Indeed, all praises belong to Allāh. We praise Him, seek His aid, seek His forgiveness. We seek refuge with Allāh from the evil of our souls and the wicked consequences of our actions. Whomsoever Allāh guides, no one can mislead him and whomsoever is misled, no one can guide him.

I openly testify that no one has the right to be worshiped except Allāh alone Who has no partners. And I openly testify that Muḥammad is His servant and Messenger. May Allāh raise him in rank and grant his family and all his Companions peace.

To proceed:

The topic of this treatise is one of tremendous purpose which every Muslim, male and female, needs, “Our duty concerning what Allāh orders us with.” Our duty concerning what we have been commanded with has been mentioned in the Book of our Lord (i.e., Allāh) and in the Sunnah of our Prophet (ṣallā Allāh ‘alayhi wa sallam).
This lofty topic before us is a reminder that Allâh (عَزِزَاللَّهِ) did not make this creation futilely nor did he bring it into existence for play and amusement. Our Lord (i.e., Allâh) is free from that. Rather, He made the creation upon truth. Allâh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) says,

خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتُ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ تَمَلَّى عَمَّا

جَبَّرُوْنَ

“He has created the heavens and the earth with truth. High be He Exalted above all they associate as partners with Him.” [Sûrah an-Nahl 16:3]

Allâh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) declared Himself above making this creation in falsehood or bringing it into existence for play throughout numerous verses in His Book. Allâh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) says,

وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَاءَ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا بَطَلاً

ذَلِكَ ظَنُّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُواْ قَوْيٌ لِّلَّذِينَ كَفَرُواْ مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ

أَمُّ تَجَّعَلُ الَّذِينَ حَامِئُواْ عَبَّادًا وَعَمِلُواْ الصَّلِيحَاتِ كَأَفْسَسِينَ

فَنَّ أَمَّ تَجَّعَلُ الْمُتَّقِينِ كَذُلَّكَ عَجَارٌ

[15] P a g e
“And We created not the heaven and the earth and all that is between them without purpose! That is the consideration of those who disbelieve! Then woe to those who disbelieve (in Islāmic Monotheism) from the Fire! Shall We treat those who believe (in the Oneness of Allāh Islāmic Monotheism) and do righteous good deeds, as Muṣīdūn (those who associate partners in worship with Allāh and commit crimes) on earth? Or shall We treat the Muṭṭaqūn (pious - see V.2:2), as the Fūjār (criminals, disbelievers, wicked, etc.)?” [Sūrah Sād 38:27-28]

Allāh (سُبْحَانَ وَتَعَالَي) clarifies this supposition and belief of the disbelievers in which they assume and believe they were only created for amusement, play, and in vain and that Allāh (سُبْحَانَ وَتَعَالَي) only created this creation futilely. Meaning, without wisdom and purpose. Based upon this Allāh says,

FORMULA

“That is the consideration of those who disbelieve!”
Meaning those who assume this offense about the Lord of all that exists and believe this false creed about Him. Afterward, Allah threatens them saying,

"Then woe to those who disbelieve (in Islamic Monotheism) from the Fire!"

Allah (عَزَّ وَجَلَّ) says in another verse,

"We created not the heavens and the earth and all that is between them for a (mere) play. Had We intended to take a pastime (i.e. a wife or a son, etc.), We could surely have taken it from Us if We were going to do (that)." [Sūrah al-Anbiyā 21:16-17]

The Qur’ān mentions Allah’s (بَارِزَةُ السَّمَاوَاتِ) praise of His pious servants, His believing friends, and His close group who possess sound intelligence and an upright understanding. Among their momentous actions is their contemplation of the creation of the heavens and the earth as well as their firm Īmān, that it was not created futilely. Allāh says,

"Verily! In the creation of the heavens and the earth, and in the alternation of night and day, there are indeed signs for men of understanding. Those who remember Allāh (always, and in prayers) standing, sitting, and lying down on their sides, and think deeply about the creation of the heavens and the earth, (saying): ‘Our Lord! You have not created (all) this without purpose, glory to You! (Exalted be You above all that they associate with You as partners). Give us salvation from the torment of the Fire.’” [Sūrah ‘Āli ‘Imrān 3:190-191]
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

Meaning “This existence, and these people were not brought into existence futilely. You, O Allāh! Are exalted above and revered above that.”

Our Lord! You have not created (all) this without purpose, glory to You!”

Meaning “Our Lord! We declare you above and glorified above what is falsely ascribed to You.”

Give us salvation from the torment of the Fire.”

So, they sought a means to request protection from the torment of the Fire from Allāh by declaring Him far above creating this creation futilely. This is a tremendous means of appealing to Allāh used by the people who believe in Allāh (بُلْبِثُوْنَ) to attain this request.

Within this, there is a great secret which must be noted:

This creed, the creed of the believers, “that Allāh did not create this creation futilely” has an effect on them in their actions, morals, demeanor, and worship. This creed raises them above nonsense, amusement, and futility which is in contrast to the purpose of being created. At the same time, the creed of the disbelievers "that this creation was created with no purpose" has an effect on them in their actions, morals, demeanor, and worship. This creed plunges them and drowns them in wasting time in amusement, to the point that their lives resembles that which is worse than the life of an animal.

On the other hand, the believer who believes that this creation was not brought into existence futilely and without purpose, his belief makes him strive seriously, work hard, and be energetic towards the reason why he was created and brought into existence and to actualize that purpose.

Whoever believes that the creation was created with no purpose and has this supposition will be thrown into the most severe destruction and ruin, in this life and the hereafter.

Based on this, the greatest means of appealing to Allāh ( سبحانه وتعالى), by requesting protection from the torment of the fire, has a deeply-rooted faith that Allāh did not create this creation without purpose. Rather, Allāh created it in truth and believing this truth results in the believer doing righteous deeds, acts of obedience, and having excellent nearness to Allāh (عَزِيزُ الْجَلَّانِ).

The disbelievers who have this supposition about Allāh are referred to within the statement of Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى),

 Maarif al-a‘lā min al-Qayyīl al-Qayyīl Kāfirūna wa-wajhul Qayyīl Kāfirūna min Al-Fārān

"That is the consideration of those who disbelieve! Then woe to those who disbelieve (in Islamic Monotheism) from the Fire!" [Sūrah Sād 38:27]

Allāh threatens them with the Fire on the Day of Resurrection, that they will enter Hell and abide therein for eternity. Based upon this, when they enter the Fire on the Day of Resurrection and taste the torment and all ways of escape will be cut off, Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) will say to them while they are there,
“Did you think that We had created you in play (without any purpose) and that you would not be brought back to Us?” So, Exalted be Allah, the True King, La ilaha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshiped but He), the Lord of the Supreme Throne!” [Surah al-Mu’minun 23:115-116]

Whoever analyzes the context mentioned in this verse at the ending of Surah al-Mu’minun would understand that is a speech in which Allah (سُمَّاهُ التَّانِرَمِعَالِ) addresses the people of Hell on the Day of Resurrection while they are in Hell. This is because Allah (سُبُحَاهُ التَّانِرَمِعَالِ) mentions the circumstance of people on the Day of Resurrection when they will be standing before the Lord of all that exists. They will come to Him (سُبُحَاهُ التَّانِرَمِعَالِ) divided into two groups, one group in Paradise and one in the Fire.

Allah (سُبُحَاهُ التَّانِرَمِعَالِ) clarifies the circumstance of each group in these tremendous groups when He says,
إِنْ كَإِلَیْهِمْ فَمَأْ لَهُمْ نَصِيرٌ،وَلَا يَسِيلُهُمْ وَلَا يَنْعَمُّهُمْ وَلَا يُؤُفَّنُهُمْ، فَأَوْلَیْهَا هُمُ الْمُقْتَلُونَ وَفَمَنْ حَفْظَ مَوْزِنَةُ، فَأَوْلَیْهَا الْمُعْقِلُونَ وَهُمُ الْخُطْبَةُ وَأَنْفَسُهُمْ اِلَيْهَا خَلَقُونَ وَأَلِمُ تَنَکُّنُهُمْ وُجُوهُهُمْ عَلَى الْآثَارِ وَهُمْ فِيهَا كَلِحُونَ وَلْيَا تَسَلّی عَلَیْهِمْ فَكُسْ عَلَیْهِمْ تَکُّنَّ قَالَوْا رَبّنَا عَلَیْنَا فَشَقِّنَا وَمَنْ فَضَلَّ اِلَیْنَا وَقَالَ رَبّنَا أَخْصِنَا مِنْهَا قَالَ إِنَّ عَدَدًا قَانَاتُ عَلَیْنَا عَلَیْنَا ظَلَمُونَ وَقَالَ لَخَسَسْنَا فِيهَا وَلَا يَكْتُمْنَا إِنَّهُ كَانَ قَرِينُ مِنْ عَبَّادِنَا يَقُولُنَّ رَبّنَا عَمَّانَا فَأَعْفَرْنَا لَنَا وَأَرْحَمْنَا وَأَنتُ حَيَّ الْحَيَاتِ الْكُبْرَى، فَأَخْصِنَّمُونَ يَسَوْكُ الْسَوْكِي وَمَلِئُنَا تَضَهَّكُوْتَ إِلَى جَزَئِهِمْ أَلِيْلَمْ يَعْمَا صَبِرُوا أَنْهُمْ هُمُ
“Then, when the Trumpet is blown, there will be no kinship among them that Day, nor will they ask of one another. Then, those whose scales (of good deeds) are heavy, - these, they are successful. And those whose scales (of good deeds) are light; they are those who lose their own selves, in Hell will they abide. The Fire will burn their faces, and therein they will grin, with displaced lips (disfigured). ‘Were not My Verses (this Qur’ān) recited to you, and then you used to deny them?’ They will say: ‘Our Lord! Our wretchedness overcame us, and we were (an) erring people. Our Lord! Bring us out of this; if ever we return (to evil), then indeed we shall be Zālimūn: (polytheists, oppressors, unjust, and wrong-doers, etc.).’ He (Allāh) will say: ‘Remain you in it with ignominy! And speak you not to Me! Verily! There was a party of My slaves, who used to say: ‘Our Lord! We believe, so forgive us, and have mercy on us, for You are the Best of all who show mercy!’” However, you took them for a laughingstock, so much so that they made you forget My Remembrance while you used to laugh at them! Verily! I have rewarded them this Day for their patience; they are indeed the ones that are successful. He (Allah) will say: ‘What number of years did you stay on earth?’” [Surah al-Mu’minun 23:101-112]

