Introduction

Born in the year 1115H/1703AD in ‘Uyaynah, approximately seventy kilometres to the north of Riyāḍ, Muḥammad ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb ibn Sulaymān ibn ‘Alī ibn Muḥammad ibn Aḥmad ibn Rāshid al-Tamīmī was to commence a da‘wah that would spread throughout the Muslim world, he was to commence a revival which was to be the cause of millions of Muslims questioning, and ultimately rejecting, many practises and superstitious beliefs held by their peers and predecessors. It was a call to take the Muslims back to the pristine Islām of the early Muslims.¹

Sulaymān ibn ‘Alī, a judge and perhaps the most senior scholar in Najd of his time, and the grandfather of ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb, had a dream in which he saw a light emanating from his belly and engulfing the whole desert. At that time, the dream was interpreted to mean that one of his descendants would be a great leader, guiding people and laying the foundations of a large kingdom. The dream was thought to be fulfilled in his grandson.²

Ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb’s family was famous and known for its religious scholars and piety: his father was a judge, his uncle, Ibrāhīm, was a well known scholar, and his elder brother, Sulaymān, an advanced student of knowledge, later to become a scholar in his own right. It was at the hands of his father that ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb memorised the Qur’an, completing it before the age of ten, and under whom he studied Ḥanbalī jurisprudence, Qur’ānic exegesis and hadīth. He developed a love of reading and studying and would make frequent use of both his father’s and grandfather’s libraries. As a young man, he came to love the Qur’an and spent much of his time studying exegesis and its related sciences. His father, astonished at his son’s progress, remarked how he himself had benefited from his son in some issues of jurisprudence.³ From a young age, ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb became known for his devoutness, his intelligence and excellent memory, and his proficiency in debating. He was generous and well-mannered, treating his guests with honour and respect, and would live a simple, austere life. He reached puberty before the age of twelve and his father contracted his marriage when he was twelve years old.

Soon after marriage, he sought permission from his father to perform the pilgrimage, and after receiving it, departed for Mecca, staying there for a few months.

As a young man, and more so in his later life, he was exposed to the writings of ibn Taymiyyah and ibn al-Qayyim and studied them extensively, personally transcribing many of ibn Taymiyyah’s books.

Later in his life, probably around the age of twenty, he went to perform the pilgrimage again, this time staying in Mecca for a short time to study under the scholars there; among them: ‘Abdullāh ibn Sālim al-Shāfi‘ī. From there he travelled to Mādīnāh and studied with some of the scholars residing there; one of these was the Ḥanbalī jurist and scholar of ḥadīth, ‘Abdullāh ibn Ibrāhīm ibn Sayf from whom he attained a scholarly license in the books of ḥadīth. Another was the Ḥanafī jurist and scholar of ḥadīth, Muḥammad Ḥayāt al-Sindī. It was these two scholars who made a lasting impression on the author and set him on his path. His great grandson, ‘Abdu’l-Laṭīf ibn ‘Abdu’l-Rahmān was later to observe that it was this latter scholar, well known for repudiating innovations and pagan practises, who had the greatest influence in shaping the views of the young ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb concerning Islamic monotheism, popular religious practises concerning saints and their tombs, and bigoted, blind following, taqlīd. Other scholars he studied under were ‘Alī Afandī, Ismā‘īl al-‘Ijlūnī and ‘Abdu’l-Laṭīf al-Aḥsā‘ī.

After returning to ‘Uyaynah and after a brief sojourn of a year, the author set out again in pursuit of knowledge, this time heading for Baṣrāh. There he stayed for four years studying with some of the scholars there, amongst whom was Muḥammad al-Majmū‘ī under whom he studied morphology, syntax, lexicology and ḥadīth, and Shihāb al-Dīn al-Mawsīlī, the judge. Baṣrāh was home to a large Shia population and it was here that ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb was exposed to their practises and publicly began to object to innovation and pagan beliefs. His open challenge to the status quo of the day led to his eventual expulsion from Basra with sources stating that he was forced to leave in the extreme heat of the noon, barefooted.

From Basra he went to al-Ahsa' and studied there for a time under 'Abdulläh ibn 'Abdu'l-Latif al-Shafi'i with whom he had involved discussions concerning Ash'arite creed. He also studied under Muhammad ibn Asfaliq and 'Abdulläh ibn Fairoz al-Kafif, the former would later become his antagonist and the latter encouraged him to further his studies of ibn Taymiyyah's works. From there, around the year 1144H, running low on money, he went to Huraymla, the town where his father had, by then, moved to. It is claimed that ibn 'Abdu'l-Wahhab also travelled to Baghdad and Damascus and studied there, but these accounts are uncorroborated.

It was at Huraymla that Muhammad ibn 'Abdu'l-Wahhab began his public call to Tawhid and his repudiation of the innovation and shirk that he saw entrenched in the society around him. He commenced teaching and delivered lectures on hadith, jurisprudence and Qur'anic exegesis in the masjid. Opposition to his call grew and eventually he was forced to leave Huraymla and returned to the town of his birth, Uyaynah in the year 1153H, the year his father passed away. The ruler of Uyaynah at that time was one 'Uthman ibn Hamad ibn Mu'ammar who very quickly accepted the author's call and announced his support of him, even marrying him to one of his close relatives, al-Jawharah bint 'Abdulläh ibn Mu'ammar.

It was from here that Muhammad ibn 'Abdu'l-Wahhab continued his call in earnest and tried to create a true Islāmic society judging by the law of Allāh, the Shari'ah was to be implemented in every sphere of life. He quickly became known for his justice and impartiality in judging by Allāh’s law, and hence the desire to live by the Shari'ah penetrated the hearts of people to the extent that a woman came forward to admit her crime of adultery, wanting to be stoned to death. After Muḥammad had ascertained that the necessary conditions were met, he had her stoned to death, then ordered that she be washed and the funeral prayer conducted for her. This proved to be a highly controversial act amongst many of his contemporaries who argued that he did not have the necessary authority to carry it out, an accusation which he emphatically defended. During his stay in ‘Uyaynah, he undertook two very public actions graphically demonstrating his call and causing a wide spectrum of reactions, ranging from outright anger to admiration. The first concerned a group of trees that the people of ‘Uyaynah considered to have quasi-magical powers and on which they would hang various artefacts to procure blessings. Ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb had the groove of trees cut down. The second act involved the monument built over a grave thought to be that of ‘Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb’s son, Zayd ibn al-Khaṭṭāb, this he levelled to the ground with his own hands surrounded by a guard of six hundred men.

With his popularity on the increase, his opponents intensified their opposition and efforts to curb his call, ultimately leading to the Amīr of al-Aḥsā’, Sulaymān ibn Muḥammad, writing a threatening letter to ‘Uthmān ibn Ḥamad ordering him to kill or expel ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb. ‘Uthmān, not wanting to kill him, asked him to leave ‘Uyaynah explaining that he did not have the strength to stand against Amīr Sulaymān. So, in the year 1158H, five years after returning to ‘Uyaynah, Muḥammad ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb left for al-Dir'iyah, a town located on the north-western outskirts of Riyād.

