Muhammad)

(Allah) His Majesty is Exalted

May Allah be pleased with her (i.e. a female companion of the Prophet Muhammad)
In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

All thanks and praise are due to Allah, and prayers and blessings are upon the leader of Messengers, our Prophet Muḥammad, his family and companions.

As for what follows:

Peace and blessings be upon you, brothers:

We will talk today about the remembrance of Allah and what Allah says:

"Verily, in the remembrance of Allah do the hearts find rest." [Sūrah Ar-Ra'd 13:28]

The remembrance of Allah has countless benefits and a great effect. Using it, hearts and souls find rest. It brings blessings and prevents evils. It makes the servant happy and successful in this worldly life and the Hereafter. The more committed the servant to remembrance, the more integrated his happiness.

When Allāh, the Almighty, says:

"Verily, in the remembrance of Allāh do the hearts find rest."

It means that it imparts restfulness and tranquility. When we think about this gracious verse and the reality of peoples' hearts in this worldly life, it is really complicated and filled with desires, attraction by lusts, suspicions, and seditions; leaving no place for rest in the heart save a sense of loss, displeasure, and annoyance; in short, restlessness. It means that these hearts felt restless, annoyed and lost in which one suffers from suspicions and doubts. All of it are diseases of the heart. No heart can be restful unless with the remembrance of Allāh. If it is free from the remembrance of Allāh, it is vulnerable to be infected with those illnesses. Thus, Allāh ( سبحانه و تعالى) says:
VERILY IN THE REMEMBRANCE OF ALLĀH DO THE HEARTS FIND REST

Those who believed (in the Oneness of Allāh - Islamic Monotheism), and whose hearts find rest in the remembrance of Allāh: Verily, in the remembrance of Allāh do the hearts find rest.”

So, restfulness of hearts is to be happy and tranquil, free from worries and annoyance; this can be achieved by the remembrance of Allāh.

Without the remembrance of Allāh, the heart will die. Abu Musa Al-Asha'ri narrated that the Prophet (ṣallīllāhūwaṣallāhuāl-ha)' said:

“..."The similitude of one who remembers his Lord and one who does not remember Him is like that of the living and the dead."..."
"The house of which remembrance of Allāh is made and the house in which Allāh is not remembered are like the living and the dead respectively."

So, the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) gave an example of the house where Allāh is remembered with the living and the house where Allah is not remembered with the house of the dead (i.e. graves).

When we combine the words of both Ḥadīths, we find that there is a similitude of those who remember Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) and fill their houses with the remembrance of Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) with living ones in houses filled with life, while the ones who do not remember Allāh and no remembrance is made in their houses with the dead in the houses of the dead, as if his chest is a grave for his heart with no real life in but an animalistic one.

So, hearts are divided into:

❖ A sound heart
"Except him who comes to Allah with a sound heart [clean from Shirk (polytheism) and Nifāq (hypocrisy)]." [Surah Ash-Shu'ara' 26:89]

A sound heart is a type of heart which is clean from diseases and bad intentions. It is purified for the sake of Allah, and the deeds are cleaned. Thus this one resorts to Allah only and rely on no one but Him, and performs acts of worship only to Allah (سُبْحَانَ الرَّحْمَنَ وَتَعَالَى). If it loves, it loves for the sake of Allah; if it hates, it hates for the sake of Allah; if it supports, it supports one for the sake of Allah. It is a clean heart, empty from diseases and lusts. It is closer to Allah (سُبْحَانَ الرَّحْمَنَ وَتَعَالَى), remembers Him, and worships Him only.

❖ Second type: dead heart. It is the heart which turns away from his Lord and Creator and worships others. It fails to comply with His orders, perform acts of worship, remember Allah, act righteous good deeds, ask others in situations of hope, desire, and fear, love, and hatred. It directs acts of worship and righteous good deeds for another than Allah. This is a dead heart.
The third type of hearts: the heart that features both life and death. It is charged with life when it is truthful, sincere, monotheistic, and desiring for the worship of Allāh, whereas it lacks this life when it is desires lusts and suspicions. The heart is qualified either dead or alive in pursuance with the dominant drive.

The life of the heart is sustainable when one keeps closer to Allāh and remembers Allāh (سُبْحَانَ الَّهُ وَتْمَاثِلُ اللَّهُ اللَّطْفُ) with his heart and tongue, whereby suspicions and lusts will be removed. If one does not remember Allāh, more evils and diseases shall reside.

"Verily, in the remembrance of Allāh do the hearts find rest."

How can these hearts find rest? Through obeying Allāh, and relying upon Him and resorting to Allāh Alone. Whoever asks Allāh Alone, hopes for Allāh Alone, fears Allāh Alone, relies upon Allāh Alone, depends upon Allāh in all matters because his heart is assured with the remembrance of Allāh, for performing Tawheed and obeying Allāh (سُبْحَانَ الَّهُ وَتْمَاثِلُ اللَّهُ اللَّطْفُ).
Oh, brothers! Consider how the Prophet (ﷺ) cured who is afflicted with sadness, distress, and anxiety so we can appreciate the value of the cure that the Prophet (ﷺ) ordained by the remembrance of Allâh. All of us know that one can be afflicted with sadness, distress, and anxiety. According to the scholars, the heart can be afflicted with these diseases, one of which is related to the past (sadness), the other is related to the present time (distress), and the third is related to the future (anxiety).