This speech is addressing the people of Hell, “What number of years did you stay on earth?” How much time did you spend in this world?

“They will say: ‘We stayed a day or part of a day. Ask of those who keep account.’” [Surah al-Mu’minun 23:113]

Meaning ask the angels who kept account of our days, deeds, and time.

“He (Allah) will say: ‘You stayed not but a little, if you had only known! Did you think that We had created you in play (without any purpose) and that you would not be brought back to Us?” [Sūrah al-Mu’mīnūn 23:114-115]

This is the speech in which Allāh (سَبِيلَ وَعَصَائِي) says to the people of Hell while they are there,

َفِي ٱلْمَسْتَفْلَى ۚ أَلَمْ ۚ وَلَكُمْ عَبَّاٰ

“Did you think that We had created you in play (without any purpose)?” [Sūrah al-Mu’mīnūn 23:115]

Meaning there is no wisdom or goal for being created. Is this how you should think about the Lord of all that exists - that Allāh brought this creation into existence for play without any purpose? This is the explanation of some of the scholars of Tafsīr concerning this verse.

Other scholars of Tafsīr say concerning the verse,

َفِي ٱلْمَسْتَفْلَى ۚ أَلَمْ ۚ وَلَكُمْ عَبَّاٰ

“Did you think that We had created you in play (without any purpose)?” [Sūrah al-Mu’mīnūn 23:115]
Meaning "that you believed the only purpose I created you was for amusement and fun!"

"So, Exalted be Allah"

Meaning Exalted is Allah above that.

"the True King"

The name al-Haqq (the Truth) is one of the Names of Allah. Its meaning is the One Who there is no doubt concerning Him; not in His Essence, His Names, His Attributes, or in His Divinity. He is the One deserving to be worshiped without any partners.

Allah (بَيْنَ رَبِّي وَرَبِّكَ) is the Truth. His Names and Attributes are the truth. His actions and statements are the truth. His religion and legislation are true. All of His reports are true. His promise and the meeting with Him are true.

The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) use to commence his night prayer (Tahajjud) by acknowledging these meanings.
INTRODUCTION

Just as that which is found in the Ḥadīth of Ibn ʿAbbas (رضي الله عنه), in which he said,

"That the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) whenever he stood at night to pray Tahajjud (i.e., night prayer) he would say,

اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ الحَمْدُ أَنتَ قَيْمُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالأَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ وَلَكَ الحَمْدُ أَنتَ نُورُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالأَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ وَلَكَ الحَمْدُ أَنتَ مَلِكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالأَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ وَلَكَ الحَمْدُ أَنتَ الحَقُّ وَوَعْدُكَ حَقُّ وَقَوْلُكَ حَقُّ وَلِقَابُوكَ حَقُّ وَالْجَنَّةُ حَقُّ وَالنَّارُ حَقُّ وَالْيَوْمُ الْيَوْمُ حَقُّ وَحَمْدُ صَلِّي الله عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَقُّ وَالسَّاعَةُ حَقُّ اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ أَسْلَمْتُ وَعَلَيْكَ تَوَلَّكَ وَيَكُ أَمْنِتُ إِلَيْكَ أَنْبِثُ وَيَكُ حَاضِرُتُ وَيَكُ حَاكِبُتُ قَاعِفُ لَيْ مَا قَدْمَتُ وَمَا أَخْرَجْتُ وَمَا أَسْرَرْتُ وَمَا أَعْلَنْتُ وَمَا المُقْدَمُ وَأَنْتُ الْمُوْحِدُ لَأَلَّهُ إِلاَّ أَنْتَ

'O Allāh! All the praises are for You. You are the Sustainer of the heavens and the earth, and whatever is in them. All the praises are for You. You are the Light of the heavens, and the earth, whatever is in them. All the praises are for You. You are the Sovereign of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them. And all the praises are for You. You are al-Haqq (the Truth), and Your Promise is the Truth. Your Word is the Truth And to meet You is true. Paradise is true, And Hell is true. And all the Prophets are true, And Muḥammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is true. And the Last Hour is true. O Allāh! I surrender (my will) to You. I believe in You and depend on You and repent to You. And with Your help, I argue with my opponents, the disbelievers and I take You as a judge (to judge between us). Please forgive me my previous and future sins; and whatever I concealed or revealed. And You are the One Who makes (some people) forward and (some) backward. None has the right to be worshiped but You.’’”

The opposite of the truth is falsehood. It is used to describe those objects of worship besides Allāh. Allāh (جَلَّ جَارِيَّهُ) says,

\begin{align*}
\text{ذَلِكَ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُونَ قَالُوا مَا يَعْقُوبُ مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا عِبَادَةً قَبْلَهُمْ مَنْ دُوِّنَتْهُمْ نُودِّيَانِ لِلَّهِ وَآتَىَهُمْ لَهُ تَأْثِيرَتُهُمْ} \end{align*}

“That is because Allāh, He is the Truth (the only True God of all that exists, Who has no partners or rivals with Him), and what they (the polytheists) invoke besides Him, it is Bātil (falsehood) And verily, Allāh, He is the Most High, the Most Great.” [Sūrah al-Hajj 22:62]

---

1 Collected by al-Bukhārī No. (1120, 6317, 7385, 7442, 7499); and collected by Muslim No. (769). It is the first Ḥadīth mentioned in the book of at-Tahajjud in Šāhīh al-Bukhārī.
Likewise, an establishment of this great matter is mentioned in the Qur‘an. Allāh (اللَّهُ) says,

"Does man think that he will be left, Suda [neglected without being punished or rewarded for the obligatory duties enjoined by his Lord (Allāh) on him]?" [Sūrah al-Qiyāmah 75:36]

Does man believe that he was left, Suda? Some scholars say that the meaning of Suda is he will not be ordered or prohibited. Others say that it means that one will not be resurrected.

Ibn Kathīr (رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ) said,

“What seems to be apparent about this verse is that it covers both circumstances. One will not be left in this worldly life without a purpose, without any commands or prohibitions. Nor will one be left in his grave without being resurrected. Rather, he will be ordered and prohibited in this worldly life and will be gathered and brought to Allāh in the Hereafter.”

2 Tafsīr Ibn Kathīr (8/283).
Allāh ( تعالى) will resurrect mankind on the Day of Resurrection and they will stand before the Lord of all that exists, so that the good doers will be rewarded for their good and the bad doers will be punished for their evil. It is absurd that the Lord of all that exists will treat the good and evil person equally or the good and the wicked or the obedient and disobedient. Allāh ( تعالى) says,

"Shall We treat those who believe (in the Oneness of Allāh Islāmic Monotheism) and do righteous good deeds, as Muṣsidūn (those who associate partners in worship with Allāh and commit crimes) on earth? Alternatively, shall We treat the Muttaqūn (pious - see V.2:2), as the Fujjār (criminals, disbelievers, wicked, etc.)?" [Sūrah Sād 38:28]

This will not happen. Rather, Allāh ( تعالى) is free from doing such things.

These verses, and those similar to it, illustrate the following:
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

- An awaking and enlightenment for the hearts.
- An alert for the heedless, a reminder for the believers, and an insight for the ignorant.
- A clarification of a great truth which one must keep in mind.

All of this, so one will not let years and days slip by, wasted in falsehood. For man was not created without purpose nor in vain.

