ATTENTION IN ŠALĀH, ATTENTIVENESS OF THE HEART, AND TREATING DISTRACTIONS

All praise belongs to Allāh. He whom made Šalāh a pillar of the religion and a strong connection between Allāh and His believing servants. Peace and blessings be upon Muhammad, the Trustworthy, his family, and all his Companions.

As to what follows:

Khushu’ is tranquility through peace and humility along with uprightness, as Allāh, the Most High says:

“Successful indeed are the believers. Those who offer their Šalāt (prayers) with all solemnity and full submissiveness.”
Meaning, indeed this is victory and happiness for the believers who perform Salah. As some of their traits are "Those who offer their Salah (prayers) with all solemnity and full submissiveness."

Al-Khushu’ in Salah: Presence of the heart therein before Allâh, the Most High, in love and honor, fearing His punishment, while desiring the reward of the Salah to acquire a tranquil heart. Then one will have a peaceful soul and clear, balanced movements. So he focuses on all thoughts and actions, as well as what’s mentioned in Salah from the beginning until the end, so as to make sure distracting thoughts and whims are not in the way. Thus khushu’ is the spirit of Salah and the main point of it.

Alas, any Salah without khushu' is like a body without a soul in it.
The foundation of the attention of the heart along with one's body parts is called khushu'. When the heart has khushu', all parts of the body will have khushu'. That's why Sa’eed bin Musayb (radiyallahu ‘anhu) brought to attention that there was a man playing around in Salah. He said:

لاَوْ خَشَعَ قَلْبُ هَذَا لَخُشِعَتْ جَوَارِحُهُ

"Had the heart of this person had khushu' his branches would be steady." (Sharh Al-Sunnah).
THE SHAYTAN AGAINST KHUSHU’

It is known by those with Khushu’ that the worshiper of Allah only receives the Salah in parts where attention of the heart exists. Shaytān wants the slaves of Allah to not pray so that they become from the abiders of the Hellfire. Whenever a person performs Salah, Shaytān begins whispering to distract from the Salah, to make it null and void or at least less complete. In the Ḥadīth:

إِنَّ الْعَبْدَ لَيُضَلَّي الصلَّةَ لَا يَكُنِّي لَهُ إِلَّا رَبِّهَا ء إِلَّا خُمْسَهَا، إِلَّا سَدِسَهَا، حَتَّى بَلْغَ عُشرَهَا.

"The slave goes to pray a Salah and finds that only a quarter is safe or a fifth or a sixth all the way to only a tenth or a small percentage." (Narrated by Abū Dāwud Al-Nasa’ee and Ibn Hibban)

The Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ was merciful and generous to the 'Ummah. Therefore, he led them to the necessary weapon they needed to face the enemy Iblīs.
Once a person plans to go to the masjid or anywhere else he should say:

بِاَسْمِ اللهِ، آَمَّنَتَ بِاللهِ، اعْتَصِمْتُ بِاللهِ,
تْوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللهِ وَ لَا حَوْلَ وَ قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللهِ.

“In the name of Allāh, I have faith in Allāh, protection is with Allāh, reliance is with Allāh, and there is no strength, might or power except with Allāh.”

Whenever a person says this du‘ā, it is said, “You have been guided, sufficed and protected.” Then Shaitān leaves him alone.

Then by the time a person goes to the masjid he should be saying:

أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ الْعَظِيمِ وَ بِوَجْهِهِ الْكَرِيمِ وَ
بِسُلْطَانِهِ الْقَدِيمِ مِنَ الْشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ.

‘Audho billahi Al-'adheem wa bi-wajhe al-kareem wa besultani al-qadeem min al-shaytan al-rajeeem
"I seek refuge in Allāh the Supreme and His Noble Face, along with His Everlasting Might from the outcast devil.

When a person says this duʿā, Shaytān whines:

عَصِيمَ مَتَى سَائِرُ الْيَوْمِ

"You have been protected from me the whole day." [Hadīth Hasan narrated by Abū Dawud with a good isnād]

During Salah, being content at heart, he says after the opening duʿā,

أَعْوُدُ بِاللَهِ السَّمِيعِ العَلِيمِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ

‘Audho billahi Al-Same’ Al-‘Aleem min Al-shaytan a-rajeem

"I seek refuge in Allāh, the All-Hearer, the Most Knowledgeable, from the outcast devil."