Sadness is related to the past; one feels sad when goals are not achieved. For example, one wants to make a deal, but it fails, which causes the heart to develop a growing feeling of sadness.

Distress happens when one is discontent with his present situation.

If one is worried about his future, he may be anxious.

These diseases cannot be cured except with the remembrance of Allâh, and the heart cannot find rest without the assistance of Allâh. Unfortunately, brothers, when many people are afflicted with sadness, distress, and anxiety, he seeks to cure it without dependence upon Allâh or remembrance of Him. However, some people do things that incur distress and sadness, thinking they entertain the heart and make sadness go away. The heart cannot find restfulness with bad deeds; only resorting to Allāh is the proper mean to it.

How can distress, sadness, and anxiety be cured? Consider the words of the Prophet (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) concerning the cure of these diseases. The Prophet (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said:

"If any Muslim is afflicted with distress and makes this supplication, then his supplication will be answered: O Allāh, I am Your servant, the son of Your servant, the son of Your maidservant. My forelock is in Your hand, Your command concerning me prevails, and

SHAYKH ‘ABDUR-RAZZĀQ IBN ‘ABDUL-MUHSIN AL-‘ABBĀD AL-BADR

"If any Muslim is afflicted with distress and makes this supplication, then his supplication will be answered: O Allāh, I am Your servant, the son of Your servant, the son of Your maidservant. My forelock is in Your hand, Your command concerning me prevails, and
Your decision concerning me is just. I call upon You by every one of the Beautiful Names by which You have described Yourself, or which You have revealed in Your Book, or You have taught to anyone of Your creatures, or which You have chosen to keep in the knowledge of the unseen with You, to make the Qur’ān the delight of my heart, the light of my chest, and to remove my sadness and dispel my anxiety.” The Prophet (ﷺ) said: “If he says this, Allāh will remove his affliction and replace it with joy and happiness.” They said, “O Messenger of Allāh, should we not learn it?” The Prophet (ﷺ) said: Yes, whoever hears it should know it.”

So, sadness, distress, and anxiety can be replaced by happiness.

How can this heart be happy? Saying these supplications without thinking about its meanings would be meaningless because these remembrances and supplications are worthy of deep consideration.

When one is afflicted with sadness, distress, and anxiety, he should mention starting with “O Allāh! I am your servant.” This is a confession that he is a servant of Allāh (سبحانه و تعالى), who is His Creator and Sustainer. A servant means a worshipper who obeys the orders of Allāh (سبحانه و تعالى).

اللهِيِّ إنِّي عبَّدك وابنٌ عبْدِك وابنُ أمِّيِّكَ

"O Allāh! I am your servant the son of your servant, the son of your maidservant." I am your servant, and my father's till Adam are servants of You; all of us are servants of You and You are our Creator, Lord, and Sustainer.

"My forelock is in your hand;" forelock is the forehead. I do not have anything unless with Your will and Power. If You want me to live, I will live. If You want me to be happy, I will be happy. If You want me to be healthy, I will be well and healthy. If You want me to be rich, I will be rich. If You want anything else like disease, poverty, I will be ill and poor. My forelock is in Your hand, your Will and Power rule all things:
What you want will happen even if I do not want
But what I want will not happen if You do not want.
You created people according to Your knowledge.
The actions of the young and the old man are consistent with Your knowledge.
You gave, You took,
You support, and You forsake.
In the world, there are poor, happy, ugly and beautiful ones.

“My forelock is in your hand” You are the Lord, the Sustainer, and I am a servant with no power but in You, as in the supplication:

“There is no power but in Allâh.” No change from case to case and no power of the servant but in Allâh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَّ) so he said: “My forelock is in your hand.”
“Your command concerning me prevails.” Your judgment will prevail with no objection because Allah's will is sure. There is none who can reverse His judgment.

“Your command concerning me prevails” What Allah wills comes to pass and what He does not will not come to pass.

“Your decision concerning me is just.” O Allah! You are Just. He wrongs not, even the weight of an atom (or a small ant), and all that He judges is just.

Then one resorts to Allah by His Beautiful Names and Great attributes.

