Taqwaa is the cause for every Good
Taqwaa is the cause for every Good

SHAYKH 'ABDUL-AZEEZ BIN 'ABDULLAH BIN BAAZ
© Maktabatulirshad Publications, USA

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced in any language, stored in any retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means, whether electronic, mechanic, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without express permission of the copyright owner.

ISBN: 978-1-6317-3616-2

First Edition: Rabee’ Thani 1435 A.H. / February 2014 C.E.

Cover Design: Aboo Sulaymaan Muhammad ‘Abdul-Azim bin Joshua Baker

E-mail: info@maktabatulirshad.com

Translation by: Abdul-Kareem Hagedorn & Aboo Yusuf ‘Abdullaah Ibrahim Omran Al-Misri

Revision of Translation by: Aboo Yusuf ‘Abdullaah Ibrahim Omran Al-Misri

Editing: Deliberate Ink

E-mail: shakirah@deliberateink.com

Typesetting and Formatting: Aboo Sulaymaan Muhammad ‘Abdul-Azim bin Joshua Baker

Printing: Ohio Printing

Subject: Admonition

Website: www.maktabatulirshad.com

E-mail: info@maktabatulirshad.com
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>INTRODUCTION</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WHAT IS TAQWAA AND WHAT ARE ITS FRUITS?</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HOW CAN MUSLIMS ACHIEVE VICTORY OVER THE ENEMIES OF ALLAH?</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AFFLICTIONS</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IS THERE A CLEAR-CUT DEFINITION FOR TAQWAA?</td>
<td>23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>THE RELIGION OF ISLAM IS NAMED AFTER &quot;'IBADAH (WORSHIP AND SERVITUDE)&quot;</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>THE RELIGION OF ISLAM IS ALSO NAMED AFTER EMAAN (FAITH)</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>THE RELIGION OF ISLAM IS NAMED AFTER &quot;AL-BIRR (GOODNESS)&quot;</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
INTRODUCTION

All praise is due to Allah, Lord of all that exists, and for the righteous individuals is the best of ends. May the Salaah, Salaam, and Blessings of Allah be upon His Servant and Messenger—the best from His Creation, and the trustworthy over His revelation—our master, our leader, our Prophet Muhammad, the son of Abdullah; and also upon his family, companions, and those following his way and adhering to his guidance until the Day of Resurrection.

To proceed:

Because of the intense need for taqwaa and its immense significance, and the fact that every one of us—every Muslim—is in desperate need of taqwaa and istiqaamah (uprightness) upon that, I decided to write this brief essay. May Allah benefit the Muslims with it.

I say, whoever contemplates the frequent references to taqwaa in the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Messenger (Peace be upon him) will realize that taqwaa is the cause for every good in the worldly life (Dunya) as well as the Hereafter. So oh servant of Allah, whenever you recite the Book of your Rabb from its beginning to its end, you find that taqwaas is the head, the key, and the cause of every good in the Dunya and Hereafter. On the other hand, you suffer difficulties, trials, tests, and punishments because of carelessness or a violation of taqwaas, and neglecting or discarding a portion of it.

Taqwaas is the cause of happiness, hope, and alleviation of anxiety, as well as the strength and help in the Dunya and Hereafter. The following verses will illustrate these points:

وجِنِّي إذ دَخَلْتِ الْجَدِّ عِنْدَ رَبِّي ۚ وَأَدْمَجْنَاهُ مِنْ حَيٍّ لَا يَحْتَذِبُ

“And whosoever fears Allah and keeps his duty to Him, He will make a way out for him, and He will provide him from (sources) he never could imagine.”
[Soorah at-Talaq 65:2-3]

Some of the salaf said: “This verse is the most comprehensive verse in the Book of Allah,” or they said, “It is among the most comprehensive of verses in the Book of Allah.” It has such status because all goodness in this world and the next springs from it. Allah has made for those who fear Him an escape from the difficulties of the Dunya as well as the Hereafter. And mankind is in severe, intense, dire need of safety from the afflictions of the Dunya and the
INTRODUCTION

Hereafter—especially those to be experienced on the Day of Judgment.