Ibn Abū Hātim (ﷺ) reported that a man from the family Sā’id Ibn al-‘Ās (ﷺ) said,

"The last sermon that ‘Umar Ibn ‘Abdul-Azīz gave, he praised and commended Allāh. Then he began by saying,

‘To proceed: ‘Indeed! You weren’t created in vain. And surely you won’t be left without commands or prohibitions. Verily, you have a Hereafter in which Allāh will descend to judge between you and divide you into groups. Those who do not have Allāh’s mercy will be lost, ruined, and deprived of Paradise whose width is that of the heavens and earth. Don’t you understand that no one will be safe in the Hereafter, except he who is cautious and fears that day, sells his worldly life for the hereafter, sells what is insignificant for what is abundant," sells fear (of the Dunya) for safety (in the Hereafter)? Don’t you see that you are from the loins of those who have passed away. And those who come after you will remain until you return to the finest of inheritors (Allāh)? Afterward, everyday you will bid farewell, morning and night, to those who have passed away. Until you bury them in the earth. In the earth which is not smoothed nor cushioned. They will depart those whom they loved and plunge into the dirt. They will encounter their reckoning being subject to what they have done (of deeds), not in need of what they left behind (i.e. the worldly life), and in need of what they sent forth (of good deeds). So, fear Allāh, O servants of Allāh! Before one’s covenant ends and death descends upon you.’

After he gave his sermon he placed the edges of his garment over his face and wept and those around him wept as well.”

So, when the Muslim understands this matter and has certainty that he was not created without purpose and that Allāh (بِلَاءِ الرَّحْمَانِ) created him to be ordered and prohibited. What is the obligation concerning what Allāh orders and prohibits him with?
The subject of our decision here is:

The obligations which have been placed upon the Muslim, male and female, concerning what Allāh ( تعالى) orders us with are seven great matters. The Imām, the reviver, Shaykh ul-Islām Muḥammad Ibn ‘Abdul-Wahhab (جَمِيعِهِ) clarified these seven matters in a concise treatise which has great and copious benefits.

What follows are the author’s words which are in need of a brief explanation. The author (جَمِيعِهِ) said,

إِذَا أَمَرَ اللَّهُ الْعَبْدَ بِأُمَرِي، وَجَبَّ عَلَيْهُ فِيهِ سَبْعَ مَرَاتِبَ: الأُوْلِى
العِلْمُ بِهِ، التَّقَانِيَةُ: حِبْبَتُهُ، القَالِبَةُ: الْعَزْمُ عَلَى الْفِعْلِ، الرَّابِعَةُ
العَمْلُ، الخَامِسَةُ: كُونُهُ يَقْعُعُ عَلَى المُشْرُوعٍ خَالِصاً صَوْاباً
السَّادِسَةُ: التَّحْدِيزُ مِنْ فُعْلِهِ مَا يُحَبِّطُهُ، السَّابِعَةُ: القِبَاتُ عَلَيْهِ

“When Allāh gives the servant a command, there are seven levels which one must take:

1. Knowledge of it
2. Having love for it
3. Determination to act upon it
INTRODUCTION

4. Implementation

5. That it is sincerely for Allāh and upon the Sunnah

6. Cautioning against committing acts that will nullify deeds

7. Remaining firm upon it”

Explanatory notes

These matters are considered to be the essence of Islām which is a must to be meticulous in the following:

1. Preserving it
2. Comprehending it
3. Implementing it
4. Propagating it amongst the people.

Afterward, the author (ṣallā Allāhu ʿalayhi) began by clarifying these matters in a concise manner with examples:
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

THE 1st LEVEL KNOWLEDGE OF IT

Shaykh ul-Islām Muḥammad Ibn ‘ Abdul-Wahhab (رحمه الله) said,

"When one knows that Allāh orders Tawhīd and forbids Shirk. Or he knows that Allāh has made lawful selling and made unlawful usury. Or that Allah has made unlawful consuming the orphan's wealth and has made lawful that his guardian spends from the orphan's wealth accordingly if he is poor. So, it becomes mandatory for him to learn about what he is commanded with and ask about it in order to understand it. As well, it is mandatory upon him to learn about what he is forbidden to do and ask about it in order to understand it.

The first level can be illustrated in the example dealing with Tawhid and Shirk. Many people know that Tawhid is true and Shirk is false. However, they reject it and don't ask about it. They know that Allah has made usury unlawful, yet they sell and buy (using it) and don't ask about it. They know the impermissibility of spending the orphan's wealth and the permissibility of spending accordingly, and they take possession of the orphan's wealth and don't ask concerning it.”

Explanatory Notes on The Treatise: Our Duty Concerning What Allah Orders Us With.
The first matter which is obligatory upon us concerning what Allāh (بِلَادَنَا) orders us with is that we learn about it (i.e. the order). This is the first obligation, and it should start here. This is the reason why Allāh (بِلَادَنَا) says,

قَآَآَدُمُ آلِهَةَ، لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللهُ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُ لَذَاكَ

“So, know (O Muḥammad Ἄℓ) that Lā ilaḥa ill-Allāh (none has the right to be worshiped but Allāh), and ask forgiveness for your sin.” [Ṣūrah Muḥammad 47:19]

Hence, knowledge should be started before statements and actions. If one doesn’t seek knowledge of what Allāh (بِلَادَنَا) orders or what He forbids, then how can one do what he has been ordered with or turn away from what is forbidden? As it has been said,
"A person who doesn’t have something cannot give it."

Or like it is said,

كيف يَتَقَي مَن لا يَدْرُى مَا يَتَقَي؟

"How can one protect himself from something if he doesn’t know what it is that he is guarding himself against?" ³

This is the reason why the first obligation concerning what Allâh (تَبارك وَمَتَعَالَ) orders us with is to learn about it. And for the same reason, many verses and aḥādīth from our Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) encourage seeking knowledge, clarify its virtues, and mention its fruits and effects.

Among those statements is what our Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said,

من سَلَك طَرِيقًا يَلْتَبَسَ فيَه عَلَمًا سَهَّل الله لَه طَرِيقًا إِلَى الجَنَّةِ

³ From the statement of Bakr bin Khunays which is reported by Abû Na‘îm in the book al-Hîlyah (8/365).
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

"Whoever takes a path in search of knowledge, Allāh makes the path to Paradise easy for him."

And the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said,

مَن يُرَد آلَهَ بِهِ خَيْرًا، يُقَفَّهُ فِي أَلَدِّينِ

“When Allāh wishes good for anyone, He bestows upon him the Fiqh (comprehension) of the religion.”

It is authentically reported that our Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) used to say every morning after the Fajr,

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ عِلْمًا نَافِعًا وَرَزَقًا طَيِّبًا وَعَمَلًا مُتَقَبِّلًا

“O Allāh, I ask You for beneficial knowledge, goodly provision, and acceptable deeds.”

He would ask Allāh (بِلَاءٌ وَبَرَاءٌ) for that every day. Allāh says to him in the Qur‘ān, 5 Sahih al-Bukhārī No. (71); Sahih Muslim No. (1037) from the Ḥadīth of Mu‘āwiyyah bin Abū Sufyaan (رضي الله عنه).

6 Sunan ibn Majah No. (925) from the Ḥadīth of Umm Salamah (رضي الله عنها). Shaykh Al-Albānī (رحمه الله) graded it Sahih.
And say: ‘My Lord! Increase me in knowledge.’” [Surah Tâhâ 20:114]

And the first verse revealed to Muḥammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) commanding him to read and learn was,

“Read!” [Surah al-‘Alaq 96:1]

Carefully examine the previous supplication where the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) began by asking for beneficial knowledge, before goodly provision or acceptable deeds. That is because beneficial knowledge aids the Muslim to distinguish between goodly provisions and unlawful provisions, between righteous and evil deeds. So how can one who doesn’t have beneficial knowledge distinguish between the truth and falsehood and good and evil? Allāh (سبحان و تعالى) says,

قُلْ هَلْ يُشْتَقَّ الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ وَالَّذِينَ لاَ يَعْلَمُونَ
"Say: ‘Are those who know equal to those who know not?’" [Sūrah az-Zumar 39:9]

And,

أَفَمَا يُعَلِّمُ أُمِّيَّةً أَنْ تَنْظُرُ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَيْبٍ لَّحْقٍ
* كَمَّنْ هُوَ أَعْمَىٖ

"Shall he then who knows that what has been revealed unto you (O Muḥammad صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمِ) from your Lord be the truth be like him who is blind?" [Sūrah ar-Ra’d 13:19]

Knowledge is a light for its companion. When he sets out on his path with knowledge and insight of the religion of Allāh ﷺ, his footsteps will be correct. In contrast to the one who works hard and strives without knowledge and guidance.

‘Umar Ibn ‘Abdul-Azīz ﷺ said about those individuals,

"Whoever worships Allāh without knowledge causes more corruption than rectification."\(^7\)

\(^7\) Reported by Ibn Abī Shaybah in the book al-Musanif No. (35098); also, reported by ad-Dārimī in his Sunan No. (313); and Ibn Battah reported it in the book al-Ibānah No. (579).
Innovation and various forms of falsehood didn’t appear amongst the masses for any other reason except ignorance of Allāh’s religion and worshiping without knowledge and insight!

Hence, knowledge is an enormous foundation and momentous pursuit which is incumbent upon every Muslim, male and female, to strive for. The scholars of Islām advise that the Muslim should seek a portion of knowledge throughout his entire day. Not a single day should pass him when he doesn’t obtain some knowledge. Seeking knowledge is required of you daily. The evidence for that is clear in the supplication of our Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) in which he said every morning after Fajr,

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ عِلْمًا نَافعًا

"O Allāh! I ask you for beneficial knowledge."