“I call upon You by every one of the Beautiful Names by which You have described Yourself.” Meaning: O Allah! I call upon You with all Your Names. It is known that the best way to call upon Allāh is by His Names and Attributes. Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَقَالَ) says:

"And (all) the Most Beautiful Names belong to Allāh, so call on Him by them." [Sūrah Al-A‘rāf 7:180]

And Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَقَالَ) says:

"Say (O Muḥammad (صَلَّيْاللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّم)): "Invoke Allāh or invoke the Most Gracious (Allāh), by whatever name you invoke Him (it is the same), for to Him belong the Best Names."
[Sūrah Al-Isra' 17:110]

And Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَقَالَ) says:
Allah! La ilaha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshiped but He)! To Him belong the Best Names.” [Surah Taha 21:8] and Allah (سُبْحَانَاهُ وَتَقَاءَلَ) says:

"He is Allah, beside Whom La ilaha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshiped but He) the All-Knower of the unseen and the seen. He is the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. He is Allah beside Whom La ilaha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshiped but He), the King, the Holy, the One Free from all defects, the Giver of security, the Watcher over His creatures, the All-Mighty, the Compeller, the Supreme. Glorified is Allah! (High is He)

Above all that they associate as partners with Him. He is Allah, the Creator, the Inventor of all things, the Bestower of forms. To Him belong the Best Names. All that is in the heavens and the earth glorify Him. And He is the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.” [Surah Al-Hashr 59:22-24]

So, the servant calls upon Allah with His Most Beautiful Names.

أَسْأَلَكَ يَصْلُ الْاسْمُ هُوَ لِكَ سَمَيَتُ يِهُ نَفْسُكَ أَوْ عَلَمَتُهُ أَحَدًا مِنْ خَلْقِكَ أَوْ أَنْتَلَكَ فِي كِتَابِكَ أَوْ اسْتَأْثَرْتَ بِهِ فِي عَلَمِ الْغَيْبِ يَعْتَدُكَ

“I call upon You by every one of the Beautiful Names by which You have described Yourself, or which You have revealed in Your Book, or You have taught to anyone of Your creatures, or which You have chosen to keep in the knowledge of the unseen with You.”

I call upon You with all Your Beautiful Names.

Then he requests,

أَنْ تَجْعَلَ الْقُرْآنَ رَبِيعًا قَلْبِي
What is in his heart? In his heart, there is sadness and distress that make him sick, so he wants to remove it by these ways, and then called upon Allāh, "to make the Qur’ān the delight of my heart" to make me busy with the Qur’ān, to make my heart full of the Qur’ān. When the heart is occupied with the Qur’ān, there will be no sadness, no distress, no anxiety because there is no place for these diseases. Sadness, distress, and anxiety cannot find a way to his heart as it is full of the remembrance of Allāh.

أَنْ تَجَفَّ الْقُرْآنُ رَبِّي وَتُورَ صَدْرِي

"To make the Qur’ān the spring of my heart, the light of my chest."

Consider that when the heart is mentioned, he said "the spring of my heart" and when the chest is mentioned he said: "the light of my chest."

Thus, he mentioned the spring and the light. The spring refers to nutrition, plants, life and increase. It is known that is the life of the human body and setting it right arise from the heart. Also, growth and life of plants and trees are from its origin, thus when the heart is set right, the body will be right. So, he said:
"to make the Qur’ ān in the spring of my heart."

Meaning: make it nourish the heart, like water that feeds plants. You know how the plant will be if it is not irrigated with water? It will die, but if it is watered, it will bloom. Allāh ( سبحانه وتعالی) says:

"Has not the time come for the hearts of those who believe (in the Oneness of Allāh – Islamic Monotheism) to be affected by Allāh's Reminder (this Qur’ ān), and that which has been revealed of the truth, lest they become as those who received the Scripture [the Taurat (Torah) and the Injeel (Gospel)] before (i.e. Jews and Christians), and the term was prolonged for them and so their hearts were hardened? And many of them were Fāsiqūn (the rebellious, the disobedient to Allāh).
Know that Allah gives life to the earth after its death! Indeed, We have made clear the Ayat (proofs, evidence, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) to you if you but understand.

[Sūrah Al-Hadid 57:16-17]

Allah (سبحان و تعالى) called the Qur’ān Rūh (Revelation) in many verses in the Qur’ān as Allah (سبحان و تعالى) says:

قَالَ أَمِّي اللَّهُ أَلَّا تَسْتَعْجِلْ عَلَيْهِ ۖ وَطَلَّ عَمَّا يَشَآءُ

يَنُذِرُ الْمَلَائِكَةَ بِالْرُوحِ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَآءُ مِنْ عِبَادَهُ

آنَذَرْنَآ أَنْتَهُ ۖ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنَا أَنَّمَا أَنْفُقُ ۖ

“The Commandment (the Hour or the punishment of the disbelievers and polytheists or the Islamic laws or commandments) ordained by Allah will come to pass, so, seek not to hasten it. Glorified and Exalted is He above all that they associate as partners with Him. He sends down the angels with the Ruh (revelation) of His Command to whom of His slaves He wills (saying): “Warn (mankind) that La ilaha illa Ana (none has the right to be worshipped but I), so fear Me (by abstaining from sins and evil deeds).” [Surah An-Nahl 16: 1-2]

In another verse, Allah (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَامَّ مَا كَانَ) says:

"And thus, We have sent to you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) Rūh (a Revelation, and a Mercy) of Our Command."