As a follower in the Salah, a person praying behind the Imam should be paying attention to what is being said and done. Especially when the recitation is out loud, he should listen to the recitation. And when the Imām is quiet, those following should enter into recitation.
OUTWARD EXPRESSIONS OF KHUSHU'

From the expressions of khushu' in Ṣalāh: one hand over the left wrist while facing the place of prostration. Do not look up while in Ṣalāh nor look right nor left. Be keen not to play around or be disturbed by clothing, etc. Also, it is not proper to crack fingers or connect them during Ṣalāh. All of this negates khushu'. Ibn 'Abbās (raḍī Allāhu 'anhum) states:

रक्षुनां फ़ि तफ़़िक़र खितर मनः ्फ़यमः लिएः औ अलङबः साह।

"Two rakah with reflection is better than staying the whole night in Ṣalāh with a heart that is inattentive." (Sharh Al-Sunnah)

Salman Al-Farisi (raḍī Allāhu anhu) said:

الصلة مکيةالقمم وفقي لله ومن ظفف

فِقَدْ عَلِمْتُمْ مَا قَالُوا الْلَّهُ فِي الْمُظفِفِينَ.

"As-Ṣalāh measures in balance. Whoever is loyal and dutiful will be satisfied and treated as such. While the one who acts to try to bring unbalance will be treated like those whom Allāh mentions in al-Muṭ affifīn.”

Ḥadīth:

“Worst of all people are those that allow theft to happen from Ṣalāh.”

Meaning, the one who does not complete rukū’, nor sujūd’ nor recitation in it. (Ahmad)

Ḥadīth:

“To be distracted is of two categories:

❖ The heart being distracted from Allāh, the Most High, to somebody else.
❖ The eyes being distracted from Ṣalāh.
Both of them are prohibited. Surely Allāh continues to be attentive towards His servant as long as one is attentive during Ṣalāh. Therefore, whenever a worshiper gives his attention to something else during the Ṣalāh Allāh is no longer required to give a reward.

The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) was asked about this topic and explained it as,

"Sneaking and theft that the Shaytān engages in while the slave is trying to perform Ṣalāh."

In one narration it is said:

"Beware of inattentiveness in Ṣalāh as that itself is destructive." (al-Tirmidhī)

We see that when a person plans to stand before a leader or king, he or she will become externally ornamented and kempt, attentive in hearing and seeing as well. It makes more sense that a person entering Ṣalāh will provide more attention since Allāh is aware of the servant’s seeing and hearing. Allāh is the King of kings Who deserves all fear and love, humility and reverence. He knows the hopes, desires and fears of all. Thus, He knows the hidden and present. This means one should be more prepared.

As-Ṣalāh, with all its movements (i.e., bowing, prostration, and standing), means complete obedience and submissiveness to Allāh, the Lord of all that exists, by obeying His commands and not disobeying Him in all times and places.
LEVELS OF KHUSHU'

Imām ibn al-Qayyim (북) said in his book, al-Wābil al-Sayyib min al-Kalim at-Tayyib:

People are placed into five levels with regards to the prayer:

1. The person who oppresses his/her soul through laxity. This is through weak performance in the pillars, wuḍū', Ṣalāh, its timings and limits.

2. The person who is okay with the wuḍū', pillars, and time/limits outwardly. Yet, the person is dealing with a waswas (whispering in Ṣalāh). Thus, they exit prayer without notice.

3. The one who prays properly. He or she is keen to observe the boundaries and pillars, performing jihad against the nafs and defending against waswas. This means the servant is busy in defending against the enemies who try to steal from his Ṣalāh. Thus, this category is in Ṣalāh and Jihād.

4. The person who perfects the rights of the Ṣalāh (as the Ṣalāh has duties). More than the arkan/hudūd, the person is wholeheartedly immersed in it, focusing on what is required. Nay, their whole concern is in performing Ṣalāh according to the way it should be.

5. The person who also perfects the rights of Allāh and establishes the pillars and boundaries of the Ṣalāh. Facing Allāh, the prayer of this person is filled with the supremacy of Allāh and muraqabah (i.e., watching one's soul who wishes for Allāh). This person's Ṣalāh is more supreme than what's between the heaven and the earth.