At Dir'iyah he quickly found followers in the two brothers of Amir Muḥammad ibn Sa‘ūd, Thunayān and Mashārī, and through them he gained the support of the Amīr himself. An alliance was formed that was to form the foundations from which the call of Muḥammad ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb spread. Students flocked to him and studied under him, and he continued a habit started years earlier of writing letters and short essays to scholars and leaders of his land clarifying various aspects of Islām, repudiating innovations and defending himself against numerous accusations and fables that were circulated against him. Some received these correspondences favourably, others did not.

Ibn Sa‘ūd and his heirs would spend more than a century mounting various expeditions to seize control of Arabia and its outlying regions. They quickly established the first Saudi State and in 1802 captured the cities of Mecca and Medina which then mobilised the Ottoman Empire against them. The first Saudi State came to an end in 1818 when Dir'iyah surrendered to Ottoman forces. The clan of Sa‘ūd, however, and the descendants of ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb lived on and a second Saudi State was later established that lasted until 1891, and finally the whole of the modern day Kingdom of Saudi Arabia was established in 1932. While true that ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb was involved in some, but not all, of the initial campaigns, the extent of his involvement is the subject of some controversy.

Another subject of controversy was that he was also involved, on occasion, in armed conflict against his opponents. This he himself justified to be defensive in nature, ‘We have not fought anyone to this day save in defense of life and honour. We have fought against those who have come against us in our land and refuse to leave us alone.\textsuperscript{5} One time, after listing some idolatrous practises, ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb penned,

These are the matters that have led to conflict between us and the people. They went to the length of declaring us unbelievers, they fought us and they declared our blood and wealth lawful for them, but Allāh supported us and gave us victory over them. It is Tawhīd that we call them to and fight them over, yet only after establishing the proof against them from the Book of Allāh, the Sunnah of His Messenger, and the consensus of the Imāms of the righteous Salaf, thereby implementing His words, "Fight them until there is no more fitna and the religion is Allāh’s alone."\textsuperscript{6,7}

Ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb was once asked to clarify his call and what he followed to which he responded,

As for our religion, it is Islām about which Allāh says, "If anyone desires anything other than Islām as a religion, it will not be accepted from him."\textsuperscript{8}

As for what we call people to, we call them to Tawhīd, about which Allāh said, addressing His Prophet (ﷺ),

"Say, 'This is my way. I call to Allah upon sure knowledge, I and all who follow me. Glory be to Allah! I am not one of the polytheists'!” He also said, “All masjids belong to Allah so do not call on anyone else besides Allah.”

As for what we prevent people from, we prohibit them from shirk about which Allah says, “If anyone associates anything with Allah, Allah has forbidden him the Garden and his refuge will be the Fire.” He, Most High, addressed His Prophet (ﷺ) with the words, “It has been revealed to you and those before you: ‘If you associate others with Allah, your actions will come to nothing and you will be among the losers.’ No! Worship Allah and be among the thankful.” The address here is stringent even though he and his brothers are completely innocent of shirk.

We fight people who commit shirk as Allah, Most High, says, “Fight them until there is no more fitna...” i.e. shirk, “...and the religion is Allah’s alone.” and, “Kill the polytheists wherever you find them, seize them, besiege them and lie in wait for them on every road. If they repent and establish the prayer and pay the zakāt, let them go on their way.” The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “I have been ordered to fight the people until they testify that none has the right to be

As for what you mention concerning the issue of independent juristic reasoning, ʾijtihād, we are followers of the Book, the Sunnah, the righteous Salaf of this nation, and what is supported of the opinions of the Four Imāms: Abū Ḥanīfah al-Nuʿmān ibn Thābit, Mālik ibn Anas, Muḥammad ibn Idrīs al-Shāfiʿī, and Ahmad ibn Ḥanbal, may Allāh have mercy on them all...

We have come with nothing that opposes revealed texts or is rejected by the [sound] intellect. They say what they do not do whereas we do what we say, “it is deeply abhorrent to Allāh that you should say what you do not do.”

We fight those who worship idols just as he (ﷺ) fought them. We fight them if they abandon the prayer or refuse to give the zakāt just as the Ṣiddiq of this nation, Abū Bakr al-Ṣiddiq (rāḍiyyAllāhu ʿanhu) fought those who refused to give it.

Introduction

With respect to his call, he was repeatedly asked about the issue of takfir, or declaring a Muslim to be a disbeliever. His reply: “We only rule to be disbelievers those who associate partners with Allāh in His divinity, and that only after the evidence against his acts has become clear to him.”18 False accusations against him in this regard were widely circulated. He once wrote,

Allāh knows that the man has lied against me, claiming I said things that are patently false, most of which have not even crossed my mind! He asserts that I have said that the Muslims, for the last six hundred years, have been on nothing, that I rule anyone who makes tawassul with the righteous a disbeliever, that I declare Būṣayrī a disbeliever, and that I declare anyone who swears by another besides Allāh a disbeliever. My response to all these claims is: Glory be to Allāh, this is an odious lie!19

Another time he said,

My opponents claim that I declare people to be disbelievers on grounds of mere suspicion, that I declare to be disbelievers all who oppose me, and that I

In Majmū‘ al-Rasā'il wa'l-Masā'il, vol. 1, pg. 47, his son, 'Abdullāh ibn Muhammad ibn 'Abdu'l-Wahhāb said, “The author of the Burdah, and those like him in whose words shirk and extremism are found and have passed away are not ruled to be disbelievers. What is obligatory is to repudiate their words and to explain that whoever believes these words in their ostensive sense is a disbeliever and a polytheist. As for the person who originally said them, his affair lies with Allāh, Glorious and Most High. It is far from desirable to accuse the dead because one does not know if they repented or not...”
declare the ignoramus upon whom the evidence has not been established a disbeliever. These are all odious lies by which they mean to make people averse to the religion of Allāh and His Messenger.²⁰

He furnished clear evidence of this by stating,

If we do not declare a disbeliever the one who worships the idol over the grave of ‘Abdu’l-Qādir, or the idol over the grave of Aḥmad al-Badawī and the like due to their ignorance and not having the truth explained to them, how could we then declare as disbeliever the one who does not associate partners with Allāh or who does not migrate to us?²¹

When questioned about his creed, he composed the following monograph which ostensibly would seem to be an abridgement of Ibn Taymiyyah’s al-‘Aqīdah al-Wāsitiyyah:

I call Allāh, those Angels with me and yourselves to witness that I have the creed of the Saved Group: Ablu’l-Sunnah wa’l-Jamā’ah which is to have faith in Allāh, His Angels, His Books and His Messengers, the Resurrection after death, and the divine decree - the good thereof and the bad.

