-Irbaad Bin Saariyah narrates:
The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) admonished us one day after the morning prayer with an intense admonition that made the eyes shed tears and the hearts shake from it. So a man said: ‘Surely, this is a farewell admonition so what do you leave us with O Messenger of Allaah?’ He replied:

'I advise you to fear Allaah and to hear and obey [your Ameer] even if it be an Ethiopian slave; for surely, he who lives long after me will see a great deal of ikhtilaaf [differing]. So beware of the newly invented matters, for it is misguidance. And whoever reaches that time from among you, then, he must adhere to my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the rightly guided Khulafaa. Hold onto it with your molar teeth.'

And in the wording of Ibn Maajah:

The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: 'I have left you upon a clear matter - its night is like its day, no one strays from it after me except a person who is destroyed.'
Whoever lives long after me will see a great deal of ikhtilaaf, so you must adhere to what you recognize of my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the rightly guided Khulafaa. Hold onto it with your molar teeth. And you must adhere to the obedience [of your Ameer] even if he is an Ethiopian slave. For verily the believer is like the reined camel, wherever he is taken, he follows.'1

The (aforementioned) hadeeth makes the matter of one’s relationship with Allaah clear in his (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) saying: "I advise you to have taqwaa of Allaah."

It makes clear the societal obligation in his (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) saying:

And hearing and obeying [the Ameer] even if it is an Ethiopian slave. For surely, he who lives long after me will see a great deal of ikhtilaaf, so beware of the newly invented matters for it is misguidance. And whoever reaches that [time] from amongst you, then, he must adhere to my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the rightly guided Khulafaa. Hold onto it with your molar teeth.

In the matter of the relationship with one’s self, then its clarification is in the advice of taqwaa and clinging to the Sunnah. This advice points to the excellence of following the Sunnah of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) as well as one of its benefits.

The hadeeth (of Irbaad Bin Saariyah), contains information concerning an affair that will come to be. What is this affair? He (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam)

---

1 al-Haakim (1/93), and al-Albaanee declared it authentic in his notes to al-Mishkaat (no. 186).
sallam) informed us that there will be a lot of differing among the Muslims concerning what (the people) were upon during his time: "Whoever amongst you lives long, then he will see a great deal of ikhtilaaf."

What is the salvation (from this differing)?
What is the liberation (from this differing)?
What is the deliverance (from this differing)?

He said: "He must adhere to my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the rightly guided Khulafaa after me, hold onto it with your molar teeth."

So the first fruit and the first merit of following the Sunnah is that you guard yourself with it (by being) upon what the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and his companions were upon. Also, in order to cling to the Sunnah, you must safeguard yourself from the blameworthy ikhtilaaf and from entering into the affairs of differing and splitting, which Islam disapproves of.

From this standard, set by the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), we learn and we teach to the people: When there comes to you one of the affairs which is obscure to you and you don't know, (ask yourself) is this affair permissible or not? Then look (into it); is this the condition or state that the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and his companions were upon? He (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) taught us this moral precept then said: "Whoever lives long will see a great deal of ikhtilaaf..."

In addition, his saying: "Then he must adhere to my Sunnah" means: "He must cling to my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the rightly guided Khulafaa, for verily, they did not act except in accordance with my Sunnah." Thus, the connection to them is with regards to their acting in accordance with it (the Sunnah) or their finding it out and preferring it (over everything else). Their way was surely the same as his way. Therefore, they were the strictest in desiring it and acting in accordance with it because it related to everything.

They used to protect themselves from opposing him in all circumstances, small or large. When they lacked the daleel (proof, evidence) from the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) they would act upon what was evident to them from ar-ra’ay (opinion), after scrutiny, research, consulting one another and contemplating (over it). Their opinion (after having gone through such painstaking measures to assure its correctness) takes precedence over the opinion of others when there is a lack of daleel (proof/evidence).

Abu Haatim Ibn Hibbaan (radiyallaahu ‘anhu) said:

In his (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) statement, ‘Then you must adhere to my Sunnah,’ mentioning the ikhtilaaf which will come to be in his Ummah - is a clear indication that whosoever persists upon the Sunan (of the Prophet) - he speaks with it and he does not turn toward other than it from the opinions (of men) - is from the saved sect on (the day of) Resurrection. May Allah make us to be from among them by His favour.

He then dedicated a chapter to what is obligatory to cling to from the Sunan of Al-Mustafaa, (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam). The one who does so protects himself from everyone who refuses it (the Sunnah) from the people of bid’ah, even if they make it (bid’ah) look attractive to him...
From Following the Sunnah Is Acquiring Protection from...
The 2\textsuperscript{nd} Benefit:
Following the \textit{Sunnah} and Adhering to it is the Protection from (splitting into) the Sects Whose People are Threatened with the Fire

\textit{Al-Ikhtilaaf} (differing) is linked to the establishment of the sects and groups which the Messenger (\textit{sallallaahu \'alayhi wa sallam}) has dispraised.

Ibn Maajah narrated on the authority of ‘Anas Bin Maalik who said: “The Messenger of Allaah (\textit{sallallaahu \'alayhi wa sallam}) said: ‘Verily the children of Israa’eel split into seventy one sects, and my \textit{Ummah} will split into seventy two sects, all of which will be in the fire except for one - the \textit{Jamaa’ah} [the group which clings to the truth].’”

At-Tirmidhee narrated on the authority of ‘Abdullaah Bin ‘Umar (\textit{radiyallaahu \'anhu}) that he (the Messenger of Allaah (\textit{sallallaahu \'alayhi wa sallam})) said:

There will come to my \textit{Ummah} that which came to the children of Israa’eel in an identical manner. Verily, the children of Israa’eel split into seventy two religious groups, all of which will be in the fire except one. They [the companions] asked ‘Who are they, O Messenger of Allaah?’ He answered: Those who are upon what I and my companions are upon.

On the authority of Ibn Abee Sufyaan who said:
The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) stood before us, then said: ‘Verily, those who came before you from the people of the book split into seventy two religious groups and verily, this religion will split into seventy three religious groups; seventy two [of them] will be in the fire and one will be in Al-Jannah [paradise], and they are the Jamaa’ah.’

2 Hadeeth Hasan due to to supporting evidences; some of them point to the possibility of it being Mutawaatir.

Ahmad in Al-Musnad (4/102); Abu Daawood in Kitaabus-Sunnah, chapter: “Explanation of the Sunnah,” #4597; Al-Aajuree in Ash-Sharee’ah (linked edition) 1/32 #13; the checker of Jaami’ul’Usool declared its isnaad authentic (10/32); Al-Albaanee in Silsilatil Ahaadeeth As-Saheehah, #204, mentioned a group from the ahaadeeth that are witnesses for it. See Nathim Al-Mutanaathir pg. 32-34.

Additional benefit: Ibn Taymiyyah, may Allaah have mercy on him, said in Majmoo al-Fataawaa, 3:346-34, among other things concerning the “hadeeth of the splitting”:

As for the particularization of these sects, then, the people have made compilations concerning them and they have mentioned them in the treatises, but the authoritative assertion that this described sect is one of the seventy two sects, must be proven. Verily, Allaah has prohibited speaking without knowledge, both generally and specifically. He, The Most High, said:

قَلْ إِنِّي حَرَّمْتُ عَلَيْكُمْ مَا طَلَّبَ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَمَا بَطَّنَ مِنْهُ وَلَا سَئِلْتُ عَنْهُ مَا لَنْ تَعْلَمُوا عَلَيْهِ وَلَا تَحْكَمُوا عَلَيْهِ مَا لَا تَقْدِرُونَ

Say: my Rabb has forbidden Al-Fawaahish [great evil sins and every kind of unlawful sexual intercourse] whether committed openly or secretly, sins, unrighteous oppression, joining partners with Allaah in worship for which he has given no authority and saying about Allaah of which you have no knowledge.

[Sooratul-A’raaf, 7:33]

And He, The Most High, said: ٥٦
Following the Sunnah and Adhering to It Is a Protection...

O Mankind! Eat of that which is good and lawful on the earth, and follow not the footsteps of Shaytaan. Verily, he is an open enemy to you. He commands you only what is evil and fahshaa [sinful] and that you should say against Allaah that which you know not.

[Sooratul-Baqarah, 2:168-159]

And He, The Most High, said:

And follow not that of which you have no knowledge.

[Sooratul-Israa, 17:36]

The Shaykh also said,

So most of the people create or follow these sects based on conjecture and desires. Therefore, an individual makes his group and links it to the one whom he follows, making it (the following) for him, calling himself and his followers Ahlus-Sunnah wal Jamaa’ah (because they follow whom he follows), and he makes whoever opposes it to be Ahlul-Bid’ah. This is clear misguidance, for verily Ahlul-Haqq was-Sunnah have none whom they follow except the Messenger of Allaah, may peace be upon him - the one who does not speak from desires but rather from revelation. He is the one whom it is obligatory to affirm everything he informed of, and obey all that he commanded with, this status (unrestricted following) is only for him (from the the Imams – leaders). Rather, everyone from mankind can be taken from or abandoned except the Messenger of Allaah, may peace be upon him. Whoever makes the Messenger of Allaah, may peace be upon him, the authority, that is, whoever loves him and agrees with him is from Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa’ah, and whoever opposes him is from Ahlul-Bid’ah wal-Firqah. Likewise, whoever is found following what is found in the groups - following the Imams in Al-Kalaam (conjecture) with regard to the deen, among other things - is from Ahlul-Bid’ah wad-Dalaalah wat-Tafarruq (the people of innovation, misguidance and splitting).
Following the Sunnah and Adhering to It Is a Protection.

