In Koofah:
'Ubaydullaah ibn Moosaa (c. 120-213H), Aboo Nu’aym al-Fadl ibn Dukayn (130-219H), Khalaad ibn Makhlad (d. 213H), Talq ibn Ghannaam an-Nakha‘ee (d. 211H), Khalaad ibn Yazeed al-Muqri (d. 215H).

In Makkah:
'Abdullaah ibn Yazeed al-Muqri (d. 120-213H), Khalaad ibn Yahyaa as-Sulamee (d. 213H), Hassaan ibn Hassaan al-Basree (d. 213H), Abul-Waleed Ahmad ibn Muhammad al-Azraqee (d. 217H), 'Abdullaah ibn az-Zubayr al-Mumaydee (d. 229H).

In al-Madeenah:
'Abdul-'Azeez al-Uwaysee (-), Ayyoob ibn Sulaymaan ibn Bilaal (d. 224H), Ismaa‘eel ibn Abee Uways (139-226H).

In Egypt:
Sa’eed ibn Abee Maryam (144-224H), Ahmad ibn Ishkaab (d. 218H), 'Abdullaah ibn Yoosuf at-Tinneesee (d. 215H), Asbagh ibn al-Faraj (d. 225H).

In Shaam:
His scribe, Muhammad ibn Abee Haatim, said, “I heard him say a month before his death, ‘I have written narrations from a thousand and eighty men, none of them was other than a companion of hadeeth. They used to say, ‘Eemaan is speech and action, it increases and decreases.’”

Those who narrated from him were very many in number, from amongst them were:

Aboo 'Eesaa at-Tirmidhee (d. 279H), Aboo Haatim (d. 277H), Aboo Bakr ibn Abid-Dunyaa (d. 281H), Aboo Bakr ibn Abee 'Aasim (d. 257H), Saalih ibn Muhammad Jazarah (d. 293H), Muhammad ibn 'Abdullaah al-Hadramee Mutayyan (d. 297H), Muhammad ibn Ishaaq ibn Khuzaimah (d. 311H), Yahyaa ibn Muhammad ibn Saa’id (d. 318H), Muhammad ibn Nasr al-Marwazee (d. 294H), Muhammad ibn Yoosuf al-Firabree (narrator of the Sabeeb d. 301H), Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Daawood (d. 316H), Ibraaheem ibn Ishaaq al-Harbee (d. 285H), Muslim Ibn al-Hajjaaj (d. 261H), and the last of them was al-Husayn ibn Ismaa’eeel al-Mahaamilee (d. 330H).

Imaam Bukhaaree began seeking hadeeth at the age of ten in the year 205H. He himself said, “I compiled my book, ‘The Sabeeb,’ over sixteen years, and extracted it from six hundred thousand hadeeth—and made it an evidence between myself and Allaah, the Most High.”

Muhammad ibn Abee Haatim said, “I heard al-Bukhaaree say, ‘I entered Baghdaad for the eighth and last time, and each time I would sit with Ahmad ibn Hanbal. So he said to me the final time he bade farewell to me, 'O Aboo 'Abdullaah, will you leave the knowledge and the people and go off to Khuraasaan?' He said, 'I now recall his saying.'

Al-Bukhaaree said, "When I wrote abaadeeth I would not do so in the manner of others. When I was to write a narration from a man I would first ask him his name, his Kunyab, his descent/origin, and how he had conveyed the badeeth, (and) if he was a person of sound comprehension. If not then I would ask him to bring out his original manuscript copy."

Ja'far ibn Muhammad al-Qattaan said, "I heard Muhammad ibn Ismaa'eel say, 'I wrote narrations from over a thousand Shaykhs, from each of them ten thousand narrations at the very least—and I do not have any badeeth except that I can remember its chain of narration.'"

Ibn 'Adiyy said, "I heard a number of Shaykhs relating that when Muhammad ibn Ismaa'eel came to Baghdaad and the companions of badeeth heard of him, they gathered together and (as a test) they took a hundred badeeth and mixed up their chains of narrations and texts, giving the text of one the chain of narration of another, and the chain of narration of one a different text.

Then they divided them between ten people for them to ask al-Bukhaaree about them in the gathering. So the people gathered, and one of them began by asking al-Bukhaaree about one of his ten badeeth, so he replied, 'I do not know it,' and he asked him about another and he said, 'I do not know it,' this continued until he completed the ten. So the people of knowledge began looking at one another and saying, ‘The man understands well.’ But the people who did not know thought that al-Bukhaaree was incapable. Then the second began and did the same as the first and al-Bukhaaree kept saying, ‘I do not know it.’ Then the third and so on until all ten had asked him, and he did not say anything more than, ‘I do not know it.’

Then when he knew that they had finished he turned to the first of them and said, ‘As for your first badeeth then it should be like this, and the second like this, and the third like this ...’ right up to the tenth, restoring each text to its true chain of narration. He did the same with all of the others, so the people attested to his memorisation.”

Abul-Azhar said, “There were four hundred students of badeeth in Samarqand and they came together for a week and hoped to find Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eel make a mistake. So they entered the chains of narration of Shaam upon those of ’Iraaq, and the chains of Yemen upon those of Makkah and al-Madeenah, but they could not find a single mistake from him in any chain of narration or any text.”

Aboo Ja’far al-Uqaylee said, “When al-Bukhaaree compiled the book, The Saheeb, he showed it to ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee, Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Yahyaa ibn Ma’een and others. They declared it to be good, and they testified that it was all authentic, except for four ahaadeeth.” Al-Uqaylee said, “And the correct saying about those (four) is the saying of al-Bukhaaree—they are authentic.”
The Scholars Praise of al-Bukhaaree

Nu’aym ibn Hammaad said, “Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eeel is the Faqeeh of this Ummah.”

Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih said, “Write narrations from this young man (meaning al-Bukhaaree), because if he had lived in the time of al-Hasan the people would have had need of him due to his knowledge of hadeeth and its understanding.”

Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah and Muhammad ibn ’Abdullaah ibn Numayr both said, “We have not seen anyone like Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eeel.”

Ahmad ibn Hanbal said, “Khuraasaan has not brought out the like of Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eeel.”

Aboo ’Ammaar al-Husayn ibn Hurath praised al-Bukhaaree and said, “I am not aware that I have seen anyone the like of him, it is as if he had been created solely for the hadeeth.”

Muhammad ibn Bashshaar said, “The great memorisers of the world are four: Aboo Zur’ah in Rayy, ad-Daarimee in Samarqand, Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eeel in Bukhaaraa and Muslim in Neesaaboor.”

Ibn Khuzaymah said, “I have not seen under the sky anyone having more knowledge of and better memorisation of the hadeeth of Allaah’s Messenger (ﷺ) than Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eeel.”
His Excellence and Piety

Muhammad ibn Abee Haatim said, "I heard al-Bukhaaree say, 'I have never backbitten anybody since I knew that backbiting harms its people.'"

Muhammad ibn Abee Haatim said, "I saw that one day he lay upon his back, we were in Firabr and he was compiling the Book of Tafseer. He had tired himself out that day and exerted himself in sorting out the abaadeeth, so I said to him, 'I have seen that you say, 'I have not taken any stand since I reached the age of discernment, except upon knowledge,' so what is the reason for your reclining?' He said, 'We have tired ourselves out today and this is a battle-front, and I feared that the enemy would make some assault. So I wished to rest and prepare myself so that if the enemy attacks unexpectedly we will be able to act.'"

Al-Husayn ibn Muhammad as-Samarqandee said, "Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eeel had three particular characteristics along with the rest of his praiseworthy qualities: he would not talk except a little, he had not used to desire that which the people possessed and he had not used to occupy himself with the affairs of the people. He was fully occupied with knowledge."

Sulaym ibn Mujaahid said, "For sixty years I have not seen anyone with better knowledge, more pious and more withholding from this world than Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eeel."

Muhammad ibn Abee Haatim said, "He used to often ride out to practice archery and I do not recall, despite the length of time that I accompanied him, that his arrow ever missed the target except twice. Rather he always hit the mark and would not be preceded in that. So one day we went out for archery in Firabr and we went out on the road that leads towards the river. We began shooting arrows and an arrow from Aboo 'Abdullaah struck a support of the bridge over the river and split it. So when he saw what had happened he dismounted and took out the arrow from the support and stopped shooting arrows. Then he said to us, 'Go back,' so we returned.

He said to me regretfully, 'O Aboo Ja'far, could you fulfil a need for me?' I said, 'Yes.' He said, 'Go to the owner of the bridge and say that we have damaged the support, so we wish that you will give us permission to replace it, or that you should take its cost from us and excuse us for what we have done.' The owner of the bridge was Humayd ibn al-Akhdar and his reply to me was, 'Give my greeting of salaam to Aboo 'Abdullaah and say to him and tell him that he is absolved of any blame and all my wealth is at his disposal to do with as he wishes.' So when I informed him his face brightened and he became very happy, and on that day he gave charity of three hundred dirhams and narrated five hundred badeeth."

Muhammad ibn Abee Haatim said, "I heard him say to Aboo Ma'shar ad-Dareer, 'Please forgive me, O Aboo Ma'shar.' So he said, 'For what?' He said, 'One day you narrated a badeeth and I looked at you and could see that you were very happy with the badeeth, and you were moving your head and your hands, and I smiled at that.' He said, 'You are forgiven, may Allaah have mercy upon you, O Aboo 'Abdullaah.'" Muhammad ibn Mansoor said, “We were in the gathering of Aboo 'Abdullaah al-Bukhaaree and a man took a speck of something from his beard and threw it upon the ground. So I saw Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eel looking at it and at the people. Then when the people were not noticing he stretched out his hand and picked it up and entered it into his sleeve. Then when he left the mosque I saw him take it out and throw it on the ground - so it was as if he tried to keep the mosque clean from that which he kept his beard clean from.”

Ibn 'Adiyy said, “I heard 'Abdul-Quddoos ibn 'Abdul-Jabbaar as-Samarqandee say, ‘Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eel came to Khartank, a village about six miles from Samarqand, and he had relatives there, and stayed with them. So one night I heard him supplicate after finishing prayer during the night, ‘O Allaah, the earth has become restricted for me despite its extensiveness, so take me to Yourself.’ And the month was not complete before he died, and his grave is in Khartank.”

Muhammad ibn Abee Haatim said, “I heard Aboo Mansoor Ghaalib ibn Jibreel, and it was with him that Aboo 'Abdullaah was staying, say, ‘He stayed with us for some days and fell ill and the illness increased in severity and messengers were sent asking that he should be brought to Samarqand. So when he agreed he prepared to travel and wore his leather socks and his turban, but he had only taken about twenty steps or so - and I and another man were holding him by the arms taking him to the horse for him to ride - when he said, ‘Let me go, as I have become weak.’ So he supplicated with some supplications and lay down and died رَحْمَةَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى.”
Ibn 'Adiyy said, “I heard al-Hasan ibn al-Husayn al-Bazzaaz al-Bukhaaree say, ‘Al-Bukhaaree died on the night prior to Saturday, the night of 'Eidul-Fitr at the time of 'Ishaa, and he was buried after the Zuhr Prayer on the day of 'Eidul-Fitr, in the year 256H. He lived for thirteen days less than sixty two years.””\(^1\)

'The Creed of Aboo 'Abdullaah Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eel al-Bukhaaree and the Group from the Salaf from whom he narrates

Ahmad ibn Muhammad ibn Hafs al-Harwee said: Muhammad ibn Ahmad ibn Salamah narrated to us, saying: Abul-Husayn Muhammad ibn 'Imraan ibn Moosaa al-Jarjaanee narrated to us saying: I heard Aboo Muhammad 'Abdur-Rahmaan ibn Muhammad ibn 'Abdur-Rahmaan al-Bukhaaree - from ash-Shaash - saying...

I heard Aboo 'Abdullaah Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eel al-Bukhaaree saying:

«I met more than a thousand men amongst the people of knowledge from the people of al-Hijaaaz, al-Makkah, al-Madeenah, al-Koofah, al-Basrah, Waasit, Baghdadaad, Shaam and Egypt. I met them numerous times, generation after generation and then generation after generation. I met them while they were ample and widespread for over forty-six years. The people of ash-Shaam, Egypt and al-Jazeerah twice, (the people of) al-Basrah four times in a number of years. (Those of) al-Hijaaaz (over a period) of six years and I cannot enumerate how many times I entered (upon the people of) al-Koofah and Baghdadaad along with the mubaddithoon of Khuraasaan, amongst them: al-Makkee ibn Ibraaheem, Yahyaa ibn Yahyaa, 'Alee ibn al-Hasan ibn Shaqeeq, Qutaibah ibn Sa’d and Shihaab ibn Ma’mar.

SPEECH AND ACTION

«That the religion consists of (both) speech and action and this is due to the saying of Allaah:

وَمَا آمَنُوا إِلَّا لِيُبَيِّنَنَا لَهُمُ الْحَقَّ وَلِيُكَفِّرَنَّهُم بِاللَّهِ مِنْهُمُ الْكَفَّارَةَ

And they were commanded not but that they should worship Allaah, and make their worship exclusively for Him alone, being Hunafaa (abstaining from ascribing partners to Him), and perform As-Salaah (Iqaamat-us-Salaah) and give Zakaah and that is the right religion.»

Soorah al-Bayyinah (99):5

Notes  The Murji‘ab are a sect who uphold the belief of Ijma‘ - to hold that sins major or minor, do not affect faith and that faith neither increases nor decreases. The first to call to this belief was Gheelaan ibn Abee Gheelaan, the Qadariyy. He was executed in 105H. They claim that actions are not part of faith, that people do not vary in faith, that faith does not increase or decrease and that one should declare himself a Believer without saying, ‘If Allaah wills.’ The Murji‘ab are divided into three groups, as Shaykhul-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah has mentioned:

i Those who claim that faith is a condition of the heart only.
Those who claim that faith is merely verbal affirmation (i.e., the Karraamiyyah).

Those who claim that faith is only affirmation with the heart and tongue and that action does not enter into it.

Al-Laalikaa‘ee (d. 418H) reports in his Sharb Usool I’tiqaad Ablus-Sunnah (5/958) that 'Abdur-Razzaaq (as-San‘aaneel) said, “I met sixty two Shaykhs, amongst them were: Ma’mar, al-Awzaa’ee, ath-Thawree, al-Waleed ibn Muhammad al-Qurashee, Yazeed ibn as-Sa‘ib, Hammaad ibn Salamah, Hammaad ibn Zaid, Sufyaan ibn 'Uyainah, Shu'ayb ibn Harb, Wakee' ibn al-Jarrah, Maalik ibn Anas, Ibn Abee Laylah, Ismaa’eeel ibn Ayyaash, al-Walced ibn Muslim and those I have not named, all of them saying, ‘Faith consists of speech and action, it increases and decreases.’”

Al-Laalikaa‘ee also reports in Sharb Usool I’tiqaad Ablus-Sunnah (4/8 48) from Yahyaa ibn Saleem that he said, “I asked ten amongst the Fugahbaa about faith and they said, ‘Speech and action.’ I asked Sufyaan ath-Thawree and he said, ‘Speech and action.’ I asked Ibn Juraij and he said, ‘Speech and action.’ I asked Muhammad ibn 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr ibn 'Uthmaan and he said, ‘Speech and action.’ I asked al-Muthnee ibn as-Sabaah and he said, ‘Speech and action.’ I asked Naafi’ ibn 'Umar ibn Jameel and he said, ‘Speech and action.’ I asked Muhammad ibn Muslim at-Taa‘ifee and he said, ‘Speech and action.’ I asked Maalik ibn Anas and he said, ‘Speech and action,’ and I asked Sufyaan ibn 'Uyainah and he said, ‘Speech and action.’”
Shaykh Saalih al-Fawzaan in his Sharh Aqeedatil-Waasitiyyah (p. 135) says, “And his (Ibn Taymiyyah’s) saying, ‘And among the fundamentals of Ablus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa’ah ...’ means the principles and rules upon which their creed is built, ‘... is that the religion ...’ which is whatever Allaah has commanded, ‘... and faith ...,’ which means belief, ‘... is speech and action: The speech of the heart and tongue and the action of the heart, the tongue and the limbs.’ This is the meaning of faith with Ablus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa’ah. It is (both) speech and action. Speech is of two kinds: The speech of the heart and that is its belief (I’tiqaad) and the speech of the tongue and that is speaking with the word of Islaam. And action is of two types: the action of the heart and that is the intention and sincerity and the action of the limbs such as prayer, Hajj and Jibaad.”

Ibn al-Qayyim (d. 751H) said in Al-Madaarij (1/120-121), “The speech of the heart: It is belief in what Allaah, the Most Perfect, has informed about Himself, upon the tongue of His Messengers concerning His Names, His Attributes, His Actions, His Angels and the meeting with Him.

The speech of the tongue: It is to inform and convey about Allaah with that (i.e., the above), to call to it, defend it, to explain the false innovations which oppose it, to perform His remembrance and to convey His orders.

The action of the heart: Such as love for Him, reliance upon Him, having fear and hope in Him, making the deen purely and sincerely for Him, having patience upon what He orders and prohibits, having patience with what He decrees and being pleased with it, having allegiance and enmity for His sake, humbling oneself in front of Him, having humility in front of Him, becoming tranquil with Him and other than this from among the actions of the heart whose obligation is more binding than (and precedes) the actions of the limbs. And (likewise) whose recommended actions are more loved by Allaah than the recommended actions of the limbs. And the actions of the limbs without the action of the heart is either of no benefit at all or of little benefit.

The action of the limbs: Such as prayer and jibaad, attending the jumu’ah (the Friday Prayer) and congregational prayer, aiding those who are unable, displaying goodness to the creation and other such things.” Hence, actions are from the reality of eemaan and Ablus-Sunnah differ from the Murji’ah in the following matters:

1 That eemaan is both speech and action, in accordance with the explanations already preceded.

2 That eemaan increases and decreases.

3 That it is permissible to except oneself from having complete eemaan with the phrase, “If Allaah wills.”

4 That there is a link between the actions of the heart and the actions of the limbs, and their increase and decrease are tied together.

5 That kufr - the opposite of eemaan - occurs by belief, speech and action.

6 That kufr is of various types, such as jubood (rejection), takdheeb (repudiation), ‘inaad (stubborn opposition), shakk (doubt), ’raad (turning away), nifaaq (hypocrisy), istikbaar (arrogance) - and is not restricted to jubood or takdheeb.
«And that the Qur’aan is the Speech of Allaah, not being created due to His saying:

إِنَّ رَبُّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالأَرْضَ فِي سِتَّةِ آيَاتٍ مُّوسَى عَلَى الْمَرْيَمَ يُقَلِّبُ النَّهَارَ بِالْيَوْمِ عِنْدَهُ فَخَلَقَ السَّمَاءَ وَالشَّمَسَ وَالْقَمَرَ وَالْجُوُمُ مُسْحُورِتٌ بِأَمْرِهِ

Indeed your Lord is Allaah, Who created the heavens and the earth in Six Days, and then He Istawa’a (rose over) the Throne (in reality, in a manner that suits His Majesty). He brings the night as a cover over the day, seeking it rapidly, and (He created) the sun, the moon and the stars are subjected to His Command ...

Aboo 'Abdullaah Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eel said: Ibn 'Uyainah said, “So Allaah made distinct the creation (khalq) from the command (amr) (in the remainder of the aayah):

أَلاَّ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ رُسُولًا مِّنْ خَلْقِكَ جَعَلَ الْكُلُّ مَثَالًا لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ

... Surely, His is the Creation (khalq) and the Command ('Amr). Blessed be Allaah, the Lord of the Aalameen (mankind, jinns and all that exists).”»