The first is punished, the second is called to account, the third will have his shortcomings expiated due to his struggle, the fourth will be rewarded, and the fifth is brought close to his Rabb as He was given a source of reward in that the Ṣalāh is the calmness and coolness of his eyes. Thus, he or she is relaxed by the Ṣalāh. This is similar to when the Prophet (ṣallā llāhu ʿalaihi wa sallam) said:

أَرْحَنَا يَا بَلَالُ بِالصَّلَاةِ

“Oh Bilāl let us relax by praying” [Zād Al-Ma'ād]
And he said:

جُبِّلَتْ قَرْةَ عَيْنِي فِي الصَّلَاةُ

“My eyes only find contentment in Salah.”
[Al-Jāmi’ Al-Ṣaghīr].

The person who finds contentment with Allah will always be happy. The one whose eyes don’t find contentment in Salah will see that the dunyā will be filled with sadness and discontentment. It will be for him woe upon woe.

The way a servant becomes filled with khushū’ in Salah is that they overcome their lusts and keep busy with remembrance of their Lord. Otherwise, he or she will remain a heart that is a prisoner of lusts and desires and Shaytān finds within his or her soul a place to sit. Like it is said: the empty soul is the devil's playground. How after that will one be free from waswas and empty thoughts?
WAYS THAT THE ŞALĀH WILL BE ACCEPTED

Some scholars of Islām said that the Şalāh has to have four traits to be lifted to the skies in acceptance:

 حصّور قلّبٍ، وِ شُهُودٌ عَقْلٍ، وَ خُضُوعٌ أَرْكَانٍ،
وَ خُضُوعٌ الْجَوَارِجِ.

“Presence of the heart, intellect, adherence to the pillars and humility of oneself and the body.”

The person who prays without the heart being present is fooling about. To pray without intellect is to be forgetful. To pray without the pillars is to have a lack of adherence. Whoever has a prayer with these four qualities is a loyal person who is properly subservient.

The Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) instructed us that if we pray a prayer to make it perfect as if it is our last pray thus he said:
"Pray as though it is your farewell prayer."

A farewell prayer meaning as if it is the last prayer you will pray in your life.
Khushu' in Salah is a condition ensuring that the outward body parts find tranquility through the actions of Salah. Along with that, adhkar are pronounced, said with a present and sane mind. Reflection and what is needed for that to happen occurs. Daily engagements noticed by the heart are a result of honoring Allah and holding Allah dear to the heart. Also, having feelings directed to Him by the heart in humbleness and a long supplication' called Qunūt. Salah is not completed with khushu' unless there is reason. Even if the physical expressions of the Sunnah are present or spoken, the Salah without khushu' is not satisfactory.

And khushu' is not realized except by those who concern themselves with purifying the soul by consistent dhikr by the heart and tongue. Remind your heart to be softened by remembering Allah on your tongue. Then one may be blessed to find a hard heart that has been uplifted spiritually. It is through certainty in 'İmân that a person may perform the worship of Allah as if the heart truly acknowledges and sees Allah. Allah says,

"Has not the time come for the hearts of those who believe (in the Oneness of Allah - Islamic Monotheism) to be affected by Allah's Reminder (this Qur'an), and that which has been revealed of the truth."

[Sūrah al-Hadid 57:16]

Excellency (Iḥsān) was explained by the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) as:

"To worship Allah as if you see him, and though you do not see Him, then know that He sees you."
What is referred to as Khushu’?

Between acquiring many different meanings that are directed to Allāh by one being attached to none else. Thus, one recognizes and honors Allāh and His supremeness. Humbling oneself towards Him and achieving an admirable tranquility to face only Him. One must hold this serious feeling of completeness in every word and action. This is done during the Șalāh. Thus, khushu’ is when the heart is uplifted in reverence to the Lord.

Those who have reached a higher level of worship and knowledge have agreed that khushu’ is located in the heart. Its fruit is realized on the limbs. The Khashi’ is the one who has reverence to Allāh and is fearful of Allāh. The explanation of khushu’ in Șalāh is to gather concentration for it and ignore all else.

This khushu’ is how one enhances the skill of observed psychological limits. This, of course, is one of the major causes of success in traits of this life.
And He related successfulness of those in Ṣalāh with khushu’ in the Muslim’s Ṣalāh. As we can now conclude that he who has no khushu’ in his Ṣalāh, then he is not from the people of success.