So in this hadeeth is clarification that adhering to his Sunnah is protection from the blameworthy splitting, of which its people are threatened with the fire.

The first benefit deals with the issue of al-ikhtilaaf – establishing what it is; however, it is not linked to splitting. Your following of the Sunnah will save you from (falling into) al-ikhtilaaf.

Here, in the second benefit, is the mentioning of sects, and in this piece of evidence from the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) is a miracle and a confirmation of his Prophethood (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) since the affair happened just as he (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said and sects have appeared. These sects include the Khawaarij, the Mu’tazilah, the Murji’ah, the Jahmiyyah, the Raafidhah, among others - many sects have appeared. The Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) informed that these sects will reach seventy three (in number) all of which will be in the fire except for one; which one? “It is (the sect) which is upon what I and my companions are upon.”

Consequently, in this is an exaltation of following the Sunnah, is it not?

In it is a clarification of one of the benefits of following the Sunnah, is it not?

Certainly there is, in it, an exaltation of following the Sunnah and an encouragement for the Muslims to strive for the Sunnah. So it is upon them, if they want salvation (from the fire), to be upon what the

---

3 The 1st Benefit: From Following the Sunnah is Acquiring Protection from Blameworthy Ikhtilaaf and Becoming Distant From the Religion

4 For an overview of the aforementioned founding groups of innovation, refer to A Glimpse at the Deviant Sects, Dr. Saalih al-Fawzaan. Salafi Publications.
Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) and his companions were upon. Hence, this is one of the benefits of following the Sunnah.

And from the important (matters) here, is the fact that his (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) statement, "All of them will be in the fire except one," is from the chapter, "The Expressions of Threat." Accordingly, the sects are threatened with the Fire in his (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) saying: "All of them will be in the Fire except one." This is their punishment. If Allaah wishes, He will punish them, and if He wishes, he will forgive them. Just as He, The Most High, said:

\[
\text{Verily, Allaah forgives not that partners should be set up with Him [in worship], but He forgives except that [anything else] to whom He wills.}
\]

[Sooratun-Nisaa, 4:48]

Al-Aajuree Muhammad Bin Al-Husayn (D. 360 AH) (rahimahullaah) said:

So the intelligent believer strives hard to be from the saved sect - he follows the Book of Allaah, and the Sunan (pl. of Sunnah) of His Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), the Sunan of his Companions, and the Sunan of the Taabi’een after them, (following them) in goodness. He also follows the statements of the Imaams of the Muslims from whom there is no aversion to their mention, like Sufyaan Ath-Thawree, Al-Awzaa’ee, Maalik Bin ‘Anas, Ash-Shaafi’ee, Ahmad Bin Hanbal, Abu ‘Ubayd Al-Qaasim Bin Salaam, and whoever was upon their way from the scholars. So whatever they rejected, we reject it (also), and

---

5 Quoted from Majmoo’ al-Fataawaa 7/217-21B
whatever they accepted and spoke with, we accept it and speak with it (also). We abandon everything else.⁶

---

On the authority of Abu Hurayrah (radiyallaahu ‘anhu): “The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: ‘I have left two things among you, you will never go astray after them: the Book of Allaah and my Sunnah, and they will remain until they return to me at the Hawd.’”

On the authority of Ibn ‘Abbaas (radiyallaahu ‘anhu): “The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) addressed the people during the

7 Ad-Daraqutnee in his Sunan (4/245), Al-Haakim in Al-Mustadrak (1/264 #324), Al-Bayhaqee in As-Sunan Al-Kubraa (10/114), and he said in Majma Az-Zaw’id (9/163): “Al-Bazzaar reported it, in it is Saalih bin Moosaa At-Talhee and he is weak.”

And the version from Al-Haakim is: on the authority of Abu Saalih from Abu Hurayrah (radiyallaahu ‘anhu) who said: “The Messenger of Allaah, may peace be upon him, said: ‘I have left two things among you, you will never go astray after them: the Book of Allaah and my Sunnah, and they will remain until they return to me at the Hawd.’”

I say: In the chain, with each of them, there is Saalih Bin Moosaa, but Al-Haakim and Al-Bayhaqee narrate in the same place, on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbaas: “O people, verily I left among you something, if you cling to it you will never go astray, ever: the Book of Allaah and the Sunnah of His Prophet. It is a sound witness. It has come in Al-Muwatta’ in Kitaabul-Jaami’, Chapter: ‘The Prohibition of the Speech Concerning Al-Qadr,” on the authority of Maalik that it reached him that the Messenger of Allaah, may peace be upon him, said: ‘I have left two affairs among you, whoever adheres to them will never go astray: the Book of Allaah and the Sunnah of His Prophet’. So the hadeeth, inshaa Allaah, rises to the level of hasan due to supporting witnesses.
Adhering to the Sunnah Is the Attainment of Guidance...

farewell Hajj, then he said: ‘O people, verily I left among you something, if you cling to it you will never go astray, ever: the Book of Allaah and the Sunnah of His Prophet (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam).’

On the authority of Katheer Bin ‘Amr Bin Awf, from his father, from his grandfather: “The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: ‘I left two affairs among you, whoever adheres to them will never go astray: the Book of Allaah and the Sunnah of His Prophet (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam).’”

On the authority of Abu Umaamah: “The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: ‘Never has a people who were upon the guidance gone astray except that they were given to argumentation.’

Then he recited:

وَقَالَوْا ِهِلْكَ لِيُمَا صَرَّفُوهُ لَكَ إِلَّا جَدَالًا

They did not make the parable for you except as an argument. Nay, but they are a quarrelsome people.

[Sooratuz-Zukruf, 43:58]

The Book of Allaah and the Sunnah guides whosoever adheres to them.

These ahaadeeth convey the meaning that, in following the Prophetic Sunnah, there is safety from misguidance: “I have left two things among you, you will never go astray after them: the Book of Allaah and my Sunnah and they will remain until they return to me at the Hawd.”

8 Al-Bayhaqee, see what preceeded.

9 Ibn ‘Abdul-Daar in At-Tamheed
Thus, in this hadeeth there is a glad tiding for whoever follows the Messenger (sallallahu 'alayhi wa sallam) and adheres to it (his Sunnah). (In it is a glad tiding) that it will be an inviter and a guide to the Hawd, in the courtyards, on the Day of Resurrection: meaning the Prophet's Hawd (sallallahu 'alayhi wa sallam) and this is one of the great merits of adhering to and following the Messenger's Sunnah (sallallahu 'alayhi wa sallam).

Ibn Taymiyyah, may Allaah have mercy on him, said:

The Imaams of the Muslims, like Maalik, Hammaad Bin Zayd, Ath-Thawree, and those similar to them used to speak with what the Messenger (sallallahu 'alayhi wa sallam) came with, and in it is the guidance and the cure. Thus, whoever has no knowledge of the Muslim's way, who exchanges what these [Imaams] were upon [for his way of ignorance], falls into destruction because this [concealing of the traditions of the Muslims] is the cause of the appearance of innovations in every community. And for this [reason] they [the Imaams of guidance] use to say: ‘Clinging to the Sunnah is salvation.’

Maalik (radiyallaahu 'anhu) said: “The Sunnah is like the ark of Nooh, whoever embarks upon it is saved, and whoever abandons it is destroyed.”

This is true, for a surety. In the story of the ark of Nooh, only he who believed in the Messengers and followed them embarked upon it (the ark), and he who did not embark upon it had disbelieved in the Messengers. Following the Sunnah is following the message which came from Allaah. Therefore, following it is like the status of he who embarks upon the ark of Nooh inwardly and outwardly. The one who stays away from following the message is like he who stays away from following Nooh, peace be upon him, and does not embark upon the ark with him.

So when the believer reflects upon all of the statements of the philosophers and others from the nations (that passed), he finds that the Qur'aan and the Sunnah exposes their true condition – their statements are full of misguidance and disbelief. The Qur'aan and Sunnah distinguish between the truthfulness and falsehood in their statements.