Based upon this, seeking knowledge should be present within the Muslim’s daily schedule. He should set aside a portion of his day for acquiring knowledge.

Among Allāh’s blessings is that in our era the means for obtaining knowledge have increased. You are able to listen to beneficial admonitions, lectures, speeches, Fatāwa, the Qur’ān, and Aḥādīth of the Messenger
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

(صلى الله عليه وسلم) in your car. Listening to blessed radio stations—the Noble Qur’ān radio station—which gathers knowledge and benefits many people throughout the world. Some esteemed individuals listen to a number of books with their explanations by the people of knowledge. The likes of this were not available in the early part of Islām.

What should be noted is that the first obligation upon us concerning what Allāh orders us with is to seek knowledge by learning about the commands and prohibitions.

Allāh orders us with Tawhīd, so we need to learn about it as it is the greatest of what Allāh orders us with. Likewise, Allāh orders us with the Salāh which is the greatest pillar of Islām after the two testimonies of faith. Thus, we need to learn about its conditions, pillars, obligatory matters. Didn’t our Prophet (عليه السلام) say,

صلوا كما رأيتوني أصلي

“Pray as you have seen me pray.”\(^8\)

THE 1ST LEVEL KNOWLEDGE OF IT

How can the Muslim pray as the Messenger of Allah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) prayed without learning how he prayed?

Likewise, the same can be said about fasting, Zakāh, and all of the acts of obedience. The author (رحمه الله) then said,

واعْتَبَرْ دَلِيلًا بِالْإِسْتِلَامَةَ الْأُولَى، وَهِيَ: مَسْأَلَةُ التَّوْجِيدَ، وَالشَّرْكَ

؛ أَكْثَرُ الْكَانِ عَلِمَ أَنَّ التَّوْجِيدَ، وَالشَّرْكَ بَاطِلٌ، وَلَحْيَانِ

"The first matter can be illustrated in the example dealing with Tawhīd and Shirk. Many people know that Tawhīd is true and Shirk is false. However, they reject it and don’t ask about it."

If you were to ask many people, “What do you think about Tawhīd?” they would say, “Tawhīd is good.” And when they are asked, “What do you think about Shirk?” they would say, “Shirk is evil” however, one would not ask about Tawhīd or Shirk.

Based upon this, some Muslims do actions in total contradiction to Tawhīd. In reality, they are doing acts of Shirk. Yet they do not ask about Tawhīd, study it, get an understanding of it, or know about Shirk. As a result, one practices acts which are, in reality, acts of Shirk. This happens simply because it is an action which he doesn’t ask about.

The author (الله تعالى) then said,

وَعَرَفَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ حَرَّمَ الْرَّبَا وَبَاعَ وَاشْتَرَى وَلَمْ يَسَّأَلَ

"They know that Allāh has made usury unlawful, yet they sell and buy (using it) and don’t ask about it.”

Rather, some people, if they were to contemplate about asking about a lucrative deed, they would refrain from asking. They say, “Perhaps it is impermissible.” So they won’t ask about it, because they want to sell and buy. In this manner, they don’t want to find out that it is impermissible because it would prevent him from this trade. It is common that people don’t contemplate asking, even if it is said to them, “Ask.” Rather, you find him reframing from asking.

The author (الله تعالى) then said,

وَعَرَفَ: تَحْرِيمَ أَكْلِ مَالِ الْبَيْتِيَّةِ، وَجَوازَ الأَكْلِ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ،
وَيِتَوْلِيَ مَالِ الْبَيْتِيَّةِ وَلَمْ يَسَّأَلَ.
"They know the impermissibility of spending the orphan’s wealth and the permissibility of spending accordingly, and they take possession of the orphan’s wealth and don’t ask concerning it."

One takes possession of the orphan’s wealth without asking about the limits which authorize spending it. The Islāmic jurists state, “One is allowed to spend the lesser of two matters:

- A stipend similar to or
- According to one’s needs.

However, the Islāmic jurists disagree whether it should be given back.
THE 2ND LEVEL: HAVING LOVE FOR IT

Shaykh ul-Islām Muḥammad Ibn ʿAbdul-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) said,

المرتبة الثانية: محبة ما أنزل الله، وسُخر منه كرهه؛ لقوله:
‡ ذلك بِأنْهُمْ صَرِّهُوا مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ فَأَحْبَطَ أَعْمَلَهُمْ (٥) محمد: ٩ فأَكْثَرُ الناس لم يُحْبِبَ الرَسُولُ صَلِّى الله عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَلْ أَبْغَضَهُ، وَأَبْغَضَهُ، وَأَبْغَضَ ما جَاءَ يِهٞ، وَلَوْ عَرَفَ أَنَّ الله أَنْزَلَهُ.

The second level is to have a love for what Allāh has revealed and whoever hates it has disbelieved. This is due to Allāh’s statement,

“That is because they hate that which Allāh has sent down (this Qurʿān and Islāmic laws, etc.), so He has made their deeds fruitless.” [Sūrah Muḥammad 47:9]
Many people do not really love the Messenger (صلي الله عليه وسلم). Rather, they detest him and what he came with, even if they know that Allāh revealed it.

Explanatory notes

The second matter from what is obligatory upon us concerning what Allāh (تبارك راضم) orders us with is that we fill our hearts with love for it. Having love drives us towards every good and calls us to every excellent quality. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said,

ألا وإن في الجسد مضغة إذا صلى الحسند كله ويدا فسند الحسن كله فلا وهي القلب

"Beware! There is a piece of flesh in the body; if it is sound, the whole body is sound and if it is corrupt, the whole body is corrupt and that is the heart." ⁹

⁹ Sahih al-Bukhārī No. (52) and Sahih Muslim No. (1599) from the Ḥadīth of N‘umān bin Bashīr (رضي الله عنه).
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

Based upon this Ḥadīth, it is a must that the Muslim continuously fill his heart with having a love for Allāh, His Messenger (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and His Legislation. One should work on fortifying this love in his heart and increasing its distance. For example, one loves the Salāh, fasting, righteousness, keeping family ties, beneficence, and truthfulness. Likewise, one detests impermissible matters, sins, and abominations, etc.

When the heart loves for Allāh and hates for Allāh, one’s circumstance becomes rectified. The Prophet (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said,

من أحب لله وأابغض لله وأعطى لله ومنتغ لله فقدي استصمم الإيمان

"If anyone loves for Allāh's sake, hates for Allāh's sake, gives for Allāh's sake and withholds for Allāh's sake, he will have perfect faith."

And,

10 Sunan Abī Dāwūd No. (4681) from the Ḥadīth of Abī Umāmah al-Bāhili (ra). Shaykh al-Albānī (ra) graded it to be Sahīh in his book as-Sahīhah No. (380).
"The strongest handhold of faith is to love for Allah and hate for Allah."\(^{11}\)

Based upon this, the Muslim continuously needs to strengthen in his heart the love for Allah, His Messenger (ﷺ), and His Legislation. One must exert all means which deepen one’s love in the heart. One must also be diligent in removing the diseases from his heart.

Hence, because of one’s heart deviating and becoming sick, you find some people not being devoted to good and being uneasy towards it. They are not happy to hear the good and they have tightness in their hearts when it is mentioned. On the other hand, when one with a sick heart is called to falsehood, he devotes himself to it and aspires for it. This is a perversion in the heart which Allah (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) says concerning it, \(^{11}\) Sharh as-Sunnah by Imām al-Baghawī No. (3468) from the Ḥadith of Ibn ‘Abbas (رضي الله عنه). Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) graded it to be Sahīh in his book as-Sahīhah No. (998).

EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

"(They say): ‘Our Lord! Let not our hearts deviate (from the truth) after You have guided us, and grant us mercy from You. Truly, You are the Bestower.’" [Sūrah ʿĀlī ʾImrān 3:8]

Based upon this, the servant is in need of having diligence in filling his heart with love for Allāh, His religion, His Legislation, and His commands. So, when this love is present, one’s circumstance is rectified. Among the greatest recorded supplications from our Prophet (ṣallallāhu ʿalayhi wa sallam) is when he said,

أَسْأَلُكَ حُبّكَ وَحُبّ مَنْ يَحْبُكَ وَحُبّ عَمَلِ يُقَرَّبُ إِلَى حُبّكَ

"I ask You for Your love, the love of whomever You love, and the love of the deeds that bring one nearer to Your love.”

So, the Muslim should supplicate with this invocation, reiterating it throughout one’s life, and exerting all means which fortify and increase the distance of his love for Allāh, His Messenger, and His religion in his heart.