Soorah al-A’raaf (7):54
Notes  The Imaam of Ablus-Sunnah, al-Barbahaaree (d. 329H) said in Sharhus-Sunnah, “The Qur’aan is the Speech of Allaah, His Revelation and Light. It is not created, since the Qur’aan is from Allaah and that which is from Allaah is not created. This was what Maalik ibn Anas, Ahmad ibn Hanbal and the scholars before and after them said and debating about it is disbelief.”

One of the attributes of Allaah is His Speech. Since His Attributes have been with Him eternally, His Speech cannot be created and therefore, the Qur’aan is not created. Imaam Maalik (d. 179H) said, “The Qur’aan is the Speech of Allaah, it is not created.” Reported by al-Laaliikaa’ee in As-Sunnah (no. 414).

Imaam Ahmad (d. 241H) was asked about the one who says that the Qur’aan is created, so he said, “(He is) a disbeliever.” Reported by Al-Laaliikaa’ee in As-Sunnah (no. 449).

Al-Laaliikaa’ee (d. 418H) reports from Ahmad ibn ’Abdillaah ibn al-Khidr al-Muqri that Aboo Muhammad Yahiya ibn Khalf al-Muqri said, “I was with Maalik ibn Anas in the year 68H, and a man came to him and said, ‘O Aboo ’Abdullaah what do you say about the one who says, ‘The Qur’aan is created?’’ He said, ‘A disbeliever, heretic, kill him.’ The man then said, ‘I am just quoting these words which I heard.’ Then he (Maalik) said, ‘I have not heard them from anyone else, I have heard them from you.’ Aboo Muhammad said, ‘Then that was a bit tough on me so I went to Egypt and I met al-Layth ibn Sa’d and said, ‘O Abul-Haarith, what do you say about the one who says, ‘The Qur’aan is created?’’ And then I narrated to him the words said to Maalik, and then he (also) said, ‘(Such a one is) a disbeliever.’ Then I met Ibn Lahee’ah and I said to him the equivalent of what I said to al-Layth ibn Sa’d and I narrated to him the words, he said, ‘A disbeliever.’ And in another narration from ’Abbaas al-Azhar there continues, ‘And then I came to Makkah and met Sufyaan ibn ’Uyainah and narrated to him the words of the man (who came to Maalik ibn Anas) and he said, ‘A disbeliever.’ Then I went to Koofah and I met Aboo Bakr ibn Iyaash and I said to him, ‘What do you say about the one who says the Qur’aan is created?’ And I narrated to him the words of the man. He said, ‘He is a disbeliever and whoever does not say he is a disbeliever is himself a disbeliever.’ Then I met ’Alee ibn ’Aasim and Hasheem and I said to them both the same and narrated to them the words of the man and they both said, ‘A disbeliever.’ Then I met ’Abdullaah ibn Idrees, Aboo ’Usaamah, ’Ubdah ibn Sulaimaan al-Kallaabee, Yahyaa ibn Zakariyyaa and Wakee’ and I narrated to them and they said, ‘A disbeliever.’ Then I met Ibn al-Mubaarak, Aboo Ishaaq al-Fazaaree and al-Waleed ibn Muslim, so I narrated to them the words and they said—all of them, ‘A disbeliever.’” Reported in As-Sunnah of al-Laalikaa’ee (2/2 49-250)

Al-Bukhaaree said in Khalq Af’aalil-Ibaad, p. 11: Al-Hakam ibn Muhammad ibn at-Tabaree, I wrote down from him in Makkah, said, “Sufyaan ibn ’Uyainah said, ‘I have met with our Shaykhs for seventy years, amongst them ’Amr ibn Deenaar (all of them saying), ‘The Qur’aan is the Speech (kalaam) of Allaah and it is not created.’”
Imaam al-Barbahaaree (d. 329H) said, “Know that whoever says that his recitation of the Qur‘aan is created is an innovator. Whoever remains silent and will neither say created or uncreated, he too is a Jahmee. This was the saying of Ahmad ibn Hanbal.” Sharhus-Sunnah (no. 98).

The saying of the Salaf is that the Qur‘aan which is written in the Mushaf, memorised in the heart and recited upon the tongue is the uncreated Speech of Allaah. However, due to the fact that the human voice and movement of one’s tongue are created actions, the innovators innovated the ambiguous statement, ‘My recitation of the Qur‘aan is created.’ This saying leads to the previous saying that the Qur‘aan itself is created. Therefore, the scholars such as Imaam Ahmad warned against this. Also, refer to Khalq Af‘aalil ‘Ibaad (nos. 217 and 540) of Imaam al-Bukhaaree.

Al-Aajurree (d. 360H) said in Ash-Share‘ah, “May Allaah have mercy upon us and you. Know that the saying of the Muslims whose hearts have not deviated from the truth and those who were guided to what is correct in the past and the present is that the Qur‘aan is the Speech of Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic. It is not created since the Qur‘aan is from the Knowledge of Allaah, the Most High. The Knowledge of Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic is not created. High is Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic above that. This is proven by the Qur‘aan, the Sunnah, the sayings of the Companions رضي الله عنهم and the sayings of the scholars of the Muslims. It is not denied except by a filthy Jahmee. In the view of the scholars, the Jahmiyyah are disbelievers.’
A

A Jabmee is one who denies Allaah’s attributes, following in the way of al-Jahm ibn Safwaan and his teacher al-Ja’d ibn Dirham, both of whom were executed for their wicked and heretical teachings. The correct belief with regard to the attributes of Allaah is the belief of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa’ah. That is, we have faith in all of Allaah’s attributes without denying them or their meanings (ta’eeel), without interpreting them and changing their meanings (tahreef), without explaining how they are (takyeef) or likening them to those of the creation (tamtheel). See Al’Ageedatul-Waasitiyyah of Shaykhul-Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah.
"And that good and evil is by the pre-ordainment (qadar) of Allaah due to His saying:

قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ ۖ مِنَ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ

Say, 'I seek refuge with (Allaah) the Lord of the daybreak. From the evil of what He has created.'

وَقَالَ النَّارُ وَمَا أَحْمَلْتُنَا

While Allaah created you and whatever you make!

Soorah as-Saaffaat (37):96.

And due to His saying:

إِنَّا كُلُّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْنَاهُ بِقَدَرٍ

Verily, We have created all things with Qadar (Divine Pre-ordainments of all things before their creation, as written in the Book of Decrees, al-Lawh al-Mahfooz)."

Soorah al-Qamar (54):49.

Notes: In reference to the badeeth of the Messenger (ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wa sallam) in which he used to declare his Lord free from evil in one of the opening supplications of the prayer, saying, "I am here and happy to serve You. All good is in Your Hands, and evil is not ascribed to You." Reported by Muslim, Aboo Daawood, Ahmad and others.

Ibn al-Qayyim (d. 751H) explains (saying), "So Allaah is Blessed and Exalted from that evil should be ascribed to Him. Rather, everything that is ascribed to Him is good. Evil only becomes evil when it ceases to be attributed and ascribed to Him, for if it was ascribed to Him it would not be evil and He, free is He from all imperfection, is the Creator of good and evil. However, the evil exists in some of His creatures, not in His act of creation or in His actions. His act of creating, His action, His decree and His apportionment, all of it is good and this is why He, free is He from all imperfection, is cleared of any dbulm (oppression), the reality of which is to place something in other than its proper place. So He does not place things except in their proper places, which befit them. This is (what constitutes) good, all of it. Evil is to put something in other than its proper place, for when it is put in its proper place it is no longer evil. It is then known that evil is not attributable to Him and His Beautiful Names testify to that."

He also said, "For His Beautiful Names prevent the ascription of evil and oppression to Him along with the fact that He, free is He from all imperfection, is the Creator of every single thing. So He is the Creator of the servants, their actions, their movements and their sayings, and when a servant does a repulsive deed which is forbidden, he has done evil and the Lord, free is He from all imperfection, is the One who made him engage upon that action. This (making the servant do the reprehensible deed) on His behalf, is justice, wisdom and (constitutes what is) correct. His making him do the action is something which (in itself) is good, however that which is done (i.e., the action) is evil and repugnant. And He, free is He from all imperfections, by making him do this action has put something in its proper place on account of the far-reaching wisdom that He has in doing so and on account of which He is praised. So His (making the servant do such an action) is good, wise and something beneficial, even if its occurrence by the servant is a fault, a deficiency and something evil.” Ibn al-Qayyim’s Shifaa'ul-Aleeel (pp. 364-366).
ON TAKFEER

«And none of them used to declare anyone from among the people of the qiblah a disbeliever on account of committing a sin, due to His saying:

 وإن الله لا ينفع أن يشرك به كفرًا
Verily, Allaah forgives not that partners should be set up with Him in worship, but He forgives other than that to whom He pleases.»

Soorah an-Nisaa (4):48

Notes  The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “He who says to his brother, O Kaafir, then it returns upon one of them,” reported by al-Bukhaaree (10/514) and Muslim (2/49). And he (ﷺ) said, “And he who accuses a Believer of Kufir, then it is like killing him,” reported by al-Bukhaaree (10/514). Ash-Shawkaanee (d. 1251H) said, “Judging that a Muslim has left Islaam and entered into kufir is something that it is not fitting for a Muslim who believes in Allaah and the Last Day to do, except with a proof (burhaan) which is clearer than the day-time sun. Since it is established in the authentic badeeth, reported by a group of the Companions that he who says to his brother, “O Kaafir! Then it returns back to one of them ...” and in another wording, “Whoever addresses a man with kufr, or says ‘Enemy of Allaah’ and he is not, then it returns back upon him ...” reported by al-Bukhaaree (10/514), Muslim (2/49) and others.”

The explainer of ‘Aqeedah at-Tabaawiyah, Ibn Abil’Izz (d. 792H) said (p. 378), “We do not say about a specific individual from among the people of the qiblah that he is of the people of Paradise or of the people of Hellfire, except he about whom the truthful (حَقَّ) has informed about, that he is among the people of Paradise, such as the ten who were given tidings of Paradise, may Allaah be pleased with them. And if we say, ‘That whomsoever Allaah wills to enter the Hellfire from among the people who commit the major sins will by necessity enter the Hellfire and that he will be brought out of the Hellfire on account of the intercession of those entitled to intercede,’ then we would refrain from (saying such a thing) about a specific individual. So we do not testify for him that He will enter Paradise, nor that he will enter Hellfire except due to knowledge because the reality is hidden and what a person dies upon cannot be encompassed by us. However we do have hope for those who do good and we fear for those who do evil.”

The Khawaarij were the first to introduce the destructive and repugnant innovation of Takfeer bil-Kaba‘ir (declaring Muslims to be disbelievers on account of sins that they commit).
«And I never saw amongst them anyone who would take something from (the honour of) the Companions of Muhammad (ﷺ). ’Aa’ishah, may Allaah be pleased with her, said, “They were commanded to seek forgiveness for them due to His saying:

وَلَيْغَفْرِنَا الْلَّهُ وَلَيْغَفْرِنَا عِبَادُهُ وَلَيْغَفْرِنَا لُبَاسُكَ

And those who came after them say, ‘Our Lord! Forgive us and our brethren who have preceded us in Faith, and put not in our hearts any hatred against those who have believed. Our Lord! You are indeed full of kindness, Most Merciful.’”

Soorah al-Hashr (69):10

Notes  That is by backbiting, reviling, casting aspersions or doubts about them or censuring them in any manner. The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Whoever abuses my Companions, upon them is the curse of Allaah, the angels and the people.” Reported from Ibn ’Abbaas and Ibn ’Umar by at-Tabaraanee. The hadeeth is hasan as declared by al-Albaanee in
As-Sabeelah (no. 2340). Al-Laaliika‘ee (d. 418H) reports in As-Sunnah (no. 2359) that Imaam Ahmad said, "If you see anyone speaking ill of the Companions of the Messenger of Allaah ( ﷺ), doubt his Islaam."

Imaam al-Barbahaaree (d. 329H) said in his Sharhus-Sunnah, “If you see a man criticising the Companions of the Messenger of Allaah ( ﷺ) know that he is a person of wicked speech and desires, since the Messenger of Allaah ( ﷺ) said, "When my Companions are mentioned then withhold." Reported by at-Tabaraanee from Ibn Mas‘ood and it is saheeh, see Silsilatul-Abaadeethis-Sabeelah (no. 34) of Shaykh al-Albaanee.

Imaam al-Barbahaaree also said, “Do not discuss about their slips or wars, nor that of which you have no knowledge. Do not listen to such talk from anyone, for if you do, your heart will not remain safe and sound.” Sharbus-Sunnah (p. 84).

Ibn al-Qayyim says in his book Haadiyul-Arwaah ila Bilaadil-Afraah, “And we shall quote their concensus (i.e. that of the Salaf) just as Harb, the companion of Imaam Ahmad, has quoted from them in his own wording in his well known Al-Masaal’il. He said:

‘This is the madhab of the People of Knowledge, the Ashaabul-Athbar (People of the Narrations), Ablus-Sunnah wal-Jama‘ah, those who stick fast to it [Ablus-Sunnah] and who seek to guide themselves by [them i.e., the Ablus-Sunnah] from among those in the presence of the Messenger of Allaah ( ﷺ) up until this day of ours. And I met whomever I met from among the Scholars of the people of Hijaaaz and Shaam and others besides them. Whoever differs with and opposes a single matter from the madhaahib [of these People of Knowledge] or contests and defames them or criticises the one who speaks [by what they speak with], then he is a mukbaalif (opposer), a mubtadi’ (an innovator) and one who has left the jama’ah, who has ceased to be upon the manhaj of the Sunnah and the Path of Truth.

And this [i.e. the path of the People of Knowledge] is the madhhab of Ahmad, Ishaaq bin Ibraheem, Abdullaah ibn Zubair al-Humaidee, Sa’eed ibn Mansoor and others besides them amongst those with whom we have sat and taken knowledge from ...” And then he lists the points of their ‘aqeedah, amongst them:

‘... And the mentioning of the good qualities and deeds of the Companions of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) and refraining from mentioning their shortcomings and mistakes, those which occurred between them. Whoever reviles the Companions of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ), or a single one amongst them, or reduces [their worth and status] or insults them or exposes their faults or criticises a single one amongst them then he is a mubtadi’ (an innovator), a raafidee (an extreme shi’ite), a khabeeth (vile and repugnant) and a mukbaalif (an opposer) and Allaah will not accept from him any of his efforts nor his fair dealings. Rather loving them is a sunnah, supplicating for them is nearness (to Allaah), taking them as a model for guidance is a means (of nearness to Allaah) and accepting and taking from their narrations is an excellence.”

Ibn al-Qayyim referred here to Harb ibn Ismaa’eel al-Kirmaanee (one of the companions of Imaam Ahmad) who summarised the creed of the Ablus-Sunnah. This creed is contained in the book, Masaa'iil Harb ibn Ismaa'eel al-Kirmaanee 'anil-Imaam Ahmad, regarding which adh-Dhahabee (d. 748H) said, "It is one of the most precious of the books of the Hanaabilah."
INNOVATIONS

«And they used to forbid innovations: whatever the Messenger (ﷺ) and his Companions were not upon due to His saying:

وَأَشْتَصَمُّواُ يَحْبِبُ اللَّهُ جَمِيعًا أَوْ لَاتَشْقَفُواً

And hold fast, all of you together, to the Rope of Allaah (i.e., this Qur’aan), and be not divided among yourselves.

Soorah Aali-Imraan (3):103

and due to His saying:

وَإِذَا تَطَوَّعَ عَنْهُ نَهْتُواً

And if you obey him, you shall be on the right guidance.»

Soorah Noor (24):54

Notes
The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, “Every innovation is misguidance and going astray.” Reported by Aboo Daawood, no. 4607 and it is saheeh. The Messenger (ﷺ) also warned against the people of innovation, from befriending, supporting or taking from them, saying, “Whoever innovates or accommodates an innovator then upon him is the curse of Allaah, His Angels and the whole of mankind.” Reported by Bukhaaree (12/41) and Muslim (9/140).
And in his footsteps we find the Noble Companions and the Taabi‘een after them warning from the danger of innovations upon the Ummah, its people and their unity. Ibn ’Abbaas (d. 68H) said, “Indeed the most detestable of things to Allaah are the innovations.” Reported by al-Bayhaqee in As-Sunan al-Kubraa (4/316). Ibn ’Umar (d. 84H) said, “Every innovation is misguidance, even if the people see it as something good.” Reported by Aboo Shaamah (no. 39).

Sufyaan ath-Thawree (d. 161H) said, “Innovation is more beloved to Iblees than sin, since a sin may be repented from but innovation is not repented from.” Reported by al-Laaliikaa‘ee (no. 238). Al-Fudayl ibn ’Iyaad (d. 187H) said, “I met the best of people, all of them people of the Sunnah and they used to forbid from accompanying the people of innovation.” Reported by al-Laaliikaa‘ee (no. 267).

Al-Hasan al-Basree (d. 110H) said, “Do not sit with the people of innovation and desires, nor argue with them, nor listen to them.” Reported by ad-Daarimee in his Sunan (1/121). Ibraaheem ibn Maysarah (d. 132H) said, “Whoever honours an innovator has aided in the destruction of Islaam.” Reported by al-Laaliikaa‘ee (1/139).

Sufyaan ath-Thawree (d. 161H) said, “Whoever listens to an innovator has left the protection of Allaah and is entrusted with the innovation.” Reported by Aboo Nu’aym in Al-Hilyah (7/26) and Ibn Battah (no. 444). Imaam Maalik (d. 179H) said, “How evil are the people of innovation, we do not give them salaat.” Reported by al-Baghawee in Sharhus-Sunnab (1/234).
Imaam ash-Shaafi‘ee (d. 204H) said, “That a person meets Allaah with every sin except Shirk is better than meeting Him upon any one of the innovated beliefs.” Reported by al-Bayhaqee in Al-Itiqaad (p. 158).

Al-Fudayl ibn 'Iyaad (d. 187H) said, “Whoever sits with a person of innovation, then beware of him and whoever sits with a person of innovation has not been given wisdom. I (would) love that there was a fort of iron between me and a person of innovation. That I eat with a Jew and a Christian is more beloved to me than that I eat with a person of innovation.” Reported by al-Laalikaa‘ee (no. 1149).

Al-Layth ibn Sa’d (d. 175H) said, “If I saw a person of desires (i.e., innovations) walking upon the water I would not accept from him.” So Imaam ash-Shaafi‘ee then said, “He has fallen short—if I saw him walking in the air I would not accept from him.” Reported by as-Suyooti in Al-‘Amr bil-‘Itibaa’ wan-Nahee ‘anil-Ibtidaa'.
Following the Messenger

«And they used to urge (people) to (follow) what the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his Companions were upon due to His saying:

وَأَنَّ هَذَا حِزْبُنَا مَسْتَفْدِعًا فَأَلْهَوْا وَلَا تَنْتِمُوا إِلَى السَّبِيلِ
فَفَغَرَّ بَيْنَكُمْ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ ذَلِكَ مِنْ وَصَايَاهُمْ يَدُ اللَّهِ تَنْقُونَ

And verily, this is my Straight Path, so follow it, and follow not (other) paths, for they will separate you away from His Path. This He has ordained for you that you may become Al-Muttaqoon (pious).»