The Sahaabah were the most knowledgeable of creation due to that (their following of the Sunnah) just as they were the most correct of the creation in terms of jihaadul-kuffaar wal-munaafiqueen (striving against the disbelievers and the hypocrites), just as ‘Abdullaah bin Mas’ood said about them:

If you want to follow an example then follow the example of the deceased, for verily the living are not safe from falling into fitnah. They [the deceased] are the Companions of Muhammad. Of this Ummah, they had the most righteous hearts, the deepest knowledge and were the least in terms of hypocrisy [or pretending to be what they were not]. Allaah chose them to accompany his Prophet and establish His religion. Therefore, become familiar with their virtue, and adhere to their guidance, for verily, they were upon the straight, unwavering guidance.10

---

10 Ibn ‘Abdil-Baar in At-Tamheed
In Adherence to the Sunnah Is Entrance under the Name...

The 4th Benefit:
Adherence to the Sunnah is Entrance under the Name of the Prophet, (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), and its Abandonment is an Exit from His Name

The Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Whoever turns away from [dislikes] my Sunnah is not from me." This statement has a story (that goes along with it):

The two Shaykhs (Al-Bukharee and Muslim) conveyed the hadeeth, and Al-Bukharee's version is: On the authority of 'Anas Bin Maalik (radiyallaahu 'anhu):

Three people came to the houses of the wives of the Prophet (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) inquiring about the Prophet's (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) worship. When they were informed they thought little of it. So they said: 'How far are we from the Prophet (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) indeed his past and future sins have been forgiven for him.' One of them said: 'As for me, I pray the entire night.' Another said: 'I fast and do not break my fast.' Another said: 'I will keep away from women and never get married.' So the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) came to them and said: 'Are you those who said such and such things? Wallaahi! I have more khashya of Allaah than you [I am more fearful], and I have more taqwa of Allaah than you [I am more dutiful], yet I fast and I break my fast, I pray and I sleep, and I marry women. So whoever turns away from [dislikes] my Sunnah is not from me.‘
In Adherence to the Sunnah Is Entrance under the Name...

To abandon the Sunnah is to dislike it; to abandon it after (acquiring) knowledge of it is also to dislike it. Disliking the Messenger’s (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah, is of two levels:

1. Sometimes it will be at the level of disobedience (ma’siyah) and
2. (Sometimes) it will be at the level of disbelief, and Allaah’s refuge is sought.

If you abandon it (the Sunnah), shunning it, denying it, and degrading it, then, you have diminished the religion, and diminishing the religion is a type of disbelief, and shunning the religion is a type of disbelief, and Allaah’s refuge is sought.

As for if you abandon the Sunnah out of neglect and laziness, not believing it to be inadequate or imperfect, then your (ruling) is in accordance with this (particular) Sunnah which you left off. If you abandon an obligation, then upon you is the sin of this obligation (being left off). If you abandon a recommended act, then you have had the excellence of the recommended act pass you by. If you devote yourself and persist upon abandoning the recommended acts, then the people of knowledge from the four Madhaahib (plural of madhab, school of thought) have questioned your integrity and declared you to be a sinner or evil-doer for abandoning the Sunnah.

It has been reported that Al-Imaam Ahmad Bin Hanbal, may Allaah have mercy on him, was asked about the one who abandones or devotes himself to abandoning Salatul-witr and not praying it. In his (the Shaykh’s) opinion, it is a recommended act, not an obligatory one. He answered: "That is an evil man, his witness is not accepted, he abandons a Sunnah."
In Adherence to the Sunnah Is Entrance under the Name...

Due to that we alert the people: Do not understand from the speech of the scholars that the Sunnah (is that which, if done) the one who acts upon it is rewarded, and the one who leaves it off is not punished. This speech emanates from one who neglects the Sunnah. We say: No, the scholars did not intend this. Verily, they intended to clarify (what is) Sunnah, obligatory, forbidden and disliked (deeds). They intended by this classification, simply to identify the levels of conditions and situations (not to isolate or restrict them). They distinguish that the (recommended) Sunnah is that which, if done, the one who acts upon it is rewarded and the one who leaves it off is not punished. They make a distinction between the one who devotes himself to abandoning the Sunan and the one who leaves it off occasionally. Due to that Al-Imaam Ahmad Bin Hanbal and others from the Imaams of the truth have said: “Never has a hadeeth from the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) reached us except that we acted upon it, even if it was one time.”

Why did they enact this? Why did they say this?

In order that they be counted among the companions of the Sunnah, in order that they be counted among the companions of this hadeeth. Due to that, it is from the benefits and virtues of acting upon the Sunnah that the one who acts upon it is counted among its people.
In Adherence to the Sunnah Is Entrance under the Name...
The 5th Benefit:
In the Excellence of the Sunnah and Following It Is Freedom from the Paths of the Shaytaan

On the authority of Ibn Mas’ood (radiyallaahu ‘anhu):

The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) drew a line for us, then he said: ‘This is the path of Allaah.’ Then he drew lines from its left and its right. Then he drew small lines from the left and right of this line. Then he (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: ‘This is my path [indicating the long line].’ And he said: ‘This is my path, and these paths [indicating the other lines], upon every one of them is a Shaytaan calling to it.’ Then he recited:

وَأَنَّ هَنِذَا صِرَطِيُّ مُسْتَقِيمًا فَاتَّبِعُوهُ وَلَا تَتَّبِعُوا آَلَضَيْنِ فَتَفَرَّقُكُمْ عَن سَبِيلِهِ

And verily, this is my straight path, so follow it, and follow not other paths for they will separate you from His path. This He has ordained for you that you may become Al-Mutaqoon.

[Sooratul-An’aam, 6:153]

Thus, whoever followed the Messenger’s (sallalaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah follows the straight path and is saved from the paths of the Shayaateen. The Messenger (sallalaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) drew these lines and made it a parable for the people so that the importance of following his Sunnah is clear to them. So he drew a line (which represents his Sunnah), then he drew lines on its sides. Therefore, the Sunnah is a long road, not a short line.

Due to that, there are those who hasten their da'wah, hastening for results before following and applying the Sunnah. They say: “O brother, we spent time learning the hadeeth, applying the hadeeth and acting upon the Sunnah. However, the signs of this are not found; the societies have not changed!”

So I say to you: O brother! There is no harm in that. Don’t you see that the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), when he made the parable of his Sunnah and his path, he likened it to a "long path?" Also, when he made the parable of the other paths, he likened them to "short paths" on its sides (the sides of the long path)? So do not be fooled and do not think that your following of these paths, which are in opposition to the Sunnah, will connect you to the results (you desire)! Some of the people think that by this method, which contradicts the Sunnah of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) they will immediately be linked to the aim of the da’wah!

All of these (paths) are invitations from the Shaytaan - he tempts you, opens the doors for you and deceives you. He makes you believe that this path (which is in opposition to the Sunnah) has a quick outcome and is a short path. As for the path of the Sunnah, O brother, then it is undoubtedly a long path (that is surrounded by hardship), but it is a straight path which takes its traveller to Al-Jannah (paradise) and saves him from the Fire.

This is the path of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), if you want it, cling to it, but it is a long path. It is upon you to be patient and follow the (correct) path because it was from the general advice to all of the believers. Allaah, glorified, The Most High, mentioned in His saying:

وَالْعَصْرِ إِنَّ الْإِنسَانَ لَيْسَ فِي خَسَرٍ إِلَّا أَلْلَهُ يُهْرِبُونَ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّلَاحٍ وَتَوَاصُوا

By the time, verily man is in loss, except those who believe and do righteous good deeds and recommend one another to the truth and recommend one another to patience.

[Sooratul-'Asr, 103:1-3]

Thereafter, it is a must to have patience in the affair of da'wah.

The path of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) and the manhaj of the prophets regarding ad-da'wah is not a quick methodology in which you seek to hasten its outcome. It is not a methodology that is completed between a day and a night or between one and two years. Rather, it is a long, but straight path. As for the paths of the Shayateen, then surely, all of them are short, deceiving you with their brevity. You will be deluded into thinking that these short paths will bring you quick results.

Hence, the path of the Sunnah is a long path and it is upon you to follow and traverse it. You must mutually encourage your brothers with the truth regarding it and encourage them with patience in traversing it.
Therefore, following the Sunnah is a source of protection and liberation for you from the paths of the Shaytaan.

Naasirud-Deen Ahmad Bin Muhammad, who was known by the name
Ibnul-Muneer (D. 683), may Allaah have mercy on him, said:

From the obligatory rights upon all the people without exception is the propagation of the Sunnah. The one who took it [directly from its source] carries it to the majority [of the people], and the one who witnesses [the dissemination of the knowledge] conveys it to the one who was absent. The Messenger of Allah (sallallahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: 'May Allaah brighten a man who hears my saying, understands it, then conveys it just as he heard it. So, perhaps the one to whom it is conveyed may understand it better than the one who heard it.' Therefore, the task of the ignorant one, with regards to this trust, is that he takes it [the knowledge] to its people completely and with submission. Also, the task of the intelligent one is that he takes it to one who will probably be more skilled than him in terms of understanding and instruction.

Let him beware of withholding (knowledge) with the belief that he is the greatest, for above every knowledgeable person is one who is more knowledgeable. As long as he thinks that there is nothing beyond his status, he will prevent the blessing of his, The Mighty and Majestic, in His saying:

وَقُلْ رَبِّ زِدْنِي عَلْمًا

And say: My Lord, increase me in knowledge.
[Soorah Taa Haa, 20:114]

And the Rabbaaniyyoon (scholars) were firm in (times of) extreme anxiety and fear, and they guarded against weakness which is refused today by the foolish one. Imaam Maalik, may Allaah have mercy on him, was the most knowledgeable at that time, but it was simple for him to acknowledge what he did not know concerning a matter. He advised the most superior and exemplary (of the people) with it, saying: "The jannah [paradise] of the scholar is [the statement] 'I don’t know,' so when he misses it [i.e. issues a fatwaa wrongly as opposed to saying I don’t know] it will kill him or cause his death.”