So those who fear Allah in this abode—Allah will relieve them from the troubles of the Day of Resurrection, and they will obtain happiness on this heavy and mighty day.

Whoever suffers any distress should fear Allah in all affairs until attaining solace and facility. Hence, taqwaa is the door to alleviation from the plight of hardships, the sorrows of poverty, the grief of oppression, the anxieties of sin and transgression, as well as the torment of shirk and disbelief.

Additionally, one must be on one’s guard against sins and evil deeds in order to save oneself from their horrible consequences in the Dunya and the Hereafter. Sins come with punishments either pre-decreed or legal, such as capital punishment, reprehension, and retribution depending on the gravity of the sin.

Sins also have punishments in the Hereafter. They begin with the torment of the grave, and continue with the emergence from the graves and the Resurrection along with its agonies and hardships. The scales of some people will be lightened due to their negligence of taqwaa, whereas the scales of others will be tipped in their favor due to their maintaining it.
People will be given their scrolls of deeds in their right hand if they were steadfast upon piety and in their left hand if they deviated from taqwa. They will be guided into Jannah if they are upright upon taqwa while others will be driven to the Hell-Fire if they forfeit piety, and there is no might nor power except that of Allah.

The people are also in need of good, lawful provision in this life as well as permanent happiness in the Hereafter—the most excellent and greatest of amenities bar none—and the only means to acquire these blessings is to embody taqwa. As Allah, the Glorious and Majestic, said:

"O you who believe! If you obey and fear Allah, He will grant you Furqan (a criterion [to judge between right and wrong])." [Soorah Al-Anfal 8:29]

Scholars defined the Furqan as “the light which distinguishes between truth and falsehood, guidance and error.”

It is well known that diligence in seeking knowledge and understanding of the Religion is from the completeness of taqwa. With this diligence, light and guidance are obtained, and they are the Furqan (criterion).
WHAT IS TAQWAA AND WHAT ARE ITS FRUITS?

WHAT IS TAQWAA AND WHAT ARE ITS FRUITS?

Taqwaa is a comprehensive word that holds faith and righteous deeds at its core, as Allah, the Majestic and Most High, says:

\[ \text{٣٨} \]

“Verily, those who believe (in Islamic Monotheism) and do righteous good deeds, for them are Gardens of delight (Paradise).”

And the saying of Allah, the Glorious and Majestic:

\[ \text{١٧} \]

1 Luqman (34:8)
“Whoever works righteousness, whether male or female, while he (or she) is a true believer (of Islamic Monotheism), verily to him We will give a good life (in this world with respect, contentment and lawful provision), and We shall certainly pay them a reward in proportion to the best of what they used to do (i.e. Paradise in the Hereafter).” ²

Based on the earlier verse, one can deduce that true faith in Allah, His Messenger, the traditions reported by all the Messengers, and righteous deeds—which result from that faith—are both the embodiment of taqwa.

At times people encounter some difficulties in getting a hold of their needs. However, taqwa is the key to this plight and the cause for its facilitation. Allah, the Glorious and Majestic, says:

“And whosoever fears Allah and keeps his duty to Him, He will make his matter easy for him.” ³

² An-Nahl (16:97)
³ At-Talaq (65:4)
WHAT IS TAQWAA AND WHAT ARE ITS FRUITS?

The salaf—the companions and their followers—and the Messengers, sent to guide humanity, fulfilled this command of taqwaa, and it brought about an increase in goodness, happiness, victory, and guidance of the hearts and mankind to the straight path.

They assumed leadership of the world, left an excellent reputation, and secured consecutive victories because of their taqwaa, commitment to Allah's commands, support of the cause of His religion, and unity upon tawheed and obedience to Allah.

People are desperate for forgiveness of their sins, and the path to this is taqwaa. Allah, The Glorious and Majestic said:

> إنَّنَّفَوْاْ لَكُم مَّرْجَعًا وَيُكْفِرَ عَنْهُمْ سَيْنَاتُكُمْ وَيُغْفِرُ لَكُمْ

“If you obey and fear Allah, He will grant you Furqan (a criterion [to judge between right and wrong]) or a makhraj (i.e. making a way for you to get out from every difficulty), and will expiate for you your sins, and forgive you.”