Soorah al-An’aam (6):153

Notes And this is where the source of the salvation of every Muslim lies: in clinging to the Sunnah upon the way of the Companions of the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) in all matters. The texts supporting and requiring this are numerous and amongst them are:

On the authority of Aboo Naajih al-Irbaad ibn Saariyah, who said, “The Messenger of Allaah gave us a sermon by which our hearts were filled with fear and tears came to our eyes. We said, “O Messenger of Allaah, it is as though this is a farewell sermon, so councel us.” He said, “I councel you to fear Allaah and to give absolute obedience even if a slave becomes your leader. Verily he among you who lives (long) will see great controversy, so you must keep to my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the rightly-guided Khaleefahs, bite onto it with your molar teeth. Beware of newly invented matters, for every invented matter is an innovation and every innovation is a going astray, and every going astray is in Hellfire.” Reported by Aboo Daawood and at-Tirmidhee, who said that it was hasan saheeb.

The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “He who turns away from my Sunnah is not from me.” Reported by al-Bukhaaree and Muslim. Aboo Hurairah said that Allaah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, “All of my Ummah will enter Paradise except those who refuse.” It was said, “Who will refuse?” He replied, “Whoever obeys me enters Paradise and whoever disobeys me has refused.” Reported by al-Bukhaaree.

The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Indeed this Ummah will split into seventy three sects and all of them are in the Fire except for one, and that is the Jamaa’ah.” Reported by Ibn Abee ’Aasim in Al-Kitaab was-Sunnah (1/33), al-Albaanee said, ‘Hadeeth Saheeh.’ He (ﷺ) also said, “And this Ummah will split into seventy-three sects, seventy-two will be in the Fire and one in Paradise and that is the Jamaa’ah.” Reported by Aboo Daawood in his Sunan in the ‘Book of Sunnah’ (no. 4597).

Aboo Umaamah reports that the Prophet (ﷺ) said, “My Ummah will split up into seventy-three sects, seventy-two in the Fire and one in Paradise.” We said, 'Describe them to us.' He said, "As-Surwaad al-Adham (the Main Body)." Reported by al-Laalikaa'ee in Sharh Usoolil-I'tiqaad and Ibn Abbee 'Aasim in Ar-Sunnah. 'The Main Body' here does not refer to the great majority of people in every age and era, rather this is specific for the era of the Companions and the Taab'een. And furthermore, that person is from the Jamaa'ah who agrees and conforms to the truth. 'Abdullaah Ibn Mas'oood (d. 32H) said, "The Jamaa'ah is whatever (agrees) with the Truth—even if you are alone." Reported by Ibn Asaakir in Taareekh-Dimashq with an authentic chain of narration.

Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih (d. 238H), the teacher of Imaam al-Bukhaaree, said, "If you were to ask the ignorant people about the Main Body they would say, 'The majority of people.' They do not know that the Jamaa'ah is the Scholar who clings to the narrations from the Prophet (ﷺ) and his way. So whoever is with him (the scholar) and follows him, then he is al-Jamaa'ah." Reported by Aboon Nu'aym in Hilyatul-Awliyaah.

In the era of the Companions and their Followers, the Taab'een, the Main Body in that time were upon the Truth. This was due to the fact that people were in nearness to the time of the Messenger (ﷺ) and the Messenger (ﷺ) attested to the credibility of the best of generations.

As for those who came after them then the fact that they are many is not to be considered due to the generality of the texts which give evidence that evil will increase and spread amongst the people, the Ummah will split into seventy-three sects and that Islaam will return as something strange.
Imaam az-Zuhree (d. 125H) said, "The people of knowledge who came before us used to say, 'Salvation lies in clinging to the Sunnah.'" Reported by ad-Daarimee (no. 96). Imaam Maalik (d. 179H) said, "The Sunnah is like the Ark of Noah. Whoever embarks upon it reaches salvation and whoever refuses is drowned." Quoted by Shaykhul-Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah in Majmo‘ul Fataawa (4/57).

And in his book, Al-'Amr bil-'Itibaa'wan-Nahee 'anil-Ibtidaa', Al-Haafiz as-Suyooti quotes the following narrations from the Salaf:

Abul-'Aaliyah (d. 90H) said, "You must stick to the original state of affairs which they were upon, before they divided." 'Abdullaah ibn Mas'oood (d. 32H) said, "Moderation upon the Sunnah is better than exertion in innovation." Al-Awzaa'ee (d. 158H) said, "Have patience upon the Sunnah, and stop where the people (i.e., the Companions) stopped and speak with what they spoke and hold back from what they held back and travel upon the path of the Salafus-Saalib, for verily, what sufficed them will suffice you." Sufyaan ath-Thawree (d. 161H) said, "No word or action will be correct until it conforms with the Sunnah."
DEALING WITH THE RULERS

«And that we do not contend with or attempt to take away the command from those assigned with it (i.e., the rulers) due to the saying of the Messenger (ﷺ), “There are three things towards which the heart of a Muslim never shows hatred or rancour: making ones action sincerely for the sake of Allaah, giving obedience to the rulers (wulaatul-amr) and sticking to their group (jamaa’ah). For verily, their supplication encompasses those who are behind them (i.e., those whom they rule over).” Then this is confirmed in His saying:

يا أيها الذين آمَنُونَ أطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَلَا تَفَادِدُوا عَنْهُمْ طُغْيَانًا

O you who believe! Obey Allaah and obey the Messenger, and those of you (Muslims) who are in authority.»

Soorah an-Nisaa (4):59

Notes: The hadeeth mentioned above has been reported from a group among the Companions, see Sunan at-Tirmidbee (no. 2657) and Al-Musnad (4/80, 82 and 183),
Raising the Sword Against the Ummah

«And that the sword is not to be raised against (any of) the Ummah of Muhammad (ﷺ).

And al-Fudayl said, “If I had a supplication that would be answered, I would not make it except for the leader (Imaam) because when the leader becomes righteous, the towns and the servants become safe and secure.”

Ibn al-Mubaarak said (in reference to the above saying of al-Fudayl), “O teacher of goodness, who would show boldness towards this besides you?”»

The End

Notes: Imaam al-Barbahaaree (d. 329H) said, “Whoever rebels against a Muslim ruler is one of the Khawaarij, has caused dissent within the Muslims, has contradicted the narrations and has died the death of the days of ignorance.” Sharhus-Sunnah, (p. 42).

The Khawaarij are a group who first appeared in the time of ’Alee رضي الله عنه. They split from his army and began the grave innovation of takfeer (declaring Muslims, rulers or the ruled, in their view guilty of major sins, to be disbelievers). The Prophet (ﷺ) warned against them in many authentic ahaadeeth, “The Khawaarij are the dogs of Hellfire,” reported by Ahmad and it is authentic. He (ﷺ) also informed us that they would continue to appear until the end of this world, saying, “A group will appear reciting the Qur’aan, it will not pass beyond their throats, every time a group appears it will be cut off, until the Dajjaal appears within them.” Reported by Ibn Maajah and it is hasan.

Al-Barbahaaere (d. 329H) also said, “It is not permissible to fight the ruler or rebel against him even if he oppresses. This is due to the saying of the Messenger of Allaah to Aboo Dharr al-Ghifaaree, “Have patience even if he is an Abyssinian slave ...” reported by Muslim, and his (ﷺ) saying to the Ansaar, “Have patience until you meet me at the Pool ...” reported by Bukhaaree from Usayd ibn Hudayr. There is no fighting against the ruler in the Sunnah. It causes destruction of the Religion and the worldly affairs.” Sharh-Sunnah (p. 43).

Aboo Bakr al-Aajurree (d. 360H) said in Ash-Sharee’ah (p. 28), “It is not fitting for the one who sees the uprising of a khaarij who has revolted against the Imaam, whether he is just or oppressive - so this person has revolted and gathered a group behind him, has pulled out his sword and has made lawful the killing of Muslims - it is not fitting for the one who sees this, that he becomes deceived by this person’s recitation of the Qur’aan, the length of his standing in the prayer, nor his constant fasting or his good and excellent words in knowledge when (it is clear to him that) this person’s way and methodology (madhbah) is that of the Khawaarij.”
And Ibn al-Qayyim (d. 751H) said in Miftaah Daaris-Sa’aadah (1/119), "And as for Imaam Maalik, then Ibn al-Qaasim said, ‘I heard Maalik say, ‘Indeed there are a people who desire worship but squander the knowledge (being deprived of it) so they revolt against the Ummah of Muhammad ﷺ with their swords. And if they had followed the knowledge, then it would have prevented them from doing that.’”

And Shaykh ’Abdul’-Azeez ibn Baaz, may Allaah have mercy on him, was asked, “Is it from the methodology of the Salaf to criticise the Rulers from the pulpit? And what is the methodology of the Salaf with respect to advising the Rulers?” He responded:

“It is not from the methodology of the Salaf to publicise the faults of the Rulers and to mention such things from the pulpit because that leads to confusion/disorder and the absence of hearing and obeying the ruler in what is good. It also results in (the people) becoming engrossed (with these matters, arguing and debating) which causes harm and produces no benefit. The followed path with the Salaf however, is to give advice (naseehah) with respect to the matters which are between themselves and the leader, writing to him, or by reaching him through the scholars who keep in touch with him (to advise him) until the ruler is directed towards the good. Repelling the evil occurs without mentioning the doer of the evil. So fornication, drinking of intoxicants and the taking of usury are curbed without mentioning the one who does such things. Warding off the evil and warning the people against it is sufficient without it being mentioned that such and such a person does it, whether he is a ruler or other than the ruler.
And when the fitnah occurred in the time of 'Uthmaan some of the people said to 'Usaamah ibn Zaid, “Will you not speak to 'Uthmaan?” So he replied, “You think that I will not talk to him without letting you know about it (also)? Indeed, I will certainly talk to him regarding that which concerns me and him without initiating a matter which I do not love to be the first to initiate.”

And when they (the Khawaarij) opened up the evil in the time of 'Uthmaan and rejected 'Uthmaan openly—the fitnah, the killing and the mischief, which has not ceased to affect the people to this day, was brought about. And this caused the fitnah to occur between 'Alee and Mu'aawiyyah and 'Uthmaan was killed for these reasons.

(Furthermore) a large number of Companions and others besides them were killed due to this open rebellion and the open proclamation of the faults (of the ruler), until the people began to hate the one charged with authority over them and killed him. We ask Allaah for success.” End of the words of the Shaykh, may Allaah have mercy upon him. Taken from Al-Ma'loom min Waajibil-Ilaaqah bainal-Haakim wal-Mahkoom, (pp. 22-23).

It is authentically reported from the Messenger (ﷺ) in the hadeeth of 'Iyaad ibn Ghunm who said, “The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, 'Whoever desires to advise the one with authority then he should not do so openly, rather he should take him by the hand and take him into seclusion (and then advise him). And if he accepts (the advice) from him then (he has achieved his objective) and if not then he has fulfilled that which was a duty upon him.” Reported by Ahmad (3/403) and Ibn Abee 'Aasim (2/521) with an authentic chain of narration.
CHAPTER ONE

A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF IMAAM AL-LAALIKAA‘EE

He is Abul-Qaasim Hibaatullaah ibn al-Hasan ibn Mansoor ar-Raazee, at-Tabaree, al-Laalikaa‘ee. The author of the encyclopaedia of the 'ageedah of the Salaf called Sharh Usool I’tiqaad Ablis-Sunnah wal Jamaa’ah. He lived in a time of great confusion and political strife and division. A time when innovations were widespread and were propagated by their propounders and followers, including the Mu’tazilah, the Qadariyyah, the Khawaarij, the Murji’ah, the Rawaaafid and others besides them. (See Chapter Six for definitions of these names)

Around his time many of the scholars of Ablis-Sunnah wal Jamaa’ah stood to author books in defence of the 'ageedah of the Companions, the Taabeeen and the Salaf after them and to warn against the widespread innovations. However, the book of al-Laalikaa‘ee is the most comprehensive of all those books and its reader can delight in the abundance of knowledge and guidance contained therein. He reports from more than one hundred and eighty people and this indicates the large number of Shaykhs he learnt from.

Amongst his students was the famous al-Khaateeb al-Baghdadee who said about him in his Taareekh Baghdaad (14/70), “We wrote from him and he used to understand and memorise (well).” Ibn Katheer said about him in Al-Bidaayah (12/24), "He used to understand and memorise and he (was always) concerned and anxious about hadeeth." He was known for his precision and his perspicacity in hadeeth.

One of al-Laalikaa'ee's students saw him after his death in a good dream. Al-Khateeb al-Baghdadaadee mentions this and those after him narrate it from him, 'Alee ibn al-Hasan ibn Jadaa al-'Akbaree said, "I saw Abul-Qaasim at-Tabaree (i.e., al-Laalikaa'ee) in a dream and I said to him, 'What has Allaah done with you?' He said, 'He has forgiven me.' I said, 'For what reason?' And it was as if he said in a word in a lowered, subdued voice, 'The Sunnah.'"

He died in the year 418H whilst he was middle-aged, before he became famous for his knowledge and his works, may Allaah have mercy upon him.

Refer to the introduction to Sharh Usoolil-Itqaad (1/65-101) by Ahmad Sa'd Hamdaan for more details.
CHAPTER TWO

BOOKS CONTAINING AN EXPOSITION OF THE 'AQEEQAH OF THE SALAF

The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, “Indeed the Children of Israa’eeel split up into seventy-one sects and my Ummah will split up into seventy-three, all of them are in the Fire except one.” It was said, ‘What is the one?’ He said, “That which I and my Companions are upon.”

The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) also said, “This ‘Ilm (Deen) will be carried by the trustworthy ones of every generation. They will remove from it the alterations (tabreef) of the ones going beyond bounds, the false assumptions of the liars and the false interpretations (ta‘weel) of the ignorant.”

And so in every age and era there arose Scholars and People of Knowledge, clinging to what has been transmitted from the Companions and their Successors, authoring books, advising the Ummah, seeking to preserve this Noble Deen. The foundation and central pillar of this Deen, no doubt, is its 'Aqeedah, that which is held onto by the hearts, and by which the hearts, bodies and actions of the servants are determined, purified, and corrected.

1 Reported by at-Tirmidhee (no. 2792), al-Haakim (1/128-129) al-Laalkaa'ee (no. 147) and others from 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr ibn al-'Aas رضي الله عنه.

2 Reported by Ibn 'Asaakir, Aboo Nu'aam and Ibn 'Adee from Ibraaheem ibn 'Abdur-Rahmaan al-'Udhree and it is authentic.
And amongst the books in which the 'aqeedah of the Salaf has been preserved through the ages are the following:

Kitaabul-Eemaan - The Book of Eemaan of al-Qaasim ibn Salaam (d. 224H).

Kitaabul-Eemaan - The Book of Eemaan of Imaam Ibn Abee Shaybah (d. 235H).

Ar-Radd 'alaz-Zinaadiqah wal-jabmiyyah - The Refutation of the Heretics and the jahmites and Usools-Sunnah - The Foundations of the Sunnah by the Imaam of Ablus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah Imaam Ahmad ibn Hanbal (d. 241H).

Ar-Radd 'alal-Jabmiyyah - The Refutation of the jahmites of Imaam al-Bukhaaree (d. 256H).

Khalq Af'aaalil-Ibaad - The Creation of the Servants' Actions of Imaam al-Bukhaaree (d. 256H).

As-Sunnah - The Sunnah by the student of Imaam Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Aboo Bakr al-Athram (d. 272H).

Al-Ikhtilaaf fil-Lafdh war-Radd 'alal-Jabmiyyah wal-Mushabbibah - The Difference Pertaining to al-Lafdh and a Refutation of the jahmites and the Mushabbibah of Ibn al-Qutaybah (d. 276H).

Ar-Radd 'alal-Jabmiyyah - The Refutation of the jahmites of ad-Daarimee (d. 280H).

Ar-Radd 'alal-Mareese - The Refutation of al-Mareese of ad-Daarimee (d. 280H).

As-Sunnah - The Sunnah of Ibn Abee 'Aasim (d. 286H).

As-Sunnah - The Sunnah of 'Abdullaah the son of Imaam Ahmad (d. 290H).
As-Sunnah - The Sunnah of al-Marwazee (d. 294H).
As-Sunnah - The Sunnah of al-Khallaal (a student of Imaam Ahmad, d. 31H).

Kitaabut-Tawheed - The Book of Tawheed of Ibn Khuzaimah (d. 311H).

'Aqeedatut-Tahaawiyyah - The Creed of at-Tahaawi by the Imaam Aboo Ja'far at-Tahaawee (d. 321H).

Kitaab Sharbus-Sunnah - Explanation of the Sunnah of Imaam al-Barbahaaree (d. 329H).

Ash-Sharee'ah - The Sharee'ah of al-Aajurree (d. 360H).

Ash-Sharb wal-Ibaanah - The Explanation and Clarification of Ibn Battah (d. 387H).

Sharb Usool I'tiqaad Ablis-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah - An Explanation of the Foundations of Belief of Ablis-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah of al-Laaliika'ee (d. 428H).

Al-I'tiqaad - Belief by Aboo Nu'aym al-Asbahaanee (d. 430H).

Risaalah fee Ithbaatil-Istiwaah - A Treatise on the Affirmation of al-Istiwaah by Imaam Aboo Muhammad al-Juwaynee (d. 438H).

'Aqeedatus-Salaf Asbaabul-Hadeeth - The Creed of the Salaf and the Asbaabul-Hadeeth of Aboo Ismaa'eel as-Saaboonee (d. 449H).

Dhammut-Ta'weel - Censure of Theological Speculation of Ibn Qudaamah al-Maqdisi (d. 620H).

“Indeed, having knowledge of the foundations of things and its fundamental principle, and having knowledge of the Deen and its fundamentals and the principles which emanate from it—is the greatest and most beneficial knowledge. Since, if a person does not encompass the knowledge of the reality of things, of which he is in need, he keeps thorns in his heart.”\(^1\)

\(^1\) Majmoo’ul-Fataawaa (10/354-368) of Ibn Taymiyyah.
A group of Muslims came to al-Hasan al-Basree (d. 110H) seeking a verdict to rebel against al-Hajjaaj. So they said, “O Aboo Sa’eed! What do you say about fighting this oppressor who has unlawfully spilt blood and unlawfully taken wealth and did this and that?” So al-Hasan said, “I hold that he should not be fought. If this is a punishment from Allaah, then you will not be able to remove it with your swords. If this is a trial from Allaah, then be patient until Allaah’s judgement comes, and He is the best of judges.” So they left al-Hasan, disagreed with him and rebelled against al-Hajjaaj—so al-Hajjaaj killed them all.

About them al-Hasan used to say, “If the people had patience, when they are being tested by their unjust ruler, it will not be long before Allaah will give them a way out. However, they always rush for their swords, so they are left to their swords. By Allaah! Not even for a single day did they bring about any good.”

1 He was ath-Thaqafee, and is well known. Adh-Dhahae said in Siyar Alamin-Nubala (4/343) at the end of his biography, “We revile him and do not love him, rather we hate him for Allaah. He had some good deeds, but they are drowned in the ocean of his sins, and his affair is for Allaah!”