Ibn Taymiyyah, may Allaah have mercy on him, said: “All of these misguided matters will only harm whoever does not cling to the Book and the Sunnah, just as Az-Zuhree used to say: 'Clinging to the Sunnah is salvation."

Maalik said: “The Sunnah is [like] the ark of Nooh, whoever embarks upon it is saved, and whoever stays away from it drowns.” That is to say, the Sunnah, Sharee’ah (legislation) and Manhaj (methodology) are the straight path which links the servant to Allaah, and the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) is the guide along this path, just as Allaah, The Exalted, said:

\[
\text{إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَاكُمْ شَهِيدًا وَمُبَيِّنَةً وَرَمَيْنَاكُمْ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ،}
\]
\[
\text{إِلَىِّ اللَّهِ بِذَٰلِكَ يَوْمَ الْيَوْمِ}.
\]

Verily, We have sent you as a witness, and a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. And as one who invites to Allaah by His permission, and a lamp spreading light.

[Sooratul-Ahzaab, 33:45-46]

He, The Exalted, said:

\[
\text{إِنَّكُ لِبَشْرٍ إِلَىِّ سَبِيلِ مِسْتَقِيمٍ،}
\]
\[
\text{صَرِّحَ اتَّبِعْنَا وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ.}
\]
\[
\text{أَلَّا إِلَىِّ اللَّهِ تَصَدِّرُ الأَمْوَرِ.}
\]

11 Al-Bukharee, Al-Mutawaaree, Alaa Taraajum Abwaab, pg. 34-35
Verily, you are indeed guiding to the straight path. The path of Allaah to Whom belongs all that is in the Heaven and all that is on the Earth. Verily, all matters at the end go to Allaah (for decision).

[Sootatush-Shoorah, 42:52-53]

Abdullah Bin Mas’ood said:

The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) drew a line, then he drew lines on its right and left, and said: ‘This is the path of Allaah, and these paths, upon each one of them there is a Shaytaan inviting to it.’ Then he recited:

وَأَنَّ هَذَا صُرُطِي مُسْتَقِيمًا فَاتْبَعُونَهُ وَلَا تَتَبَطَّأُوا أَسْتُبِرُّوا فَتَفَقَّرُوا بِكَمْ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ

And verily, this is my straight path, so follow it and follow not other paths for they will separate you from his path. This He has ordained for you that you may become Al-Mutaqoon.

[Sooratul-An’aam, 6:153]

When the intelligent one, who hopes for the meeting with Allaah, ponders upon this parable and he reflects upon the rest of the sects from the Khawaarij, the Mu’tazilah, the Jahmiyyah, and the Raafidah, and whoever is closer to the Sunnah than them from Ahlul-Kalaam, like the Karraamiyyah, the Kulaabiyyah and the Ash’ariyyah,12 he realizes that each of them has a path which they claim to be correct, but they leave that which the Companions (of the Prophet) and Ahlul-Hadeeth were upon. You find that the meaning of the parable constructed by the infallible one (the Prophet - sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), the one who does not speak 12 Likewise, the groups of differing until this day of ours.

from desires, rather, from Revelation, was indeed intended for (the deviated sects).
In the Excellence of the Sunnah and Following It Is...
The 6th Benefit:

In Following the Sunnah is the Attainment of the Prescribed Law and the Deen

The Deen means: That you do not worship anything except Allaah and that you do not worship Him except with what He prescribed. For us, there is no path to the recognition of the prescribed law other than the mighty Qur’aan and the Prophetic Sunnah. Due to this, the various acts of worship are tawqefiyyah (restricted to the texts of the Qur’aan and the Sunnah). It is no wonder that Aa’ishah (radiyallaahu ‘anha) said (describing the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam)): “His character was the Qur’aan.”

His (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah includes every aspect of the Deen. Thus, it is the explainer of the mighty Qur’aan. Allaah, the Blessed and Exalted, said:

وَأَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الْبِرَاءَةَ لِتَنْبِيِّنَ لِلْمَأْمَّةِ

And We have also sent down to you (O Muhammad) the Dhikr, that you may explain clearly to mankind what is sent down to them and that they may give thought.

[Sooratun-Nahl, 16:44]
And He, The Most High, said:

وَمَا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ إِلَّا لِيُبَيِّنَ لِأَنْبِيَاتِ هُمْ الَّذِينَ أُخْلِفْوَا فِيهِ وَهُدُّي

And We have not sent down the Book (Qur’an) to you (O Muhammad), except that you may explain clearly unto them those things in which they differ, and as a guidance and a mercy for a folk who believe.

[Sooratun-Nahl, 16:64]

The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) made wudhoo’ and said: “This is my wudhoo’ and the wudhoo’ of the prophets before me, whoever adds to this or takes away from it has acted evilly and oppressively.”

The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prayed, and he said:

صلوا كما رأيتُ أصلي

“Pray as you have seen me praying.”

And he (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said:

إِنِّي بُعِيِّنْتُ لَأَنْتَ مُكَارِمَ الأخلاق

“Verily, I was sent to complete good manners.”

---

13 Editor’s note: This hadeeth has been graded severely week. Bukhaaree graded it Munkar al-Hadeeth, Yahyaa Ibn Ma’een: Dha’eeef, An-Nisaa’ee: Laysa bithiqah (untrustworthy).
14 Found in: Musnad Ahmad (2/381); al-Mustadrak (4280); al-Adab al-Mufrad (273); Shu’ab al-Eemaan (7609); Sharh Mushkil al-Aathaar (5194); on the authority of Abu Hurayrah, with the wording: (صلح الأخلاق), which does not affect the meaning as translated above.
In Following the Sunnah is the Attainment of the...

He (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) also said:

أَفْشَوْا الشَّلاَمَ، وَأَطْعَوْا الْطَّعَامَ، وَصَلُوْا الأَرْحَامَ، وَصَلُوْا بِالْلَّيْلِ وَالْيَمِينَ، تَدْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ

"Spread the salaams among yourselves, feed the needy, pray during the night while the people are asleep, and enter [as a result of these actions] into the garden of your Lord in peace."

Ibn Taymiyyah, may Allaah have mercy on him, said:

Due to this, the Fuqahaa have said that the acts of worship are but upon At-Tawqeef [restricted to the texts of the Qur’aan and Sunnah], just as what is found in the two authentic collections of hadith concerning ‘Umar Bin Al-Khattaab (radiyallaahu ‘anhu).

He kissed the black stone and said: 'Wallahi, I know that you are a stone, you do not harm nor do you benefit, and had I not seen the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) kissing you, I surely would not have kissed you.'

Allaah, The Glorified and Most High, commanded us with following the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), obeying him, having allegiance to him, loving him and making Allaah and his Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) the most beloved to us. He guaranteed that by following him and loving him, we will receive (as a result) Allaah's love and generosity. He, The Most High, said:

Also in: Musnad al-Bazzaar (according to al-Haythamee in Majma' az-Zawaa'id, 8/412); Musnad ash-Shihaab (1165); al-Fawaa'id (376) of Tammaam ar-Raazee; on the authority of Abu Hurayrah (may Allaah be pleased with him), with the exact wording: (ما كفر الأخلاق).

Authenticated in: al-Mustadrak (2/720); at-Tamheed (15/30); Silsilatul-Ahaadeethis-Saheehah (45).
In Following the Sunnah is the Attainment of the...

Say, if you really love Allaah then follow me, Allaah will love you and forgive you your sins.

[Soorah Aali-'Imraan, 3:31]

And He, The Most High, said:

وَإِنَّكَ تَطَمِّعُوْهُ تَهَّنِئَنَّـٔاَوَأَ

And if you obey him you will be guided.

[Sooratun-Noor, 24:54]

He, The Most High, also said:

وَمَن يَطَعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ يُدْخِلَهُ جَنَّاتَ النَّورِ مِن تَحِيَّتِهَا آنِيَهُ خَلَدَبًـِٔ بِهَا

وَذَٰلِكَ الْفُؤَادُ الْعَظِيمُ

And whoever obeys Allaah and His Messenger, Allaah will enter him into gardens under which rivers flow to abide therein, that is the great success.

[Sooratun-Nisaa, 4:13]

There are many examples of this in the Qur’aan. Therefore, it is not appropriate that anyone deviates regarding this from what the Sunnah clarifies, what the Sharee’ah came with, what the Book and the Sunnah prove and what the Salaf of the Ummah were upon. Whatever he (the individual) has knowledge of he speaks with it, and whatever he does not know he refrains from (speaking about) it. He does not take a stance on that which he has no knowledge of nor does he say of Allaah that which he does not know, for verily, Allaah the Blessed and Exalted forbade all of that.
In Following the Sunnah is the Attainment of the...