---

4 Al-Anfal (8:29)
And the saying of Allah, the Glorious and Majestic:

وَمَنْ يَتَّقِنِ اللَّهَ يُكَفِّرْ عَنْهُ سَيْنَاتِهِ،َ وَيَضِعُ الْجَهَنَّمَ مَيْلاً لَّهُ

“And whosoever fears Allah and keeps his duty to Him, He will forgive his sins for him, and will enlarge his reward.” ⁵

Among those rewards is obtaining a ticket to Paradise and way out of the hell-fire.

⁵ At-Talaq (65:5)
HOW CAN MUSLIMS ACHIEVE VICTORY OVER THE ENEMIES OF ALLAH?

1- Muslims are in need of victory over their enemies and safety from their plots, and there is no course toward achieving this except with taqwa. Allah The Glorious and Majestic says:

\[
\text{وَإِنْ تَصْرِّفُوا وَتَسْتَقِّوا لَا يُضَرِّبُ عَلَيْهِم مِّّنْ أَنْفَسَهُ وَمَا "}
\]

"But if you remain patient and become Al-muttaqun (pious--ones with taqwa), not the least harm will their cunning do to you. Surely, Allah surrounds all that they do." \(^6\)

2- Muslims should maintain patience throughout their path of obeying Allah and fighting His enemies, and be steadfast to Allah. This will ultimately lead to the

---
\(^6\) 'Ali Imran (3:120)
Muslims’ victory over their enemies. It is of great importance to prepare whatever is possible from all aspects. This includes physical training and exercise, training with weapons, financial preparation including agriculture and industry, as well as whatever means is required by jihad to suffice them from the enemies.

This point is elegantly briefed in the following verse:

"And make ready against them all you can of power." 7

Victory will not be realized without patience throughout the entire process. Patience is one of the most significant branches of taqwa; Allah coupled patience and taqwa together in the following verse:

"But if you observe patience and taqwa." 8

---

7 Al-Anfaal (8:60)
8 'Ali Imran (3:120)
 HOW CAN MUSLIMS ACHIEVE VICTORY
OVER THE ENEMIES OF ALLAH?

Patience and endurance must be observed in the following matters:

1- Fighting the enemy.
2- Facing the enemy armies.
3- Physical power and provision of utilities for preparation.
4- Striving to manufacture high quality military equipment that either rivals those of the enemies or outclasses them if possible.

Patience must be coupled with taqwaa, and taqwaa takes the shape of performing Allah's obligations, abstaining from His prohibitions, observing the limits set by Him, displaying a spirit of humility before Him, and having firm belief that victory is only secured by Him.
Victory does not come as a cause of the preparation of multitudes of troops and military equipment or any other cause; it's only guaranteed by Allah; the preparation is meant to give a feeling of tranquility and an auspicious sign of upcoming victory.

Allah says,

{\textit{وَمَآ جَعَلَهُ أَلَّهُ إِلَّا بَشْرَیْنَ وَلِلْإِذْكَارِ بِهِ فَلَوْبُكَمْ وَمَا اتَّصَرَّرَ إِلَّا
من عِنْدِ رَبِّكَ}}

[14]
“Allah made it only as glad tidings, and that your hearts be at rest therewith. And there is no victory except from Allah.”

Allah says,

“O you who believe! If you help (in the cause of) Allah, He will help you, and make your foothold firm.”

Also,

“Verily, Allah will help those who help His (Cause). Truly, Allah is All-Strong, All-Mighty. Those (Muslim rulers) who, if we give them power in the land, (they) enjoin Iqamat-as-Salât (i.e. to perform the five compulsory congregational Salât [prayers] among the males in mosques), to pay the Zakât (i.e. charity) and they enjoin Al-Ma'ârûf (i.e. Islâmic Monotheism and all that Islâm orders one to do), and forbid Al-Munkar (i.e. disbelief, polytheism and all that Islâm has; they make the Qur'ân as the law of their country in all the spheres of life).”¹¹