From that which ruins Ṣalāh is intentional speech, laughter, eating, and drinking, exposing ones ‘awrah or turning away from the Qiblah, fidgeting too much or excreting najasah. As for that which protects from Shaytān is to seek refuge in Allāh in order to reject him. Also, to be certain in rejecting Shaytān along with dhikr of Allāh the Most High. He (ṣaw) :

رَأَىَتُ رَجُلًا مِنْ أَمْثِلِي قَدْ احْتَوَضَتْهُ
الشَّيَاطِينُ فَجَاءَ ذَكْرُ اللهِ قَطردَ الشَّيْطَانُ
عَنْهُ.

“I saw a man from my Ummah that Shaytān had caused to become lonely and empty. Then came dhikr of Allāh which removed and rejected Shaytān from him.” {al-Wabel al-Sayyeb}

My brother Muslim: Preserve your Ṣalāh with its’ conditions, pillars, compulsory and khushu’ tradition, and completion in order that Allāh will protect you from it. We are aware that the Prophet gave the comparison of Salah with a flowing river that one bathes in 5 times every single day. So that the dirtiness and unwholesomeness leaves. Saying:

فَكَذَلِكَ الْصَّلُوَاتُ الْخَمْسُ يَمْحُو اللَّهُ بِهِنَّ

الْخَطَابِ

"Such is the five Salah by which Allah removes one's sins and faults." (Agreed upon)

Allah says,

وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَى صَلَاتِهِمْ مُحَافِظُونَ أُولَٰئِكَ فِي جَنَّٰتِ

مُكَرَّمَةٍ

"And those who guard their Salah (prayers) well, such shall dwell in the Gardens (i.e. Paradise) honored." [Surah Al-Ma’arij 70:34-35]

May Allah make us and all Muslims amongst those who are attentive at their worshiping as those will dwell in Gardens honored. May He send plenty of prayers upon Muhammad, his household and Companions. Sending many greetings.
KHUSHU IN THE PRAYER

PRACTICAL STEPS TO SUPPORT KHUSHU IN ṢALĀH

All praise belongs to Allāh Who made Ṣalāh the main aspect of the dīn, as He said:

وَإِنَّهَا لَكِبَرَةٌ إِلَّا عَلَى الْخَشِيْشِينَ وَلَاتُغُبَّنُونَ َ
ۗ إِنَّهُمْ مُلَتَّقُوْنَ لَهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمْ إِلَيْهِ رَجُعُونَ ۗ

"Truly it is extremely heavy and hard except for Al-Khashi'un [i.e. the true believers in Allāh - those who obey Allāh with full submission, fear much from His Punishment, and believe in His Promise (Paradise, etc.) and in His Warnings (Hell, etc.)]. (They are those) who are certain that they are going to meet their Lord, and that unto Him they are going to return." [Sūrah al-Baqarah 2:45-46]

May Allāh send peace and blessings on our noble Prophet Muḥammad since it is clear in the seerah that the Ṣalāh was the most important thing to us as an 'Ummah.
There is a dilemma which was present upon many. Harshness in the heart, lack of tears and a nearly non-existent reflection on the Qur’ān and the Sunnah and life. All of this is due to a consistent presence of sway or a consistent lack of principle that overcomes our hearts. It is like a crossroad has led us to take the path of lacking khushu’ , even in our actions of worship, which makes it very difficult for our hearts to retain khushu’ after this poor state of events has taken place.

It takes the Şaḥābah like Ṭuḥmān ibn Affān (r) to explain:

"Had your hearts been pure, then you would never reach full from the completeness of the words of Allāh." (al-Zuhd of Imām Ahmad)
Al-Imām ibn Qayyim, referring to khushu’ al-’Īmān, says:

"Khushu’ of the qalb (heart) to Allāh, with expressing supremacy, honor, sensitivity and exposure thus such one will express a turned and open heart. This open heart is one filled with purity, love, and serenity. To witness the blessings of Allāh and one’s crimes in lieu of this. Khushu’ enters the heart in no other way. And khushu’ of the limbs follows.” (Al-Ruh ibn Qayyim)