So from the benefits of following the Sunnah is that you attain the entire religion by following it.

Verily, the testimony "None has the right to be worshipped except Allaah and that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger" comprises two matters.

1. That we do not worship other than Allaah
2. That we do not worship Him except with what He has legislated

Verily, these two matters are those which the Deen is established upon.

Did we not clarify that? Consequently, al-ittibaa' (following) is that we do not worship except with what he [Muhammad (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam)] legislated. The realization of this principle does not occur except by following the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) and it is the meaning of the second part of the Shahaadah: “I bear witness that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allaah.” So there is no path to knowledge of Allaah except by way of following the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and following the Messenger occurs by grasping hold of his (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah. That is why the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), said: “Whoever does an action which is not from our affair, then that action is rejected.”

This means, one gets closer to Allaah by way of an affair, so examine this affair, is it from the affairs which the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) sought nearness with or not? So when you find that it is like that then it is accepted, inshaa'Allaah, if you fulfill the conditions of acceptance (ikhlaas and itibaa'). If you find the affair is not like that, then, you reject it. For this reason, the people of knowledge have ruled that those who seek nearness to Allaah by way of newly invented matters, meaning, by way of innovations, their acts of worship will not be accepted. Why? Because the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever does an action which is not from our affair, then, it is rejected.” Therefore, to follow the Messenger's (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah is to grasp the entire Deen.

The Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) taught us how to make wudhoo' and how to pray and he taught us good manners and good character. He taught us, when he entered Al-Madeenah, that we should “spread the salaams, feed the needy, and pray while the people are asleep and as a result, (we will) enter Al-Jannah (paradise) with salaam (peace).”

And he taught us saying: “Verily, I have been sent to complete good manners.”

He (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) taught us siyaam (fasting), zakaah (giving charity), and the affairs of the Deen. Thus, when you follow the Messenger's (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah, you grasp the affairs of the religion.

Ibn 'Abdil-Barr (D. 463H) said: "This is an authentic Madeenan hadeeth, and he includes in this meaning: righteousness, all goodness, the Deen, virtue, manliness, al-ihsaan [perfection, the highest level of faith] and justice. So he (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) was sent in order to perfect this."

The scholars have said: Verily, an aayah which includes righteousness, virtue, nobility and good character is in His, the Mighty and Majestic, saying:
Verily, Allaah enjoins Al-Adl [justice] and Al-Ihsaan [perfection] and giving (help) to kith and kin, and he forbids from Al-Fahshaa [all evil deeds] and Al-Munkar [all that is prohibited by Islamic law] and Al-baghy [all kinds of oppression and transgression]. He admonishes you, that you may take heed.

[Sooratun-Nahl, 16:90]

It has been related to us from Aa’ishah - Ibn Wahb and others mentioned that she said: "Noble character is truthful speech, friendliness with people, giving to the beggar, giving gifts, preserving the trust, preserving the ties of kinship, protecting one’s companions, hospitality to the guest, and al-hayaa [modesty] is the head of them."

She (also) said: "And certainly, noble character may be in a man and not in his son, it may be in his son and not in him (the father). And certainly it may be in a servant and not in his master; Allaah has distributed it to whomsoever He wants."

I say: The Sunnah of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) is the Deen as has been discussed, and it is the explanation of what is in the great Qur’aan, and certainly his (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) character was the Qur’aan just as the Mother of the Believers, Aa’ishah (radiyallaahu ‘anha) said.

Ibn Taymiyyah said:

\[\text{15 Tahmeed 24/324}\]
Due to this, the Fuqahaa have said: ‘The acts of worship are built upon At-Tawqeef [restricted to the texts] just as what is found in the two authentic collections of hadeeth concerning 'Umar Bin Al-Khattaab (radiyallaahu 'anhu) that he kissed the black stone and said: 'Wallaahi, I know that you are a stone, you do not harm nor do you benefit, and had I not seen the Messenger of Allaah, (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam), kissing you, I surely would not have kissed you.'

Allaah, glorified, The Most High, commanded us to follow the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) - obey him, have allegiance to him, love him and make Allaah and His Messenger more beloved to us than anything else. He guaranteed us that by following him and loving him (that we will receive as a result) Allaah’s love and generosity. He, The Most High, said:

قُلِ إنَّ كُنْتُمْ تُحِبُونَ اللَّهَ فَأَتِمُّواْ نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ ذُنُوبُكُمْ أَنْ تُطَّلِعُواْ تَهْتَدُواْ

Say, if you really love Allaah follow me, Allaah will love you and forgive you your sins.
[Soorah Aali-'Imraan, 3:31]

And He, The Most High, said:

وَإِنَّ تُطِيعُوهُ تَهْتَدُواْ

And if you obey him you will be guided.
[Sooratun-Noor, 24:54]

He, The Most High, also said:
In Following the Sunnah is the Attainment of the...

And whoever obeys Allaah and His Messenger, He will enter him in gardens under which rivers flow, to abide therein, that is the great success.

[Sooratun-Nisaa, 4:13]

It is not appropriate for anyone to deviate regarding this, from what the Sunnah clarifies, what the Sharee’ah came with, what the Book and the Sunnah prove and what the Salaf of the Ummah were upon. Whatever he has knowledge of he speaks with it, and whatever he does not know he refrains from (speaking about) it. He does not take a stance on that which has no knowledge of, nor does he say of Allaah that which he does not know. For verily, Allaah, the Blessed and Exalted, forbade all of that.\(^{16}\)

\(^{16}\) Qaa’idatun Jalelatun Fit-Tawassul wal-Waseelah, p.270-271
In Following the Sunnah is the Attainment of the...
The 7th Benefit:
Following the Sunnah Removes Humiliation and Insignificance from the Ummah

This is because the Sunnah is the Deen and abandoning the Deen is one of the causes of humiliation and insignificance.

Imaam Ahmad collected in the Musnad and so did Abu Daawood in his Sunan, a hadeeth recounted on the authority of Ibn ‘Umar who said:

I heard the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) saying: ‘When you do business in Al-Eenah, and you hold onto the tails of cows, and you become pleased with agriculture, and you abandon Al-Jihaad, Allaah will inflict humiliation upon you and He will not remove it until you return to your Deen.’ And the return to the Sunnah is the return to the Deen.17

In the long hadeeth of Jibreel, which is (known as) Ummus-Sunnah, after he (the Prophet (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam)) mentioned the pillars of Eemaan, Al-Islam and Al-Ihsaan, he said: “This is Jibreel, he came to teach you your religion Deen.”

The Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) informed us of an affair that will come to be, and he informed us of the outcome (that will result from this affair. He said: “When you do business dealing in Al-Eenah.”

Al-Eenah is a type of business transaction in which a commodity is sold while its source remains with the seller and the seller buys it back from the person who bought it from him. It is as though a person goes to a car owner while he is (himself) in need of money, so he says to the car owner: “Sell me this car for $20,000 on an installment plan.” So he sells him the car for $20,000. The (original) car owner knows that the buyer does not want the car; he wants the money (as he is in more need of the money). So he says: “I am buying this car back from you for $15,000 cash.” So in reality, he took the $15,000 cash conditioned by a deferred payment of $20,000 (so the original seller has the car back and the buyer still owes him $5,000 more than he sold the car back for, due to him being locked into his installment plan). Is this not happening?

This is Bay’ul-Eenah (credit operation). It is called ‘Eenah because the ‘Ain (source) of the commodity being sold is not transferred from the custody of its owner.

The Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) called it Bay’ul-Eenah from the chapter, “The Inclination to the Occurrence of Forbidden Transactions” because it is not found with us in the transactions regarding buying and selling except (concerning) sale and interest. So the sign of the forbidden sale is Ar-Ribaa, and from it is Bay’ul-Eenah.

He (the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam)) said: “When you do business dealing in Al-Eenah, and you hold onto the tails of cows.” It used to be, and it still is today, that in some of the lands cattle and oxen pull plows. The farmer walks behind the cattle, and holds the plow as it bores into the ground until it (the ground) turns over. So the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) interpreted the reliance upon the dunyaa as “following the tails of cows,” meaning, you are becoming like the people of agriculture, the people of the dunyaa who chase after money. So you sit on the ground and abandon Al-Jihaad. He said: “When you do business dealing in Al-Eenah, and you hold onto the tails of cows, and you abandon Al-Jihaad.” It comprises three matters:

1. When you do business dealing in Al-Eenah. We say: This is the sign of the prohibited interest-based transactions.

2. And you hold onto the tails of cows, meaning: the reliance on the dunyaaa.

3. And abandoning Al-Jihaad.

What is the outcome of these affairs when they are found in society? The answer is in the Messenger’s (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) saying: “Allaah will inflict humiliation upon you and He will not remove it until you return to your Deen.”

Hence, following the Sunnah is returning to the Deen, and returning to the Deen is a cause for the removal of humiliation from us.

Following the Sunnah is a cause for the removal of humiliation from the Ummah of the Muslims. Grasping the Sunnah of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), observing it, being in conformity with it, desiring and holding onto what he (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) came with is a cause for the removal of humiliation from the Muslims - this is one of the benefits of following the Sunnah. The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) informed us of this in the aforementioned hadeeth.