When acts of good become beloved to the heart, one devotes himself to them, seeks to act upon them, and carries them out. Islām requires from the servant to love deeds which bring one nearer to Allāh. Allāh (ṣubḥānahu wa ṭallān) says in the Ḥadīth Qudsi,

وَمَا تَقْرُبَ إِلَىِّ عَبْدِي بَيْنِيَّ أَحَبَّ إِلَيْهِ مَا افْتُرَضَتْهُ عَلَيْهِ، وَلَا يُقْرَبُ عَبْدِي إِلَيْهِ الْتَوَافِلِ حَتَّى أُجْهَبَهُ، فَإِذَا أُحْبِبْتُهُ كَنَّت

سَمَعَهُ الَّذِي يَسْمَعُهُ، وَبَصَرَّهُ الَّذِي يَبصُرُهُ، وَيَدَهُ الَّتِي يَبْطَشُهُ، وَرِجَالُهُ الَّتِي يَبْطَشُهُ، وَلَيْنَ سَالَّنِي لَاعْطَيْتُهُ، وَلَيْنَ آسِتَعَادْتُ لَأُعِيدَتْهُ

“And My servant does not draw near to Me with anything more loved to Me than the religious duties I have obligated upon him. And My servant continues to draw near to me with nafīl (supererogatory) deeds until I Love him. When I Love him, I am his hearing with which he hears, and his sight with which he sees, and his hand with which he strikes, and his foot with which he walks. Were he to ask [something] of Me, I would surely give it to him; and were he to seek refuge with Me, I would surely grant him refuge."\(^{13}\)

On this occasion, one should take heed to the means that bring about love which are ten:

1. Reading and contemplating over the Qur’ān and its meanings. This should be done just as one contemplates over a book that he is memorizing and explains it in order to comprehend what is intended by it.

2. Drawing nearer to Allāh by doing supererogatory deeds after obligatory deeds. This brings him to the level of those beloved by Allāh after being on the level of having love.

3. Continuously remembering Allāh in all circumstances with the tongue, the heart, and actions. So, his portion of love is according to his share in this remembrance.

4. Preferring loving Allah over oneself when one’s whims take over, and the raising of one’s love for Allah over one’s whims is difficult.

5. The heart’s study of Allah’s Names and Attributes. So, whoever studies about Allah, His Names, Attributes, and Actions will inevitably love Him. Based upon this, the Mu’tazilah, Pharaonians, and Jahmiyyah are the highway robbers of the hearts that try to stop the hearts from obtaining the level of being beloved by Allah.

6. Attesting to Allah’s kindness, beneficence, and apparent and not so apparent blessings invites to loving Allah.

7. Among the most amazing is the state of being contrite before Allah (سُبْحَانَّهُ وَتَعَالَي).

8. Being secluded in the last third of the night when Allah descends to the lowest heaven in order to make secret supplication to Him, reciting His Speech, having Fiqh (understanding of the religion) within the heart, and refining one’s worship before Allah,
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH then concluding with seeking forgiveness and repentance.

9. Sitting with the beloved and truthful. Collecting the good features of their speech similarly to how the most excellent fruits are selected. You shouldn’t speak except for what benefits, and understand that doing this increases your circumstance and benefits others.

10. Alienating from any means that prevent the heart from Allāh (الله).

So, these are the ten means that cause one to have a love for Allāh and attain the level of love that allows one to reach his Beloved. Its framework comprises to two matters:

1. Preparing the soul for this state.
2. Being open-minded to the essence of legislated knowledge and religious insight.

And to Allāh alone belongs success. 14

14 From the book Madārij as-Saālîken by Ibn al-Qayyim (الجَهَّازُ) (3/19).
The author (رضي الله عنه) then said,

وَسَعُفَ مِنْ كَرْهَةِ

"and whoever hates it has disbelieved."

Whoever detests anything that Allâh (سُبَّهُ وَتَواَلَّ) revealed, this hatred renders his deeds fruitless. Allâh (سُبَّهُ وَتَواَلَّ) says, ۚ ذٰلِکَ يَأْتِهِمْ سَحَدُوا مَا أَنَّ لِلَّهِ فَأَحْبَطَ أَمْهَالَهُمُّ ۚ

"That is because they hate that which Allâh has sent down (this Qur‘ân and Islâmic laws, etc.), so He has made their deeds fruitless." [Sûrah Muḥammad 47:9]

Having hatred and anger for the religion of Allâh or for what Allâh (سُبَّهُ وَتَواَلَّ) has legislated for His servants renders his deeds fruitless.

The author (رضي الله عنه) continues,

فَأَكْثَرُ الْقَالِهِنَّ لَمْ يَحْبَبَ الرَّسُولِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

"Many people do not really love the Messenger (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّم) ."
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

True love emanates from the heart that adheres and treads on the methodology of the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم). Allāh (سُبُحَاهُ وَتَعَالَانَ) says,

قُلِ إِنَّ كُنْتَ تَحْبُوبُ اللَّهَ فَأَلْقِيَ عُوْنَكَ يَحْبُبُكَ اللَّهُ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكَمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ

"Say (O Muḥammad) (صلى الله عليه وسلم) to mankind): ‘If you (really) love Allāh then follow me (i.e. accept Islāmic Monotheism, follow the Qur'an and the Sunnah), Allāh will love you and forgive you of your sins.’" [Sūrah ʿĀlī ʿImrān 3:31]

One of the Salaf said,

لَيْسَ الشَّأْنُ أَنْ تُحْبِبَ وَلَكِنَّ الشَّأْنُ أَنْ تُحْبَبَ

"The matter isn’t that you love, rather it is that you are beloved."¹⁵

Meaning, that Allāh loves you. This cannot be obtained by mere claims. Based on this it was said,

ُتَعْصِي اللَّهِ وَأَنْتَ تُزَعْمُ حُبَّهُ

¹⁵ Tafsīr Ibn Kathīr (2/32).
THE 2ND LEVEL: HAVING LOVE FOR IT

هَذَا لِعَمَّرِي فِي الْقِيَاسِ شَنِيعُ
لَوْ كَانَ حُبُّكَ صَادِقاً لَأَطْعُتُهُ
إِلَّا الْمُحِبِّ لَيْمَنْ أَحَبَّ مُطِيعُ

You disobey the One True Deity, yet you claim you love Him.

Within your analogy is a repugnant oath.

If your love was genuine you would have obeyed Him.

Verily, the one who truly loves is obedient to Whom he loves.
THE 3RD LEVEL: DETERMINATION TO ACT UPON IT

Shaykh ul-Islām Muḥammad Ibn ‘Abdul-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) said, المَرتَبَةُ القَالِثةُ: الْعَزْمُ عَلَى الْفَعْلِ، وَكَثِيرٌ مِنَ الْمَائِسِ: عَرَفَ وَأَحَبَّ، وَلَسْتُ لَمْ يَعْزِمَ، حَوْفَاً مِنْ تَغْيِرِ دُنْيَاهُ.

"The third level is to have the determination to act upon it (i.e. the order). Many people have studied and loved it; yet are not determined to act upon it out of fear of one's worldly life changing."

Explanatory notes

The third matter from what is obligatory upon us concerning what Allāh (بَارِيَ الجَلَّ الجَانِبِ) orders us with is that we are determined to act upon it. Once you have studied the command and have a love for it, you should now fix in your heart the determination to act upon it. Among the greatest supplications from our Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), اللّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْقُبُّاتَ فِي الأُمُورِ وَالْعَزْيَةِ عَلَى الْرُّشْدِ

"O Allāh, I ask You for steadfastness in all my affairs and determination in following the right path...."\(^{(16)}\)

To the end of the supplication.

Also, Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) commented on the previous Ḥadīth in his book Miṣfāḥ Dār as-Saʿādah,

وَ هَاتَانَ الْكِتَابَاتِ هُمَا جَمَاعُ الْفَلاحة وَ مَا أَنْتَ الْعَبْدُ إِلَّا مِنْ تَضْيِعُهُمَا وَ ْتَضْيِعُ أَحَدِهِمَا

“These two words (i.e. steadfastness & determination) summarize true success and all of what the servant has been given save that he squanders both of them or one of them.”\(^{(17)}\)

\(^{(17)}\) (1/142)
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

Surely, the servant knows the right path and loves it. However, if his determination weakens, then his heart will not have devotion towards implementing action. For example, one learns about the Salāh and loves it. He knows its status and understands that it results in tremendous good and benefit in this life and the Hereafter. He also understands the punishment for the one who abandons it. Yet, when he has questioned himself about it and its status, he says, “I love it and don’t detest it;” however, his determination has dwindled.

Likewise, he may listen to admonition and reminders, loves them and doesn’t detest them; however, his determination is weak. Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) says,

وَلَوْ أَنْ هُمْ قَبَلَوْا مَا يُعْطَوْنَ بِهِ لَكَانَ خَيْرًا

لَهُمْ وَأَشْدَدَ تَشْيِيِّصًا

“But if they had done what they were told, it would have been better for them, and would have strengthened their (Faith).” [Sūrah an-Nisā’ 4:66]

The author (قَطْرُّهُمَا اللَّهُ وَرَحْمَتُهُ) then said,
THE 3RD LEVEL: DETERMINATION TO ACT
UPON IT

وَلَا حَكِينَ لَمْ يَعْرَضْ ، حُرُفاً مِّنْ تَعْبِيْرِ دُنْيَاهُ.

"Yet, are not determined to act upon it out of fear of one's worldly life changing."