These deeds (i.e. establishing the prayer, enjoining good and forbidding evil) branch from taqwaa. One can now grasp the essential meaning conveyed by the verse,

\[\text{وَإِن تَصَبَّرُوا وَتَنْتَفَعُوا لَا يُضَرُّكُمْ شَيْئًا} \]

“And if you maintain patience and taqwaa, their (i.e. the enemy) cunning won't harm you at all.”¹²

In short, victory, dignity, safety in this world and the next, relief from distress, forgiveness, and entrance into Paradise follow from one's observance of taqwaa to Allah, the Almighty. Allah referred to the residents of Paradise as pious (al-muttaqun)—those with taqwaa:

---

¹¹ - Al-Hajj (22:40-41)
¹² - Al-Imran (3:120)
“Verily, the pious will be in the midst of Gardens and springs,”¹³ and also,

“Verily, the pious will be in Gardens (Paradise), and Delight,”¹⁴

and,

“Verily, for the pious and righteous persons are Gardens of delight (Paradise) with their Lord.”¹⁵

These verses emphatically declare that Allah prepares Paradise for the pious.

¹³ - Al-Dhariyaat (51:15)
¹⁴ - At-Tur (52:17)
¹⁵ - Al-Qalam (68:34)
-Muslim brothers and sisters, to attain goodness and be saved from evil, you should embrace taqwa. This doesn't mean that you won't be tested with afflictions; afflictions actually come with taqwa. The Messengers—the best of mankind—were afflicted to display their patience and gratitude as an ideal example for people to follow. Afflictions test the reality of one's patience, gratitude, and steadfastness upon the religion of Allah, the Majestic.

Allah says,

"Do people think that they will be left alone because they say: "We believe," without being tested? And We indeed tested those who were before them. And Allah will certainly make (it) known (the truth of) those who are true, and will certainly make (it) known (the falsehood of) those who are liars, (although Allah knows all that before putting them to test).” 16

Afflictions and trials are integral and essential as illustrated. Allah also says,

“And surely, We shall try you till We test those who strive hard (for the Cause of Allah) and As-Sabirun (the patient ones), and We shall test your facts (i.e. the one who is a liar, and the one who is truthful).” 17

And,

“We shall make a trial of you with evil and with good.” 18

---

16 - Al-'Ankaabut (29:2-3)
17 Muhammad (47:31)
18 Al-'Anbiyaa (21:35)
“We tried them with good (blessings) and evil (calamities) in order that they might turn (to Allah’s Obedience).” 19

One can conclude from the previous verses that affliction is a necessary test. The Messengers, who are the best of mankind, were tested with confronting the enemies of Allah. Nuh, Hood, Salih, and leading them our Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him)—the Seal of Prophets, the leader of the pious, the best mujāhid, and the Messenger of the Lord of the Universe—were all put to trial in confronting their people.

The Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him) suffered in Makkah and al-Madinah, and sustained dangerous injuries during battles. Nevertheless, he maintained an impregnable patience until Allah ultimately granted him total triumph over his enemies and opponents. This victory was crowned by the conquest of Makkah and many tribes embracing Islam. Eventually, after Allah completed His favor upon him and his nation and perfected the religion for them, Allah took his soul up to the heavens with Him, the Majestic. But this was after a long journey of trials, afflictions, and patience.

The experience of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him) refutes whoever alleges that one’s taqwaa stands between one and afflictions. The opposite is the reality. One should expect trials at any time, and whoever maintains patience shall reap the best of rewards, as Allah says:

19 Al-'Araaf (7:168)

“So be patient, for surely, the (good) end is for the pious.” 20

And,

“And the good end (i.e. Paradise) is for the Muttaqûn.” 21

This tells us that the pious attain a good end as long as they commit to patience, await Allah's reward, have sincerity, stand against the enemies of Allah, and resist their own souls.

Allah says,

“As for those who strive hard in Us (Our Cause), We will surely guide them to Our Paths (i.e. Allah's religion - Islamic

---

20 Hood (11:49)
21 Taha (20:132)
Monotheism). And verily, Allah is with the Muhsinūn (good doers).” 22

It has become crystal clear now that one should embrace and commit to taqwaa regardless of any trial that may come during the journey, and no matter how hurtful the harm or the mockery from the enemies of Allah or from sinners and unchaste people. One must put all of this behind one’s back and follow the example of the Messengers (Peace be upon them all) and their followers upon goodness. They were harmed, mocked, and ridiculed, but they shielded themselves with patience; therefore, they rightfully earned the best of rewards in this life and in the one yet to come. So follow their lead and have patience.