In the long Hadeeth of Jibreel, he mentioned Al-Eemaan, Al-Islaam and Al-Ihsaan, then, he said: “This is Jibreel, he came to teach you your Deen.” So the humiliation is not removed except by returning to the Deen, and the Deen is knowledge of the pillars of Al-Eemaan, Al-Islaam and Al-Ihsaan. Is it not?!

Thus, whoever wants to return to the Deen, it is upon him to learn the rulings of these (things that were) mentioned in the Hadeeth of Jibreel, by teaching the people the ruling of tahaarah (purification), sawm (fasting) and zakaah (charity) and the rulings of Al-Eemeen: belief in Allaah, the Angels, the Books and abandoning the kalaam (idle speech) about the things wherein there lies no benefit.

The people of Hadeeth, by speaking about these matters, teach the people the Deen. Can it be said about them after that: “You are the 'Ulamaa of menstruation and postpartum bleeding, you are not the 'Ulamaa of reality, you are not the 'Ulamaa of Da’wah?”

The 'Aalim (scholar) is the one who teaches the people these matters by teaching them the Deen - the path which, by it, they will be removed from humiliation and insignificance; teaching them the path which the Messenger, (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) guided them to. (This is what they (the people) should concern themselves with) if they want salvation in the Hereafter!

So, the one who abandoned learning these matters and made all of his speech about secularism, communism, (imitating) the “super powers,” and abandons learning what is necessary from the affair of his Deen, teaching the people these things, does he know the Deen, teaching the people these things, does he know the Deen? Did he implement returning to the Deen which he (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) intended in his statement “until you return to your Deen?”

And in the Hadeeth of Jibreel, he mentioned Al-Eemaan and its pillars, Al-Islam and its pillars, and Al-Ihsaan, and he said: “This is Jibreel, he came to teach you your Deen.”
So are we learning the Deen without learning how to pray?! Are we learning the Deen without learning the tahaarah which is the key to the prayer?! Are we learning the Deen without teaching our women, daughters and female family members the rulings of menstruation and postpartum bleeding which are matters which they always encounter?

Can we be learning (progressing) without that? Are we teaching the Deen yet we do not know (how to) worship (Allaah) upon the path: “Verily, my salaah is just as the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prayed it, my hajj is just like the hajj of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), my fasting is just like the fasting of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam)?”

How did we come to know our Deen?

From the benefits and excellence of following the Sunnah, is the removal of the description of humiliation and insignificance from the Muslims.

O my brother, follow the main path; follow the Sunnah of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), strive to establish the worship of Allaah and verify it (based on the proofs). Have trust that whenever you walk along this (main path), that your nafs (soul) will be corrected, and you will have corrected your wife and family - the correction of the nafs leads to correction of the family. Subsequently, (in) the correction of the family is the correction of the society, which in turn leads to the correction of the city and the whole country and ultimately the Ummah and the entire universe, by the permission of Allaah.

So strive and begin with yourself then those closest to you then the next closest to you.
Following the Sunnah Removes Humiliation and...
The 8th Benefit:

In the Sunnah Is the Description of the Disease which Afflicted the Muslim Nation and the Description of Its Cure

Ahmad and Abu Daawood convey (the hadith) on the authority of Thawbaan:

The Messenger of Allah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: ‘The nations are about to call each other and set upon you like the diners set upon food.’ Someone said: ‘Will it be because we’ll be few [in number] on that day?’ He (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: ‘Rather, you’ll be many on that day (but) like the foam on the river. And Allaah will remove the fear of you from the hearts of your enemies and will throw Al-Wahn into your hearts.’ So, someone said: ‘O Messenger of Allaah, what is Al-Wahn?’ He (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: ‘[It is] love of the dunyaa and hatred of death.’

\(^{18}\) Related by Abu Daawood (no.4297), Ibn ‘Asaakirin in Taareekh Dimashq (2/97/8) and others. It was authenticated by al-Albaanee in as-Saheehah (no.958)
In the Sunnah Is the Description of the Disease which...

The Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) described our illness and our condition (when he said): “The nations are about to call each other and set upon you like the diners set upon food.”

Is this not happening?! Wallaahi it is happening. The colonizing states invite one another upon the Islamic lands which Allaah awarded with blessings; he provided them with resources: rivers, agriculture, petroleum, and various other bounties. They (the colonizers) invite one another to these lands like diners set upon food.

They (the Companions) said: "Will it be because we'll be few [in number] O Messenger of Allaah? Will we be so few [in number] that the nations will gather upon us?!

He (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “No, rather you'll be many (but) like the foam on the river.”

So what is the cause of our weakness?

He (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Allaah will remove the fear of you from their hearts and will throw Al-Wahn into your hearts.” They said: "O Messenger of Allaah, what is Al-Wahn? He (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam), said: “[It is] love of the dunyaaa and hatred of death.”

Therefore, in the Sunnah, is the description of the disease and its cure.

- Its aim is to treat your soul; its aim is to walk you along the (straight) path.
- Its aim is to produce good for you.
- Strive to follow the Sunnah and treat (cure) your soul from loving the dunyaaa and fearing death.
In the Sunnah Is the Description of the Disease which...

- Look to the Sunnah and in it you will find a hadeeth which states,

\[
\text{فَقُورُوا الْمُتْبَرَّ فَإِنَّهَا تَذَكَّرُ النَّمَؤَتَ}
\]

"Frequent the graves [visit them often], surely it will remind you of the hereafter."

19

- Look to the Sunnah and you will find the hadeeth:

\[
\text{مَنْ كَانَ يُؤُمْنَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ قَلِيلُ خَيْرًا أَوْ لَيْسَ كَثِيرًا}
\]

"Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day let him speak good or remain silent."

20

- It reminds you of the Hereafter and death; every time you read, explore and apply the Sunnah, love of the dunyaa and fear of death will gradually weaken in your soul.

You hear what the Sunnah says about the dunyaa:

\[
\text{عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بِنَ ٌدُرَّةً، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا هُزَيْرَةَ، يُقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صلى الله عليه وسلم}
\]

"I heard from Abu Hurairah that the Prophet ﷺ said:"

The dunyaa is cursed, and whatever is in it is cursed, except for the remembrance of Allaah and what is similar to it - the scholar and the student.

21

You read in Al-Qur'aan Al-'Adheem:

\[
َزَيْنُ الْمَدْسَاءَ حُبَّ الْمُهْدَا، مَسَّ أَلْسَنَاءَ وَالْبَيِّنَيْنَ وَالْفَصْلِ الْمُقَنَّطَةِ مِنْ الْدُّهْدَبِ،
\]

"Beautified for man is the love of what he desires from women, children, accumulated riches of gold and silver,

---

19 Sahih Muslim, Book of Janaazah (976)
20 Sahih Muslim, Book of Eemaan
21 Reported by Ibn Maajah, at-Tirmidhee, declared hasan (sound) by al-Albaanee.
In the Sunnah is the description of the Disease which...

horses, cattle and gardens...”

[Soorah Aali-Imraan, 3:14]

Persist in learning the Qur’aan and the Sunnah and the truth will be made clear to you, and the dunyaa will be disclosed to you. You will be set straight and will have recognized what the dunyaa (really) is. You will know the affairs that surround you and will be saved from Al-Wahn, which will be your safety from confusion.
Following His Sunnah is Perfection of Character...

The 9th Benefit:
Following His (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah Is Perfection of Character –
Its Beauty and Noble Traits

Ahmad conveyed on the authority of Abu Hurayrah (radiyallaahu 'anhu) who said: "The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Verily, I have been sent to perfect good character."22

Ibn 'Abdil-Barr (D. 463H) said: "This is an authentic Madeenan hadeeth." He includes in this meaning: righteousness, all goodness, the Deen, virtue, manliness, al-Ihsaan [perfection, highest level of faith] and justice. So he (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) was sent to perfect this.

The scholars have said:

Verily, an aayah which includes righteousness, virtue, nobility and good character is in his, the Mighty and Majestic, saying:

إن الله يأمر بِالعدل والإحسان وإيتاء ذي القربى وَيَنهى عَنِ الفَخْمَا
ِِوالأُمُوسِكَةِ وَالْيَغْيِرِ يُعَظِّمُكَمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ

Verily, Allaah enjoins Al-Adl [justice] and Al-Ihsaan [perfection] and giving [help] to kith and kin, and He forbids from Al-Fahshaa [all evil deeds] and Al-Munkar [all that is prohibited by Islamic law], and Al-Baghy [all kinds of oppression]. He admonishes you, that you may take heed.

22 Al-Musnad, Ar-Risaalah, 14/53

[Sooratun-Nahl, 16:90]

It has been related to us from Aa'ishah - Ibn Wahb and others mentioned that she said: "Noble character is truthful speech, friendliness with people, giving to the needy, giving gifts, preserving the trust, preserving the ties of kinship, protecting one's companion, hospitality to the guest, and al-hayaa [modesty] is the head of them."

She also said: "And certainly, noble character may be in a man and not in his son, it may be in his son and not in him, and certainly it may be in the servant and not in his master; Allaah has distributed it to whomsoever He wants."