Amongst the aspects that show that khushu’ is the deciding factor in the acceptance of Ṣalāḥ is that it is the most important pillar after the testimony of faith.
It is mentioned in the Sunan of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) that he said:

إِنَّ الْعَبْدَ لَا يُنصَرِفَ مِنْ صُلَاتِهِ، وَ لَا يَكْتُبَ لِهُ مَنْ صُلِّتْهُ إِلَّا يُضْفُهَا، إِلَّا ثُلُّثَهَا، إِلَّا رُبُعَهَا، إِلَّا خَمْسَهَا، إِلَّا سَدِسَهَا، إِلَّا سَبْعَهَا، إِلَّا ثَامِنَهَا، إِلَّا عَشرَهَا.

"Verily, the servant of Allāh leaves from Salah without having written in it even a half, nor a third, nor a fourth, nor a sixth, nor one-seventh, until one reaches after an eighth and a ninth just a tenth of it."

Meaning, slowly one gains less and less of the Salah all due to khushu'. On the other hand, khushu' is fulfilling and eases the love one has for Salah. Shaykh ‘Abdur Raḥmān al-Sa’dī says in his tafsīr (of the verse):

"And it is difficult except for al-Khashi‘īn"

Meaning, those who are humble in Salah, it becomes easy and light for them, as khushu' and fear of Allāh and hope for what is with Allāh allows for the performing of the Salah with ease in one's chest. Due to the attention is given to reward and fear which has in punishment. Likewise, khushu’ is true knowledge.\textsuperscript{1}

Ibn Rajab (Ռջխաբ Ռաջաբ) explains the Ḥadīth of Abī Ad-Dardā’ regarding the virtue of knowledge. From ‘Ubadah ibn Al-Samit and ‘Awf ibn Malik along with Ḥudhayfah (ՌհդհնՌկ hå) that they said:

أوَلَ عَلَمٍ يُزْرَعُ مِنَ النَّاسِ الخَشْوُعُ حَتَّى لا تَرَى خَاشِعًا.

“The first knowledge to be lifted from the people is al-khushu’ thus you won’t see any individual who has any khashi’.”

Other Ḥadīth show that the departure of knowledge is due to the departure of action. The Companions (Ռկղաբ Ռաջաբ) held the tafsīr as internal knowledge escaping from the hearts. And that is khushu’. These are authentic narrations.

So Ṣalāh is a connection between the servant and his Lord. Hence a person cuts off from all other distractions in life. The individual turns with his or her whole human self to the Lord (i.e., Allāh) in order to achieve guidance and support. What can explain this is achieving wholeness once (due to the Șalâh). Now one should ask to be fully on the way of the Straight Path.

People are differential in this connection. For example, some people after this Șalâh are more gathering on the path of Allâh. Others do not achieve anything in particular at all. So their Șalâh is seen with reading out loud and movements, dhikr and tasbîh, but it is without any feeling to what’s being done or said.

Due to this, one should keep in mind that Șalâh is not words one has on his tongue or movements that one holds to perform on limbs if there is no taddâbur (reflection) from the intellect or khushû’ of the heart.

From Abû Hurayrah (رَضِيُّ اللهُ عَنْهُ) in Sunan al-Tirmidhî:
"The first deeds that the servant will be brought to account for is Salah. If that is sound, then the rest will be accepted and he will succeed. If it is not sound, then he will be lost as the obligatory aspects of Salah are diminished. Then the Lord will say: "Look to see if my servant has any voluntary deeds. This voluntary deeds will complete the fareedah along with all deeds according to this way."

When we noticed that a lot of people lack khushu’ in Salah, it became necessary to go over the ways to return to the pure Salah that has fulfillment and re-connect with Allah with Salah of the whole heart and limbs. Allah praised those with this character amongst the believers,

"Successful indeed are the believers. Those who offer their Salah (prayers) with all solemnity and full submissiveness." [Sūrah Al-Mu’minūn 23:1:2]
Perhaps we will understand the ayah where Allāh says:

"Verily, As-Ṣalāh (the prayer) prevents from Al-Fahsha' (i.e. great sins of every kind, unlawful sexual intercourse, etc.) and Al-Munkar (i.e. disbelief, polytheism, and every kind of evil wicked deed, etc.)"