Part of faith in Allāh is to believe in what He has described Himself with in His Book and upon the tongue of His Messenger (ﷺ) without distortion or denial. I believe that there is “nothing is like Him and He is the All-Hearing, the All-Seeing." I do not negate what He has described Himself with, I do not distort words from their proper places, and I do not desecrate His Names and Signs. I do not imagine a 'how' to the Attributes of Allāh and I do not liken them to the attributes of His creation. This is because He has no namesake; there is none who is comparable to Him and none who is equal to Him. He is not to be compared to His creation because He best knows Himself and others; He is more truthful in speech and better in discourse. He says, "Glorified be your Lord, the Lord of Might, beyond anything they describe. Peace be upon the Messengers and praise be to Allāh, the Lord of the worlds." Here, He absolved Himself of what the opponents described Him with: those who liken Allāh to His creation and imagined the 'how,' and of what the negators: those who distort and deny, negate from Him.

The Saved Group takes a middle path when compared to (the extremes found amongst) the various Desecrating Allāh's Names occurs in a number of ways: 1) To name idols after the Names of Allāh such as al-Lāt, derived from al-Ilāhiyyah, or al-'Uzzah, derived from al-'Azīz. 2) Calling Allāh names that are unbefitting such as the Christians calling Him father 3) Describing Him with things that He is far removed from such as the Jews asserting that He is poor 4) Divesting the Names of Allāh of their meanings and to deny their realities 5) Likening the Attributes of Allāh to those of His creation.

sects of this nation. With regards the deeds of Allāh, they traverse a middle path between (the extremes of) the Jabariyyah and the Qadariyyah. With regards the threat of Allāh, they traverse a middle path between (the extremes of) the Murji’ah and the Wa‘idiyyah. With regards to faith and religion, they traverse a middle path between (the extremes of) the Ḥurūriyyah and Mu‘tazilah on the one hand, and the Murji’ah and the Jahmiyyah on the other. And with regards the Companions of the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ), they traverse a middle path between (the extremes of) the Ṣafīda and the Khawārij.

I believe that the Qur‘ān is Allāh’s speech, it is revealed (by Him) and is not created. From Him it came and to Him shall it return. Allāh spoke it literally; He revealed it to Muḥammad (ﷺ), His Messenger, the one entrusted with His revelation, and the mediator between Him and His servants.

I believe that Allāh does what He wills, nothing occurs in His dominion unless it is by His will and nothing falls outside of it. Everything in creation is bound to His decree and nothing happens that He has not determined. None can escape His decree and none can go beyond what has been recorded in the Inscribed Tablet.

I believe in everything that the Prophet (ﷺ) informed us of that will happen after death. I believe in the trial of the grave and its bliss. I believe that the souls will be returned to their bodies and man will stand before the Lord of the worlds, naked, barefooted and uncircumcised. The sun will draw close to them, the Scales will be erected and the deeds of man will be weighed,
Introduction

"Those whose scales are heavy, they are the successful. Those whose scales are light, they are the losers of their selves, remaining in Hell timelessly, forever."

The accounts, i.e. the records of deeds, will be unfolded. Some will take theirs with their right hands and others with their left.

I believe in the Prophet’s Pond which is on the great plain of the Rising. Its water is whiter than milk and sweeter than honey, and its goblets are as numerous as the stars of the heaven. Whoever drinks from it even once will never be thirsty again.

I believe that the Bridge spans the back of Hell and that people will cross it (at speeds) proportional to their deeds.

I believe in the intercession of the Prophet (ﷺ). He will be the first to intercede and the first to have his intercession accepted. Only the innovator or the misguided reject the intercession. However, it will only occur after Allah’s permission is granted for those He is pleased with. Allah, Most High, says, "They only intercede on behalf of those with whom He is pleased."

"Who can intercede with Him except by His permission?"

"And how many angels are there in the heavens whose intercession is of no benefit at all until Allah has authorised those He wills and is pleased with them!"

He only authorises those who lived by it. The polytheists, on the other hand, have no share in the intercession: "The intercession of the interceders will not help them."³⁰

I believe that Paradise and Hell have already been created, they are present right now and they will never perish. On the Day of Rising, the believers will see their Lord with their own eyes just as they can see the moon when it is full, without experiencing any difficulty in seeing Him.

I believe that our Prophet, Muḥammad (ﷺ), is the seal of the Prophets and Messengers. The faith of a person cannot be valid until he believes in his message and testifies to his prophethood.

I believe that the best of his nation is Abū Bakr al-Ṣiddiq, then ‘Umar al-Fārūq, then ‘Uthmān Dhūl-Nūrayn, then ‘Alī al-Murtada, then the remaining Ten,³¹ then the people of Badr, then those who gave the Pledge of Allegiance under the tree, and then the rest of the Companions. I am loyal to the Companions of the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ), I mention their virtues and excellent qualities, I ask that Allāh be well-pleased with them, and I request forgiveness for them. I refrain from mentioning their mistakes and I remain silent about the disputes that arose between them. I believe in their excellence, in keeping with His saying, "Those who have come after them say, 'Our Lord, forgive us and our brothers who preceded us in faith and do not put any rancour in our hearts towards those who have faith. Our Lord, You are All-Gentle, Most Merciful.'" I ask that Allah be well-pleased with the mothers of the believers who have been purified of all evil.

³¹ Abū Dāwūd #4649-4650 and Tirmidhī #3757 on the authority of Sa’d ibn Zayd that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, "Ten are in Paradise: Abū Bakr is in Paradise, ‘Umar is in Paradise, ‘Uthmān is in Paradise, ‘Alī is in Paradise, Ṭaḥāh is in Paradise, Zubayr ibn al-‘Awām is in Paradise, Sa’d ibn Mālik is in Paradise, ‘Abdu’l-Rahmān ibn ‘Awf is in Paradise." Sa’īd ibn Zayd then said, ‘If you wish I will name you the tenth,’ they said, ‘Who is he?’ He paused and they asked again so he said, ‘He is Sa’d ibn Zayd.’

Tirmidhī said it was ḥasan and it was ruled ṣaḥīh by ibn Hibbān #6993-6996.

I accept the miracles of the Awliya' and the spiritual unveilings granted them. This does not, however, mean that they warrant anything that is due to Allah alone, one can not go to them and ask them for something that only Allah can do.