For example, a person has a position of leadership, wealth, or a great status and he fears it will change. Just like the person who has status with the people of innovation, then he learns about the Sunnah and loves it. Yet, he hesitates from acting upon it and he does so out of fear that his worldly life will change. Meaning that he will lose this status and esteem. So, you find him saying, "How can I act upon this matter! What will those whom I have this great status with say about me!"
THE 4TH LEVEL: IMPLEMENTATION

Shaykh ul-Islām Muḥammad Ibn ‘Abdul-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) said,

المَرْتَبَةُ الْرَابِعَةُ: ِالْعَمَلُ، وَكَثِيرٌ مِنَ النَّاسِ إِذَا عَزَّّ أَوْ عَمَّلَ،
وَنَبِيَّ عَلَيْهِ مَنْ يُعْظَمُهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ أَوْ عَرَفَهُمْ تَرَكَ الْعَمَلَ.

"The fourth level is implementation (of the order). Many people when they have the determination or implement the action, those who venerate him from the chiefs etc. would discover it (from him) and he would abandon the action."

Explanatory notes

The fourth matter is implementation. When you have studied it, have a love for it, and are determined to act upon it, you must do the action and persist in doing so.
Every deed has its proper time and you should beware of procrastinating and delaying. Rather, you should hasten and be swift in doing these deeds. Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَحْمِيلَهُ) says,

"And march forth in the way (which leads to) forgiveness from your Lord." [Sūrah ‘Āli ‘Imrān 3:133]

Also, in the Ḥadīth,

"Be prompt in doing good deeds (before you are overtaken) by turbulence which would be like a part of the dark night."\textsuperscript{18}

One should hasten and be swift. When the time of a deed approaches, he shouldn’t delay. The Prophet (عليه الصلاة وُلله) was asked,

\vspace{0.5cm}

\textsuperscript{18} Sahīḥ Muslim No. (118) on the authority of Abū Ḥurayrah (ضعيف).
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

"Which of the deeds is loved most by Allāh?"
The Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, ‘Salāh at its proper time.’”19

When the time of Salāh approaches, one should leave off everything and hasten to it. Likewise, for every act of obedience, one should be swift to perform it in its proper time. He should accustom himself to being persistent in implementation, having great concern for acts of worship and obedience. One must be swift in acting upon every deed in its proper time.

One should be on guard from distractions and diversions. One must stay clear of any matter that will divert him from doing deeds and keep him preoccupied from acts of obedience which are the purpose of his existence. Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) says,

وَمَا حَلَقَتْ أَلْبَانَ وَالإِنسَ إِلَّا لَيْبَعْدُونَ

“And I (Allāh) created not the jinns and humans except they should worship Me (Alone).” [Sūrah adh-Dhāriyāt 51:56]

Then the author (رضي الله عنه) said,

19 Sahīh al-Bukhārī No. (527); and Sahīh Muslim No. (85) on the authority of Abdullāh bin Ma’sūd (رضي الله عنه).
THE 4TH LEVEL: IMPLEMENTATION

"Those who venerate him from the chiefs etc. would discover it (from him)."

Meaning, that they would become aware of him and it would become apparent to them concerning him. Some of the chiefs who hold him in high esteem would learn about his actions. The famous story of Heraclius, when he invited the heads of Rome and said to them,

"On that Heraclius invited all the heads of the Byzantines to assemble in his palace at Homs. When they assembled, he ordered that all the doors of his palace be closed. Then he came out and said, 'O Byzantines! If success is your desire and if you seek right guidance and want your empire to remain, then give a pledge of allegiance to this Prophet (i.e. embrace Islām).'

On hearing the views of Heraclius, the people ran towards the gates of the palace like onagers, but found the doors closed. Heraclius realized their hatred towards Islām and when he lost the hope of their embracing Islām, he ordered that they should be brought back in audience.

When they returned, he said, 'What I already said was just to test the strength of your conviction and I have seen it.' The people prostrated before him and became pleased with him and this was the end of Heraclius's story (in connection with his faith).”

So, when it became clear and manifested his affair, and they detested it, he feared his worldly life changing. Thus, he recanted his statement and remained upon his disbelief. The likes of this happens often.

20 Saḥīḥ al-Bukhārī No. (7) and (4553) on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās (ابة).
THE 5TH LEVEL: THAT IT IS SINCERELY FOR ALLĀH AND UPON THE SUNNAH

Shaykh ul-Islām Muḥammad Ibn ʿAbdul-Wahhāb (رحمّه الله) said,

المُرْتَبَةُ الْخَامِسَةُ: أَنَّ كَثِيرًا مِمَّنْ عَمَلَ، لَا يَقْعُ حَالِصَاً، فَإِنَّ
وَقَعَ حَالِصًا، لَمْ يَقْعُ صَوابًا.

"The fifth level is that many people do deeds without sincerity to Allāh alone, and if it is done with sincerity to Allāh alone, it is not upon the Sunnah."

Explanatory notes

When the servant learns about the order, loves it, is determined to implement it, and acts upon it, he must aspire for sincerity in his deeds for Allāh alone. At the same time, his deeds must be in accordance with the
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

Sunnah of the Messenger of Allāh (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam). If the deed is not sincerely done for Allāh, it will not be accepted even if it is abundant. Allāh (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) says in a Ḥadīth Qudsi,

أَنَا أُعْطِيُ الْشَّرْكَاءَ عَنْ الشَّرْكِ مِنْ عَمَلٍ عَمَلًا أَشْرَكَ مَعِيْ عَيْنِي
تُرَكْتُهُ وَشَرَكْتُهُ

"I am so self-sufficient that I am in no need of having an associate. Thus, he who does an action for someone else's sake, as well as Mine, will have that action renounced by Me to him whom he associated with Me."21

When the deed is not in accordance with the Sunnah, Allāh will not accept it. The Prophet (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said,

مَنْ عَمَلَ عَمَلًا لَئِسَ عَلَيْهِ أَمْرًا فَهُوَ رَدُّ

"He who does an act which is not from our affair (i.e. Islām), it will be rejected (by Allāh )."22

So, deeds will not be accepted unless they are sincerely for Allāh and they are in accordance with the guidance of the Noble Messenger (ﷺ). By these two conditions, deeds are good and accepted. Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَفَؤَّمَ) says,

21 Sahīh Muslim No. (2985) from the Ḥadīth of Abū Hurayrah (rta).

“Who has created death and life, that He may test you which of you is best in deed. And He is the All-Mighty, the Oft-Forgiving.” [Sūrah al-Mulk 67:2]

Al-Fuḍayl Ibn ‘Iyād (رَحْمَتُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِ) said about the verse, “that He may test you which of you is best in deed,”

“'The most sincere and proper of them (i.e., deeds).' Someone asked him, 'O Abū ‘Āli! What does most sincere and proper of them (i.e. deeds) refer to?’ Al-Fuḍayl said, 'Verily, deeds if they are sincerely for Allāh, yet not in accordance with the Sunnah, they are not accepted. And if they are in accordance with the Sunnah, yet not sincerely for Allāh, they will not be accepted either, until it is both.’”

THE 6TH LEVEL: CAUTIONING AGAINST COMMITTING ACTS THAT WILL NULLIFY DEEDS

Shaykh ul-Islām Muḥammad Ibn ‘Abdul-Wahhāb (رحمهاللّه) said,

المرتبة السَّادِسَةُ: أنَّ الصَّالِحِينَ يَجِفُونَ مِنْ حُبُّوطِ الْعَمَلِ؛
ليقوله تعالى: ﴿أَن تَخْبِطَ أَعْمَالَكَ وَأَنْتَ لَا تَشْعُرُونَ﴾ [سُورَةُ الْحَجُّرَاتِ]، وَهَذَا مِنْ أَقْلِ الْأَشْيَاءِ فِي رَمَانِتَا.

The sixth level is the righteous dread of their deeds becoming nullified and fruitless due to Allāh’s Statement,

‘Lest your deeds may be rendered fruitless while you perceive not.’ [Sūrah al-Hujurāt 49:2]

And in our era, this is from the least of matters (i.e. that render deeds fruitless).”
The 6th Level: Cautioning Against Committing Acts That Will Nullify Deeds

Explanatory Notes

Once you have studied it (i.e. an order), love it, are determined, act upon it, and perform the command with sincerity (to Allah) and in accordance with the Sunnah of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), you must be on guard afterward from matters that could nullify and/or render your worship fruitless. Allah (سبحانه و تعالى) says,

"Lest your deeds may be rendered fruitless while you perceive not." [Surah al-Hujurat 49:2]

Be on guard lest you perform a matter that will nullify your deed and render it fruitless. There are some people who will come on the Day of Resurrection with their deeds rejected and in vain.

The biggest nullifier and destroyer of deeds is associating partners with Allah and disbelieving in Him. Allah (سبحانه و تعالى) says,
And indeed, it has been revealed to you (O Muḥammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم)), as it was to those (Allāh’s Messengers) before you: ‘If you join others in worship with Allāh, (then) surely (all) your deeds will be in vain, and you will certainly be among the losers.’ Nay! But worship Allāh (Alone and none else), and be among the grateful.” [Sūrah az-Zumar 39:65-66]

And Allāh (جَلَّ لَهُ) says,

“And whosoever disbelieves in the Oneness of Allāh and in all the other Articles of Faith
THE 6TH LEVEL: CAUTIONING AGAINST COMMITTING ACTS THAT WILL NULLIFY DEEDS

[i.e. His (Allāh 's), Angels, His Holy Books, His Messengers, the Day of Resurrection and Al-Qadar (Divine Preordainments)], then fruitless is his work, and in the Hereafter, he will be among the losers." [Sūrah al-Mā‘idah 5:5]

Thus, the servant must be on guard from actions that will nullify one’s deeds. Showing off and seeking a reputation are actions that nullify one’s deeds. For example, a person would do an action as a means of showing off or seeking a reputation among the people. In this example, one’s intention isn’t sincerely for Allāh (سُبْحَانَ الْحَقَّ وَعَزُوبَهُ) alone.