[Sūrah Al-Ankabut 29: 45]

We need to ask ourselves what is the matter with many of us who leave from praying and then commit evil acts. There is a big difference between it and what is left from the prayer of those who have khushu’ and those who often return in repentance (i.e., to Allāh) in which the effect of their prayer upon the one who performs it. So the one of them who leaves from praying feels with every prayer as though his heart has been cleansed from the filth of this worldly life and has come closer to Allāh (عُفْيَينَ).
MEANS FOR ATTAINING KHUSHU’

It is inevitable that there are things that diminish one’s khushu’ and no doubt there are mistakes and flaws in our performance of the Șalâh. Perhaps in this talk, by Allâh’s permission, we can explore some helpful guidelines towards having khushu’ in the Șalâh. They are:

Having true ’Iмān and a firm creed (i.e., belief):

Having true ’Iмān and a firm creed is what results in having khushu’. This is a tremendous virtue in this life and in the Hereafter. Also, having awareness (i.e., in the Șalâh) coupled with calmness, tranquility, and ease has no equivalent or sweetness that can be surpassed.

Allâh (سبحانه و تعالى) says,

\text{قد أفلح المؤمنون آل الذين هم في صلاتهم}

“Successful indeed are the believers. Those who offer their Șalâh (prayers) with all solemnity and full submissiveness.” [Sūrah Al-Mu’mīnūn 23:1-2]

Imām Muslim narrated on the authority of ‘Uthmān bin Affān (r) that he said, “I heard the Messenger of Allāh (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) say,

ما من أميِّي مسلم خضره صلاة مكتوبة في حين وضوءها وخشوعها وركوعها إلا كانت كفارة لما قبله من الذنوب ما لم يؤت كبر وذلک الدهر گلُه

“When the time for a prescribed prayer comes, if any Muslim performs ablution well and offers his prayer with humility and bowing, it will be an expiation for his past sins, so long as he has not committed a major sin; and this applies for all times.”

The verses and aḥadīth that attest to the virtue of khushu are numerous.
STRIVING TO PERFORM LENGTHY RECITATION AND DHIKR

To recite a lot and have lots of dhikr which entails seeking Allah’s forgiveness as opposed to too much talkativeness.

لا تُكْفِرْوا الْكَلَامَ بَغْيَ الْذِّكْرِ الْهُدِيَّةَ اللَّهُ: قُلْنَ كَفُّرْوا
الْكَلَامَ بَغْيَ الْذِّكْرِ تَعَاىْ قَسُوٰةٌ لِلْقُلُبِ: وَإِنَّ أَبْعَدَ النَّاسِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْقُلُبُ الْقَاسِيٰ.

“Do not talk too much! Talking too much instead of dhikr of Allah will harden the heart. The farthest person from Allah is the hard heart.” [Collected by At-Tirmidhi]

Recitation of the Qur’ân and reflecting on its verses are from the closest ways to make the heart soft.

أَلَّهُ نَزَّلَ أَحْسَنَ الْحَدِيثِ كِتَابًا مُّسَّلَّمًا مَّتَاثِلًا تَفْسِيرٌ
مِنْهُ جَلَّوْدُ الْمَلِئِينَ يَفْثَسُونَ رُهْبَهُمْ ثُمَّ تَلِبُونَ جَلَّوْدُهُمْ
وَقَلْوُوُفُهُمْ إِلَى دُسَّرِ اللَّهِ

“Allah has sent down the best statement, a Book (this Qur’ân), its parts resembling each other in goodness and truth, oft-repeated. The skins of those who fear their Lord shiver from it (when they recite it or hear it). Then their skin and their heart soften to the remembrance of Allah.” [Sūrah Az-Zumar 39:23]

Recitation and dhikr are a protection and shield from Shayṭān and his whispers. They are also a way to comfort the heart. This is something that is lost on many people.

"Those who believe (in the Oneness of Allāh - Islamic Monotheism), and whose hearts find rest in the remembrance of Allāh, Verily, in the remembrance of Allāh do hearts find rest.” [Sūrah Ar-Rad 13: 28]

Also, dhikr of Allāh (عُمَّيْل) is a means to success.