And,

"And thus, We have sent to you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) Rūh (a Revelation, and a Mercy) of Our Command. You knew not what is the Book, nor what is Faith? But We have made it (this Qurʾān) a light wherewith We guide whosoever of Our Slaves We will. And verily, you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) are indeed guiding (mankind) to a Straight Path
So, the Qur’ān is a life for the heart. In this Ḥadith, one calls upon Allāh to fill his heart with the Qur’ān and remembrance of Allāh so as to remove the diseases in the heart.

“The light of my chest;” make a light in my chest by caring and keeping the Noble Qur’ān. This indicates that the Qur’ān and the remembrance of Allāh make the heart full of light.

O’ brothers! How can sadness, distress, and anxiety affect a heart the Qur’ān is its spring and light? However, weakness of faith affects a man badly so his heart may be afflicted with those diseases, which will cause the heart to become restless, suspicious and bored.

“An tujjūlul ṣu’dān al-ẓa’īm rībī ‘ulāmī wi roṣūr ṣuddī wi jīla huznī.

“To make the Qur’ān the delight of my heart, the light of my chest, and to remove my sadness and dispel my anxiety.” One asks Allah to remove sadness from the heart and to dispel the anxiety.

The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:
VERILY IN THE REMEMBRANCE OF ALLĀH DO THE HEARTS FIND REST

إِلَّا أُذْهَبَ اللَّهُ هَمَّةٌ وَ غَمَّةٌ وَ أَبْدَالَةٌ فَرَحاً

“Allāh will remove his affliction and replace it with joy and happiness.”

When the companions heard this Ḥadīth, they asked the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم):

يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَلَا نَتَعْلَمَهَا؟ -هَذَا الدَّعَاء أَلَا نَتَعْلَمَهُ - قال: (يَبْنِيُبِيْلُ يَمْنُ سَمِعَهَا أَنَّ يَتَعْلَمَهَا)

“O Messenger of Allāh, should we not learn it?” The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: Yes, whoever hears it should know it.”

It is a great supplication in which one can find the remembrance of Allāh (سبحانك رحمتاك) and resorting to Allāh.

So, we learned from this great Ḥadīth the value of the remembrance of Allāh and how it affects the heart concerning achieving restfulness and tranquility, in addition to removal of sadness, distress, and anxiety.

In this regard, we should not forget about the causes of restlessness of the heart. Thus, whoever wants his heart to be restful, he needs to attend to this matter; to be cautious of the causes that impact discomfort.
Allāh (سُنُوْحَالَةَ وَتَقَالَ) says that there is an enemy who sees us, but we do not see, and it circulates in the human body as blood does. Also, this enemy is a dangerous one who does his best to keep one away from Allāh's obedience, and he is so malicious. This enemy relentlessly plots to turn people away from the Allāh's Path, with a long experience in doing so. Many people are caused to enter the graves upon deviance.

"And most of them believe not in Allāh except that they attribute partners to Him [i.e. they are Mushrikūn i.e. polytheists.]” [Sūrah Yusuf 12:106]

And,

"And most of mankind will not believe even if you desire it eagerly.” [Sūrah Yusuf 12: 103]

Many people are deceived by Shaytān who turned them away from what they are created for. Allāh (سُنُوْحَالَةَ وَتَقَالَ) warned us of this enemy and said:
"Surely, Shaytān is an enemy to you, so take (treat) him as an enemy." [Sūrah Fatīr 35:6]

Allāh (سُبْحَانَ وَتَعَالَى) says that this enemy will come to them from before them and behind them, from their right and their left, from all sides,

“Then I will come to them before them and behind them, from their right and their left, and You will not find most of them as thankful ones (i.e. they will not be dutiful to You).” [Sūrah Al-ʾAʿrāf 7:17]

This enemy made many plans and used many ways to turn the heart away from the remembrance of Allāh so that restfulness will go away. Allāh (سُبْحَانَ وَتَعَالَى) said:
“And whosoever turns away blindly from the remembrance of the Most Gracious (Allāh) (i.e. this Qur’ān and worship of Allāh), We appoint for him a Shaytān to be a Qarin (a companion) to him.” [Sūrah az-Zukhruf 43:36]

So, Shaytān enters one's heart when he turns away from the remembrance of Allāh. The more one's heart is turning away from the remembrance of Allāh (سجحة وتعالي), the more the Shaytān will consume one's heart. No way to prevent oneself from this Shaytān but by the remembrance of Allāh.

Thus, the Ḥadīth related in Al-Musnad concerning the story of Allāh's order to Yahya ibn Zakariyā (عليهما السلام) with five commandments to abide by, and to command the Children of Israel to abide by them.