On this occasion, one must pay attention to the great amount of fear that the Companions (رضي الله عنهم) had for rendering their deeds nullified despite the perfection and state of their deeds.

Thābit bin Qays bin Shammās (ثَابِتُ بْنِ قَيْسِ بْنِ شَامْمَةٍ) was in a state of enormous fear because he thought he was included in the following verse,
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

لا ترفعوا آصوتكم فوق صوت النبى ﷺ ولا تجهوزوا
لله بالقول كجزء بعضكم لبعض أن تحفظ أعملكم
وأنتم لا تشعرون

"Raise not your voices above the voice of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), nor speak aloud to him in talk as you speak aloud to one another, lest your deeds may be rendered fruitless while you perceive not.” [Sūrah al-Hujrāt 49:2]

And in the Ḥadith,

عَنْ أَنَّى بْنِ مَالِكٍ رَضَى اللَّهُ عَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صلى الله عليه وسلم افْتَقَدَ ثَابِتٌ بْنِ قَيْسٍ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَنَا أَعْلَمُ لَكَ عَلَمَهُ. فَأَتَاهُ فُوجَدَ جَالِسًا فِي بَيْتِهِ مُنْتَكَسًا رَأَسُهُ قَقَالَ لَهُ مَا شَأْنُكَ. فَقَالَ سَحْرٌ. كَانَ يَرْفَعُ صَوْتَهُ فَقَوْلًا صَوْتَ النَّبِيِّ صلى الله عليه وسلم فَقَدْ لَيْسَ عَمَّلُهُ، وَهُوَ مِنْ أُهْلِ الْقَارَ. فَأَتاَهُ الرَّجُلُ النَّبِيِّ صلى الله عليه وسلم فَقَدْ حَيْطَ عَمَّلُهُ، وَهُوَ مِنْ أُهْلِ الْقَارَ. فَأَتاَهُ الرَّجُلُ مُوسَىٰ فَقَرَجَ إِلَيْهِ الْمَرَّةِ الآخِرَةَ بِمُشَارَةٍ عَظِيمَةٍ فَقَالَ "أَذْهِبْ إِلَيْهِ فَقُلْ لَهُ إِنْكَ لَسْتَ مِنْ أُهْلِ الْقَارَ، وَلَكِنْكَ مِنْ أُهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ"
"On the authority of Anas bin Mālik (رضي الله عنه) that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) missed Thābit bin Qays (رضي الله عنه) for a period, so he inquired about him. A man said, ‘O Allāh 's Messenger! I will bring you his news.’ So, he went to Thābit and found him sitting in his house and bowing his head. The man said to Thābit (رضي الله عنه), ‘What is the matter with you?’ Thābit (رضي الله عنه) replied that it was an evil affair, for he used to raise his voice above the voice of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and so all his good deeds had been annulled, and he considered himself as one of the people of the Fire. Then the man returned to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and told him that Thābit (رضي الله عنه) had said so-and-so. Musa bin Anas (رضي الله عنه) said: ‘The man returned to Thābit (رضي الله عنه) with great, glad tidings. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said to the man. ‘Go back to him and say to him: ‘You are not from the people of the Hell-Fire, but from the people of Paradise.’”

Another example is Thawbān (رضي الله عنه) who narrated that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said,

24 Sahih al-Bukhari No. (4846) and (3613).
"I certainly know people of my nation who will come on the Day of Resurrection with good deeds like the mountains of Tihāmah, but Allāh will make them like scattered dust.’ Thawbān (تَوْبَانُ) said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh, describe them to us and tell us more, so that we will not become of them unknowingly.’ He (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘They are your brothers and from your race, worshipping at night as you do, but they will be people who, when they are alone, transgress the sacred limits of Allāh.’”

The righteous are fearful of nullifying their deeds. The difference between the righteous and unrighteous pertaining to deeds is that the unrighteous perform deeds, then remind others of their good deeds as Allah (سُبْحَانَاهُ وَتَعَالَى) says,

يَمُنُونَ عَلَيْكَ أَنَّ أَسْلَمْتُمْ قَلْ لاَ تَمْنُونَ عَلَيْكَ
إِلَّا مَا أَسْلَمْتُمْ، يَمُنُونَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَنَّ هَذَا مُنْكَرُ لِلإِيمَانِ
إِنْ كَثِّرْ صَلِيَّتَكَ ٦٧

"They regard as a favor upon you (O Muḥammad صل الله عليه وسلم) that they have embraced Islām. Say: ‘Count not your Islām as a favor upon me. Nay, but Allāh has conferred a favor upon you, that He has guided you to the Faith, if you indeed are true.” [Sūrah al-Hujurāt 49:17]

Yet, when the righteous perform a deed they are fearful that the deed will be nullified and not accepted as Allah (سُبْحَانَاهُ وَتَعَالَى) says,

وَالَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ مَا ءَاتَوْا وَقَتَلُوْهُمُ وَفَجَّرُوهُمْ وَهُمْ أَهْلُهُمْ إِلَى

٦٨

“And those who give that (their charity) which they give (and also do other good deeds) with their hearts full of fear (whether their alms and charities, etc., have been accepted or not), because they are sure to return to their Lord (for reckoning).” [Sūrah al-Mu‘minūn 23:60]

Ā’ishah (رضي الله عنها) said,

أُهُوَ الرَجلُ الَّذِي يَزْنِي وَيَسرُقُ وَيَنْتَجِحُ الحَمْرُ قَالَ “لاَ يَا بْنَتَ أَبِي بَكَحْلِرَ أَوْ يَا بْنَتُ الصَّدِيقِ وَلَكِنَّهُ الرَّجُلُ يُصَوَّمُ وَيَتَصَدَّقُ وَيُسَلِّي وَهُوَ يُحَافُ أنْ لَا يَتَقَبَّلَ مِنْهُ

"Is this the one who commits adultery, steals and drinks alcohol?’ He (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) said: ‘No, O daughter of Abū Bakr – O daughter of Siddiq – rather, it is a man who fasts and gives charity and prays, but he fears that those will not be accepted from him.”26

Allāh (سُعْنَاهُ وَتَعَالَ) says,

إنَّا يَتَقَبَّلُ اللَّهُ مِنَ الْمُتَّقِينَ

26 Jāmi’ at-Tirmidhi No. (3175); Sunan Ibn Majah No. (4198) with his wording. Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) graded it to be Sahīh in his book as-Sahīhah No. (162).
THE 6TH LEVEL: CAUTIONING AGAINST COMMITTING ACTS THAT WILL NULLIFY DEEDS

"Verily, Allāh accepts only from those who are Al-Muttaqūn (the pious - see V.2:2)." [Sūrah al-Mā‘īdah 5:27]

Meaning those who show piety to Allāh in the deeds which they establish. They perform it sincerely for Allāh alone and according to the Sunnah of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم). Thus, the righteous fear nullifying their deeds.

The great second generation Muslim, Abdullāh bin Abī Mulaykah (رضي الله عنه) said, أدرَكْتُ ثلاثينً من أصحاب النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم كلهم يخفف النفاق على نفسه.

“I met thirty Companions of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم). All of them feared hypocrisy.”

Al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī (رضي الله عنه) said,

إنَّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ جَمَعَ إِحْسَانًا وَ شَقْقَةٍ، وَ إِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ جَمَعَ إِسْتَاءَةَ وَ أَمْنًا
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

"Verily, the believer amasses perfection in deeds and fear; yet, the hypocrite amasses misdeeds and a false sense of security."

The hypocrite performs deeds poorly while feeling safe that they will be accepted. As for the believer, he performs deeds with Iḥsān fearing that his deeds will be rejected.

The point here is that it is incumbent for the servant to be on guard from rendering his deeds fruitless.

THE 7TH LEVEL: REMAINING FIRM UPON IT

Shaykh ul-Islām Muḥammad Ibn ʿAbdul-Wahhāb (رحمهالله) said,

الْمُرْتَبَةُ السَّابِعَةُ: الْقَبَائِلُ عَلَى الْحَقّ، وَ الْخَرُوفُ مِنْ سُوء
السَّحَاتِمَةِ؛ لِقُولِهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَ سَلَّمَ: ((إِنَّ مَنْ يَعْمَلُ مِنْ يَعْمَلُ يَعْمَلُ أَهْلَ الْجَنَّةِ، وَ يَعْمَلُ لَهُ يَعْمَلُ أَهْلِ الْبَارِ))، وَ
هَذَا أَيْضاً: مِنْ أَعْظَمْ مَا يَخَافُ مِنْهُ الْصَّالِحِينَ؛ وَ هُمْ قَلِيلُ
فِي رَمَاتِيْنَ؛ فَالْتَفَكَّرُ فِي حَالِ الَّذِي تُتَعْرِفُ مِنْ التَّلَاءِنِ فِي هَذَا وَ
غَيْرِهِ، يَتَذَاكَّرُ عَلَى شَيْءِ كَبِيرِ تَجَهِلُهُ، وَ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ.