“And remember Allāh much, that you may be successful.” [Sūrah Al-Jumu‘ah 62:10]
Now the reader knows that that dhikr is from the ways to increase in khushu’. Thus, the one who wants more knowledge about the virtue of dhikr should return to the Book of Allāh and the numerous dhikr exemplified by the Prophet (ṣallallāhuʿalayhiwassallam).

Performing jihad against Shaytān before entering Salah helps as well as it is a way of holding onto determination before standing to perform Salah. If the Shaytān tries to distract you in the beginning of Salah, one should not surrender in the middle of Salah until the end and then at the last moment strive to reach the highest point in one’s Salah.

Shaytān tries to distract the mind, so the one praying doesn’t understand anything from his Salah. Imam Muslim narrated on the authority of Uthmān ibn Abī Al-Aas (ṣallallāhuʿalayhiwassallam) that he said:

يَا رُسُولِ اللّهِ، إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ حَالَ بَيْنِي وَ بَيْنِ صَلَاتِي وَ بَيْنِ قَرَاءَتِي يَلْبِسُهَا عَلَيْ، فَقَالَ رُسُولُ اللّهِ صَلَّى اللّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَ سَلَّمْ: دَلَّتُ شَيْطَانَ بِكَ لِنَجَّرِيْ، فَإِذَا أَحْسَسْتُهُ فَقُوا: إِنَّ اللّهَ يُبَيِّنُ عَنَّكَ عَدَائِنَا. وَاتَّفِلْ عَنْ يَسَارِكَ لَلَّهَ.
“Oh Messenger of Allāh, no doubt Shayṭān stands between me and my Šalāh and when I recite Shayṭān disturbs me. The Prophet (صلالله عليه وسلم) said: “That is a Shayṭān named Khinzab. If you are interrupted, then seek refuge in Allāh and blow with a little saliva to the left three times.”

The one who narrated the Ḥadīth said,

“I did this so Allāh removed the disturbance.”

Then, it is suitable that the one in Šalāh strives and adheres to the Šalāh properly. Seeing that if one’s Šalāh was not performed properly that the next one should be. And if one notices the khushu‘ was less in one Šalāh, then the next one should have more khushu‘.

The important point is not to give up hope in performing Šalāh. Also to ask Allāh’s help in this by saying:
CONSTANT ACCOUNTABILITY AND WATCHFULNESS

Accounting and censuring oneself for what's not suitable in speech and action nor i’tiqād.

"O you who believe! Fear Allāh and keep your duty to Him. And let every person look to what he has sent forth for the morrow, and fear Allāh. Verily, Allāh is All-Aware of what you do.” [Sūrah Al-Hasr 59:18]

The leader of the believers, 'Umar ibn Al-Khaṭṭāb (رضي الله عنه) said:

"Hold yourself to account before you are held accountable; and weigh your deeds before they are weighed for you; and adorn yourself (i.e., with good deeds) for the biggest presentation (i.e., on the Day of Judgement).”

Likewise, stay away from acts of disobedience. So don’t involve yourself in looking and what is haram. Keeping the tongue and hearing safe as far away from the haram as possible. This applies for all body parts. Instead, involve them with the servitude of Allāh. Attend to the Book of Allāh and beneficial books of knowledge, along with that which is permissible and reflect about His great creations. Allow oneself to enjoy the wholesome from words and beneficial speech. Its well-known that sins chain a person and block him from performing acts of worship in a suitable fashion. Every person knows their own sin more than others. Rectifying one's condition is more important. This is related with accounting oneself in order to find what rectifies.

Tadabbur Al-Qur'ān and Dhikr

Tadabbur means to reflect and tafahhum means to comprehend what is said in Ṣalāh. Not to pay attention to other than the point of sujūd. Feeling the search and awe in the situation when facing Allāh.

Ibn Qayyim mentions in the book Al-Fawā’id:

“A worshipper faces to statuses, to stand before Allāh in Ṣalāh and to stand before Allāh on the Day of Judgement. Giving due diligence at the beginning means the next stance will be easy. But the one that doesn’t give attention in standing in Ṣalāh at the beginning will face hardship in the hereafter.”

Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) says:

وَمِنَ الَّذِينَ فَسَجَدَ لَهُ وَسَبِّحَهُ لَيْلَةٌ طَوِيْلَةٌ

“And during the night, prostrate yourself to Him (i.e. the offering of Maghrib and 'Isha' prayers), and glorify Him a long night through (i.e. Tahajjud prayer). Verily! These (disbelievers) love the present life of this world, and put behind them a heavy Day (that will be hard).” [Ṣūrah Al-Insān 76:26-27]
The prayer of a person who prays a final prayer will certainly contain what the prayer requires.

Imām Ahmad narrates on the authority of Abū Ayūb Al-Ansari (رضي الله عنه) that a man came to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and said, “Give me a sermon that’s concise.” He (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

إِذَا قُمْتَ فِي صَلاَتِكَ فَضِلْ صَلاَةً مُوَدَّعَةً لَا تَحَلَّلْهُ بِصَلَائِمٍ تَعْتَنَّى مِنْهُ وَأَجْمِعَ الْيَاسَ عَمَّا فِي أَيْدِي النَّاس

“When you stand to pray, pray like a man bidding farewell. Do not say anything for which you will have to apologize. And give up hope for what other people have.”

There are other ways to reach khushu'. We mention amongst them.

Resilience and presence of the heart:

It is known that when you’re concerned about a matter, then your heart will be present unconditionally. Thus, there is no way to treat this except by entering into Ṣalāh with a present heart. Inattentiveness is present in those who have less ‘Īmān and are attached to the lowly life of this dunya and vice versa.

Seeking pleasure through Ṣalāh

The sweetness that the people of Ṣalāh find in themselves is what was described by Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمهالله) by saying:

“In the dunya is a Jannah, whoever doesn’t enter it in the dunya won’t enter Jannah in the Hereafter.”

It is unbelievable that the Muslim finds this sweetness without care.

And this sweetness like what Ibn Qayyim describes is strengthened by how much love one has and weakened by how weak one becomes. Thus, it is benefitting that the Muslim paces along the way that leads to the love of Allāh.”

Hastening to the Ṣalāh:

This is achieved by preparing the heart to stand before Allāh, the Mighty and Honorable. It is suitable to come early for Ṣalāh in order to recite what is easy along with reflection and humility. That is more likely to achieve khushu’ in Salah.

In a Ḥadīth narrated by Bukhārī and Muslim from Abū Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) :

لَوْ يَعْلَمُ الْجَاهِلِ لَا يُعْلَمَ بِالْمَيْنَةِ وَالْبَلْدَةِ وَالْأَثْناَيْضُ وَالْعِصْيَاءَ وَالْمَدِينَةِ حَيَالَهَا لَيَقُولُوا إِنْ أَنْ يُسْتَهْيِلُوا عَلَيْهِ وَلَوْ يَعْلَمُونَ مَا فِي النَّهْجِ لَأَسْتَبْقَا إِلَيْهِ

“If people knew what was in the adhan and the first row of the prayer and could only draw lots for it, they would draw lots. And if they knew what was in doing Dhuhr early, they would race each other to it.”

Different is the gathering of the people of dunya compared to the gathering of the people of the Hereafter who read the Book of Allāh. Of course, the second group of people will be more virtuous in Salah.

Having haya’ (shyness) of Allāh:

For the worshipper to avoid being seen by the Mighty and Honorable in empty actions, void of any spirit, the feeling of shyness before Allāh pushes a Muslim to perfect his ‘ibādah (i.e., worship). Likewise, the person will seek closeness to Allāh with Ṣalāh that encompasses sanctified feelings of fear and desire.

Observing the condition of the Salaf (pious ones who came before):

For the Muslim to observe the condition of the Companions and Salaf in Ṣalāh.

Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) - Muslim bin Yassir (radhiallahu anhu) used to pray in the masjid which was destroyed partially so the people left and he was in Ṣalāh not noticing anything else.

Then came war equipment against Abdullah bin Zubair and he was in Ṣalāh not noticing anything else.

They said to Amar ibn Al-Qays:

"'Does your self-consciousness distract you in Ṣalāh?" He answered: 'Is there anything more beloved to me than Ṣalāh?'' They informed him that they have things that distract them in Ṣalāh."

He asked if it was with Hūr al-‘īn and Jannah. He was then told that it was rather due to their wealth and families. He found that his whole life he never wanted that to happen.

These were some of the means to support khushu’-by the permission of Allāh. Therefore, we ask Allāh to support us in His obedience in the way that will keep Him pleased with us.