I say, the Sunnah of the Messenger (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) is the Deen as has been mentioned, and it is the explanation of what is in the great Qur'aan. Certainly his (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) character was the Qur'aan just as the Mother of the Believers, Aa'ishah (radyallaahu 'anha) said.

---

23 At-Tamheed, 24/34
The 10th Benefit: In Adherence to the Sunnah Is Safety from al-Fitnah and the Painful Torment

Allaah, the Blessed and Exalted, said:

لا تجعلوا دعاء الرسول بتعت لكم كدعاء بعضكم بعضًا فقد علم الله الذي يتسللور

منكم لواؤا فليحدد الذين خالفون عن أمره أن تصيبهم فتنة أو يصيبهم عذاب

أليم

Make not the calling of the Messenger [Muhammad] among you as your calling one of another. Allaah knows those of you who slip away under shelter [of some excuse without taking the permission to leave, from the Messenger]. And let those who oppose the Messenger's [Muhammad] commandment [i.e. his Sunnah; legal ways, orders, acts of worship, statements] [among the sects] beware, lest some fitnah [disbelief, trials, afflictions, earthquakes, killing, overpowerment by a tyrant] should befall them or a painful torment be inflicted on them.

[Sooratun-Noor, 24:63]

Every opposer of the Sunnah! Every opposer of the Messenger's (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) command! He must beware:
...And let those who oppose the Messenger's [Muhammad] commandment [i.e. his Sunnah; legal ways, orders, acts of worship, statements] [among the sects] beware, lest some Fitnah [disbelief, trials, affliction, earthquakes, killing, overpowerment by a tyrant] should befall them or a painful torment be inflicted on them.

[Sooratun-Noor, 24:63]

A fitnah will befall them, then al-kufr (disbelief) will enter their hearts, or an-nifaaq (hypocrisy), or they will enter into innovations; then due to that a painful torment will be inflicted upon them.

So from the superiority of following the Messenger's (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah is that it guards you against al-fitnah.

A man came to Imaam Maalik and said: "Yaa Imaam, I want to make al-'Umrah [pilgrimage]." Maalik said: "Go make al-'Umrah!" The man said: "I want to enter the state of Ihraam from al-Madeenah, from the masjid." Maalik said: "O my son! The Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) made al-'Umrah from Dhul Hualifah, and your making al-'Umrah from the masjid is in opposition to the Sunnah. Verily, I fear for you al-Fitnah if you do this." Then he recited:

لا وَجَعِلُوا دَعَاءَ الرَّسُولِ بَينَ كُلِّمَا بَيْنَ كُلِّ جَعَاءِ بَعْضَكُمْ بَعْضًا ۛ قُلْ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ يَتَسَلَّلُونَ

مَنْ كُلُّمَ لَوْلَا فَلْيَخَذْ أَلْدِينَ خَالِفَانِ عَنَّ أُمَرَى أَنْ تُصْبِحُوهُمْ فِتْنَةً أَوْ يُصْبِحُوهُمْ عَذَابًا

أَلْبَرُّأُ

Make not the calling of the Messenger [Muhammad] among you as your calling one of another. Allaah knows those of you who slip away under shelter [of some excuse without taking the permission to leave, from the Messenger]. And let those who oppose the Messenger's [Muhammad] commandment [i.e. his Sunnah; legal ways, orders, acts of worship, statements] (among the sects) beware, lest some Fitnah...
In Adherence to the Sunnah Is Safety from al-Fitnah...

[disbelief, trials, afflictions, earthquakes, killing, overpowerment by a tyrant] should befall them or a painful torment be inflicted on them.

[Sooratun-Noor, 24:63]
In Adherence to the Sunnah Is Safety from al-Fitnah...
The 11th Benefit:
In Following the Sunnah and Adhering to It Is the Realization of Faith, the Attainment of Happiness in the Two Abodes and Safety from the Fire

He, The Most High, said:

وَمَنْ أَعْرَضَ عَنْ ذِكْرِيَّ فَإِنَّ اللَّهُ مَعِيشَةٌ ضَنكَّةٌ وَخَسَرَهُ. يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ أَعْمَىٖ

And whosoever turns away from my reminder [i.e. neither believes in the Qur’aan nor acts on its teachings] verily, for him is a life of hardship and We shall raise him up blind on The Day of Resurrection.

[Soorah Taa Haa, 20:124]

So whoever follows the Sunnah of the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and adheres to it, will not turn away from the Deen nor from the remembrance of Allaah, rather, he will draw closer to it. Thus, his situation will not be like the one who turns away. He, The Most High, said:

قُلْ إِنْ كَسَرْتُ نَجْبَتَكَنِ اللَّهُ فَأَفْتَنِوَنِي يَكْبِكْمُ اللَّهُ وَيَغْفِرُ لَنَا ذُنُوبَنَا وَاللَّهُ

غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

Say [O Muhammad to mankind]: if you [really] love Allaah, then, follow me [i.e. accept Islamic monotheism, follow the Qur’aan and the Sunnah], Allaah will love you and forgive you your sins.

[Soorah Aali-Tmraan, 3:31]
And He, The Most High, said:

\[
\text{People who obey You will be guided onto the right path.}
\]

If you obey him, you will be on the right guidance
[Sooratun-Noor, 24:54]

And He, The Most High, said:

\[
\text{Whoever obeys Allaah and His Messenger will be admitted to gardens under which rivers flow, to abide therein, and that will be the great success.}
\]

And whosoever obeys Allaah and His Messenger [Muhammad] will be admitted to gardens under which rivers flow [in Paradise], to abide therein, and that will be the great success.
[Sooratun-Nisaa’, 4:13]

Conversely, there are verses concerning the condition of the one who disobeys Allaah and His Messenger. He, the Blessed and Exalted, said:

\[
\text{Whoever disobeys Allaah and His Messenger will be cast into the fire, to abide therein, and he shall have a disgraceful torment.}
\]

And whosoever disobeys Allaah and His Messenger [Muhammad], and transgresses His limits, He will cast him into the fire, to abide therein, and he shall have a disgraceful torment.
[Sooratun-Nisaa’, 4:14]

Nay, rather al-Eemaan is negated from the one who does not actualize following him (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam). Allaah, The Most High, said:
In Following the Sunnah and Adhering to It Is the...

But no, by your Lord, they can have no faith, until they make you [O Muhammad] judge in all disputes between them, and find in themselves no resistance against your decisions, and accept them with full submission.
[Sooratun-Nisaa', 4:65]

He, The Most High, said:

وَمَن يَعْصِيَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَإِنَّ لَهُ نَارَ جَهَنَّمَ

And whosoever disobeys Allaah and His Messenger, then verily, for him is the fire of Hell, he shall dwell therein forever.
[Sooratul-Jinn, 72:23]

Consequently, following the Messenger's (sallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah, is an affirmation of al-Eemaan:

But no, by your Lord, they can have no faith, until they make you [O Muhammad] judge in all disputes between them...
[Sooratun-Nisaa', 4:65]
It is not for a believer, man or woman, when Allaah and His Messenger have decreed a matter that they should have any option in their decision..."

[Sooratul-Ahzaab, 33:36]
The 12th Benefit:
To Follow the Sunnah and to Act upon It Is to Ensure Its Revival

Your revival of it (the Sunnah) is a manifestation of it, and it is, for the people, an invitation to it. Thus, whoever acts in accordance with the Sunnah will have its reward, and the reward of whoever acts in accordance with it (by following your lead) up until the Day of Resurrection.

Imaam Muslim brings in his Saheeh, on the authority of Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said:

Whoever calls to guidance, for him is the reward similar to the rewards of whoever follows it, without anything from their rewards being diminished. And whoever calls to misguidance, for him is the sin equal to the sins of whoever follows it, without anything from their sins being diminished.

Imaam Muslim also conveys on the authority of Jareer Bin ‘Abdillaah who said:

Some Bedouin people came to the Messenger of Allaah (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) wearing wool. He saw their bad condition as they were afflicted with poverty, so he urged the people to give sadaqah, but they kept him waiting [by procrastinating]. Then a man from the Ansaar came with a pouch of silver, then another came, then [others] followed in succession until the happiness was recognized on his (sallaAllahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) face. He then said: Whoever introduces into Islam a good Sunnah and it is then acted upon after him, the same reward is written for him as those who acted upon it without anything from their reward being diminished. And whoever introduces into Islam an evil Sunnah and it is then acted upon after him, the same sin is written for him as those who acted upon it without anything from their sin being diminished.

Consequently, whoever manifested and acted in accordance with the Sunnah has invited the people to it by merely manifesting it. So when a person acts upon this Sunnah, the one who manifested it first (initiated the good Sunnah) has the reward of whoever followed him in acting in accordance with it up until the Day of Resurrection.

A person says: “O Shaykh, the Messenger (sallaAllahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: ‘Whoever initiates a good Sunnah, meaning: A person does a deed [which he deems good] even if it has not come in the revelation and even if it did not come from the Messenger!”