I do not testify that any of the Muslims will be in Paradise or in the Fire except for those whom the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) has testified to. I do, however, hope for the best for the person who does good and fear for the person who works evil. I do not declare any Muslim to be a disbeliever because of a 33 Awliya', plural of wali. Ibn Taymiyyah, al-Furqan, says, 'al-Walayab, or loyalty, is the opposite of al-adalwa, or enmity. The essential meaning of al-walayab is love and closeness whereas the essential meaning al-adalwa is hatred and distance. It is also postulated that the wali is called so because of his muwalah, or persistence and regularity in performing actions of obedience, meaning by this his following up [good actions] with more [good actions]. The first analysis is more correct.' He says before this, 'The Awliya' of Allah are the pious, God-fearing believers. Allah, Most High, says, "Yes, the friends of Allah will feel no fear and will know no sorrow: those who have faith and are mindful of Allah." sin and I do not eject him from the circle of Islām. I believe that Jihād is to be performed with every Imām, be he pious or sinful. Praying in congregation behind them is permissible and Jihād will remain in force from the time that Muḥammad (ﷺ) was sent to the time that the last of this nation will fight the Dajjāl. Neither the oppression nor justice of a person can render it null and void.

I am of the view that hearing and obeying the righteous or sinful Imāms of the Muslims is obligatory so long as they do not enjoin a person to disobey Allāh. Whoever is given the position of Khalīfah with the people accepting him and supporting him, or he forcefully imposes himself on them such that he becomes the Khalīfah, it becomes obligatory to obey him and prohibited to revolt against him.

I am of the view that the innovators should be boycotted and ostracised until they repent. I judge by what is apparent in them and I relegate what is inside them to Allāh. I believe that every newly invented matter in the religion is an innovation.

I believe that faith is statement of the tongue, action of the limbs and belief of the heart. It increases with obedience and decreases with disobedience. It consists of seventy odd branches, the highest of which is the testimony that none has the right to be worshipped save Allāh, and the lowest of which is removing something harmful from the road.

I am of the view that it is obligatory to enjoin the good and prohibit the evil as determined by the pure Legal Law of Muḥammad (ﷺ).
Introduction

This a brief summary of my creed which I have composed even though I have other concerns on my mind so that you may know what my view is. Allāh is Guardian over what we say.\textsuperscript{34}

After a life full of preaching and struggle, ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb withdrew from public life in his final years, devoting them instead to teaching and study, and passed away in the year 1206H/1792AD at Dir‘iyyah.

Works:

Two famous anthologies are available which gather the writings of ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb and his followers: \textit{Majmū‘ al-Rasā’il wa’l-Masā’il al-Najdiyyah} in five volumes and \textit{al-Durar al-Saniyyah fi’l-Awjiba al-Najdiyyah} in eleven volumes. A project to collate the various writings of ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb was commissioned by Muḥammad ibn Sa‘ūd University resulting in a thirteen volume compendium, \textit{Mw‘allafa‘t al-Shaykh al-Imām Muḥammad ibn ‘Abdu’l-Wahhāb}. Some of his stand alone works are listed below:

Characteristics of the
Time of Ignorance

Masā’il al-Jāhiliyyah allatī Khālafa
fīhā Rasūlullāh
Abla’l-Jāhiliyyah
With the Name of Allāh, the All-Merciful, the Most Merciful

These are characteristics which were current amongst the people of the Time of Ignorance:1 the People of the Book and those who have no Book2 and were opposed by the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ). Every Muslim must be aware of them for,

Opposites elicit the beauty of a thing
Through opposites are matters clarified

The most important of these aspects, and the most dangerous, is the heart being devoid of faith in that which the Messenger (ﷺ) brought. If one adds to this approval (of the beliefs and practices) of the people of the Time of Ignorance, total ruin results. It is in this respect that Allah, Most High, says,

وَالَّذِينَ مَاتُوا

يَبْنِيُوْلَيْليُ وَسَكَمُوْا بِآيَاتِيْنِ أَوْ لَيْكُمْ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ

“And those who believe in falsehood and disbelieve in Allah, they, it is they who are the losers.”

1. When supplicating to Allah and worshipping Him, in practise, they would associate the righteous in that worship. Their goal was to have them intercede on their behalf with Allah labouring under the assumption that this was something that Allah and the righteous loved. Allah, Most High, says,

وَيَعْبُدُونَ عَمَنْ دُوِّبَ مِنْ دُونِ إِيْلَهَةٍ مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ عَدْلٍ

وَلَا يُنقِعُهُمْ وَلَا يَغْفِرُ لَهُمْ هُدْيَةً وَقُلُوبُهُمْ شَفَعَتُونَ عَنْهُ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ

“They worship, instead of Allah, what can neither harm them nor help them, saying, ‘These are our intercessors with Allah.”

3 al-Ankabūt (29): 52

4 Yūnus (10): 18
“Those who take protectors besides Him - ‘We only worship them so that they may bring us nearer to Allāh’ - Allāh will judge between them regarding the things about which they differed.”

This is the greatest matter that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) opposed them in for (his call) was to sincerity,⁶ and he told us that this was the religion of Allāh which He sent all the Messengers with.⁷ He told us that He only accepts that deed which is sincere, solely performed for Him,⁸ and he informed us that who-

⁵ al-Zumar (39): 3

⁶ Allāh, Most High, says, “Say, ‘I am commanded to worship Allāh, making my religion sincerely His. And I am commanded to be the first of the Muslims.’” [al-Zumar (39): 11-12], “Say, ‘It is Allāh I worship, making my religion sincerely His, so worship anything you will apart from Him!’ Say, ‘The real losers are those who lose themselves and their families on the Day of Rising.’ Is that not the clear loss?” [al-Zumar (39): 14-15], “They were only ordered to worship Allāh, making their religion sincerely His as people of pure natural belief…” [al-Bayyinah (98): 5]

⁷ Allāh, Most High, says, “We sent a Messenger among every people saying: ‘Worship Allāh and avoid all that is worshipped besides Him.’ Among them were some whom Allāh guided but others received the misguidance they deserved. Travel about the earth and see the final fate of the deniers.” [al-Nahl (16): 36]

⁸ Allāh, Most High, says, “So let him who hopes to meet his Lord act rightly and not associate anyone in the worship of his Lord.” [al-Kāfūr (18): 110]
ever did what they deemed to be fine and good, “Allah has forbidden him the Garden and his refuge will be the Fire.”

It was this issue that divided people into the Muslim and the disbeliever, and it was because of it that enmity arose and Jihad was legislated. Allah, Most High, says,

\text{وَقَلَّلُوهُمْ حَتِّى}

\text{لَا تَكُونُ فِتْنَةً وَيَصْبُحُونَ أَلَدَيْنَ سَلَّمَانَ للهُ}

“Fight them until there is no more tribulation and the religion is Allah’s alone.”

2. In their religion they are divided and split. Allah, Most High, says,

Muslim records on the authority of Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, “Allah says, ‘I am One who stands in no need of shirk. Whoever does an action in which he associates others with Me, I would abandon him and his shirk.”

Ibn Majah #4202 has the hadith, “Allah, Mighty and Magnificent says, ‘I am the One who stands in absolutely no need of shirk, whoever does a deed for Me in which he associates someone else then I am free of it and it is for the partner.” Būṣayrī said that the isnād was ṣaḥīh.