22 Al-'Ankaabut (29:69)
TAQWAA IS THE CAUSE FOR EVERY GOOD

IS THERE A CLEAR-CUT DEFINITION FOR TAQWAA?

Besides the previous illustration of some aspects of taqwaa, scholars have various statements regarding its definitions:

1- It is reported that 'Umar ibn 'Abd al-'Aziz, the Leader of the Believers (may Allah be pleased and have mercy upon him), said, “The essence of taqwaa is not just standing for night prayer, fasting, or a mixture of both; but rather observing Allah's obligations and abstaining from His prohibitions; and whoever exceeds this has been bestowed with an abundance of goodness.”

He is referring to the person who has energy to perform, beyond the obligatory rituals, voluntary prayers and stays away from the disliked and equivocal matters.

2- The famous tābi'i (successor of the companions), Talq ibn Habib (may Allah have mercy on him), said, "Taqwaa is obeying Allah consistently with the Sunnah [i.e. the light revealed by Allah], awaiting Allah's reward, and abstaining from sinning as the Sunnah ordained fearing Allah's punishment.”

[23]
3- Others said, “Taqwaa is obedience to Allah and His Messenger.”

4- Still others said, “Taqwaa is to shield yourself against Allah’s wrath and punishment by observing the obligated duties and abstaining from the prohibitions.”

All of these definitions fall within the scope of taqwaa. The essential core of taqwaa is observing the religion of Islam in general: to have faith and perform righteous deeds. Taqwaa is the straight path. It is submission and surrender to Allah [Glory be to Him] in the form of complying with His commands and abstaining from His prohibitions out of pure sincerity and well-versed faith in Allah and His Messenger that drives the believer to perform good deeds, distance him from evil and observe the limits set by Allah.

Allah made taqwaa the foundation of His religion because it provides whoever embraces it with a shelter against Allah’s punishment and wrath. Allah has named His religion “Islam” because one who adopts it surrenders one’s will to Allah’s will and complies with His commands.

Allah says,

[24]
TAQWAA IS THE CAUSE FOR EVERY GOOD

“Truly, the religion with Allah is Islam.”²³

A true Muslim is one who submits to Allah’s command and keeps great distance between oneself and Allah’s prohibitions, and observes the limits set by Allah. This Muslim is one who follows the lead of Allah, and whatever joy, love, and comfort one experiences is a result of compliance with the commands of Allah. This is how the term “Muslim” came to be.

²³ - Al-Imran (3:19)
THE RELIGION OF ISLAM IS NAMED AFTER "IBADAH (WORSHIP AND SERVITUDE)"

Allah named the religion after worship as in His statement:

\[
	ext{بُلْ بِإِنَادِيَةٍ أَنْ تَعْبَدُوا مِنْ دُونِيَّ}{\text{(2)}}
\]

"O mankind! Worship your Lord (Allah)."

24

\[
	ext{وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِلَٰهِينَ إِلَّا لِيُحْكَمُونَ}{\text{(5)}}
\]

"And I (Allah) created not the jinn and mankind except that they should worship Me (Alone)." 25

The servants of Allah perform the obligations and abstain from the prohibitions ordained by their Lord out of humility and submission to Him; and out of a decisive admission that they are servants to Allah who is their Lord and whose power is limitless. He is the one who has a full account of their affairs and He is its

---

24 - Al-Baqarah (2:21)
25 - Al-Dhariyat (51:56)
Disposer. Therefore, Allah named His religion after worship or servitude.