وَأَمَرْنَاكُمْ بِذَكَرَ اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ كِبْرِياءً، وَإِنَّ مَثَلَ ذَلِكَ كَمَثَلِ رَجُلٍ طَلَبَ بِنْيُدُو سِرَاعًا فِي أَثَرٍ فَأَلَقَ حُصُنًا حَصِينَا فَتَتَحَصَّنُ فِيهِ، وَإِنَّ الْعَبْدَ أَحْسَنَ مَا يَضْحَكُونَ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ إِذَا كَانَ فِي ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ.

And He commands you to remember Allāh. For indeed the parable of that is a man whose enemy quickly tracks him until he reaches an impermeable fortress in which he protects himself from them. This is how the worshipper is; he does not protect himself from Shayṭān except by the remembrance of Allāh.”

This is an example of who remembers Allāh ( سبحانه و تعالى) as a man who entered a fortress to protect himself from the enemy. Many scholars used the word ‘fortress’ to name their books concerning the remembrance of Allāh, because the Muslim protects himself, his heart, his home by the remembrance of Allāh ( سبحانه و تعالى).

It is narrated in the Ḥadīth that if one entered his house without saying “in the name of Allāh,” the Shayṭān say, ‘You have found a place to stay the night, and if he started eating without saying, “in the name of Allāh,” Shayṭān says, ‘you have found food.’ This indicates that if one is committed to the remembrance of Allāh when entering and leaving the house, drinking and eating, mounting and dismounting, and all other cases, Shayṭān cannot find a way to his heart. This is the meaning of what Allāh ( سبحانه و تعالى) says:
“And whosoever turns away blindly from the remembrance of the Most Gracious (Allāh) (i.e. this Qur’ān and worship of Allāh), We appoint for him (Shayṭān) to be a Qarin (a companion) to him.” [Sūrah az-Zukhruf 43:36]

The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ لَا يُدْخِلُ بَيْتًا نَفْرَأً فِيهِ سُورَةُ البَقَرَةُ

“Shayṭān doesn’t enter the house in which Sūrah Baqarah is recited.”

It is related in the Ḥadīth that whoever recited Ayatul-Kursi at night, then, no Shayṭān shall come near him till the morning, and Allāh will protect him. Also, it is related that if one intends to have sexual intercourse with his wife, he should say:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الْلَّهُمَّ جَنِّبِي الشَّيْطَانَ وَجَنِّبِي الشَّيْطَانَ ما رَزْقَتِي ثُمَّ

كُتِبَ لَهُ وَلَدَ لَا يَقْرِبُهُ شَيْطَانٌ

"In the Name of Allāh, O Allāh! Keep us away from Shaytān and keep Shaytān away from what You have bestowed upon us;" and if Allāh has ordained a child for them, Shaytān will never harm him."

These are fortifications and supplications to protect them from Shaytān.

Furthermore, it is related that,

الْيَوْمِ الَّذِيْنِيْنِ مِنْ أَخْرَى سُوْرَةَ الْبَقْرَةِ فِي لَيْلَةٍ كُفُّتَاهُ

"He who recites the two verses at the end of Surat Al-Baqarah at night, they will suffice him."

It will protect him by seeking refuge with Allāh (سَبِيعَةَ وَثَالَثًا) from the enemy.

وَإِلَّا مَنْ يَبْرَعُ مِنْ السَّبِيعَةِ وَالْثَّالَثَةِ تُبَيَّنُ فَأَتَّمَّ يَدُّ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الرَّحِيمُ

"And if an evil whisper from Shaytān (Shaytān) tries to turn you away (from doing good), then seek refuge in Allāh. Verily, He is the All-Hearer, the All-Knower.” [Surah Fussilat 41:36]

And,

“And say: “My Lord! I seek refuge with You from the whisperings (suggestions) of the Shayatin (plural of Shayṭān). And I seek refuge with You, My Lord! lest they should come near me.” [Surah Al-Mu'minun 23:97-98]

And,

“Say: “I seek refuge with (Allāh) the Lord of mankind, The King of mankind - The Ilah (God) of mankind, From the evil of the whisperer (Shayṭān who whispers evil in the hearts of men) who withdraws (from his whispering in one's heart after one remembers Allāh). Who whispers in the breasts of mankind; of Jinn and men.” [Surah An-Nās 114:1-6]

Ibn Abbas (رضي الله عنه) said pertaining the meaning of (whisperer who withdraws):

"This is the Shayṭān when one turns away from the remembrance of Allāh, Shayṭān will whisper, but when Allāh is remembered, Shayṭān will withdraw."