I say to you: No! This is not the meaning of the hadeeth because the people of knowledge say that the only way to know if something is good or bad is through the revelation, so from where (do you get the knowledge) that this deed is good when it does not come from the revelation? Our source that this (deed) is good or bad is the revelation. The meaning of the hadeeth, "Whoever initiates a good Sunnah,” therefore is, whoever revives a Sunnah from the revelation because the hadeeth mentioned sadaqah - that a man came and handed over some sadaqah, then the people came after him and gave sadaqah.
A man entered the masjid and met a poor man so he gave him some money. So when the people saw him they followed his example without delay, giving to this poor man and supporting him. Everyone who followed his example will be rewarded. So, is sadaqah and giving it from the Sunnah which was established from the Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) or (is it from) the newly invented way? Surely, it is an established Sunnah from him (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam).

So, it is not in the hadith that the man completed a deed that just came from his own self because the good deed is only known from the revelation. And it is a must that his (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) statement be mentioned to you: "Whoever does an action which is not from our affair then it is rejected."

Ibn Hibbaan, (rahimahullaah), said:

Verily, in following his (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) Sunnah is the perfection of blamelessness and the accumulation of generosity whose light cannot be extinguished and its proofs cannot be disproved. Whoever adheres to it is safeguarded and whoever opposes it is blamed and censured. It [the Sunnah] is the fortified fortress and the strong pillar which explains his excellence and strengthens his rope. Whoever adheres to it prevails and whoever desired to oppose it perishes; so the ones who cling to it are the [successful] people in this life.

And with this the lecture is concluded, and all praise is for Allaah who, by His Grace, completes the righteous deeds.

Glory be to You, O Allaah and to you is the praise. I bear witness that none deserves to be worshipped except You, I ask your forgiveness and turn to you in repentance.
Allaah's prayer be upon Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, just as he sent His prayers upon Ibraaheem and the family of Ibraaheem, verily, you are Hameed (worthy of all praise), Majeed (glorious). And bless Muhammad and his family, just as you blessed Ibraaheem and the family of Ibraaheem. Verily you are Hameed, Majeed.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Arabic Word</th>
<th>English Translation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>'Aalim (pl. 'Ulamaa)</td>
<td>A learned Scholar.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ahlul-Bid'ah</td>
<td>The people of innovation.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ahlul-Bid'ah wal Firqah</td>
<td>The people of innovation and splitting.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ahlul-Bid'ah wad-Dalaalah</td>
<td>The people of innovation and misguidance.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ahlul-Haqq was-Sunnah</td>
<td>The people of truth and Sunnah.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ahlul-Hadeeth</td>
<td>The people of hadeeth.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ahlul-Kalaam</td>
<td>The people of theoretical rhetoric.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah</td>
<td>The followers of the Qur'aan and the Sunnah, as the companions understood them.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Al-Jihaad</td>
<td>Struggling in the Path of Allaah.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ash'ariyyah</td>
<td>Those who claim to follow Abul-Hasan al-Ash'aree,</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Glossary of Important Arabic Words and Phrases

Aaayah (pl. Aayaat) Sign; a verse of the Qur’aan.

Bid’ah Heresy (any innovatory practice).

Da’wah Invitation, call to Allaah.

Deen A complete way of life prescribed by Allaah.

Dunyaa The world or the worldly life.

Eemaan True faith comprised of (i) Belief in the heart (ii) Testification with the tongue (iii) Action with the limbs.

Fatwaa (pl. Fataawaa) Religious verdicts.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Glossary of Important Arabic Words and Phrases</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

H

Hadeeth (pl. Ahaadeeth)
The sayings, actions and tacit approvals accurately narrated from the Prophet.

Hasan
Fine, good. The term used for an authentic hadeeth which does not reach the level of saheeh.

Hawd
A place (or as some scholars conclude ‘a pool or body of water’) in the Paradise.

I

Ihraam
A state of restriction from certain specified actions during hajj/umrah.

Imaam
A leader or leader in prayer, knowledgeable in Islamic jurisprudence.

J

Jahmiyyah
An early stray sect following Jahm ibn Safwan who denied some or all of the Names and Attributes of Allaah.

Jamaa’ah
Congregation.

K

Kalaam
Speech. (In some contexts) theological rhetoric.
Glossary of Important Arabic Words and Phrases

Karraamiyyah
A group who calling to tajsim (anthropomorphism), and claimed Allaah can acquire attributes he never had before.

Khaleefah (pl. Khulafaa’)
The head of the Islaamic government to whom allegiance is given.

Khashya
Fear, awe.

Khawaarij
A deviant group which declares that a Muslim becomes a disbeliever due to committing a major sin alone.

Kulaabiyyah
Those who argued with the Jahmiyyah and Mu’tazilah and fell prey to their doubts on Allaah’s chosen actions (sifaat ikhtiyaariyyah) upon the premise that is fundamental to the proof "whatever is not devoid of hawaadith (events) is itself Haadith (originated)" and as a result denied a portion of what Allaah is described with and took certain approaches towards it, similar to what the Mu’tazilah took towards the attributes. But they affirmed the sifaat dhatiyyah khabariyyah (those attributes Allaah’s essence is described with through revealed texts).

M

Manhaj
Way; Method; Methodology.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Arabic Word</th>
<th>English Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Masjid</td>
<td>Mosque; Muslim place of worship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Murji'ah</td>
<td>A deviant sect which ascribes to Islam. They claim that neither good deeds nor sins affect a person’s faith.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>R</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Raafidhah</td>
<td>Extremist Shee’ah sect who curse and revile the companions of Allaah’s Messenger (sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and believe that the Qur’aan is incomplete. They also believe that their Imaams have knowledge of the unseen and that ‘Alee (radiyallaahu ‘anhu) has within him divinity. For more see Talbees Iblees by Ibnul-Jawzee.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>S</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sadaqah</td>
<td>Charity.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Salaam</td>
<td>Peace. The Islaamic greeting, “As-salaamu ‘Alaykum” (Peace be unto you).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sahaabah</td>
<td>Muslims who met the Prophet, believing in him and died believing in him.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Salaah</td>
<td>Prayer.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Salaatul-Witr</td>
<td>Odd. The last prayer at night which consist of an odd number of raka’ah (units).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Arabic Word</td>
<td>Translation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------------</td>
<td>-------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Shahaadah</td>
<td>The testimony of faith.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sharee'ah</td>
<td>The divine code of law of Islam.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Shayaateen</td>
<td>Devils.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sunnah</td>
<td>The statements, actions and tacit approvals of the Prophet Muhammad (sallallaahu alayhi wa sallam).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taabi'een</td>
<td>The generation after the companions of the Prophet.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tahaarah</td>
<td>Purification (often from a state of impurity).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ummah</td>
<td>Nation.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wallaahi</td>
<td>An oath upon Allaah.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Index

A
- Aalim · 42, 63
- action · III, V, VI, VIII, 33, 34, 61
- admonition · 2
- Ahlul-Hadeeth · X, 26, 63
- Ahlul-Kalaam · 26, 63
- Al-Eemaan · 41, 42, 56, 57
- Al-Eenah · 39, 40, 41
- Al-Islaam · X, XI, 4
- al-Makrooh · VI
- al-Mandoob · VI
- al-Mustahaab · VI
- Al-Umrah · 52
- al-Waajib · VI
- Al-Wahn · 45, 46, 48
- Ash’ariyyah · 26, 63
- As-Sifatul-Khuluqiyyah · V
- As-Sunnatud-Dimniyyah · VIII, IX
- As-Sunnatul-Fi’liyyah · IV
- As-Sunnatul-Tagreeriyyah · V

B
- bid’ah · 5

C
- clear Sunnah · VIII, IX
- conditions of acceptance · 33

D
- deen · 9, 29, 33, 34, 39, 41, 42, 43, 49, 50, 55

G
- guidance · II, 14, 15, 16, 30, 56, 59

H
- hadeeth · III, IV, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, 3, 8, 10, 13, 15, 17, 19, 22, 31, 34, 36, 39, 41, 45, 47, 49, 60, 61, 65
- Hawd · 13, 14, 15
- highly recommended · III, V, VI
- Hikmah · 65
- hypocrisy · 52

I
- ijmaa · IX
- ijtihaad · VIII
- Ikhtilaaf · 1, 7
- Imaams · VII, 11, 15, 19, 67
- implied Sunnah · VIII, IX

J
- Jahmiyyah · 10, 26, 65
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Jamaa’ah · 7, 8, 9, 63, 65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>K</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Karraamiyyah · 26, 66</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Khaleefahs · 2, 3, 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Khawaarij · 10, 26, 66</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kutubus Sunnah · VII</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>L</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>legislative rulings · VI</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mu’tazilah · 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Murj’i’ah · 10, 67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>N</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Noah · 15, 25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>O</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>obligatory · III, IV, VI, VII, 5, 9, 19, 23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>P</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>path · II, III, 1, 21, 22, 23, 25, 26, 33, 42, 46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>permission · IV</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pilgrimage · IV, 52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pray · 30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>prohibited · VI, 8, 35, 41, 50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>wudhoo · 30, 34</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>