2 Related by Ibn Sa’d in Tabqaat-ul-Kubraa (7/163-165).
"Therefore, the key to a return of the glory of Islaam is: implementation of beneficial knowledge and establishing righteous and correct actions, and this is a very great affair which the Muslims cannot reach, except through the methodology (manbaj) of tasfiyah (purification and correction) and tarbiyah (education and cultivation). These being two very great obligations. By the first of these (i.e., tasfiyah), the following is intended:

i  Purifying the Islamic 'aqeedah from that which is alien to it, such as shirk, ta’teebl, ta’weel, refusing authentic ahaadeeth because they are connected to matters of 'aqeedah and their like.

ii  Purifying the Islamic fiqh from erroneous judgements which are contrary to the Qur’aan and Sunnah, freeing the minds from the fetters of blind-following and the darkness of sectarianism and party spirit.

iii  Purifying the books of tafseer, fiqh and raqaa’iq and other than that from ahaadeeth which are weak and fabricated, or the unsupported narrations from the people of the Book, and the reprehensible narrations.

1 Taken from Fiqhul-Waqqi’ of Shaykh Muhammad Naasirud-Deen al-Albaanee, pp 49-51, may Allaah have mercy upon him.
2 Associating partners with Allaah in those things that are particular to Him.
3 Rejection of Allaah’s Attributes.
4 Twisting the meanings of Allaah’s Attributes.
5 Matters concerning the heart.
As regards the second obligation (i.e., tarbiyah), then by it I mean: cultivating the young generation upon this Islaam, purified from all that we have mentioned, giving to them a correct Islamic education from the start—without any influence from the disbelieving western education.

There is no doubt that bringing these two obligations about requires huge efforts and sincere cooperation between all Muslims, individuals and groups, from all those who are truly concerned with establishing the desired Islamic society, each one working in his own field and speciality.”
CHAPTER FIVE

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE INNOVATED SECTS

The Shaykh of Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah (d. 728H) said, “And know that most of the innovations connected to uloom (sciences) and acts of worship occurred in this Ummah at the end of the period of the rightly-guided Khaleefahs. Just as the Prophet (ﷺ) informed, when he said, “Those of you who live long after me will see a great deal of differences. So hold fast to my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the Rightly-guided Khaleefahs after me...”

So when the period of the rightly-guided Khaleefahs had passed and the rule of kingship appeared, deficiencies appeared in the leaders, and therefore deficiency spread also to the people of knowledge and deen. So during the end of the rule of ’Alee (رضي الله عنه) the innovation of the Khaaraarij[^1] and Raafidah\(^1\) appeared.

[^1]: The Khaaraarij were the first sect in Islaam to split from the way of the Prophet (ﷺ) and his Companions. They arose during the Khilaafah of ’Alee, making rebellion (khurooj) against him, before the arbitration between him and Mu’awiyah (رضي الله عنه). From their false ’aqeedah (beliefs) is: allowing rebellion against the legitimate Muslim ruler, whether pious or wicked, and declaring a Muslim to be a kaafir (disbeliever) due to commission of a major sin. They were described by the Prophet (ﷺ) as the “Dogs of Hellfire.” Refer to Maqaalaatul-Islaamiyyeen (1/168) of Abul-Hasan al-Ash’aree, Al-Bidaayah (8/22-24) of Ibn Katheer and Fatbul-Baaree (12/282-302) of Ibn Hajr.

This being connected to the issue of leadership and khilaafah, and that was connected to this from actions and Sharee'ah rulings.

The kingship of Mu’awiyah was a kingship of mercy, so when it passed, the rule of Yazeed came and fitnah (trials and discord) took place within it: the killing of al-Husayn in ‘Iraaq, the fitnah of the people of Hurrah in Madeenah and the siege of Makkah when ’Abdullaah ibn Zubair made his stand. Then Yazeed passed away and the Ummah split up. Ibn Zubair in Hijaaaz, Banoo Hakam in Shaam (Syria, Jordan and Palestine) and the jump to power of Mukhtaaar ibn Abee-’Ubayd and others in ‘Iraaq. All of this took place at the end of the era of the Companions, when there only remained the likes of ’Abdullaah ibn ’Abbaas, ’Abdullaah ibn ’Umar, Jaabir ibn ’Abdullaah, Aboo Sa’eed al-Khudree and others.

\(^1\) The Raafidah (the Rejectors) are an extreme sect of the Sheee’ah who rejected Zayd ibn ’Alee ibn al-Husayn due to his refusal to condemn Aboo Bakr and ’Umar. They rapidly deteriorated in aqeedah, morals and deen, until the present day, where their beliefs are those represented by the Ithnaa Ash’ariyyah Sheee’ahs of ‘Iraan. From their false beliefs are: declaring all but three to five of the Companions to be disbelievers, the belief that their Imaams have knowledge of the Unseen past, present and future, considering the imaamah to be one of the main pillars of eemaan (faith) and they believe that the Qur’aan is incomplete. Refer to Maqaalaatul-Islaamiyyeen (1/65), Al-Farq Baynal-Firaq (no. 21) of ’Abdul-Qaadir al-Baghdadaee and Talbees-Iblees (pp. 94-100) of Ibnul-Jawzee.
The innovation of the Qadariyyah\(^1\) and the Murji‘ah\(^2\) then occurred and it was refuted by those Companions who remained, as they had along with others, refuted the innovations of the Khawaarij and the Raafidah. Indeed the status of the first three generations, by agreement of the majority, is the best and most just generations.

That which the Qadariyyah mostly spoke about was related to the actions of the servants, as did the Murji‘ah. Their speech was concerned with issues of obedience and disobedience, the believer and the sinful one and other similarly related matters such as the names and the judgements, and promises and threats. Until then they had not spoken about their Lord, nor about His Attributes, except in the last period of the lesser Taabi‘oon, this being the last period of the Umayyah rule, when the third generation, the Atbaa‘ut-Taabi‘oon, began, and by which time most of the Taabi‘oon had already passed away.

1 The Qadariyyah are the followers of Ma‘bad ibn al-Juhanni, and from their false beliefs are: that Allaah has no prior knowledge of anything until it comes into existence; that it is people, and not Allaah, who are the creators of their own actions; denying 'aqeedah (belief) in the Punishment of the Grave and denying that the authentic hadeeth is an evidence for the 'aqeedah unless it is related in mutawassit form. Refer to Al-Milal wan-Nibal (1/72) of ash-Shahristanee and Sarenul-Muntaq wal-Kalaam of as-Suyootee.

2 The Murji‘ah are those who reject that actions are a part of eemaan (faith), and say that eemaan is affirmation of the heart and statement of the tongue only. The extreme amongst them limit eemaan to belief of the heart only. They also deny that eemaan increases and decreases. Refer to Al-Maqaalaat (1/214) and Al-Farq baynal-Firaq (p. 202).
So the majority of the Companions had passed away by the end of the rule of the four rightly-guided Khulafa, until none remained from the people of Badr except a few. The majority of the Taabi’oon had passed away in the last period of the younger Companions, during the reign of Ibn az-Zubair and ’Abdul-Malik. The Majority of the third generation passed away in the last part of the Umayyah rule, at the beginning of the ’Abbaasee rule.

It then occurred that many of the offices of authority and power started to be occupied by the non-Arabs, whilst at the same time, many of the Arabs left the offices of power. Some of the non-Arab books were translated into Arabic: the books of the Persians, the Indians (Hindus) and the Romans. Thus, what the Prophet (ﷺ) said appeared, “Then lies will become widespread, to such an extent that a person will testify and will not have been asked to do so, and will take an oath without being asked to do so.”

Then three matters occurred: opinion (raaee), philosophical speech and theology (kalaam) and sufism (tasawwuf). The innovation of the Jahmiyyah\(^1\) also occurred, which is negating and denying the Attributes of Allaah.”

\(^1\) The Jahmiyyah are the followers of Jahm ibn Safwaan, who unleashed upon this Ummah the horrific innovation of tu’eel (denial of Allaah’s Attributes), either directly or by twisting the meanings. Such as twisting the meaning of the Hand of Allaah to mean His Power and Generosity. They also deny that Allaah is above His creation, above His Throne, as well as holding the belief that Paradise and Hell-fire are not ever-lasting. Refer to Ar-Radd ‘alal-Jahmiyyah by Imaam Ahmad ibn Hanbal and also ad-Daarimee and Al-Ibaanah (p. 141) of Abul-Hasan al-’Asharee.
CHAPTER SIX

BIOGRAPHIES OF THE SCHOLARS WHOM
IMAAM AL-BUKHAAREE MENTIONS

FROM KHURAASAAN

AL-MAKKEE IBN IBRAAHEEM, ABUS-SAKAN, AT-TAMEEMEE,
AL-HANZAALEE, AL-BALKHEE - he was born in 126H.

Those whom he narrates from include:
Ibn Juraij, Aboo Haneefah, Hisaam ad-Dastawaa’ee, Maalik ibn
Anas, Bahz ibn Hakeem and others.

Those who narrate from him include:
Ahmad ibn Hanbal, al-Bukhaaree, Yahyaa ibn Ma’een and others.

Imaam Ahmad said about al-Makkee, “Reliable.” ’Abdus-Samad ibn al-Fadl said, “I witnessed al-Makkee say, ‘I made Hajj sixty times, and I married sixty women, and I lived in the precincts of the House (the Ka’bah) for ten years, and I wrote narrations from ten Taabi’ees and if I knew that the people would have need of me I would not have written from anyone less than the Taabi’een.”

Adh-Dhabhaabe said, “Al-Bukhaaree did not meet anyone greater than him in Khuraasaan.” He died in the year 214H in Balkh.1

1 Siyar A‘laamin-Nubalaa, vol. 9, pp. 549-553.
YAHYAA IBN YAHYAA IBN BAKR, ABOO ZAKARIYYAA, AT-TAMEEMEE, AN-NEESAABOOREE - he was born in 142H.

Those whom he narrates from include:
Katheer ibn Sulaym, Maalik, Shareek al-Qaadee, al-Layth ibn Sa’d, Yazeed ibn Zurai’ and others.

Those who narrate from him include:
Al-Bukhaaree, Muslim, Muhammad ibn Nasr al-Marwazee, ’Uthmaan ibn Sa’eed ad-Daarimee, Muhammad ibn Yahyaa adh-Dhuhlee and others.

Yahyaa ibn Muhammad ibn Yahyaa said, “I heard Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih say, ‘I have not seen the like of Yahyaa ibn Yahyaa, and I do not think he has seen the like of himself.’” Ishaaq ibn Ibraaheem said, “On the day Yahyaa ibn Yahyaa died he was the Imaam of the people of the earth.”

Imaam Ahmad said, “Yahyaa ibn Yahyaa did not see anyone the like of himself, and the people have not seen the like of him.” He also said, “Yahyaa ibn Yahyaa was to me an Imaam, and if I had possessed sufficient money I would have travelled to him.”

Yahyaa ibn Ma’een said, “Defending the Sunnah is more excellent than Jihaad in Allaah’s cause.” So I said to Yahyaa ibn Yahyaa, “A man spends his wealth, tires himself out and fights Jihaad, and this one (who defends the Sunnah) is more excellent than him?!?” He said, “Yes, by a great deal.” He died in 226H.1

'ALEE IBN AL-HASAN IBN SHAQEEQ, ABOO 'ABDUR-RAHMAAN, AL-MARWAZEE - he was born in 137H.

Those whom he narrates from include:

Those who narrate from him include:
Ahmad ibn Hanbal, al-Bukhaaree, Yahyaa ibn Ma'een, Aboo Khaithumah, Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah and Ibraaheem ibn Yâ'qoob al-Jawziyaanee.

Imaam Ahmad said, “There was nothing wrong with him, except that people spoke about him concerning Irjaa, but he reverted from that.” He died in 215H.¹

QUTAIBAH IBN SA'EED, ABOO RAJAA, ATH-THAQAFEEL, AL-BAGHLAANEE - he was born in 149H.

Those whom he narrates from include:
Maalik, al-Laith, Shareek al-Qaadee, Hammaad ibn Zayd, Aboo Awaanah, Ibn Lahee'ah, Ibn al-Mubaarak, Fudayl ibn 'Iyaad, Yazeed ibn Zurai' and Ibn 'Uyainah. Aboo Daawood said, “Qutaibah came to Baghdadaad in the year 216H, and Ahmad and Yahyaa (i.e., Ibn Ma'een) came to him.”

Those who narrate from him include:
Al-Bukhaaree, Muslim, Aboo Daawood, an-Nasaa’ee, at-Tirmidhee, Aboo Zur’ah, Aboo Haatim and Ahmad ibn Hanbal.

Qutaibah said, “At a young age I began to seek opinion (ra’ee), but then I saw in a dream that a bucket was let down from the sky and I saw the people trying to take water from it, but being unable to reach it. So I came and looked into it, and I saw what was between the east and the west. Then, when I awoke in the morning I came to Mikhda’ al-Bazaar, who was proficient in interpreting dreams, and I told him about my dream. So he said, ‘O my son, cling to the narrations, since opinion does not reach the east nor the west, rather that is only reached by the narrations.’ So I abandoned opinion, and took to the narrations.”

He also said, “This is the saying of the Imaams in Islam, and the Ablus-Sunnah wal-Jama’aah: ‘We know our Lord, the Mighty and Majestic, by the fact that He is above the seventh Heaven, upon His Throne, as He, the Most High, says:

الرَّحْمَانُ عَلَى الْعُرْشِ أَسْتَوْى

He travelled to Makkah, al-Madeenah, ’Iraaq, Shaam and Egypt. He died in the year 240H in Balkh.²

SHIHAAB IBN MU’AMMAR IBN YAZEED, ABUL-AZHAR, AL-’AWFEE, AL-BALKHEE - he was originally from Basrah.

Those he narrated from include:
Hammaad ibn Salamah, Sawaadah ibn Abil-Aswad, Furaat ibn as-Saa‘ib and Bakr ibn Sulaymaan al-Aswaaree.

Those who narrated from him include:
Al-Bukhaaree, Aboo Qudaamah as-Sarkhusee and 'Abdullaah ibn 'Abdul-Wahhaab al-Khawaariznee.

Ibn Hibbaan said of him, “He was alert and of good memory in badeeth.”

---

1 Tabdheebut-Tabdheeb.
MUHAMMAD ibn YOOSUF al-FIRYAAbee, Aboo 'abdullaah, ad-dabbee, mawlaabum, he settled in Caesaria on the coast of Palestine. He was born in 120H.

Those be narrated from include:
Yoonus ibn Abee Ishaaq, al-Awzaa'ee, ath-Thawree, Fudayl ibn Marzooq, Waraqaa and Naafi' ibn 'Umar.

Those who narrated from him include:
Ahmad ibn Hanbal, al-Bukhaaree and Ahmad ibn 'abdullaah al-'Ijlee.

Ahmad said, “He was a righteous man who was a companion of Sufyaan (i.e. ath-Thawree), I wrote narrations from him in Makkah.” Ibn Zanjawaih said, “I did not see anyone more pious than al-Firyaabee.” Al-Bukhaaree said, “I saw some people enter upon Muhammad ibn Yoosuf al-Firyaabee and it was said to him, ‘These people are Murji’ees.’ So he said, ‘Expel them.’ They repented and returned.”

Al-Firyaabee was one of the most senior Shaikhs of al-Bukhaaree, and al-Bukhaaree said, “He was one of the most excellent people of his time.” He died in the year 212H.1

ABOO MUSHIR 'ABDUL-A'LA A IBN MUSHIR, AL-GHASSAANEE, AD-DIMASHQEE - he was born in 140H.

He recited the Qur'aan from:
Ayyoob ibn Tameem, Sadaqah ibn Khaalid and Suwayd ibn 'Abdul-'Azeez, they having recited it from Yahyaa adh-Dhimaaree. He also recited the Qur'aan from Sa'eed ibn 'Abdul-'Azeez.

Those he narrates from include:
Maalik ibn Anas, Ismaa'eeel ibn 'Ayyaash, Khaalid ibn Yazeed al-Murree and Sufyaan ibn 'Uyayniah.

Those who narrated from him include:
Yahyaa ibn Ma'een, Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Duhaaym, Muhammad ibn Yahyaa adh-Dhuhlee, al-Bukhaaree and Aboo Haatim ar-Raazee.

Ibn Sa'd said, "Aboo Mushir was the narrator of recitation from Sa'eed ibn 'Abdul-'Azeez and was lead from Damascus to be placed before al-Ma'moon in ar-Raqqah. So he asked him about the Qur'aan, Aboo Mushir said, 'It is the speech of Allaah,' and he refused to say, 'Created.' So al-Ma'moon called for an execution mat and a sword to behead him. So when he saw that he said, 'Created.' So (al-Ma'moon) did not execute him, but he said, 'If you had said that before the sword appeared I would have accepted it from you, but now you will go out and say, 'I said that fearing the sword.' So he (al-Ma'moon) ordered that he be imprisoned in Baghdad in Rabee'ul-Aakhir in the year 218H, and he died shortly after that in prison at the beginning of Rajab of that year, and many people of Baghdad were present at his funeral."
A version of Asbagh adds that when he was brought for questioning the body of one who had been beheaded before him was upon the ground, and that when Aboo Mushir refused to say, ‘Created,’ he was laid down upon the mat to be beheaded, so he said, ‘Created.’ So he was allowed to get up, and he retracted the word, and so he was laid down again and so he said the word again. Then he was imprisoned until he died.

Yahyaa ibn Ma’een said, “All those from Shaam who accept Aboo Mushir are themselves acceptable.” Aboo Daawood as-Sijistaaanee said, “He was one of the reliable people, may Allaah have mercy upon Aboo Mushir. He had a place of importance in Islaam. He was compelled in the trial, but refused to comply. He was subjected to the sword, so he stretched out his head. Then the sword was unsheathed, but he refused to comply. So when they saw that from him he was taken to the prison where he died.” He died in Rajab in 218H, at the age of seventy-nine.¹

Those who narrated from him include:
Ahmad ibn Hanbal, al-Bukhaaree, Ibn Ma’een, adh-Duhlee, Aboo Muhammad ad-Daarimee and Ishaaq al-Kawsaj.

Al-Ijlee said of him, “Reliable.” Ibn Zanjawaih said, “I have not seen anyone having more fear of Allaah than Ishaaq ibn Sulaymaan; nor have I seen anyone having more awe than Abul-Mugheerah; nor having a better memory than Yazeed ibn Haroon; nor having a better mind than Aboo Mushir nor anyone more pious than al-Firyabbee.” Al-Bukhaaree said, “Abul-Mugheerah died in the year 212H and Ahmad ibn Hanbal lead the funeral prayer over him.”

Abul-Yamaan al-Hakam ibn Naafi’, al-Bahraanee, al-Himsee, he was born in 138H.

Those he narrated from include:
Safwaan ibn ’Amr, Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Maryam, Ismaa’eel ibn ’Ayyaash and Hareez ibn ’Uthmaan.

Those who narrated from him include:
Ahmad ibn Hanbal, al-Bukhaaree, Ibn Ma’een, adh-Duhlee, ’Uthmaan ad-Daarimee, Aboo Haatim, Aboo Zur’ah ad-Dimashqee and at-Tirmidhee.

Aboo Haatim said, “He was the ‘Scribe of Ismaa’eel ibn ’Ayyaash,’ just as Aboo Saalih was called the ‘Scribe of al-Layth,’ and he was honourable, truthful, reliable.” He died in Dhul-Hijjah in Hims in 221 or 222H.

FROM EGYPT

YAHYAA IBN 'ABDULLAHH IBN BUKAYR, ABOO ZAKARIYYAA AL-QURASHEE, AL-MAKHZOOOMEE, their freed slave, al-Misree, he was born in 155H and died in 231H.