Thus, one needs always to remember Allāh so that the Shayṭān withdraws and turns away from him. However, if one continues keeping away from the remembrance of Allāh, Shayṭān will enter his heart. So, one needs to draw closer to Allāh (سُبْحَانَاهُ وَمُحْمَّدًا), rely upon Him, resort to Him. Thus Shayṭān will be driven away.
"And whoever holds firmly to Allāh, (i.e. follows Islam – Allāh’s religion, and practically obeys all that Allāh has ordered), then he is indeed guided to a Right Path.” [Surah Al-Imran3:101]

The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) was saying in his supplication – in the morning, afternoon and when sleeping:

اللَّهُمَّ قَاطِرِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالأَرْضِ عَالِمُ الْغُيُوبِ وَالْشَّهَادَةِ لَا إِلَإَّ أَنَّ رَبَّ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ يَعْلَمُكَ مِنْ النَّفْسِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ الشَّيْطَانِ وَشَرِّكَهُ وَأَفْتَرَى عَلَى النَّفْسِ سَوْءًا وَأَجْرَهُ إِلَى مُسْلِمِينَ

"O Allāh! Creator of the heavens and the earth, Who knows the unseen and the seen, Lord and Possessor of everything. I testify that there is none has the right to be worshiped but You; I seek refuge in You from the evil within myself, from the evil of the Shayṭān, and his (incitement to) attributing partners (to Allāh). And that we commit sin for ourselves or drag it to a Muslim."

So, one seeks refuge from the evil, its source, and its result, saying: "the evil within myself, from the evil of the Shaytān, and his (incitement to) attributing partners (to Allāh).” This is seeking refuge from the cause of evil: the evil self, the cursed Shaytān, and the result of evil.

Ibn Abbas (رضي الله عنه) was told, “The Jews said the Shaytān does not come to them when performing prayers, no whispers, no outside thoughts come to their mind. He said, “what does the Shaytān do with a dead heart?” The dead heart is a closed case; Shaytān tries his best to whisper to the living and faithful heart. Thus, one always need to strive against Shaytān and to seek refuge in Allāh from the evil of the Shaytān. Allāh (سُعْدَانَ وَعَالِ) says,

"As for those who strives hard in Us (Our Cause), We will surely guide them to Our Paths (i.e. Allāh's religion - Islamic Monotheism). And verily, Allāh is with the Muhsinīn (good-doers).” [Sūrah Al-Ankabut 29: 69].
The scholars mentioned many benefits of the remembrance of Allāh to achieve the restfulness of the heart. Ibn Al-Qayyim authored a book entitled “Al-Wābil As-Sayyib” on this subject, and it should be kept and read. “Al-Wābil As-Sayyib” means the useful rain. This book has many important benefits: It states the benefits of remembrance. He (رحمه الله) mentioned more than seventy benefits. When you read these important benefits, you will keep closer to Allāh and will be committed to the remembrance of Allāh ( سبحانه وتعالā).

Of these benefits, he said:

“Remembrance of Allāh unites the disunited and disunite the United.”

This is one of the benefits of the remembrance of Allāh. The heart requires the presence of various elements that affect its restfulness that is only obtainable through the remembrance of Allāh. In contrast, remembrance disunites the diseases filling the heart such as sadness, distress, lusts and suspicions. These diseases cannot be dispelled except with the remembrance of Allāh ( سبحانه وتعالā).

When heart feels restful, and at ease by the remembrance of Allāh, all organs of the body feel restful and willfully perform good deeds. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said in authentic Ḥadīth:

آلا وَإِنَّ فِي الْحَسَنِ مُضَغَّةً إِذَا صَلَحَتْ صَلَحَ الْحَسَنُ كُلُّهُ وَإِذَا
فَسَدَتْ فَسَدَتْ الْحَسَنُ كُلُّهُ آلا وَهِيُّ الْقُلُبُ

"Beware! There is a piece of flesh in the body if it becomes good (reformed), the whole body becomes good, but if it gets spoilt, the whole gets spoilt; and that is the heart."

One came to Al-Hasan Al-Basrī and said:

"I feel my heart merciless, what can I do for solving this problem? He said, ‘you should make it turn away by the remembrance of Allāh.’"

Meaning: remember Allāh a lot so that this mercilessness will be removed.

Let's finish our talk with a great benefit: Allāh (سُبْحَانَاهُ وَتَعَالَ) said in the Noble Ḥadīth:

أَنَا مَعَ عَبْدِي مَا ذَكَرْتِي وَتَحْرَكْتِ بِي شَفَتَاهُ

"I am with my servant when he remembers Me and his lips move with My mention."

So, one who remembers Allâh is honorably closer to Him.

Also, Allâh is generally with us through Allâh's knowledge as indicated in the verse:

But He is with them (with His Knowledge), wherever they may be.” [Surah Al-Mujadilah 58:7]

Allâh says:

And He is with you (by His Knowledge) wherever you may be.” [Surah Al-Hadid 57:4]

Allâh is specifically with some people through His sustenance, care, giving success. To secure this status, one should particularly commit to the remembrance of Allâh. Allâh says:

I am with my servant when he remembers Me and his lips move with My mention.”

When Allah was with the servant, his life will become happy, and he shall lead a good life.

"Is not Allah Sufficient for His slave?" [Surah Az-Zumar 39:36]

If Allah is with His servant, no evil will afflict him, and he will be protected, blessed in the worldly life and the Hereafter because Allah (سُبُحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) is with him.