The seventh step is to remain firm upon the truth, fearing a bad ending. This is due to the Prophet’s statement, ‘Indeed, among you are those who do deeds from the people of Paradise; yet conclude with deeds from the people of Hell.’ This is the greatest thing that the righteous fear. Yet in our era, it is the least. So, contemplating on the circumstance of those you know concerning this matter and others directs you toward a frequent matter which you are unaware of, and Allāh knows best.

Explanatory notes

The seventh and last step from what is obligatory upon us concerning what Allāh orders us with is to remain firm. That one aspires to remain firm upon the truth, guidance, and uprightness in the religion of Allāh until his death.

Sufyān bin Abdullāh ath-Thaqafī (may Allāh be pleased with him) said,

فَلْتُ: يَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ إِنَّكَ لَا أَسْأَلُ عَنْهُ أَحَدًا
عَلَى نَائِبٍ; قَالَ: فَلْتُ: أَمْنِتْ بِأَنْ تُصْرِفُنَّ نَفْسَاكَ

"I said, 'O Messenger of Allāh. Tell me something about al-Islām which I can ask of only you.’ He (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, ‘Say I believe in Allāh — and then be steadfast.’”

So, one should aspire for uprightness and remain firm upon the religion of Allāh. One should continuously ask Allāh (تبارك وتعالى) that He keep him firm. Allāh (سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى) says,

"Allāh will keep firm those who believe, with the word that stands firm in this world (i.e., they will keep on worshipping Allāh Alone and none else), and in the Hereafter.” [Sūrah ‘Ibrāhīm 14:27]

It is imperative for the Muslim to fear a bad ending. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said,
EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE TREATISE: OUR DUTY CONCERNING WHAT ALLĀH ORDERS US WITH

“Verily, one of you performs the actions of the people of Paradise until there is but an arm’s length between him and it, and that which has been written overtakes him, and so he acts with the actions of the people of the Hell-Fire and thus enters it” 29

Based on this, the Salaf would fear what is preordained and their last moments in this worldly life. The Prophet (ﺹﺎﺒِнесенَلِهِ) said,

“Men whose last words are ‘There is no deity worthy of worship except Allāh’ will enter Paradise.”30

THE 7TH LEVEL: REMAINING FIRM UPON IT

It is imperative for the Muslim to continuously beg Allah (ﷻ) to keep him firm and not cause him to deviate.

Shahr bin Hawshab (رضي الله عنه) said,

قُلْتُ يَا رَسُولُ اللّهِ مَا لَآ كَثَرَ دُعَاءِكَ يَا مَقْلِبُ الْقُلُوبِ نَبْتُ قَلْبِي
عَلَى دِينِكَ قَالَ يَا أَمْ سَلَمَةَ إِنَّهُ لَيْسَ آدِمِي إِلَّا وَقَلْبُهُ بَيْنَ أُصْبِعْتِي مِنْ أَصْبَابِ اللّهِ فَقْمُ نَا أَقَامُ وَمِنْ شَاءٍ أَزَاّ

“I said to Umm Salamah (رضي الله عنها): ‘O Mother of the Believers! What was the supplication that the Messenger of Allah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said most frequently when he was with you?’ She (رضي الله عنها) said: ‘The supplication he said most frequently was: ‘O Changer of the hearts, make my heart firm upon Your religion (Yā Muqallibal-qulūb, thabbit qalbī ʿalā dīnik).’ She (رضي الله عنها) said: ‘So I said: ‘O Messenger of Allah, why do you supplicate so frequently: ‘O Changer of the hearts, make my heart firm upon Your religion.’ He (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘O Umm Salamah! Verily, there is no human being except that his heart is between Two Fingers of the Fingers of Allah, so whomever He wills He makes steadfast, and whomever He wills He causes to deviate.””31

The Ḥadīth from Saḥīḥ al-Bukhārī and Muslim mentions the supplication of our Prophet (ṣallālāhu `alayhi wa sallam) which he would say,

اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ أَسْلَمْتُ وَبِكَ أَمْنِتُ وَعَلَيْكَ تَوْكُّدُتُ وَإِلَيْكَ أَتَبْتُ
وَبِكَ حَامِسُتُ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أُعْوُدُ بِعَرَضِكَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنتَ أَنْ تُضَلْيِنَّ
أَنتَ النَّجِيُّ الَّذِي لَا يَمُوتُ وَالحَيُّ وَالإِنْسُ يَمُوتُونَ

"O, Allāh! To You I have submitted, and in You do I believe, and in You, I put my trust, to You do I turn, and for You, I argued. O Allāh, I seek refuge with You through Your Power; there is none worthy of worship except You Alone; that You safeguard me against going astray. You are the Ever-Living, the One Who sustains and protects all that exists; the One Who never dies, whereas human beings and jinn will all die.”32

31 Jāmi‘ at-Tirmidhi No. (3522) and he graded it to be Hasan. Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) graded it to be Saḥīḥ. Saḥīḥ Muslim No. (2654) from the hadith of Abdullāh bin ‘Umar bin al-Aas (رضي الله عنه).
32 Saḥīḥ al-Bukhārī No. (7383); Saḥīḥ Muslim No. (2717) from the Ḥadīth of Umm Salamah (رضي الله عنها). Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) graded it to be Saḥīḥ.
Every time the Prophet ﷺ would leave his house, he would say,

اللهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعْوذُ بَيْنَكَ أَنْ أَضَلْ أَوْ أُضَلْ أَنْ أُذْهَبْ أَوْ أُذْهَبْ أَنْ أُقْصَرْ أَوْ أُقْصَرْ أَنْ أُكْفَرْ أَوْ أُكْفَرْ أَنْ أُكُفَّرْ أَوْ أُكُفَّرْ أَنْ أُغْلِبْ أَوْ أُغْلِبْ أَنْ أُغْلِبْ عَلَىَّ

“O, Allâh! I seek refuge in Thee lest I stray or be led astray, or slip or be made to slip, or cause injustice, or suffer injustice, or do wrong, or have wrong done to me.”

The point here is that the servant should invoke His Lord (Allâh) that he is not misled nor that he deviates. He should invoke His Lord that his heart is made firm on faith and that he takes the means to achieve firmness and uprightness in the religion.

From that is that one aspires continuously to rectify outwardly and inwardly the relationship between himself and Allâh. For this reason, the people of knowledge say, “It is unknown whether a person rectified himself inwardly and his ‘Aqîdah is in order between himself and Allâh, even if his life is concluded with a bad ending.”

Abdul-Haqq al-Ishbīlī (رحمهُ الله) said,

"Know that the bad ending—May Allāh give us refuge from it—doesn't occur to the one who is upright upon the religion outwardly and inwardly. This only happens to the one who has a corrupt intellect, persistently committing major sins, and embarking on crimes. Perhaps these things overtake him until death approaches him before he can repent. He is seized by death before he can rectify his intentions. Shaytān uproots him from this commotion (last moments of death), and seizes him at the time of his stupor."

What we need to take note of in the Ḥadīth is that the person secretly has religious issues as the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said,

إِنَّ أَحَدَكُمْ لَا يَعْمَلُ فِي مَالِهِ حَيْثُ يَبْدِلُونَ لِلنَّاس

"One of you performs deeds like the deeds of the people of Paradise apparently before people."34

Based on this, it is a must that the servant is diligent in rectifying his heart and purifying it with sincere 34 Sahīh al-Bukhārī No. (2898); Sahīh Muslim No. (112) from the Ḥadīth of Sahl bin Sa'd as-Sā’īdī (كُلُثُومُ بُلْبُلٍ). devotion (to Allah), truthfulness, love, and goodness. He should remove from his heart hate, rancor, hidden lusts, and resentment. Our Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said in a supplication,

وأَسْلَمُ سَخِيَةً قَلْبِي

“And O Allah! Remove the treachery of my heart.”

The servant needs to rectify his heart and supplicate to His Lord (تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى) that He makes him firm upon the truth and correct guidance. He needs to ask Allah that He keeps him alive as a Muslim and causes him to die as a believer. He needs to ask Allah to rectify his religion which is a protection for his affairs; and that Allah rectifies his Hereafter which is his final abode. He needs to ask Allah to make his life an increase for everything good and make his death an ease from everything evil.

In this same context, there are numerous invocations from our Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

CLOSING

These seven matters are what is obligatory concerning what Allāh (ﷻ) orders us with.

I ask Allāh, the Lord of the Great Throne, to grant us success to actualize these seven matters; that He guide us to the Straight Path. May Allāh rectify all of our affairs and not leave us to handle it by ourselves for even the blink of an eye.

The last of our call is that all praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of all that exists. May Allāh raise the rank of our Prophet and bestow blessings upon him, his family, and all his Companions.