Those he narrated from include:
Maalik, al-Layth ibn Sa’d, Ibn Lahee’ah, Hammaad ibn Zayd and Ibn Wahb.

Those who narrated from him include:
Al-Bukhaaree, Yahyaa ibn Ma’een, Muhammad ibn ’Abdullaah ibn Numayr, Yoonus ibn ’Abdul-Alaa, Aboo Zur’ah ar-Raazee, Baqee’ ibn Makhlad and Aboo Haatim.

Baqee’ ibn Makhlad narrated that Yahyaa ibn Bukayr heard the Muwatta from Maalik seventeen times. Adh-Dhahabee said, “He was one of the receptacles of knowledge possessing truthfulness and trustworthiness.” Ibn ’Adee said, “He was a neighbour of al-Layth ibn Sa’d and he was the most reliable of people in reporting from him.”

---

Aboo Saalih, 'Abdullaah ibn Saalih ibn Muhammad, al-Misree, al-Juhaanee, the scribe of al-Layth ibn Sa'd, their freed slave, he was born in 137H.

Those be narrated from include:
Moosaa ibn 'Alee ibn Rabaah, Mu'aawiyah ibn Saalih, 'Abdul-'Azeez ibn al-Maajishoon, al-Layth ibn Sa'd, Sa'eed ibn 'Abdul-'Azeez ad-Dimashqee, Naafi' ibn Yazeed and Ibn Wahab.

Those who narrated from him include:
His teacher al-Layth, Yahyaa ibn Ma'een, al-Bukhaaree, Aboo Haatim, Aboo Ishaaq al-Jawzijanee, Ismaa'eel Sammooyah, 'Uthmaan ad-Daarimee, Aboo Zur'ah ad-Dimashqee, at-Tirmidhee and the last of them was Muhammad ibn 'Uthmaan ibn Abis-Sawwaar al-Misree who died in 297H.

Ismaa'eel ibn 'Abdullaah said, "'Abdullaah ibn Saalih said, 'I accompanied al-Layth for twenty years." "Al-Fadil ibn Muhammad ash-Sha'raanee said, "I never saw 'Abdullaah ibn Saalih except that he was narrating ahaadeeth or saying tasbeeh.""

Ya'qoob al-Fasawee said, "The righteous man Saalih ibn 'Abdullaah narrated to us." Muhammad ibn 'Abdullaah ibn 'Abdul-Hakam said, "I heard my father when asked about 'Abdullaah ibn Saalih say, 'You ask me about the closest of the people to al-Layth? A man who was with him night and dawn, on journeys and when resident, and was usually alone with him. Then is it that he is to be criticised for the like of him to report a great deal from al-Layth?""

Ibn Hibbaan said, "Very reprehensible in narrating, since he reports things from reliable narrators which are not from the narrations of reliable narrators, but he was trustworthy himself. I heard Ibn Khuzaimah say, 'He had a neighbour who bore enmity towards him (i.e., Khaalid ibn Najeeh), and he used to fabricate abaaadeeth and cause them to be attributed to the Shaikh 'Abdullaah ibn Saalih. He would write them upon parchments in the handwriting of 'Abdullaah, then throw these amongst the papers in his house. These would be found by 'Abdullaah who would narrate them thinking that they had been written by him.'"

'Abdullaah ibn Ahmad said, "I asked my father about him, so he said, 'In the beginning he was fully sound, then he was spoiled later in life until he was of no value (with regard to narrating abaaadeeth)."' Aboo Ahmad ibn 'Adee said, "Aboo Saalih was, in my view upright, in narrating abaaadeeth except that errors are to be found in his narrations, but he did not deliberately lie." He died on the Day of 'Aashooraa 223H.1

Sa’eed ibn Abee Maryam, Aboo Muhammad al-Juhmee, their Freed-Slave, al-Misree, he was born in 144H.

Those he narrated from include:

Those who narrated from him include:

Aboo Daawood said, “Ibn Abee Maryam is in my view a proof.” Al-’Ijlee said, “Reliable; he had a large entrance hall, and a man would come to him and stop and give him salaam, and he would reply, ‘May Allaah not send peace upon you, not protect you, and may He do so and so with you.’ So I would say, ‘What is wrong with him?’ He would say, ‘He is a Qadaaree.’ Another would come and he would say the same, so I would say, ‘What is wrong with him?’ He would say, ‘He is a filthy Jahmee.’ Another would come and he would say the same, so I would say, ‘What is wrong with him?’ So he would say, ‘He is a Raafidee.’ And it would not be thought except that he had replied to his greeting of salaam. He was a person having intellect, and I did not see anyone in Egypt having better intellect than him and ’Abdullaah ibn ’Abdul-Hakam.” He died in 224H.1

Asbagh ibn al-Faraj, Aboo 'Abdullaah, al-Amawee, their freed-slave, al-Misree, al-Maalikee, he was born after 150H.

Those he narrated from include: 'Abdul-'Azeez ad-Daraawardee, Usamah ibn Zayd ibn Aslam, 'Abdullaah ibn Wahb and Ibn al-Qaasim.

Those who narrated from him include: Al-Bukhaaree, Ibn Ma'een, Ahmad ibn al-Furaat, ar-Rabee' ibn Sulaymaan al-Jeeze, Ya'qoob al-Fasawee, adh-Dhuhelee, Aboo Haatim, Ismaa'eel Sammooyah and Yahyaa ibn 'Uthmaan ibn Saalih.

Ibn Ma'een mentioned him and said, "He was one of the most knowledgeable of Allaah's creation about the opinions of Maalik. He would know each single question, when Maalik said it and whoever disagreed with him about it." Ahmad ibn 'Abdullaah said, "Asbagh was reliable, a person of Sunnah." Aboo Haatim said, "He was the finest of the students of Ibn Wahb."

Aboo Nasr al-Faqeeh said, "I heard al-Muzaanee and ar-Rabee' say, 'We used to come to Asbagh, before ash-Shaaifiee came to us, and we would say, 'Teach us from that which Allaah, the Most High, has taught you.'"" Ibn Qudayd said, "Al-Mu'tasim wrote ordering that Asbagh should be brought to him for the trial (i.e. concerning the Qur'aan, to affirm that it is created), so he رجعت إلى الله تعالى fled and went into hiding in Halwaan."

Aboo 'Alee ibn as-Sakan said, "Reliable, reliable." He died in Halwaan, 225H.¹

NU'AYM IBN HAMMAAD IBN MU’AAWIYAH, ABOO 'ABDULLA AH AL-KHUZAA'EE, AL-MARWAZEE, author of various works.

Those he narrated from include:

Those who narrated from him include:
Al-Bukhaaree, Aboo Daawood, at-Tirmidhee, Yahyaa ibn Ma’een, adh-Dhuheely, Muhammad ibn 'Awp, ar-Ramaadeey, Aboo Muhammad ad-Daarimee, Sammooyah, Abud-Darda’ 'Abdul-'Azeez ibn Muneeb, Aboo Haatim, Ya’qoob al-Fasawee, Abul-Ahwas al-'Ukbaree, Bakr ibn Sahl ad-Dimyaatee and ad-Daarimee.

The last to die of those who narrated from him was a youth who was with him in the prison and wrote from him, who was, Hamzah ibn Muhammad ibn 'Eesaa al-Baghdadee.

Al-Marroodeehe said, “I heard Aboo 'Abdullaah (i.e., Ahmad ibn Hanbal) say, ‘Nu’aym ibn Hammaad came to us whilst we were at the door of Hushaym memorising and revising the sayings of the Companions and Taabi’een, so he (Nu’aym) said, ‘Have you gathered the badeeth of Allaah’s Messenger ﷺ?’ So we gave great importance to that from that day.”
Al-Maymoonee reported that Ahmad said, “The first person that we know to have compiled a Musnad was Nu’aym ibn Hammaad.” Ahmad said, “Nu’aym was a scribe for Aboo ’Ismah, meaning Nooh, and he (Nooh) was severe in refutation of the Jahmees and people of the innovated sects, and Nu’aym learned from him.”

Saalih ibn Mismaar said, “I heard Nu’aym ibn Hammaad say, ‘I used to be a Jahmees, therefore I know their saying, but when I sought hadeeth, I realised that their affair is merely ta’teel (denial of Allaah and His attributes).” Yoosuf ibn ’Abdullaah al-Khawaarizmee said, “I asked Ahmad ibn Hanbal about Nu’aym ibn Hammaad, so he said, ‘He was one of the reliable.’”

Al’Abbaas ibn Mus’ab said, “Nu’aym ibn Hammaad al-Faaridee wrote books in refutation of Aboo Haneefah, and he refuted Muhammad ibn al-Hasan, and he wrote thirteen books in refutation of the Jahmiyyah and he was the most knowledgeable of people about the laws of inheritance.”

Aboo Bakr at-Tarasoosee said, “Nu’aym ibn Hammaad was held in the trial (al-Mibnah) in the year 233H or 234H, and they threw him into prison, and he died in the year 239H. He left instructions that he should be buried in his chains, and he said, ‘I am one who will contend (with the perpetrators on the Day of Resurrection).’”

At-Tirmidhee said, “I heard Nu’aym ibn Hammaad say, ‘Whoever declares Allaah to be like His creation has become an Unbeliever, and whoever denies whatever Allaah has described Himself with has become an Unbeliever. And there is no likeness to the creation in that which Allaah described Himself with, nor in what His Messenger described Him with.’”
Muhammad ibn Makhlad al-’Attaar said: ar-Ramaadee narrated to us (that), “I asked Nu’aym ibn Hammaad about the Saying of Allaah, the Most High:

\text{وَهُوَ مَعَكُّ \textbf{أَنَّ مَأَثْمُ}}

\textbf{And He is with you wheresoever you may be.}^{1}

He said, ‘Its meaning is that not any slight or hidden thing remains hidden from His Knowledge. Do you not see His Saying:

\[
\text{أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ بَعْلِمَ مَا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَاذْكُرُوهُ}

\[
\text{مِنْ تَجْوَيْنَانِ مَنَّةً إِلَّا هُوَ رَابِعُهُم وَلَا حَمْسَةٌ إِلَّا هُوَ سِادُهُم}

\[
\text{وَلَا أَدُنَّ مِنْ ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْرُرُ إِلَّا هُوَ مَعَهُمُ وَاذْكُرُوهُ مَا كَانُوا لَا يَبْشِرُونَ}
\]

\[
\text{بِمَا عَمِلُوا يَوْمَ الْقِيَاحَةِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَكْبُرُ فَقْ يَلِدُ}
\]

\text{Have you not seen that Allaah knows whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth? There is no secret counsel of three, but He is their fourth, nor of five but He is their sixth, nor of less than that or more, but He is with them wheresoever they may be. And afterwards on the Day of Ressurection He will inform them of what they did. Verily, Allaah is the All-Knower of everything.’”}^{2}

1 Soorah al-Hadeed (57):4.
Muhammad ibn Sa'd said, "Nu'aym sought after abaadeeth a great deal in 'Iraaq and the Hijaaaz, then he settled in Egypt. He remained there until he was taken away in the Khilaafah of Aboo Ishaaq, meaning al-Mu'tasim. He was questioned about the Qur'aan, so he refused to give any answer which they desired from him, so he was kept in prison in Saamarraa. Then he remained in prison until he died in the year 228H." Ibn Yoonus said, "He was seized but refused to respond as they wished so he was imprisoned. So he died in Baghdaad on the day of 'Sunday', on the 13th of Jumaadal-Oolaa, and he had good understanding of hadeeth, but he narrated reprehensible reports from reliable narrators."

Niftawaih said, "He died in the year 229H and he was chained up in prison due to his refusal to declare that the Qur'aan is created. So he was dragged in his chains and thrown into a hole, and he was not shrouded, nor was he prayed over. This was done to him by the companion of Ibn Abee Duwaad (i.e., al-Mu'tasim)."

Adh-Dhahabee said, “He excelled in this field, and compiled and gathered, and surpassed the memorisers in knowledge of hidden defects in transmission (’Iilal), and it is said that he wrote two hundred works.” Aboo Haatim ar-Raazee said, “Ibn al-Madeenee was a sign amongst the people in his knowledge of badeeth and hidden defects in transmission, and Ahmad ibn Hanbial had not used to call him by his name, but rather use his kunyah out of respect for him. I never heard Ahmad use his name.”

Khalaf ibn al-Waleed al-Jawahree said, “Ibn ’Uyaynah came out to us one day, when ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee was with us, so he said, ‘If it were not for the presence of ’Alee I would not come out to you.’”

Ibn Mahdee said, “’Alee ibn al-Madeenee is the most knowledgeable of the people of the abaadeeth of Allaah’s Messenger (CNN), and of the abaadeeth of Ibn ’Uyaynah in particular.” His teacher Yahyaa ibn Sa’eed al-Qattaan said, “The people criticise me for sitting to study under ’Alee, but I learn from him more than he learns from me.”

Yahyaa ibn Ma’een said, “’Alee is one of those who narrates the most from Yahyaa al-Qattaan. I think that he has more than ten thousand abaadeeth which he narrates from. He narrates more from him than Musaddad, and Yahyaa used to be close to ’Alee and was a friend of his.” Al-Bukhaaree said, “I have not held myself to be slight in the presence of anyone, except with ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee.”
Ya’qoob al-Fasawee said, “Alee ibn al-Madeenee said, ’I compiled Al-Musnad, going to great lengths in making it complete, then I left it in my house and went on a journey, and insects of the soil destroyed it. And I was unable to gather it again.’” Aboo Yahyaa Muhammad ibn ’Abdur-Raheem said, “When ’Alee came to Baghdaad, he would be at the head of the gathering. Ibn Ma’een, Ahmad ibn Hanbal and al-Mu’aytee came, and the people were watching. So if they differed about anything it was ’Alee who spoke.”

Yahyaa ibn Ma’een said, “When ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee came to us he would make the Sunnah apparent, and when he went to Basrah he would make love of ’Alee apparent.” Adh-Dhahabee said, “I say: he would manifest the virtues of ’Alee in Basrah because of their partisanship to ’Uthmaan alone and their dislike of ’Alee.” ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee said, “Attaining knowledge of the meaning of the abaadeeth is half of the knowledge, and knowledge of the narrators is half of the knowledge.”

Aboo ’Ubayd said, “The knowledge has ended up with four people: Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah is the one who best ordered it; Ahmad ibn Hanbal is the one who best understood the fiqh of it; ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee is the one having best knowledge of it and Yahyaa ibn Ma’een is the one who wrote down the most of it.”

Saalih ibn Muhammad (Jazarah) said, “The most knowledgeable of those I met with regard to badeeth and their hidden defects in transmission was ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee, and the one who knew the fiqh of badeeth best was Ahmad, and the most proficient of them in badeeth was Sulaymaan ash-Shaadhakoonee.”
Ibn’Ammar al-Mawsilee said in his Taareekh, “Alee ibn al-Madeenee said to me, ‘What prevents you from declaring the Jahmiyyah to be Unbelievers?’ And at the beginning I had not used to declare them to be Unbelievers. Then when ’Alee consented to their saying in the trial (concerning the Qur’aan) I wrote to him reminding him of his saying to me, and I reminded him of Allaah. Then later a man informed me about him that he had wept when he had read my letter. Then I later saw him and he said to me, ‘There is nothing in my heart of what I said with my tongue, (i.e., in response to the trial concerning the Qur’aan) and I responded because I feared that I should be killed, and you are aware of my weakness, which is such that if I had been lashed a single time I would have died.’”

Al-Marroodhee said, “I heard a man from the people of the army say to Aboo ’Abdullaah (Ahmad), ‘Ibn al-Madeenee sends the greeting of salaam to you.’ So he remained silent. So I said to Aboo ’Abdullaah, ‘Abbaas al-’Anbaree said to me: ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee said, when he had mentioned a person and spoken against him, and I said to him, ‘They will not accept your saying, rather they will only accept from Ahmad ibn Hanbal.’ So he said, ‘Ahmad was able to withstand lashing, whereas I could not withstand it.’” And Ibn ’Ammar also said, “Alee kept the trial of Ibn Abee Duwaad away from me, and interceded for me, and he kept it away from a number of the people of Mawsil because of me. So he did not consent out of belief in that, but merely through fear.”

Aboo Yoosuf al-Quloosee said to ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee, “The like of you consented to the like of what you responded to?” So ’Alee said, “O Aboo Yoosuf, how trifling the sword seems to you.” Ibn Makhlad al-'Attaar said, "Muhammad ibn 'Uthmaan narrated to us, 'I heard 'Alee ibn al-Madeenee say two months before he died, 'The Qur'aan is the Speech of Allaah, uncreated, and whoever says that it is created is an Unbeliever.'"

'Abdurr-Rahmaan ibn Abee Haatim said, "Aboo Zur'ah abandoned narrating from 'Alee due to what occurred from him during the trial, but my father used to narrate from him since 'Alee disassociated himself from what he had done (i.e., under duress). My father said, "Alee was a sign amongst the people with regard to knowledge of hadith and hidden defects of transmission."

Adh-Dhahabee said, "Some people report from 'Abdullaah ibn Ahmad that his father withheld from narrating from 'Alee ibn al-Madeenee, but I do not see that. Rather abaadeeth are reported from him in his Musnad, and there are a great number of abaadeeth from him in Sabeeh al-Bukhaaree." He died two days before the end of Dhul-Qa'dah, 234H, in Saamarraa.\footnote{Siyar A'laamin-Nubalaa, vol. 11, pp. 41-60.}
FROM KOOFAH

AL-FADEL IBN DUKAYN AL-KOOFEE, ABOO NU’AYM, AL-MULAA‘EE, AT-TAYMEE, AT-TALHEE, AL-QURASHEE, THEIR MAWLAA - he was born in 130H.

Those he narrated from include:

Those who narrated from him include:

Aboo Zur’ah ad-Dimashqee said, “I heard Yahyaa ibn Ma’een say, ‘I have not seen anyone more reliable than two men, Aboo Nu’aym and ’Affaan.’” Ya’qoob al-Fasawee said, “Our companions are agreed that Aboo Nu’aym was at the limit of precision.”
Ahmad ibn Abil-Hasan at-Tirmidhee and others reported from Aboo Nu‘aym that he said, “The Qur‘aan is the Speech of Allaah, it is not created.” Abul-‘Abbaas as-Sarraaj reported from al-Kudaymee who said, “When Aboo Nu‘aym entered upon the governor to be tried in the trial (regarding the Qur‘aan), Yoonus and Aboo Ghassaan and others were present, so the first one to be tried was a certain person and he consented. Then it was said to Aboo Nu‘aym, ‘This person has consented, so what is your saying?’ So he said, ‘By Allaah, I have not ceased accusing his grandfather of severe heresy. Yoonus ibn Bukayr informed me that he heard this persons grandfather say, ‘There is no harm in stoning the Pillars (Jama‘a) with glass bottles.’ I came to Koofah and it contained more than seven hundred Shaikhs, al-A‘mash and those lesser than him, all of them saying, ‘The Qur‘aan is the Speech of Allaah,’ and my neck is of less consequence to me than this button (and he tore it off).’ So Ahmad ibn Yoonus stood up to him and kissed his head, and there had previously been ill-feeling between them, and he said, ‘May Allaah reward you with good ...”