9 al-Ma‘īdah (5): 72

Allah, Most High, says, “You have an excellent example in Ibrāhīm and those with him when they said to their people, ‘We wash our hands of you and all that you worship apart from Allah, and we reject you. Between us and you there will be enmity and hatred forever unless and until you have faith in Allah alone.” [al-Muntahanah (58): 4]

11 al-Anfāl (8): 39
"...those who split up their religion and form into sects, each faction exulting in what they have."\textsuperscript{12}

The same applies to their worldly life, and they think that this is the correct state of affairs. (His call), on the other hand, was to unity in the religion,

"He has laid down the same religion for you as He enjoined on Nūḥ: that which We have revealed to you and which We enjoined on Ibrāhīm, Mūsā and 'Īsā: ‘Establish your religion and do not make divisions in it.’"\textsuperscript{13}

"As for those who divide up their religion and form into sects, you have nothing whatsoever to do with them."\textsuperscript{14}

\textsuperscript{12} \textit{al-Rūm} (30): 32

\textsuperscript{13} \textit{al-Shūrā} (42): 13

He prohibited us from imitating them,

وَلَا

تَكُونُوا كَالَّذينَ تَفَرَّقُوا وَخَلَفُوا مِن بَعْدِ مَا آتَاهُمُ الْيَلِينَةُ

"Do not be like those who split up and differed after the Clear Signs came to them."

He prohibited us from splitting in worldly affairs as well,

وَأَعْتَصِمُوا بِحْبَلِ اللَّهِ جَمِيعًا وَلَا تَفَرَّقُوا

"Hold fast to the rope of Allāh and do not separate."

3. Opposing the leader and not submitting to his rule was regarded to be a noble quality. Hearing and obeying was seen to be demeaning and degrading. The Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) opposed them and ordered that any oppression from leaders should be born with patience, he or-

15 Ālī 'Imrān (3): 105

16 Ālī 'Imrān (3): 103

17 Muslim #1846 records that Salamah ibn Yazīd asked the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ), 'Prophet of Allāh, what should we do if leaders are appointed over us who demand their rights from us but do not give us our rights?' He turned away from him, so he asked him again. Again he turned away and he repeated the question two or three times, then he replied, "Hear and obey. They will bear the responsibility of what they do and you will bear the responsibility of what you do."

Muslim #1849 records on the authority of ibn 'Abbās (radīy Allāhu 'anhumā) that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, "Whoever sees something from his leader that he dislikes should be patient for whoever splits from the Jamā'ah by even a hand-span and dies will have died the death of Jāhilīyyah."
dered that they should be heard and obeyed\textsuperscript{18} and that a person should be sincere to them.\textsuperscript{19} He emphasised this stringently and did all he could to stress it.

These three issues have been mentioned together in an authentic hadith recorded in the Two Šaḥīḥs, "Allāh is pleased with three qualities for you: That you worship Him without associating anything with Him, that you hold fast to the rope of Allāh and do not separate, and that you be sincere to those Allāh has appointed as leaders over your affairs."\textsuperscript{20}

Any shortcomings in the religion of people or their worldly life only occurred because of a shortcoming in some or all of these three.

4. Their religion is founded upon certain principles, the greatest of which is bigoted following.\textsuperscript{21} This is the core prin-

Bukhārī #7144 and Muslim #1839 record on the authority of ibn Ūmar that the Prophet (ﷺ) said, "The Muslim must hear and obey in that which he likes and that which he detests, unless he be ordered to disobedience in which case there is no hearing and obeying."

\textsuperscript{19} Muslim #55 records on the authority of Tamīm al-Dārī that the Prophet (ﷺ) said, "The religion is sincerity and sincere advice." They asked, 'Messenger of Allāh, to whom?' He replied, "To Allāh, His Book, His Messenger, the leaders of the Muslims, and the generality of Muslims."

وَكَذَٰلِكَ مَا نُرُسِّلْنَا مِن قَبْلِكَ فِي قَرْيَةٍ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ إِلَّا كَأَنَّهُ مُنْتَفِقُوا
إِنَّا وَجَدْنَاهُنَّ آبَاءَكُمْ عَلَى أَمْيَلٍ وَإِنَّا أَنَذَرْنَاهُمْ مُتَفَضِّعَةُ

“Similarly, We never sent any warner before you to any city without the affluent among them saying, ‘We found our fathers following a religion and we are simply following in their footsteps.’”

وَإِذَا قُلُبُوا مَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ مَا نُزِّلَ لِلّهِ مَا وَلَىْ نَعْقِبُ مَا وَجَدْنَا عَلَىْ

“When they are told, ‘Follow what Allāh has sent down,’ they say, ‘No, we will follow what we found our fathers doing.’”

قَلْ إِنَّمَا أُعَلِّمُكُمْ مَا بَالَكُمْ وَإِنَّا لَنَعْلَمُ مَا تَعْمَلُونَ

“Say, ‘I exhort you to do one thing alone: to stand before Allāh in pairs and on your own and then reflect. Your companion is not one possessed.’”

5. One of their greatest tenants is to be deceived by the majority. They rely on it as proof to show that something is correct, and that something is regarded strange or attracts a small following is adduced as evidence of its falsity. (His call) came with the opposite message and this is clarified in numerous verses of the Qur’ān.

6. Relying on those who came before (as evidence for rejecting the truth), examples are:

"He said, ‘What about the previous generations?’"

25 al-A-contained;rah (7): 3

26 Allāh, Most High, says, “If you obeyed most of those on earth, they would misguide you from Allāh’s Way. They follow nothing but conjecture and they are only guessing.” [al-An;ām (6): 116], “Say, ‘Knowledge of it rests with Allāh alone but most people do not know that.’” [al-A-contained;rah (7): 187], “We did not find many of them worthy of their contract, We found most of them deviators.” [al-A-contained;rah (7): 102], “But very few of My servants are thankful.” [Saba’ (34): 13]

7. (For the correctness of something) they would adduce the strength of intellect, the deeds, the dominion, the wealth and the standing of a nation as proof. Allâh repudiated this with His words,

Wâlîqû manâkînhum fîmansîna mànikînhum fîbihi

"We established them far more firmly than We have established you..." 29

28 al-Mu'minin (23): 24

The full set of verses read, "We sent Nûh to his people and he said, 'My people, worship Allâh. You have no god other than Him, so will you not have taqwâ?' The ruling circle of those of his people who were disbelievers said, 'This is nothing but a human being like yourselves who simply wants to gain ascendance over you. If Allâh had wanted He would have sent angels down. We never heard of anything like this among our ancestors, the earlier peoples. He is nothing but a man possessed so wait a while and see what happens to him.'"

29 al-Abqâf (46): 26
“...even though before that they were praying for victory over the disbelievers, yet when what they recognise does come to them, they reject it.”