Our obedience to Allah is categorized under the term “Ibadah” because we obey Allah out of humility and surrender to Him alone. A servant is one who is subdued to one’s Lord who created one, and it is He Who disposes their affairs.
THE RELIGION OF ISLAM IS ALSO NAMED AFTER EMAAN (FAITH):

It is named as such because the person worships Allah out of faith in Allah and in His Messengers as explained in the authentic hadith:

The Messenger of Allah (Peace be upon him) said,

الإِيمَانُ بِصَفْعٍ وَ سَبُعُونَ صُبْعَةٍ ،ِ فَأَفْضَلَهَا قَوْلُ

لا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَ أَدْنَاهَا إِسْمَالتُهُ الأَدْيَ عَنْ الطُّرْقِيْقِ وَ

الْحَيَاةُ صُبْعَةٌ مِّنَ الإِيمَانِ

“Faith has over seventy branches, the most excellent of which is the testimony that there is no god but Allah, and the humblest of which is the removal of what is injurious from the path, and modesty is a branch of faith.”

The Prophet (Peace be upon him) expounds in this hadith that the entire religion is faith, the 26 - Recorded by Al-Bukhari and Muslim; this wording is Muslim's.

---

most excellent of which is the testimony that there is no God but Allah; this tells us that the religion in its entirety, as Allah ordained, is faith. Allah says,

وَعَدَّ اللَّهُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرَى مِن تَحْلِيلٍ

الْآخِرَةُ

“Allah has promised the believers, men and women, gardens under which rivers flow to dwell therein forever.”

One is described as a believer because one believes in Allah and in the last Day, observes one’s assigned duties in obedience, and abandons prohibitions out of a firm belief in Allah and conforming to (the fact) that He is the One Who commands and forbids. The believer worships Him knowing this pleases Him, awaiting His reward, and knowing, beyond doubt, that He is the believer’s Lord and He will not abandon the believer. For all these reasons, the believer worships Him and adhere to His commands and struggles against personal desires for His sake.

27 - Al-Tawbah (9:72)
THE RELIGION OF ISLAM IS NAMED AFTER “AL-BIRR (GOODNESS)”

It is named as such because all of its aspects bear integral goodness. Moreover, it is named after guidance (Huda) because the moral and action code of whoever embodies it will be refined to the best. Allah sent His Messenger to perfect the finest of actions and the best of deeds.

The Messenger of Allah (Peace be upon him) said,

إِنَّمَا بُعِثْتُ لِأُسْتَحْيَا مَكَانَ عِمَّ الْأَخْلَاقِ

“I was sent to perfect good character.”

Unays, the brother of Abu Dharr, said, “I heard the Messenger (Peace be upon him) promoting the perfection of character.”

Allah says,

وَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمُ مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ أُمَّهَتُهُمْ

“There has surely come to them the Guidance from their Lord!”

28 - Al-Najm (53:23)
Allah said regarding those upon Islam,

قُلُوهَاَ مَا تُنفِّصُونَ حُرْمَاتَ اللَّهٍ وَلَا تَفْنَِّدُوْنَ حَلُولَهَا وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا أَنْفُسَنَّ

“They are on (true) guidance from their Lord.” 29

He also described them saying,

وَأَوْلَادُكُمْ هُمَّ الْمُهْدُونَ ۚ ۚ

“They who are the guided.” 30

By now, you are able to grasp the meanings of Islam, Emaan, Taqwaan, Huda (guidance), al-Birr, and worship. You’ll also conclude that the religion of Islam encompasses all aspects of goodness. The person who strictly follows it, commits to it, fulfills its rights, and struggles against his own desires, is indisputably pious. This person is promised Paradise and dignity, relief from distress, facilitation of affairs, forgiveness and expiation of sins, victory and support from Allah, and security against the plots of the enemies of Allah.

The one who fulfills the rights of Allah and those of His servants has earned the titles pious,
THE RELIGION OF ISLAM IS NAMED AFTER “AL-BIRR (GOODNESS)”

believer, paragon, prosperous, and truly guided Muslim.

I ask Allah to grant us and all the believers taqwaa, to guide us to what He loves and what pleases him, and to include us among His righteous believers and His successful party. I ask Him to bestow upon us uprightness in our speech and deeds, to proclaim it, and to have patience throughout. He is, indeed, the Most Benevolent.

And all praise is due to Allah, the Lord of the universe, and may Allah's peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, his family, his companions, and his followers upon goodness until the Day of Judgment.