At-Tabaraanee said, “I heard Sulayhah bint Abee Nu‘aym say, ‘I heard my father say, ‘The Qur‘aan is the Speech of Allaah, uncreated, and whoever says that it is created is an Unbeliever.’”

Ahmad ibn Hanbal said, “There are two Shaikhs about whom the people used to speak and whom they used to make mention of, and we received treatment from the people with regard to their affair such as is known to Allaah. They stood for Allaah’s sake with a matter which no others, or very few others, stood to support—‘Affaan and Aboo Nu‘aym.” Al-Khateeb al-Baghdaadee said, “Aboo ‘Abdullaah was referring by that to their refusal to consent to the saying that the Qur‘aan is created, when they were tried.”
Al-Marroodhee reported from Ahmad ibn Hanbal that he said, "Allaah raised up 'Affaan and Aboo Nu’aym by their truthfulness, till they were praised greatly by the people." Muhammad ibn 'Abdul-Wahhaab al-Farraa said, "We used to have awe for Aboo Nu’aym greater than our awe of the ruler."

Al-'Ijlee said of him, "Reliable, sound in badeeth," and Aboo Haatim said, "I asked 'Aleel (ibn al-Madeenee), 'Who is the most reliable of the students of ath-Thawree?' He said, 'Yahyaa, and 'Abdur-Rahmaan, and Wakee' and Aboo Nu’aym.'" He died on the 30th Sha'baan, 219H, in Koofah.¹

'Ubaydullaah ibn Moosaa, Aboo Muhammад al-‘Absee, their mawlāa, al-Kooffee - he was born around 120H.

Those he narrated from include:
Hishaam ibn 'Urwhah, Sulaymaan al-A'mash, Ibn Juraij, al-Awzaa’ee, Mis’ar, Shu’bah, Sufyaan, Shaybaan, Israa’eel, and al-Hasan ibn Hayy.

Those who narrated from him include:
Ahmad ibn Hanbal (who narrated only a little from him as Ahmad used to hate him for an innovation found in him), Ishaaq, Ibn Ma’een, 'Abd ibn Humayd, Muhammad ibn 'Abdullaah ibn Numayr, 'Aleel ibn Muhammad at-Tanaafisee, Mahmood ibn Ghaylaan, adh-Dhuhlee, Aboo Haatim, 'Abbaas ad-Dooree, Ahmad ibn 'Abdullaah al-'Ijlee, Ya’qoob al-Fasawee and al-Bukhaaree.

He was declared reliable by Ibn Ma‘een and a group, and Aboo Haatim said about him, “Reliable, trustworthy, good in hadith.” Al‘Ijlee said, “Reliable, a leader with regard to the Qur‘aan, a scholar of it. I never saw him raising his head up, and he was never seen laughing.”

Al-Aajurree narrates that Aboo Daawood said, “He was an ardent Shee‘ee, his abaadeet are allowable.” He was the first one to compile a Musnad arranged Companion-wise in Kooofah, and he was a memoriser of hadith and reciter of the Qur‘aan. He recited under Hamzah az-Zayyaat, ’Eesaa ibn ’Umar al-Hamdaanee and ’Alee ibn Saalihi ibn Hayy.

Adh-Dhahabee said, “He was a person of worship ... he was a companion of Hamzah (az-Zayyaat) and took on his manners, except with regard to the unfortunate characteristics of Shee‘ism (i.e., ardent preference for ‘Alee), which he took from the people of his land which was built upon that innovation.”

He narrated: Maalik ibn Mighwal narrated to us: from ‘Awn ibn Abee Juhayfah: from his father who said, ‘Alee رضي الله عنه said, “The best of us after our Prophet was Aboo Bakr and ’Umar. رضي الله عنه.” Adh-Dhahabee said, “So the fact that ’Ubaydullaah narrated the like of this shows that he gave precedence to the two Shaikhs, however he used to attack those who were adversaries of ’Alee.”

Ibn Mandah said, “Ahmad ibn Hanbal used to point ’Ubaydullaah out to the people, and he was well known for Rafd (extreme partisanship for ‘Alee), and he would not let anyone enter his house who was called ‘Mu’aawiyah.’ Mu’aawiyah ibn Saalihi al-Ash‘aree entered upon him and he said, ‘What is your name?’ He said, ‘Mu’aaawiyah.’ He said, ‘By Allaah, I will not narrate to you, nor will I narrate to a people whom you live amongst.’ He died in 213H.¹

AHMAD IBN ’ABDULLAHAH IBN YOONUS, ABOO ’ABDULLAHAH AT-TAMEEMEE, AL-YARBOO’EE, AL-KOOFEE (AHMAD IBN YOONUS) - he was born in 132H.

Those he narrated from include:

Those who narrated from him include:
Al-Bukhaaree, Muslim (and he was one of the most senior of Muslim’s Shaikhs), ’Abd ibn Humayd Aboo Zur’ah ar-Raazee, Ibraaheem al-Harbee, Ya’qoob al-Fasawee, Aboo Haatim, Ahmad ibn Yahyaa al-Halwaanee, Aboo Husayn al-Waadi’ee, Ibraaheem ibn Shareek, Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah and Sammooyah.

Aboo Haatim said, “He was reliable, precise,” al-’Ijlee said, “Reliable, a person of the Sunnah,” and Ibn Sa’d said, “He was reliable, trustworthy, a person of the Sunnah and the Jamaa’ah.”

¹ Siyar Alaamin-Nubalaah, vol. 9, pp. 553-557.
Al-Fadl ibn Zayd said, "I heard Ahmad ibn Hanbal, when a man asked him who shall I write narrations from, saying, 'Travel to Ahmad ibn Yoonus, since he is the Shaikh of Islaam.'" Aboo Daawood said, "I asked Ahmad ibn Yoonus, so he said, 'Do not pray behind those who say that the Qur'aan is created, they are Unbelievers.'"

Aboo Haatim said, "He was one of the righteous people of Kooofah, and their Sunnis." He died in 134H.¹

QABEESAH IBN 'UQBAH IBN RABEE'AH, ABOO 'AAMIR, AS-SUWAA'EE, AL-KOOFEE

Those he narrated from include:
'Eeesaa ibn Tahmaan, Maalik ibn Mighwa, 'Aasim ibn Muhammad al-'Umæreec, Yoonus ibn Abee Ishaaq, Mis'aar, Shu'bah, Warqaa, Hamzah az-Zayyaaat, Israa'eer, Sufyaan ath-Thawree (whom he narrated a great deal from), Safwaan ibn Abis-Sahbaa, Wahb ibn Ismaa'eeel and Abul-Ashhab al-'Utaaridee.

Those who narrated from him include:

Yahyaa ibn Ma’een said, “Qabeeesah is reliable in everything except with regard to the abaadeeth of Sufyaan, where he is not that strong, since he heard from him when he was very young.”

Abbo Zur’ah was asked about Qabeeesah and Abbo Nu’aym and said, “Qabeeesah was the most excellent of the two men, and Abbo Nu’aym was the most precise of the two. I have not seen any of the scholars of hadeeth memorising and narrating the hadeeth exactly word for word, not changing any word except Qabeeesah and Abbo Nu’aym with regard to the abaadeeth of ath-THawree, and Yahyaa al-Himmaanee with regard to the abaadeeth of Shareek, and ’Allee ibn al-Ja’d in his abaadeeth.”

Ishaaq ibn Sayyaar said, “I have not seen amongst the Shaikhs anyone memorising better than Qabeeesah.” Hafs ibn ’Umar said, “I have not seen the like of Qabeeesah. I have never seen him smiling. He was from the righteous worshippers of Allaah.” He died in 215H.\(^1\)

MUHAMMAD IBN ‘ABDULLAHH IBN NUMAYR, ABOO ’ABDUR-RAHMAAN AL-HAMDAANEE, THEN AL-KHAARIFEE, THEIR MAWLAA, AL-KOOFEE - he was born around 160-170H.

Those be narrated from include:

\(^1\) Siyar Al’laamin Nubalaa, vol. 10, pp. 130-135.
Those who narrated from him include:

At-Tirmidhee said, “Ahmad ibn Hanbal used to have very great respect for Muhammad ibn ’Abdullaah ibn Numayr, and would say, ‘What a fine young man he is!’” Ahmad said, “Muhammad ibn ’Abdullaah ibn Numayr is the pearl of ’Iraq.” ’Alee ibn al-Husayn ibn Junayd said, “Ahmad and Ibn Ma’een used to say about the Shaikhs whatever Ibn Numayr said about them,” meaning they would say whatever he said about the narrators of his land.

Ibn al-Junayd said, “I did not see in Koofah anyone the like of Muhammad ibn ’Abdullaah ibn Numayr. He was a man who gathered knowledge, understanding, Sunnah and abstemiousness (zuhd) and he was poor.” Ahmad ibn Sinaan al-Qattaan said, “I did not see from the young men of Koofah anyone more excellent in my view than Ibn Numayr. He used to lead us in the Obligatory Prayers, and his father would pray behind him. He came to us (i.e., in Waasit) in the days of Yazeed ibn Haaroon.”

Al’Ijlee said, “A reliable narrator of Koofah who is counted as one of the Companions of Hadeeth.” Aboo Haatim ibn Hibban said, “He was one of the precise memorisers and the people of piety in the Religion.” He died in 234H.¹

'ABDULLAAH IBN MUHAMMAD IBN ABBE SHAYBAH, ABOO BAKR AL-'ABSEE, THEIR MAWLAA, AL-KOOFEE, the brother of 'Uthmaan ibn Abee Shaybah.

Those be narrated from include:

Those who narrated from him include:
Al-Bukhaaree, Muslim, Aboo Daawood, Ibn Maajah, Muhammad ibn Sa’d al-Kaatib, adh-Dhuhlee, Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Aboo Zur’ah, Aboo Bakr ibn Abee 'Aasim, Baqee’ ibn Makhlad, Muhammad ibn Waddaah, al-Hasan ibn Sufyaan, Aboo Ya’laa al-Mawsilee, Ja’far al-Firyaabee, Saalih Jazarah and Abul-Qaasim al-Baghawee. The last to narrate from him was Aboo ’Amr Yoosuf ibn Ya’qoob an-Neesaaboorree who died between 320 and 330H.

He sought knowledge as a boy and his most senior Shaikh was Shareek al-Qaadee. He was the compiler of Al-Musnad, Al-Musannaf and At-Tafseer. Yahyaa ibn ’Abdul-Hameed al-Himmaanee said, “The sons of Ibn Abee Shaybah are from the people of knowledge, they used to vie with us with regard to every narrator of hadeeth,” and al-Ijlee said, “Aboo Bakr was reliable, a great memoriser of hadeeth.” Al-Fallaas said, “I have not seen a better memoriser than Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah, he came to us along with 'Alee ibn al-Madeenee, and he read out four hundred abaadeeth for ash-Shaybaanee from memory, and then left.”
'Abdaan al-Ahwaazee said, "Aboo Bakr used to sit by the pillar and his brother and 'Mushkudaanah' (i.e., 'Abdullaah ibn 'Umar ibn Muhammad al-Amawee, their mawlaa), and 'Abdullaah ibn al-Barraad and others would be sitting. All of them would be silent except for Aboo Bakr who spoke." Ibn 'Adee said, "It was the pillar which Ibn 'Uqbah used to sit by."

Ibn 'Uqbah said, 'This is the pillar of 'Abdullaah ibn al-Mas'oood, after him 'Alqamah sat by it and after him Ibraaheem, and after him Mansoor, and after him Sufyaan ath-Thawree, and after him Wakee', and after him Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah, and after him Mutayyan.'"

Saalih Jazarah said, "The most knowledgeable of those I met with regard to hadith and hidden defects of transmission was 'Alee ibn al-Madeenee; and the most knowledgeable of them about errors in wording by the Shaikhs was Yahyaa ibn Ma'een; and the best memoriser when narrations were read was Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah."

Ibraaheem Niftawayh said, "In the year 234H al-Mutawakkil assembled the scholars of figh and hadith, and amongst them was Mus'ab ibn 'Abdullaah az-Zubayree, Ishaaq ibn Abee Israa'eel, Ibraaheem ibn 'Abdullaah al-Harawee, and Aboo Bakr and 'Uthmaan, the two sons of Aboo Shaybah, and they were from the great memorisers. So gifts were distributed amongst them, and al-Mutawakkil ordered them to narrate in public those abaadeeth which were a refutation of the Mutazilah and the Jahmiyyah." He said, "So 'Uthmaan sat in the city of al-Mansoor and about thirty thousand people gathered to hear him, and Aboo Bakr sat in the mosque of ar-Rusaaafah and he had precedence over his brother, and about thirty thousand gathered to hear him.” He died in Mubarram of 235H.1

FROM BAGHDAD

AHMAD IBN MUHAMMAD IBN HANBAL, ABOO 'ABDULLAAH, THE IMAAM, THE SHAIKH OF ISLAAM, ADH-DHUHLEE, ASH-SHAYBAANEE, AL-MARWAZEE, THEN AL-BAGHDAADEE - he was born in 164H, and he began seeking knowledge at the age of fifteen.

Those he narrated from include:

Those who narrated from him:
Al-Bukhaaree (a single hadeeth), Muslim, Aboo Daawood, his son Saalih ibn Ahmad, his son 'Abdullaah ibn Ahmad, his paternal cousin Hanbal ibn Ishaaq, and his teachers 'Abdur-Razzaaq, al-Hasan ibn Moosaa al-Ashyab, and Aboo 'Abdullaah ash-Shaafi’ee. Also: 'Alee Ibraaheem al-Harbee said, “I saw Aboo ’Abdullaah and it was as if Allaah had gathered for him the knowledge of the earlier and later people together.” Ibn Raahawaih said, “I used to sit with Ahmad and Ibn Ma’een, and we would revise abaadeeth. I would say, ‘What is the fiqhb of it? What is its explanation?’ And they would be silent except Ahmad.”

Yahyaa al-Qattaan said, “No one has come to us the like of these two: Ahmad and Yahyaa ibn Ma’een, and no one has come to me from Baghdad more beloved to me than Ahmad ibn Hanbal.” ‘Abdur-Rahmaan ibn Mahdee mentioned the companions of hadeeth and said, “The most knowledgeable of them regarding the abaadeeth of ath-Thawree is Ahmad ibn Hanbal.” Then Ahmad entered and Ibn Mahdee said, “Whoever wishes to see (the knowledge) that was held between the shoulders of ath-Thawree, then let him look at this man.”

Ibn Mahdee said, “I have not looked at Ahmad except that he caused me to remember Sufyaan.” Ahmad ibn Sinaan al-Qattaan said, “I have not seen Yazeed (ibn Haaroon) having greater respect for anyone than he had for Ahmad ibn Hanbal nor did he behave more generously and graciously than he did with him. He would sit him at his side, give him respect, and he would not joke with him.”
'Abdur-Razzaaq said, “I have not seen anyone having better knowledge and understanding, nor more pious than Ahmad ibn Hanbal.” Adh-Dhahabee adds, “He said this having seen the like of ath-Thawree, Maalik and Ibn Jurayj.” Qutaybah ibn Sa’eed said, “The best of the people of our time is ’Abdullaah ibn al-Mubaarak, and then this young man (meaning Ahmad ibn Hanbal). And if you see a man who loves Ahmad, then know that he is a person of the Sunnah. If he had reached the time of ath-Thawree, al-Awzaa’ee and al-Layth, he would have been the one having precedence amongst them.” So it was said to Qutaybah, “You would mention Ahmad along with the Taabi’een?” So he said, “With the greater Taabi’een.”

Qutaybah said, “If it were not for ath-Thawree piety would die out, and if it were not for Ahmad they would innovate in the Religion. Ahmad is the Imaam of the world.”

Hurmulah said, “I heard ash-Shaafi’ee say, ‘I left Baghdad and I did not leave behind in it a man more excellent, nor more knowledgeable, nor better in fiqh, nor having more taqwa than Ahmad ibn Hanbal.’”

Muhammad ibn Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih said, “My father narrated to me, saying, ‘Ahmad ibn Hanbal said to me, ‘Come with me and let me show you someone the like of whom is not to be seen.’ So he took me to ash-Shaafi’ee.’ My father said, ‘And ash-Shaafi’ee did not see the like of Ahmad ibn Hanbal, and were it not for Ahmad and how he sacrificed himself, meaning on the day of the trial concerning the Qur’aan, then Islaam would have departed.”
'Alee ibn al-Madeenee said, “In my view Ahmad is more excellent than Sa’eed ibn Jubayr in his time, since Sa’eed had equals.” He also said, “Allaah honoured and strengthened this Religion with as-Siddeeq on the day of Apostacy, and with Ahmad on the day of the trial (al-Mihnah).”

Ibn Ma’een said, “I have not seen the like of Ahmad,” and he also said, “They wanted that I should be like Ahmad, by Allaah I will never be like him.” Aboo Thawr said, “Ahmad is more knowledgeable in fiqh than ath-Thawree.”

Hajjaaj ibn ash-Shaa’ir said, “I have not seen anyone more excellent than Ahmad. I would love that I should have been killed fighting in Allaah’s cause if it meant that I should miss having prayed the Funeral Prayer for Ahmad. By Allaah he reached a position as Imaam greater than that of Sufyaan and Maalik.”

’Amr an-Naaqid said, “If Ahmad ibn Hanbal agrees with me about a hadith then I do not care about those who disagree with me.” Aboo Haatim was asked who was the greater memoriser, ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee or Ahmad ibn Hanbal? So he said, “They were close to each other in memorisation, and Ahmad had better comprehension. If you see someone loving Ahmad, then know that he is a person of the Sunnah.”

Aboo Zur’ah said, “Ahmad ibn Hanbal was greater than, and had better comprehension than Ishaaq. I have never seen anyone more complete than Ahmad.” Aboo ’Umayr an-Nuhaas ar-Ramlee mentioned Ahmad and said, “May Allaah have mercy upon him. None had more patience than him in resisting this world. None more closely resembled those of the past than him. None was more fitting to be in the company of the righteous than him. This world was presented to him and he refused it, and innovations were presented before him so he refuted them.”

An-Nasaa’ee said, “Ahmad ibn Hanbal gathered knowledge of hadeeth, fiqh, piety, abstemiousness (zuhd) and patient forbearance (sabr).” Aboo Daawood said, “The gatherings of Ahmad were gatherings of the Hereafter, nothing of the affairs of this world would be mentioned, and I never saw him mention this world.”

’Alee ibn Khalaf said, “I heard al-Humaydee say, ‘As long as I remain in the Hijaz, and Ahmad in ’Iraaq, and Ibn Raahawaih in Khuraasaan, nobody will overcome us.’” Ibn Waarah said, “Ahmad ibn Hanbal in Baghdaad, Ahmad ibn Saalih in Egypt, Aboo Ja’far an-Nufaylee in Harraan and Ibn Numayr in Koofah—they are the supports of the Religion.”

Aboo Yahyaa an-Naaqid said, “We were with Ibraaheem ibn ’Ar’arah and they mentioned Ya’laa ibn ’Aasim, so a man said, ‘Ahmad ibn Hanbal declares him weak.’ So a man said, ‘And how will that affect him if he is reliable?’ So Ibn ’Ar’arah said, ‘By Allaah if Ahmad were to speak about ’Alqamah and al-Aswad (i.e., two of the greater taabi’een) it would affect them.”