“They recognise it as they recognise their own sons.”

8. That the weak and downtrodden followed something was adduced as proof of its falsity,

“Why should we believe you when the vilest of people follow you?”

30 al-Baqarah (2): 89

31 al-Baqarah (2): 146, another reading is, “They recognise him as they recognise their own sons.”

Other examples are, “Have they not travelled in the land and seen the final fate of those before them? They were far greater than them in strength. Allâh cannot be withstood in any way either in the heavens or on earth.” [Fâîr (35): 44], “How many generations before them We destroyed who had greater force than them and scourged many lands!” [Qâf (50): 36], “Have they not seen how many generations We destroyed before them which We had established on the earth far more firmly than We have established you?” [al-An’âm (6): 6], “When they forgot what they had been reminded of, We opened up for them the doors to everything, until, when they were exulting in what they had been given, We suddenly seized them and at once they were in despair. So the last remnant of the people who did wrong were cut off and praise belongs to Allâh, the Lord of all the worlds!” [al-An’âm (6): 44-45]

أَهْتَولُوا مَرَّةً اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِم مِّن بَيَانٍ؟٣٣

"Are these the people among us to whom Allah has shown His favour?"³³

Allah repudiated them with His saying,

إِنِّي لَا أَعْلَمُ إِلَّا الْشَّهِيدُونَ⁴٣

"Does not Allah know best those who are thankful?"³⁴

9. They followed degenerate, corrupt scholars and worshippers. He came with His saying,

يَكُونُوا الَّذِينَ
ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ سَكَبِيْرًا مِّنَ الَّذِينَ أَخَافُوا مَرَّاتَيْنِ وَلَدَورَان干部 أَمْوَالَ الْكَرِيمِ بِالْبَينَّةِ وَيُصَدِّرُونَ عَنْ سَكَبِيْرِ اللهِ

"People of the Book! Do not go to extremes in your religion asserting other than the truth, and do not follow the whims and desires of people who were misguided previously and have misguided others, and are far from the right way.\textsuperscript{36}

10. If the followers of a religion were obtuse and lacking intellectual acuity, this was adduced as proof of the falsity of that religion; they said,

\begin{equation*}
\text{وَمَا رَنَكَ أَنْبِعَكَ إِلَّا أَلَّذِينَ هَمُّ أَرَاوُنَّكَ بَأْدَكَ} \end{equation*}

\begin{equation*}
\text{آَلَٰٓيَ}
\end{equation*}

"We do not see anyone following you but the lowest of us, unthinkingly."\textsuperscript{37}

11. Adducing proofs with invalid analogy,\textsuperscript{38} for example their saying,

\begin{equation*}
\text{إِنَّ أَنتُمُ إِلَّا مِنْ نَمْطَانَ}
\end{equation*}

"You are nothing but human beings like ourselves."\textsuperscript{39}

\textsuperscript{36} \textit{al-Mā'idah} (5): 77

\textsuperscript{37} \textit{Hūd} (11): 27

\textsuperscript{38} \textit{ar}: \textit{al-qiṣāṣ al-fāṣid}.

The first to use this was Iblis, "I am better than him, You created me from fire and You created him from clay." \textit{[al-A'rāf (7): 12]}

\textsuperscript{39} \textit{Ibrāhīm} (14): 10. The response is mentioned in the next verse, "Their Messengers (ﷺ) said, 'We are nothing but human beings like yourselves but Allāh shows favour to any of His servants He wills.'"
12. They rejected valid analogy. The core reason for this point and the previous point was that they were unable to ascertain the substantial similarity and disparity (between the original case and the new case) correctly.

13. They went to extremes concerning the scholars and the righteous. Allah says,

\[\text{يتَأَهَّلُ الْحِكْمَةُ لَا نَعْنَوْنَهَا وَدَيْنَكُمْ وَلَا نَسْأَلُهَا.}\]

“People of the Book! Do not go to excess in your religion and say nothing but the truth about Allah.”

14. Everything that has preceded is built upon a fundamental

Allah, Most High, also says, “Say, ‘People of the Book! Do not go to extremes in your religion asserting other than the truth, and do not follow the whims and desires of people who were misguided previously and have misguided many others and are far from the right way.’” \textit{[al-Mā’idah (5): 77]}

Muslim #2670 records on the authority of ibn Mas‘ūd that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said three times, “The extremists are destroyed.”

Ahmad #1851-3248, Nasā’i #3059, ibn Majah #3029 record on the authority of ibn ‘Abbās that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), “Beware of extremism in the religion for it was extremism in the religion that destroyed the nations before you.”

Ḥākim #1711 said it was ṣāḥiḥ, meeting the criteria of Bukhārī and Muslim, and Dhahabī agreed. Nawawī, \textit{Majmū‘}, vol. 8, pg. 137 said that the isnād was ṣāḥiḥ meeting the criteria of Muslim as did ibn Taymiyyah, \textit{Iqlīdā‘ al-Sīrāt al-Mustaqīm}, pg. 106, Albānī, \textit{al-Ṣāḥīḥah} #1283 and Arna‘ūt. It was ruled ṣāḥiḥ by ibn Hibbān #3871 and ibn Khuzaymah #2867-2868.

cf. Chapters 19-22 of the author’s \textit{Kitāb al-Tawḥīd} precept that is composed of negation and affirmation: they followed their lusts and conjecture and they turned away from what the Messengers brought.\textsuperscript{42}

15. To justify their dismissal of what Allāh enjoined them to, they gave the excuse of not understanding. They said,

\[ \text{"Our hearts are uncircumcised."}\textsuperscript{43} \\
\[ \text{"...Shu‘ayb, we do not understand much of what you say..."}\textsuperscript{44} \\

Allāh belied their claim and explained that the true reason was that their hearts were sealed, and that the seal was put in place because of their disbelief.\textsuperscript{45}

\textsuperscript{42} moreover, they affirmed and negated the opposite of what Allāh did. Allāh affirmed Tawhīd and negated shirk, they affirmed shirk and negated Tawhīd.