"Truly, Allah defends those who believe." [Surah Al-Hajj 22:38]

These were some reflections on Allah's verse:

"Verily, in the remembrance of Allah do the hearts find rest."

We ask Allah with His beautiful Names and Most High attributes, and we call upon Allah with every Name of Him with which He has described Himself, or which He has revealed in His Book, or He has taught to anyone of His creatures, or which He has chosen to keep in the knowledge of the unseen with Him to make our hearts full of the remembrance of Allāh ( سبحانه وتعالى) and to set our matters right. O Allāh! Set right our religion by virtue of which my affairs are protected, set right for me my world where my life exists, make good for me my Hereafter which is my resort to which I have to return, and make my life prone to perform all types of good, and make death a comfort for me from every evil. O Allāh! We seek refuge in You from the evil of ourselves and our bad deeds. O Allāh! We seek refuge in You from the evil of the Shayṭān and his encouragement to associate others (with You). We beseech You to guide us to the Straight Path and to guide us to every goodness and to make us one of the pious who listens to the Word [good advice] and follows it in the best manner.

Allāh knows best, and may prayers and blessings be upon his servant and Messenger Our Prophet Muḥammad, all his family and his companions.

These are some lines about the benefits of the remembrance of Allāh compiled by Shaykh Abdur Rahman Ibn Sʿ adī (رضي الله عنه), who says:
VERILY IN THE REMEMBRANCE OF ALLAH DO THE HEARTS FIND REST

قَدْ ذَكَرَ إِلَيْهِ الْعَرْشَ سَبَرًا وَرَعَّلَنَا

وَمَكِينَ لِلْبَيِّنَاتِ دِينًا وَآجِلًا

فَقَدْ أُخْبِرَ الْمُخْتَارُ يَوْمًا لِيَصْحِبَ

وَرَوْضَى مُعَاذًا يُسَتَّعِينُ إِلَيْهِ

وَأَوْصَى لِشَخْصٍ قَدْ أَلَّى لِتَصْبِيحَهُ

فِي حَمَّالِ الْقَرَائِعِ يَجْهَدُ

بَلْ لا يَزُولُ رَطْبًا لِسَانَكَ هَذِهِ

وَأَخْبَرَ أَنَّ الدُّكَرَ عَرْسُ لِأُهْلِهِ

وَآخِبَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَذْكُرُ عَبْدَهُ

وَمَعَهُ أَلَّا يَذْكُرُ عَبْدَهُ

وُمَلَّوْا الْتَكْلِيفَ حَيْنَ يُجَلَّلُوا

وَأَخْبَرَ أَنَّ الدُّكَرَ بِتَبَيِّنٍ بِجَنَّةٍ

وَلَوْلِمَ يَضُرُّ فِي ذَكْرِهِ غَيْرُ أَنْهُ

وَيَنْتَهِي الْفَقَى عَنْ غَيْبَةٍ وَنُبُومَةٍ

وَعَنْ كُلِّ قَوْلِ لِلْكِتَابِ مُفَضِّلُ

لَكَانَ أَنَا حَظِّ اللَّهِ عَظِيمٌ وَرَعْبُهُ

بحَضْرَةُ ذَكْرِ اللَّهِ يَعْمُمُ الْمُؤْحَدُ

Remembering Allah privately and publicly

Removes sadness and distress,

Bestows good matter in this worldly life and the Hereafter.

And will scatter whispering if it comes to you.

And the Prophet told his companions

That remembering a lot make one have gone ahead.

And advised Mu’adh to seek Allah's help

To remember, praise and worship well.

And advised someone who sought advice

While he feels acts of worship are too weary

That his tongue should be kept with the remembrance of Allah.

This helps make matters and make one happy.

And told that remembrance is a fertile land

For Eden paradise and beautiful mansions.
And told that Allāh mentions his servant
And with His slave, everything will be set right.
And told that remembrance will be in paradise,
While there is no acts of worship ordained.
And if there is no benefit in remembrance but
It is a way and a guide to love Allāh.
And forbids doing acts of backbite and gossip
And every saying misuse religion.
We will have a great luck and desire
With remembering Allāh a lot, none has the right to be worshiped but He.
But our ignorance make us remember Allāh very few,
And worship Allāh very few.

These are great lines concerning the benefits of the remembrance of Allāh. All that is mentioned in these lines based on evidence from the Noble Qur’ān and the Sunnah of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).
And Allah knows best, and May prayers and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, his family, and his companions.
Questions

Question #1: What are the best books to read concerning remembrance and supplications which are free from weak and fabricated Ḥadīths? And what are the best editions of these books?

Answer: The books which are compiled in this regard are a lot; there are the books of remembrance which are compiled by people of innovation in which remembrance and supplications are created by themselves or based on fabricated Ḥadīths. Muslim should not be occupied with this remembrance, but we should remember Allāh with what is mentioned by the Prophet ﷺ.