Al-Husayn al-Karaabeessee said, “The example of those who speak against Ahmad ibn Hanbal is like the example of a people who come up to the mountain of Aboo Qubays intending to demolish it with their shoes.” ’Abdullaah ibn Ahmad said, “I heard my father say concerning this world, ‘A little of it suffices, and a great deal of it does not suffice.’”
Al-Marroodhee said, "I entered a Christian upon Aboo 'Abdullaah and he (i.e., the Christian) said to him (i.e., Imaam Ahmad), 'I have wished to see you for some years. Your presence is not just beneficial for Islaam alone, but rather for all creation, and there is no one from our companions except that he is pleased with you.' So I said to Aboo 'Abdullaah, 'I hope that supplication is made for you in all towns.' So he said, 'O Aboo Bakr, when a man knows his own self, speech of the people is of no benefit to him.'"

'Abbaas ad-Dooree said, "Alee ibn Fazaarah our neighbour narrated to us, saying, 'My mother had been unable to walk for about twenty years, then one day she said to me, 'Go to Ahmad ibn Hanbal and ask him to supplicate for me.' So I went to him and knocked his door and he was in his entrance-hall. So he said, 'Who is there?' So I said, 'A man whose mother has asked me to ask you to supplicate for her and she is crippled.' So I heard him reply as if he was angry, 'We have more need that she should supplicate for us.' So I left and then an old woman came out and said, 'You have left him and he is supplicating for her.' So when I came to our house, and knocked the door my mother came out to me walking.' Adh-Dhababee said, "This event is reported from 'Abbaas by two reliable narrators."

Al-Marroodhee said, "When Aboo 'Abdullaah remembered death, remembrance of it would take hold of him severely, and he would say, 'Fear prevents me from food and drink, and when I remember death all the affairs of this world become insignificant. It is just a matter of a small amount of food, sufficient clothing and a few limited days. I do not hold anything equal to poverty, and if I was able I would go off so that people would not mention me.'" And he said, "I wish I could live unknown in the mountain-passes of Makkah. I have been tested with fame. Indeed I wish for death day and night."
Ahmad said, "One who takes up theological rhetoric (kalaam) will not prosper, and will not be free from becoming Jahmee."

Al-Marroodhee said, "I have not seen the poor honoured more highly than in the gathering of Ahmad. He would favour them, and be less inclined to the worldly people. He displayed gentleness/forbearance, and was not a hasty person. He was a person of great modesty and characterised by calmness and dignified bearing. When he sat in a gathering to deliver verdicts after 'Asr he would not speak until he was asked a question, and when he went out to his mosque he would not put himself in front of the people."

Abboo Bakr al-Marroodhee said, "Abboo 'Abdullaah would not behave ignorantly and if anyone treated him ignorantly then he would have patience and overlook it, and say, 'Allaah suffices.' He was not a person who bore grudges and was not hasty. He was very modest and of good character. He would always have a cheerful countenance and was gentle and affable, and not coarse and harsh. He would love for Allaah's sake and hate for Allaah's sake. If something pertained to the Religion he would become very angry, and he would put up with the harm caused by neighbours."

Saalihi ibn Ahmad said, "I often heard my father recite Sooratul-Kahf, and I often heard him say, 'O Allaah keep us safe, keep us safe.'" Al-Marroodhee said, "I saw Aboo 'Abdullaah standing in Prayer with his due portion of recitation for about half of the night, until close to dawn, and I saw him praying in the time between Maghrib and 'Isha."

'Abbaas ad-Dooree said, “I heard Ja’far al-Anbaaree say, ‘When Ahmad was taken off to al-Ma’moon I heard of it, so I crossed the Euphrates and came to him, and found him sitting in a small room, so I greeted him with salaam and he said, ‘O Aboo Ja’far, you have troubled yourself.’ So I said, ‘You are today a head whom the people follow. So, by Allaah, if you consent to the saying that the Qur’aan is created, then the rest of the people will consent to it. But if you refuse, then many people will refuse, and even if the man does not kill you then you will still die, and death is certain, so fear Allaah and do not consent.’ So Ahmad began to weep, and say, ‘Just as Allaah wills.’ Then he said, ‘O Aboo Ja’far, repeat it to me.’ So I repeated it to him, and he was saying, ‘Just as Allaah wills.”'

Muhammad ibn Ibraaheem al-Booshanjee said, “In ar-Raqqah they began to remind Aboo ’Abdullaah about the allowance of verbally affirming to save oneself, and the reports about that, so he replied, ‘What will you do with the hadeeth of Khabbaab? ‘Amongst those who came before you a man would be sawn in half, but that would not cause him to abandon his Religion.’¹ So we gave up hope regarding him.’” And he said, “I do not mind about imprisonment, since it and my house are the same, nor about being beheaded, but rather I fear the trial of the whip.” So a fellow prisoner heard him and said, ‘Don’t be concerned, O Aboo ’Abdullaah, for it will only take two lashes, then after that you won’t notice the rest of them strike you.’ So it was as if he felt at peace because of this.”

YAHYAA IBN MA’EEN, ABOO ZAKARIYYAA, AL-GHATAFAANEE, AL-MURREE THEIR MAWLAA, AL-BAGHDAADEE - he was born in 158H.

Those he narrated from include:

Those who narrated from him include:

He began to write knowledge at the age of twenty. Aboo Haatim ar-Raazee said when asked about him, “An Imaam,” and an-Nasaa’e said, “Aboo Zakariyyaa is one of the Imaams of badeeth, reliable and trustworthy.” Ibn ’Adiyy said, “An old man who was a secretary mentioned to me that he was a close relative of Yahyaa ibn Ma’een, and said, ’Ma’een was in charge of the land-tax of ar-Rayy, and he died and left his son Yahyaa with a thousand thousand dirhams. He spent all of that upon his studies for hadeeth until he reached the point that he didn’t even have shoes to wear.”

It is said his origin was from al-Anbaar and he grew up in Baghdaad. He was the eldest of the group of senior scholars, i.e., ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee, Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih, Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah and Aboo Khaythamah. They used to behave courteously with him, and he was respected and honoured. He would ride upon a mule, and wear good clothes ِرحمة الله علیه.

Ibn al-Madeenee said, “The knowledge in Basrah ended up with Yahyaa ibn Abee Katheer and Qataadah; and the knowledge in Koofah ended up with Aboo Ishaaq and al-A’mash; and the knowledge in al-Hijaz with Ibn Shihaab and ’Amr ibn Deenaar; and the knowledge of these six was transmitted to twelve men: Ibn Abee ’Aroobah, Ma’mar, Shu’bah, Hammaad ibn Salamah, the two Sufyaans, Maalik, al-Awzaa’e, Ibn Ishaaq, Hushaym, Aboo ’Awaanah (and) Yahyaa ibn Abee Zaa’idah. And it came to Ibn al-Mubaarak and Ibn Mahdee and Yahyaa ibn Aadam—and the knowledge of all of these came to Yahyaa ibn Ma’een.”

’Abdul-Khaaliq ibn Mansoor said, “I said to Ibn ar-Rooomee, ‘I heard Aboo Sa’eed al-Haddaad say, ‘If it were not for Ibn Ma’een I would not have written abaadeeth.”’ He said, ‘And he was not surprised, for by Allaah, Allaah certainly benefitted us by him. It was the case that a narrator of hadeeth would narrate to us only because of his honour. And I was with Ahmad when a man came to him and said, ‘O Aboo ’Abdullaah, examine these abaadeeth because there is a mistake in them.’ So he said, ‘Go to Aboo Zakariyyaa, he is the one who recognises the mistakes.’” Aboo ’Amr said that he heard Ahmad ibn Hanbal say, “Hearing narrations from Yahyaa ibn Ma’e’en is a cure for what is held in the chests.” Sulaymaan ibn ’Abdullaah, Aboo Muqaatil said, “I heard Ahmad ibn Hanbal say, ‘Here there is a man whom Allaah has created for this field, he shows up the lies of the liars,’ meaning Yahyaa ibn Ma’e’en.”

Muhammad ibn Raafi’ said, “I heard Ahmad ibn Hanbal say, ‘Every badeeth which is not known to Yahyaa ibn Ma’e’en is not a badeeth.’” Ibn ’Adee, Yahyaa ibn Zakariyyaa ibn Hayyawaih narrated to us: al-’Abbaas ibn Ishaaq narrated to us: “I heard Haaroon ibn Ma’roof say, ‘A shaikh came to us, so I hastened to him, and we asked him to dictate narrations to us. So he took up the book, and then someone knocked on the door, so the shaikh said, ‘Who is there?’ So he said, ‘Ahmad ibn Hanbal.’ So he permitted him to enter, and the shaikh continued as he was and didn’t move. Then someone else knocked the door, so he said, ‘Who is it?’ So he said, ‘Ahmad ad-Dawraqee,’ so he permitted him to enter and didn’t move. Then the same happened with Ibn ar-Roomee and then the same with Aboo Khaithamah. Then someone knocked the door and he said, ‘Who is there?’ So he said, ‘Yahyaa ibn Ma’e’en …’—so I saw that the shaikhs hand trembled and the book fell out of his hand.”

Ja’far at-Tayaaleesee said, “I heard Ibn Ma’e’en say, ‘When ’Abdul-Wahhaab ibn ’Ataa came, I went to him and wrote down narrations from him. So whilst I was with him, a letter came from his family, so he read it and wrote a reply to them, and I saw it. He had written on the back of it, ‘I came to Baghdaad and was accepted by Yahyaa ibn Ma’e’en, so all praise and thanks are for Allaah, Lord of all creation.”
'Alee ibn al-Madeenee said, "For forty years when I came to Baghdad the one who would revise abaadeeth with me would be Ahmad. So sometimes we would disagree about something, and so we would ask Aboo Zakariyyaa and he would get up and take it out for us, no one knew where his abaadeeth were to be found better than him."

Ibn al-Madeenee said, "I do not know anyone to have written down what Ibn Ma’een wrote down." Ahmad ibn 'Uqbah said, "I asked Yahyaa ibn Ma’een, 'How many abaadeeth have you written?' He said, 'With this hand of mine I have written six hundred thousand abaadeeth.' I said, ‘Meaning, including repetitions.’"

Ibn al-Ghalaabee said, "Yahyaa said, 'I narrate a badeeth, and then I am awake all night thinking about it for fear that I have made a mistake in it.'" 'Abdur-Rahmaan ibn Hamdaan ibn al-Marzubaan said, "Aboo Haatim ar-Raazee said to me, 'If you see a person of Baghdad loving Ahmad ibn Hanbal, then know that he is a person of the Sunnah. And if you see him hating Yahyaa ibn Ma’een then know that he is a liar.'"

Muhammad ibn Haaroon al-Fallaas said, "If you see a man speaking against Yahyaa ibn Ma’een, then know that he is a liar who fabricates abaadeeth. He only hates him because he makes clear the work of the liars." Al-Asamm 'Abbaas narrated to us, "I heard Yahyaa ibn Ma’een say, 'We were in a village in Egypt and we had nothing with us, and there was nothing to buy. So in the morning we awoke to find a basket full of fresh fish, and it was not accompanied by anyone, so they asked me, so I said, 'Divide it up and eat it, since I think that it is a provision given to you by Allaah, the Most High.'" And I heard Yahyaa often saying, 'The Qur’aan is the Speech of Allaah, and is not created. And eemaan is saying and action, it increases and decreases.'"
Ja'far ibn Abée 'Uthmaan said, "We were with Yahyaa ibn Ma'een when a man came who was in a hurry, and he said, 'O Aboo Zakariyyaa, narrate to me something which will cause me to remember you through it.' So Yahyaa said, 'Remember me by the fact that you asked me to narrate to you, and I didn't do so.'"

'Abbaas ad-Dooree said, Yahyaa ibn Ma'een narrated to us, "I attended the sitting of Nu'aym ibn Hammaad in Egypt, and he began dictating a book which he had compiled, and he said, 'Ibn al-Mubaarak narrated to us, from Ibn 'Awn ...' and he mentioned some abaadeeth. So I said, 'That is not from Ibn al-Mubaarak.' So he became angry and said, 'You rebut me?' I said, 'Yes, by Allaah, I wish to enhance you.' But he refused to withdraw it, so when I saw that he was not going to withdraw it I said, 'No, by Allaah, you have not heard this from Ibn al-Mubaarak, nor did he ever hear it from Ibn 'Awn.' So he became angry, and those with him became angry, and he stood up and entered his house. Then he took out his manuscript and said with them in his hand, 'Where are those who claim Yahyaa ibn Ma'een is not the Ameerul-Mu'mineen in badeeth? Yes, O Aboo Zakariyyaa, I am mistaken. These abaadeeth are from other than Ibn al-Mubaarak, from Ibn 'Awn.'"

Muhammad ibn Jareer at-Tabaree said, "Ibn Ma'een went out to make Hajj, and he was a person who enjoyed food, so Abul-'Abbaas Ahmad ibn Shaah narrated to me that he was one of those accompanying him. When they came to Fayd, Yahyaa was given some sweetmeat which he had not properly cooked as a present. So we said, 'O Aboo Zakariyyaa, do not eat it for we fear for you.' But he did not pay attention to our saying and ate it. It did not settle in his stomach..."
before he complained of stomach pains and suffered diarrhoea until we reached al-Madeenah and he was unable to stand up. So we discussed what to do about him, and we could not stop to take up residence along with him due to the Hajj, and we did not know what we should do about him. So some of us decided to stay with him and leave the Hajj. We entered the night and morning did not come before he had dictated his will and died, so we washed him and buried him.”

Muhammad ibn Yoosuf al-Bukhaaree al-Haafiz said, “We went for Hajj along with Yahyaa ibn Ma’een, and we entered al-Madeenah on the night prior to Jumu’ah, and he died during the night. Then in the morning word had passed around the people of his arrival and death, so the common folk gathered, and Banoo Haashim came and said, ‘We will take out the planks upon which Allaah’s Messenger (ﷺ) was washed for him.’ So the common folk objected to that and there was a large discussion, so Banoo Haashim said, ‘We have the most right to the Prophet (ﷺ) and this man has the most right to be washed upon that.’ So he was washed upon that and buried on the day of in Dhul-Qa’dah.”

Ahmad ibn Abee Khaythamah said, “Yahyaa died with seven days remaining from Dhul-Qa’dah in the year 233H, having completed seventy five years and having entered the seventy sixth, and he was buried in al-Baqee.” Muhammad ibn ’Alee ibn Daawood said, “I heard Yahyaa ibn Ma’een say, ‘I wish that I should come across a reliable Shaikh who has a house full of manuscripts, such that I should be alone in writing from him.”
'Alee ibn al-Husayn ibn al-Junayd said, “I heard Yahyaa ibn Ma‘een say, ‘We speak critically about a people who perhaps settled in Paradise more than two hundred years ago.’ Ibn Mahrawaih said, ‘So I entered upon Ibn Abee Haatim when he was reading the book Al-Farh wat-Ta’deel to the people, and I narrated this saying to him, so he wept and his hands trembled until the book fell out of his hands, and he was weeping and asked me to repeat the saying.’”

'Abbaas ad-Dooree said, “He died and was carried upon the wooden planks of the Prophet (ﷺ), and the proclamation was made before him: ‘This is the one who used to repel lies away from the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ).’”\(^1\)

Muhammad ibn Sa’d mentioned him in At-Tabaqaat and said, “Reliable, sound, a person of the Sunnah and excellence.” Aboo Ya’laa said, “Aboo Ma’mar narrated around two thousand hadeeth in Mawsil from memory. Then when he returned to Baghdad he wrote the corrections to the narrations of his to the people of Mawsil, and had only made mistakes in about thirty or forty ahaadeeth.”

'Abdullaah ibn Ahmad ibn Hanbal said, “I heard Aboo Ma’mar al-Hudhalee say, ‘Whoever claims that Allaah does not Speak, nor Hear, nor See, nor be Pleased, nor be Angry, then he is an Unbeliever. If you see him standing by a well, then throw him down it. This is what I hold as my Religion before Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic.’”

Aboo Ma’mar al-Qatee’ee said, “The speech of the Jahmiyyah ends up with the saying that there is no God above the heavens.” Yahyaa ibn Ma’een was asked about him and said, “The like of Aboo Ma’mar is not to be questioned about. I knew him to write ahaadeeth when he was still a youth. He is reliable, sound.” 'Abdullaah ibn Ahmad ibn Hanbal said, “I heard Aboo Ma’mar, meaning al-Hudhalee, say, ‘The Qur’aan is the Speech of Allaah, it is not created. Whoever doubts that it is not created is a Jahmee, indeed worse than a Jahmee.” He died in the middle of Jumaadal-Oolaa, 236H.¹

Aboo Khaythamah, Zuhayr ibn Harb, al-Harashee, an-Nasaa‘ee, mawlaa of Banul-Hareesh - he was born in 160H.

Those he narrated from include:

Those who narrated from him include:

He was declared reliable by Ibn Ma'een, who said, “Aboo Khaythamah is sufficient for a whole tribe,” and an-Nasaa‘ee said, “Reliable, trustworthy.” Aboo 'Ubayd al-Aajurree said, “I said to Aboo Daawood, 'Is Aboo Khaythamah a proof concerning narrators?’ He said, 'How excellent his knowledge was.”

Zuhayr said, “I disputed with Muthanna, since Muthanna said that the Qur'aan was created, whereas I said, 'It is the Speech of Allaah.' So Wakee' said, and I was listening, 'It is kafir, whoever says that the Qur'aan is created, that is kufr ...’” (As-Sunnah of 'Abdullaah ibn Ahmad, no. 35). He died on the 7th of Sha’baan 234H.¹

Abū Ubayd, al-Qaasim ibn Sallaam ibn 'Abdullaah - he was born in 157H in Hiraat.

Those he narrated from include:

He took his recitation of the Qur’aan from:

Abul-Hasan al-Kisaa’ee, Ismaa’eeel ibn Ja’far and Shujaa’ ibn Abee Nasr al-Balkhee. And he learned language from Aboo 'Ubaydah, Aboo Zayd and others.

Those who narrated from him include:

Ad-Daaraqutnee said, “Reliable, an Imaam, a mountain.” Ibn Sa’d said, “Aboo 'Ubayd was a teacher and educator, a possessor of grammar and the language. He sought hadeeth and fiqh, and he had the post of judge in Tarsus in the days of Emir Thaabit ibn Nasr al-Khuzaa’ee, and that remained with him and his son. He came to Baghdad and explained all the difficult words found in the abaadeeth (ghareebul-hadeeth), and he compiled books, narrated abaadeeth, performed Hajj and died in Makkah in the year 224H.”

Aboo Sa’eed ibn Yoonus said in his Tareekh, “Aboo ’Ubayd came to Egypt along with Yahyaa ibn Ma’een in the year 213H and wrote down narrations.” Aboo ’Ubayd used to say, “I spent forty years compiling this book (i.e., Al-Ghareeb al-Musannaf). I would sometimes gain a point of benefit from the lips of men and place it in the book, and I would remain awake that night out of joy at that point of benefit. But one of you now comes to me, and stays here four months or five months, and says, ‘I have remained here for a long time.’”

At-Tabaraanee said, “I heard ’Abdullaah ibn Ahmad say, ‘I presented the book, Ghareebul-Hadeeth of Aboo ’Ubayd to my father, and he held it to be good, and said, ‘May Allaah reward him with good.’”