\textsuperscript{43} al-Baqqarā (2): 88

\textsuperscript{44} Hūd (11): 91

\textsuperscript{45} Allāh, Most High, says, “Rather Allāh has cursed them for their disbelief, what little faith they have!” [al-Baqqarā (2): 88], “Because of wrongdoing on the part of the Jews, We prohibited some good things for them which had previously been lawful for them; and because of their obstructing many people from the Way of Allāh, and because of their consuming usury when they were forbidden from doing so, and because of their consuming people’s wealth by wrongful
16. Instead of going to what Allāh enjoined them to, they turned to books of magic. Allāh mentions this with His words,

\[\text{بَنِي مَشْرَقٍ مِّنَ الْذِّينِ أُوْلِي الْكَفَّارَةُ كَيْفَ كَتَبَ اِلَّهُ رُوْاهُمْ عَلَىٰ أَلْسُنَّتَهُمْ لَا يَتَفَارَّعُونَ وَأَتْبَعُوا مَا أَنْبَثَأْنَآ أَلْسُنَّتَهُمْ عَلَىٰ مَآ أَوْلَى الْسَّمِيعَّينَ}\]

"...a group of those who have been given the Book disdainfully toss the Book of Allāh behind their backs just as if they did not know. They follow what the devils recited in the reign of Sulaymān..."\(^{46}\)

17. They attributed their falsehood to the Prophets,

\[\text{وَمَالِعِيْمَانِ مِنَ أَصِيلِّيْنَ يَقُولُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا نَفْسِي وَهَلَكَ نَفْسِي فَلَا تَفْخَرُ}\

"Sulaymān did not disbelieve, but the devils did..."\(^{47}\)

\[\text{مَا كَانَ إِلَهِيْ مَعَهُ مِنْ أَخْلَافِي وَلَا نُصْرَانِي وَلَكَنَّ كَانَ حَسَنَمَا}\

\[^{47}\text{al-Baqarah (2): 102}\]

\[^{48}\text{Ālī 'Imrān (3): 67}\]
18. Their ascriptions were inherently contradictory. They would ascribe themselves to Ibrāhīm yet openly and publicly not follow him.

19. They would disparage some of the righteous by reason of what some of their followers did. The Jews (used this device) to disparage ʿĪsā and the Jews and Christians (used this device) to disparage Muḥammad.

20. They would believe that supernatural feats performed at the hands of magicians and their likes were miracles of the righteous, they would then ascribe this to the Prophets as they did in the case of Sulaymān (ʻalayhis-salām).

21. Their worship would consist of whistling and clapping.49

22. They took their religion as play and a diversion.50

23. The life of this world deceived them. They thought that Allāh granting them some portion of it was a proof that He was pleased with them;51 they said,

49 Allāh, Most High, says, “Their prayer at the House is nothing but whistling and clapping.” [al-Anfāl (8): 35]

50 Allāh, Most High, says, “Abandon those who turned their religion into a game and a diversion and who have been deluded by the life of the world.” [al-Anʿām (6): 70]

51 Aḥmad #3672 records from ibn Masʿūd that the Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Allāh
"We have more wealth and children, we are not going to be punished."\(^{52}\)

24. Because of arrogance and disdain, they refused to accept the truth if the weak and downtrodden preceded them in doing so. Allāh, Most High, revealed,

\[\text{وَلَا تَظْلِمُوا الَّذِينَ بَدَعُونَ رَبَّاهُم بِغَيْرِ الْقَدْرِ وَعَدَّوْاَ الْعَسَىَ بِيْدَتُونَ وَجَهَّهُمَا عَلَّمَاكُمَا مِنْ حَسَابِهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ وَمَا يَرَى حَسَابُهُمَاٖ}\

"Do not chase away those who call on their Lord morning and evening, seeking His face. Their reckoning is in no way your responsibility and your reckoning is in no way their responsibility. Indeed if you did chase them away, you would be among the wrongdoers."\(^{53}\)

25. The fact that the weak and downtrodden preceded them was adduced as proof of its falsity. They said,

30. It is one of the astonishing Signs of Allāh that, in leaving Allāh’s advice to unite and in perpetrating the proscription of splitting, the result was that each faction exulted in what it had.

31. Another astonishing Sign is that they bitterly opposed the very religion that they ascribed to, and they loved, to the point of infatuation, the religion of the disbelievers who opposed them, their Prophet and their party. This is what they did with the Prophet (ﷺ): when he came to them with the religion of Mūsā (‘alayhis-salām), they followed the books of magic instead which are part and parcel of the religion of Pharaoh.

Do not make unlawful the good things Allāh has made lawful for you, and do not overstep the limits.” [al-Mā’idah (5): 87], “Do not say about what your lying tongues describe: ‘This is lawful and this is unlawful,’ inventing lies against Allāh.” [al-Nahl (16): 116]

69 Allāh, Most High, says, “They have taken their rabbis and monks as lords besides Allāh, and also the Messiah, son of Maryam. Yet they were commanded to worship only one God. There is none worthy of worship save Him! Glory to Him above anything they associate with Him!” [al-Tawbah (9): 31]

However, this was said in arrogance, for Mūsā said to him, "You know that no one sent these down but the Lord of the heavens and earth to be clear proofs." [al-Isrā' (17): 102] and Allāh says, "...and they repudiated them wrongly and haughtily, in spite of their own certainty about them." [al-Naml (27): 14]

43. They would reject the divine decree.\textsuperscript{77}

44. They would rely on (the divine decree) to excuse themselves before Allāh.\textsuperscript{78}

45. They would justify opposing the Law of Allāh by proffering the decree (as an excuse).\textsuperscript{79}

\textsuperscript{77} Ibn `Umar said, ‘By the One in whose hand is the soul of Muḥammad, if one of you had the likes of Uḥud in gold and then spent it in the Way of Allāh, Allāh would not accept it from him until he believed in the decree.’ For proof, he adduced the words of the Prophet (ﷺ), “Faith is to believe in Allāh, the Angels, the Books, the Messengers, the Last Day, and to believe in the decree - the good thereof and the bad.” This was recorded by Muslim #8. cf. Chapter 60 of the author’s \textit{Kitāb al-Tawḥīd}

\textsuperscript{78} Whereas the previous point deals with a group who denied the decree, this point deals with a group who affirmed the decree, but incorrectly. They argued that since it was Allāh who had misguided them or sealed their hearts, in other words, since they had been coerced to disbelieve, how could they then be rebuked for not following the truth? The first to use this argument was Iblis who said, “My Lord, because You misled me, I will make things on the earth seem good to them and I will mislead them all, every one of them...” \textit{[al-Hijr} (15): 39]\textquote{\textsuperscript{1}} The pagans said, “Our hearts are covered up against what you call us to and there is a heaviness in our ears. thought that everything they did must be something that Allâh loves. ‘If He did not love it,’ they argued, ‘it would not have happened. If He detests something that we do,’ they went on to say, ‘why does He allow us to do it?’ This was the argument of the pagans which Allâh, Most High, relates, “Those who associate others with Allâh will say, ‘If Allâh had willed we would not have associated anything with Him, nor would our fathers; nor would we have made anything unlawful.’” [Al-An`âm (6): 148], “They say, ‘If the All-Merciful had so willed, we would not have worshipped them.’” [Al-Zukhruf (43): 20]. cf. Al-Nahl (16): 35. The disbelievers further used it as an excuse not to give charity, “And when they are told, ‘Spend from the provision Allâh has given you,’ those who disbelieve say to those who believe, ‘Why should we feed someone whom, if He wished, Allâh would feed Himself? You are clearly in error.” [Ya`Sin (36): 47]