Thus, Muslim should choose the books by the renowned scholars and who care for the Ḥadīth of the Prophet ﷺ to benefit from. Fortunately, there are many printed and published books that can be read by the Muslim, such as the book entitled “Al-Wābil As-Sayyib” by Ibn Al-Qayyim (رحمه الله), and the book of Shaykh Al-Islam “Al-Kalim At-Tayyib,” and “Tuhfatul Akhyar” by Shaykh Abdul Aziz Ibn Baz. (رحمه الله).
There are many books based on the authentic Ḥadīth of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) the knowledge seeker can benefit from. However, one should keep a distance from the books that are not based on the Sunnah, particularly the ones in which deeds are specified to a certain time [inconsistent with the Sunnah] and remembrances inconsistent with the Noble Qur’ān and the Sunnah of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Sometimes, laypeople publish papers in which there are particular remembrances and supplications, saying whoever mentioned it would be protected, gain something, and lose something. They invented many benefits without any evidence. So, the Muslim should not pay attention to this or rely upon it.

Question #2: If this supplication for distress is said once, but I still feel distressed, can I repeat it?

It is authentic in the Prophetic Sunnah that this supplication is said in the morning and the evening?

Answer: This supplication is not one of the morning and evening remembrances. If this supplication is said, Allāh will make the sadness, distress, and anxiety go away. So, one should be committed to this supplication. It is important to think about its meaning and to reflect upon its significance so that it will have a great effect. If one is afflicted with sadness and distress, he should repeat this supplication. This supplication is a resort to Allâh, submission to Him and calling upon Him (سُبْحَانَاهُ وَتَجَلَّى). So, this supplication should be mentioned again and again if sadness and distress are repeated.

Question #3: Is the Ḥadîth of (nothing averts the Divine Decree but supplication) an authentic Ḥadîth? Can the Divine Decree be averted?

Answer: This Ḥadîth is mentioned by the Prophet ﷺ:

لا يَزَدُ الْقَدِرِ إلَّا الدُّعَاء

"Nothing averts the Divine Decree but supplication."

Supplication is associated with the Divine Decree. This is the meaning of this Ḥadîth. This means that if one is decreed to get in trouble or so, and he prays for Allâh (سُبْحَانَاهُ وَتَجَلَّى) to avert this trouble, all this is written in the Preserved Tablet.
“And everything they have done is noted in (their) Records (of deeds). And everything, small and big, is written down (in Al-Lauh Al-Mahfuz already beforehand i.e. before it befalls, or is done by its doer).” [Sūrah Al-Qamar 54:52-53]

Question #4: The Ḥadīth of,

من قال لا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ الْمُلُكُ وَ لَهُ الحَمْدُ وَ هُوَ

على كل شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ في يَوْمِ مَيْلَةٍ مَرَّةٌ كَانَ أَلَّهُ حَرُّ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ

“Whoever says [the following] hundred times in the morning will be guarded against the Shayṭān: ‘none has the right to be worshiped but Allāh Alone, no partners with Him, to Him belongs the Bounty, to Him belongs the Praise, He is Able to do all things.’”

Should it be said hundred times the whole day? Or hundred times in the morning and hundred times in the evening?

Answer: What I remember that this Ḥadīth of,
VERILY IN THE REMEMBRANCE OF ALLAH DO THE HEARTS FIND REST

"Whoever says none has the right to be worshiped but Allah Alone, no partners with Him, to Him belongs the Bounty, to Him belongs the Praise, He is Able to do all things hundred times a day."

The other Ḥadīth mentions hundred times in the morning and the evening:

"He who recites in the morning and the evening the statement: "Glory be to Allah" one hundred times, will not be surpassed on the Day of Resurrection by anyone with better deeds than one who utters the same words or utters more of these words."

This Ḥadīth is authentic, and this supplication should be said in the morning and the evening.
Question #5: One asks about a book entitled “Fiqh of Al-Adkár and supplications;” is the compiler of this book published the other part of it?

Answer: What I know is that the second part is about to be printed in shaa Allah. May Allah make it easy to be printed and benefited from.

Question #6: What is the meaning of remembrance of Allah inside one's heart?

Answer: Ibn Al-Qayyim said in his book entitled “Al-Wābil As-Sayyib” that remembrance of Allah is divided into two types: remembrance of Allah by the heart and by the tongue. Remembrance of Allah (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَمَامَانَ) by the heart means glorifying and loving Allah, remembering His Grandeur and His Names and Attributes. Remembrance of Allah by tongue indicates glorifying (saying Subhānallāh), praising (saying Al-Hamdulillah), Tahlil (saying La ilaha illa Allāh), Takbir (saying Allahu Akbar) and recitation of the Qur’ān; all this is a remembrance of Allāh.

Remembrance of Allāh may be of the heart and tongue, and the best is to remember Allāh by both, tongue and heart.
VERILY IN THE REMEMBRANCE OF ALLĀH DO THE HEARTS FIND REST

Allāh Knows best, and prayers and blessings be upon our Prophet Muḥammad, his family, and his companions.