Ibn ’Ar’arah said, “(The Emir) Taahir ibn ’Abdullaah was in Baghdad and desired to hear Aboo ’Ubayd narrating, and he wanted Aboo ’Ubayd to come to his home and narrate there, but Aboo ’Ubayd did not do so. Rather it was the (Emir) who had to come to him. Then later ’Alee ibn al-Madeenee and ’Abbaas al-’Anbaree came and wanted to hear the book, Ghareebul-Hadeeth, so he used to carry his book every day and come to them in their homes and narrate to them.”

Aboo Bakr ibn al-Anbaaree said, “Aboo ’Ubayd, may Allaah have mercy on him, used to divide the night into three parts. He would pray for a third of the night, sleep for a third, and compile his books for a third.” ’Abdullaah ibn Abeel Muqaatil al-Balkhee, from Aboo ’Ubayd, “I entered Basrah to hear from Hammaad ibn Zayd, but when I arrived I found that he had died. So I complained of this to 'Abdur-Rahmaan ibn Mahdee, so he said, 'No matter what you have been beaten to, do not let anyone beat you to the Taqwaa of Allaah.'

'Alee ibn 'Abdul-'Azeez said, "I heard Aboo 'Ubayd say, 'The one who adheres to the Sunnah is like one grasping onto hot coals. It is in my view better this day than striking with the sword in Allaah's cause.'" Al-Hilaal ibn al-'Alaa ar-Raqqee said, "Allaah blessed this nation with four men in their time: with ash-Shaafi'ee who attained knowledge and understanding of the abaadeeth of Allaah's Messenger (ﷺ); and with Ahmad who stood firm in the trial - and but for that the people would have become Unbelievers; and with Yahyaa ibn Ma'een who repelled lies away from the hadeeth; and with Aboo 'Ubayd who explained the difficult words in the abaadeeth - and but for that the people would have fallen heedlessly into mistakes."

Ishaaq ibn Ibraheem al-Hanzalee said, "Aboo 'Ubayd has the most extensive knowledge and the best manners amongst us, and has gathered the most. We have need of him, and he does not need us." Ishaaq ibn Raahawahih said, "The truth is loved by Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic—Aboo 'Ubayd al-Qaasim ibn Sallaam has better understanding and more knowledge than me."

Ahmad ibn Kaamil al-Qaadee said, "Aboo 'Ubayd was excellent in his Religion and his knowledge. He was a wise educator (Rabbaanee). He was an expert in the different branches of knowledge in Islaam; with regard to the Qur'aan, Fiqh, the Arabic language and narrations. He was a fine narrator and reliable in transmission. I do not know anyone who has spoken against him in any of his affairs or his Religion."
Ibraaheem al-Harbee said, “Women will be unable to give birth to the like of three people whom I met: I saw Aboo ’Ubayd and I can think of no better example for him than that of a mountain into which life was breathed; and I saw Bishr ibn al-Haarith, and I can think of no better example for him than that of a man who has been crammed full of intellect from head to toe; and I saw Ahmad ibn Hanbal, and it was as if Allaah had gathered together for him the knowledge of all the previous people, so in every regard he could speak or withhold as he pleased.”

Ahmad ibn Hanbal said, “Aboo ’Ubayd is from those people who in our view get better and better every day.” 'Abbaas ad-Dooree said, “I heard Aboo ’Ubayd al-Qaasim ibn Sallaam, and he mentioned those narrations concerning seeing Allaah in the Hereafter, and that the Kursee (Foot-Stool) is the place of the two Feet, and that our Lord laughed, and ‘Where was our Lord ...’ So he said, ‘These are authentic abaadeeth, the companions of hadeeth have conveyed and transmitted them. They are, with us, true, and we do not have doubt about them. But if it is said, ‘How does He laugh?’ or ‘How did He place His Foot?’ Then we do not explain that, and we have not heard anyone explaining that.”

Aboo ’Amr ad-Daanee said, “He was the Imaam of his time in all branches of knowledge, reliable, trustworthy, a person of the Sunnah ...” He died in Makkah, in the year 224H.¹

Those who narrated from him include:

He narrated in Baghdad for some time, and his students became many, then he returned to Waasit and died there. 'Abdullaah ibn Ahmad reports that his father said, "He is correct in hadeeth, making few mistakes." Adh-Dhahabee said, "Ibn Ma’een declared him weak, but what is correct is that he was trustworthy, as said by Aboo Haatim."

Abul-Husayn ibn al-Munaadee said, "His gathering in Baghdad used to attract more than a hundred thousand people ..." 'Umar ibn Hafs as-Sadoossee said, "... and Haaroon who would read out aloud to the people what was dictated—he would climb the trunk of a crooked palm tree in order to dictate ..." Adh-Dhahabee said, "'Aasim رَجُمِهِ اللَّهُ نُعَالى was one of those who defended the Religion during the trial."
Muhammad ibn Suwayd at-Tahhaan narrated, “We were with 'Aasim ibn 'Alee, and along with us was Aboo 'Ubayd, and Ibraaheem ibn Abil-Layth and a group - and at that time Ahmad was lashed. So 'Aasim said, ‘Is there a man who will come with me, that we should speak to that man?’ So nobody responded, then Ibn Abil-Layth said, ‘I will come along with you, O Abul-Husayn.’ So he said, ‘O young boy, bring my shoes.’ So Ibn Abil-Layth said, ‘O Abul-Husayn, let me inform my daughters and leave instructions with them.’ So we thought that he went to prepare his shroud and funeral perfume. Then he returned and said, ‘I went to them and they wept.’ Then a letter came from the two daughters of 'Aasim, from Waasit, saying, ‘O our father, it has reached us that this man seized Ahmad ibn Hanbal and lashed him so that he should say that the Qur'aan is created. So fear Allah, and do not agree to it, for, by Allah, it would be more beloved to us to hear that you had died, than that we should hear that you had agreed to it.’” He died in Waasit, in Rajab 221H.¹

Wahb ibn Jareer said, “May Allaah reward Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih, Sadaqah ibn al-Fadl and Ya’mar with good for their service to Islaam, they gave life to the Sunnah in the East.” Muhammad ibn Yahyaa as-Saffaar said, “If al-Hasan al-Basree were alive he would have need of Ishaaq in many things.” Muhammad ibn ’Abdul-Wahhaab al-Farraa said, “May Allaah have mercy upon Ishaaq, none had better knowledge and understanding than him.”

’Abdullaah ibn Ubayy al-Khawaarizmee said, “I heard Ishaaq al-Hanzalee say, ‘Khuraasaaan brought out three who have no equal in innovation and falsehood, Jahm, ’Amr ibn Subaih, and Muqaatil.’”

Al-Haakim said, “Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih was the Imaam of his time in memorisation and Fatwaa. He settled in Neesaaboor and died there. It is said that he was in origin from Marw. He went out to ’Iraaq in the year 184H at the age of twenty three.”
Harb al-Karmaanee said, “I said to Ishaaq:

Have you not seen that Allaah knows whatsoever is in the Heavens and whatsoever is on the earth? There is no secret counsel of three, but He is their fourth, nor of five but He is their sixth, nor of less than that or more, but He is with them wheresoever they may be. And afterwards on the Day of Resurrection He will inform them of what they did. Verily, Allaah is the All-knower of everything.\(^1\)

‘What do you say about it?’ He said, ‘Wherever you are He is nearer to you than your jugular vein, and He is separate and apart from His creation, and the clearest thing in that regard is His Saying:

\[
الرَّحْمَنُ عَلَى الْمَرْجَى أَسْتَوَى
\]

The Most Merciful ascended above the Throne.”\(^2\)

\(^1\) Soorah al-Mujaadilah (58):7.
\(^2\) Soorah Taa-Haa (20):5.
Sulaymaan ibn Daawood al-Khaaffaaf said, “Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih said, ‘There is consensus (ijmaa’) of the scholars that He, the Most High, ascended upon the Throne, and He knows everything within the lowest depths of the seventh earth.”

Nu’aym ibn Hammaad said, “If you see a person of Khuraaasaaan speaking ill of Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih, then doubt his Religion.” Ahmad ibn Hanbal said, “No one the like of Ishaaq crossed the bridge into Khuraaasaaan, and even though he differed with us in some things, then the people will not cease having some disagreements.”

When Ishaaq died, Muhammad ibn Aslam at-Toosee said, “I do not know anyone who had more fear of Allaah than Ishaaq. Allaah, the Most High, says:

إِنَّمَا يَخْشَى اللَّهُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ الْعَلِيمُونَ

It is only those who have knowledge among His slaves that fear Allaah.¹

And he was the most knowledgeable of the people. If Sufyaan ath-Thawree had been alive, he would have needed Ishaaq.”

Ahmad ibn Sa’eed ar-Ribaatee said, “If ath-Thawree and the two Hammaaads were alive, they would have had need of Ishaaq in many things.” Aboo Muhammad ad-Daarimee said, “Ishaaq excelled the people of the east and west in his truthfulness and sincerity.”

Aboo Nu’aym al-Haafiz said, “Ishaaq was the companion of Ahmad, and gave full importance to the narrations, and destroyed the people of deviation.” Ahmad ibn Hanbal was asked about Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih and said, “The like of Ishaaq is asked about, Ishaaq is with us an Imaam.” He also said, “I do not know anyone in the world equal to Ishaaq.”

An-Nasaa’ee said, “Ibn Raahawaih is one of the Imaams, reliable, fully sound. I heard Ibn Dhuayb say, ‘I do not know anyone upon the face of the earth like Ishaaq.’” Ibn Khuzaimah said, “By Allaah, if Ishaaq had been amongst the Taabieen they would have acknowledged his memory, knowledge and understanding.” Ishaaq said, “I never heard anything except that I memorised it, and it is as if I can see before me seventy thousand hadeeth, or more, which are written in my manuscripts.”

Aboo Daawood al-Khaffaaf said, “I heard Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih say, ‘It is as if I am looking directly at the hundred thousand abaadeeth contained in my books, and thirty thousand which I can recite exactly in order.’ He said, ‘And Ishaaq dictated eleven thousand abaadeeth to us from memory. Then later he read them to us—and he did not add a single letter, nor delete a single letter.’” Ishaaq said, “I have never heard anything except that I memorised it, and I have never memorised anything and forgotten it.”

Ahmad ibn Salamah said, “I heard Aboo Haatim ar-Raazee say, ‘I mentioned the memory of Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih to Aboo Zur’ah, so Aboo Zur’ah said, ‘No one with better memory than Ishaaq has been seen.’ Then Aboo Haatim said, ‘And what is amazing is his precision, and freedom from making errors with the memorisation he has been granted.’ So I said to Aboo Haatim, ‘He dictates the Tafseer from memory.’ He said, ‘This is yet more amazing, since memorising the musnad chains is easier than precision regarding the chains and texts of Tafseer.’”

Qutaybah ibn Sa’eed said, “The great memorisers of Khuraasaan are: Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih, then ’Abdullaah ad-Daarimee, then Muhammad ibn Ismaa’eel (i.e., al-Bukhaaree).” ’Abdullaah ibn Ahmad Shabbooyah said, “I heard Ahmad ibn Hanbal say, ‘Ishaaq did not meet anyone like him.”

Aboo Haatim said concerning Ahmad and Ishaaq, “I do not know in any time or age the like of those two men.” Aboo Yahyaa ash-Sha’raanees said, “Ishaaq died in the year 238H, and he used to dye with henna. And I never saw a book in his hand, since he would narrate only from memory. And when I revised the knowledge with Ishaaq I found him to be a singular ocean. But when it came to worldly matters he had no opinion.”

Ahmad ibn Salamah said, “I heard Ishaaq al-Hanzalee say, ‘There is no difference between the people of knowledge that the Qur’aan is the Speech of Allaah and not created. How can something which proceeds from the Lord, the Mighty and Majestic, be created?!’” Aboo Daawood said, I heard Ibn Raahawaih say, “Whoever says, ‘I do not say that it is created, or that it is not created,’ is a jabmee.” It was related that one of the people of rhetoric said to Ishaaq, “I disbelieve in a Lord who descends from one Heaven to another.” So Ishaaq said, “I believe in a Lord who does whatever He wishes.”
Adh-Dhuhlee said, "I came together with Ishaaq ibn Ibraaheem, our companion, in the year 199H, and the leading scholars of hadeeth gathered together. Amongst them Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Yahyaa ibn Ma’een and others, and the gathering was headed by Ishaaq and he was the one who spoke."

Moosaa ibn Haaroon al-Hammaal said, "Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih dictated to us that eemaan is speech and action, it increases and decreases."

Ishaaq ibn Raahawaih said, "Allaah is the All-Hearing, with Hearing. The All-Seeing, with Sight. The All-Powerful, with Power."

He died in Sha’baan in the year 238 after the hijrah of the Prophet (سلاسل)

Imaam: an eminent scholar; a leader; a ruler.

Injeel: the scripture revealed to 'Eesaa عليه السلام.

Islaam: the Deen chosen by Allaah for all of mankind, being the only one acceptable to Him.¹

Jabaan: a desert area.

Jabaanah: a word that means the same as Jabaan.

Jahannam: one of the names of Hell.

Jahmee: one who follows the ideas of Jahm ibn Safwaan, who propagated the belief that Allaah’s Names and Attributes are not real, and so their most apparent meanings need to be twisted and changed and denied. The Salaf never had these beliefs and refuted Jahm and his followers.²

Jannah: one of the names of Paradise; Heaven; garden.

Jinn: another creation of Allaah, which will be judged for their deeds, and who are ordered to worship Him. They are created from smokeless fire.

Kalaam: rhetorical speech involving intellectual discussion concerning the Deen, but not upon any correct Islamic principles.

Kalimah: the title given to 'Eesaa عليه السلام, denoting that he was created by the Word of Allaah “Be” [i.e. the command of the verb “to be, to exist”]; a word.

Khaleefah: the legitimate leader of the Islamic State; successor.

Khaleel: the title given to Ibraaheem عليه السلام and Muhammad (安宁), who were chosen by Allaah to be His close friends; a close friend.

139
Kunyaa: a title, denoting the relationship with respect to one’s children. For example, the Kunyaa Aboo ’Abdullaah, denotes that Ahmad was the father of ’Abdullaah.

Manhaj: the correct methodology in understanding and applying the Deen. (One simple example of this is that we look at all the Islamic proofs in determining a ruling, and we do not look at some proofs out of context); methodology; programme.

Marfoo’: a narration quoted as being an action or statement of the Prophet (ﷺ). ¹

Matrook: a narrator who has been abandoned by the Scholars of Hadeeth such that they do not accept the narrations he relates, as he is accused and suspected of lying. ²

Mawlaa: a slave; a slave of a tribe or person, who was freed, and so he adopts the name of that tribe or person; lord and master. ³

Mu’dal: a narration where the chain of transmission has two continuous links missing. ⁴

Muhsin: a person who practises Ibaan.

Mu‘min: a person who has Eemaan.

Mu‘minoona: plural of Mu‘min.

Munaafiq: a hypocrite; someone who outwardly holds to Islaam, but inwardly rejects and denies it.

Munkar: evil; wrong; a hadeeth which is weak and contradicts more authentic hadeeths, a narrator who transmits such hadeeths.

Mustafaa: the title given to Muhammad (SAW), being Allaah’s chosen one.

Mutashaabih: the part of the Qur’aan, which has a meaning that can not be directly derived from the wording. It is of two types:

i Where the meaning can be known by referring to a muhkam aayah, or ii Where knowing the reality and full details is impossible, — hence the one who follows this type simply desires fitnah.

Nameemah: spreading what people have said, in order to spread evil and corruption.

Naseehah: refer to the Author’s Introduction.

Qiyaam: refer to the Advice of ‘Umar concerning Judging Between the People and Giving Rulings, p. 63.

Our Call

1 Judging according to the Noble Qur’aan and the Authentic and Purified Sunnah in every affair of life.

2 Every issue of aqeedah (creed), ibaadah (worship) or manhaj (methodology) which the Book of Allaah and the Sunnah has not provided a text for and upon which the Companions never agreed is falsehood, vain and innovated.

3 Affirming what is established in the Book and the authentic Sunnah in every issue of the issues of aqeedah and not resorting to ta’weel (figurative interpolation) with respect to any of it and not delving into argumentation regarding it in that for which there is no place for the intellect.

4 Not arguing with the People of Innovations and Desires, or sitting with them, listening to their words or presenting any of their doubts (to others).

5 The Prophetic manhaj which is found in the Qur’aan, the Sabeel of Bukhaaree and Muslim and the remaining books of the Sunnah and the sayings and actions of the Salafus-Saalih, not the various new and pretentious methodologies.

6 Acquainting the Muslims with their true religion and calling them to act in accordance with its teachings and rulings and to adorn themselves with its excellencies and its noble manners, which will guarantee for them the pleasure of Allaah and which will bring into reality both happiness and glory.

7 Warning the Muslims from shirk in all its different manifestations, and warning them from innovations, all strange and false thoughts and rejected and fabricated hadeeth, all of which have mutilated the beauty of Islaam and have prevented the advancement and progress of the Muslims.

8 Eagerness for bringing about the Jama’ah of the Muslims and uniting their word upon the truth and in the truth. And the multiplicity of contemporary groups and parties have divided the Muslims and have mutilated the beauty of Islaam.
9 It is a duty upon every Muslim, Muwakkil, to restore and offer the rights that the Sharee'ah has upon him with respect to the Scholars, the Senior Shaikhs—to respect them, honour them, give them their due recognition and estimation, taking knowledge from them, refraining from attacking them and their intentions. So do not be a helper to the criminals by abandoning the Scholars of the Sunnah, and (so) by this action of yours, make people flee from them, from their lectures and gatherings and forsake them, leaving them as booty for the Du'aat (callers) of political agitation and incitement or leave them neglected as prey for the various parties and groups.

10 Getting closer to Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, by giving obedience to whomever Allaah has placed over our affair and not to rebel against him.

11 Following the truth, absolutely and unconditionally in both narration (riwaayah) and opinion (ra'i) without specifying a specific person or group besides the Messenger (saww) as someone to be followed in all circumstances.

12 We love every Muslim to the extent of what he possesses of obedience, following (of the Sunnah) and we hate him to the extent of what he possesses of disobedience and opposition (to the Sunnah). And we love the one who aids the Sunnah and its people and we hate the one who helps Innovation and its people.

13 We love the Companions of the Messenger of Allaah (saww) and we detest everyone who speaks ill about them. And when you see a man speaking bad about a single one of the Companions of Allaah's Messenger (saww), then know that he is a Zindeeq (heretic).

14 We believe that the Qur'aan is the Speech of Allaah, it is not created and we do not declare anyone from the people of the qiblah to be a disbeliever on account of a sin that he committed, so long as he does not declare it to be permissible.

15 We reject those who divide the religion into two categories (i.e.,) trivial and important matters, and we know that this is a destructive call. We reject those who desert the knowledge of the Sunnah, acting by it and separating what is authentic from what is inauthentic.
16 Tasfiyyah (purification of the religion in terms of 'aqeedah and 'ibaadah) and Tarbiyyah (nurturing and cultivation upon the pure religion) upon the Straight Prophetic Methodology and the guiding understanding of the Salaf.

17 Refuting every opposer [to the Sunnah] regardless of the methodology he ascribes to, his status or the level of his error. Using the principles of Islaam [and taking into consideration the one being refuted] to explain the error regardless of whether it occurred deliberately or by mistake, so that this noble religion retains its purity and innocence and so that the people can drink from it, certain of its sweet taste.

18 Speaking the truth, not fearing the censure of those who blame and rebuke, holding onto the Sunnah with the molar teeth amidst all the controversies and differences—until the affair of Allaah is established.