The verses before read, “Allāh brought you out of your mothers’ wombs knowing nothing at all, and gave you hearing, sight and hearts so that perhaps you would show thanks. Do they not see the birds suspended in mid-air up in the sky? Nothing holds them there except Allāh. There are certainly Signs in that for people who have faith. Allāh has made your houses places of rest for you and made houses for you out of cattle hides which are light for you to carry both when you are travelling and when you are staying in one place. And from their wool and fur and hair you obtain clothing and carpets and household utensils for a time. Allāh has made shaded places for you in what He has created and He has made shelters for you in the mountains and He has made shirts for you to protect you from the heat and shirts to protect you from each other’s violence. In that way He perfects His blessings on you so that hopefully you will become Muslims.” Earlier in the same chapter, Allāh, Most High, says, “Any blessing you have is from Allāh. Then when harm touches you it is to Him you cry for help. But when He removes the harm from you, a group of you associate others with their Lord, ungrateful for what We have given them. Enjoy yourselves. You will soon know!” [\textit{al-Nahl} (16): 53-55] cf. Chapter 41 of the author’s \textit{Kitāb al-Tawḥīd}

\textsuperscript{82} Allāh, Most High, says, “As for those who disbelieve in Our Signs and are arrogant regarding them, the Gates of Heaven will not be opened for them.” [\textit{al-A’rāf} (7): 40], “Those who disbelieve in Allāh’s Signs and the meeting with Him, such people can despair of My mercy, such people will have a painful punishment.” [\textit{al-Ankabūt} (29): 23]

59. Labelling those who follow (true) guidance with the terms, Subāb and Ḥashwiyyah.

60. Concocting lies against Allāh.

61. Denial (of the truth).

The Christians then said, “Do you want us to worship you?” thereby thinking that following the truth entailed committing shirk and worshipping Muhammad (ﷺ), cf. Suyūṭi, Luhūb al-Nuqūl fi Asbāb al-Nuqūl, pg. 55 and al-Durr al-Manthūr where he references it to ibn Ishāq, ibn Jarir, ibn Abī Ḥātim, ibn al-Mundhir, Bayhaqī, al-Dalā’il.

89 or: distorting words from their correct places.

90 Allāh, Most High, says, “Some of the Jews distort the true meaning of words, saying, ‘We hear and disobey,’ and, ‘Listen without listening,’ and, ‘Rā’idat’* twisting them with their tongues, disparaging the religion.” [al-Nisā’ (4): 46]

* Meaning, ‘Look at us,’ but the word can be ambiguously construed in a derogatory way.

91 Subāb, Sābī‘ah, the name of a group of people who would worship stars, said to be the followers of Nimrod who Ibrāhīm (‘alayhis-salām) debated. The Arabs used it as a term to refer to people who had apostated or abandoned the truth. Ḥashwiyyah: from ḥashw which means something that contains no benefit. In creedal matters, the term Ḥashwiyyah was a derogatory word employed to describe Ablu‘l-Sunnah who affirmed the Names and Attributes of Allāh.

92 Allāh, Most High, says, “Who can do greater wrong than someone who invents lies against Allāh or denies His Signs?” [al-An‘ām (6): 21].

\(^{113}\) The meeting house remained in Ḥakîm’s possession until the reign of Mu‘âwiyyah who bought it from him. The Quraysh rebuked him and this was his reply.

\(^{114}\) Abû Mâlik al-Ash’ârî (radiyAllâhu ‘anhu) reports that the Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ) said, “In my nation there are four traits of Jâhiliyyah which they will not abandon: boasting about ancestors, belittling (someone’s) lineage, seeking rain through stars, and wailing (over the deceased).” He said, “If the woman given to wailing does not repent before she dies, she will stand on the Day of Rising wearing a garment of liquid pitch and a chemise of mange.” This was recorded by Muslim #934

Allāh, Most High, also said, “Do you make the giving of water to the pilgrims and looking after the Sacred Masjid the same as having faith in Allāh and the Last Day and doing Jihād in the Way of Allāh?” [al-Tawbah (9): 19], “But why should Allāh not punish them now when they bar access to the Sacred Masjid? (bad) omens,\(^{143}\) soothsaying,\(^{144}\) going to a satanic source\(^{145}\)

\(^{143}\) Aḥmad #15915-20603-20604, Abū Dāwūd #3907, Nasā‘i, al-Kubrā, vol. 8, pg. 275 record that Qatān ibn Qabīsah narrated on the authority of his father that he heard the Prophet (ﷺ) saying, “Augury from the flight of birds, geomancy, and seeing (bad) omens are all types of magic.”

The ḥadith was ruled šāḥīḥ by ibn Ḥibbān #6131 and Suyūṭi, al-Jāmi‘ #5741, and its isnād ḥasan by Nawawī, Rِyāḍ al-Ṣāliḥīn #1678 and ibn Tāmīyyyah, Majmū‘, vol. 35, pg. 192. It was, however, ruled da‘īf by Albānī, Gḥāyatu‘l-Maram #301 and its isnād da‘īf by Arna‘ūṭ.

With regards to the terms used in the ḥadith:

Iyyāḥ refers to the practise of frightening birds and seeing good omens in their patterns of flight, their names and the sounds they make. Therefore the crow, ghurāb would indicate strangeness, ghurbaḥ and the hoopoe, hudbud would indicate guidance, būda etc.

Taqr refers to divination through drawing lines on the ground (geomancy) or equally the practice of throwing gravel onto the ground and divination by the shapes subsequently formed therein (pessomancy).

Tiyarab is to see bad omens in something, originally it meant seeing omens in the direction of flight of birds or the path of lizards, to the right or left.

cf. Chapter 25 of the author’s Kitāb al-Tawbīd

\(^{144}\) Aḥmad #9536 records from Abū Hurayrah that the Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Whoever goes to a fortune teller or a soothsayer and believes him in what he says has disbelieved in what was revealed to Muḥammad (ﷺ).”

Ḥākim #15 said it was šāḥīḥ meeting the criteria of Bukhārī and Muslim as stated by the author. ‘Irāqī, al-Amālī said the ḥadīth was šāḥīḥ as quoted in Munāwī, Fayd, vol. 6, pg. 23 and he himself ruled it šāḥīḥ in Taysir, vol. 2, pg. 385. Dḥahabī, al-Kabā‘īr said it was šāḥīḥ. Arna‘ūṭ said that it was ḥasan.

Aḥmad #16638-23222 records that the Prophet (ﷺ), “Whoever goes to a soothsayer and believes him in what he says will not have his prayer accepted for forty days.” Arna‘ūṭ said the isnād was šāḥīḥ meeting the criteria of Muslim.

Bazzār #3045 records on the authority of Jāḥir that the Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Whoever goes to a soothsayer and believes him in what he says has disbelieved in what was revealed to Muḥammad (ﷺ).” Ibn Ḥajr, Fath, vol. 10, pg. 227 said

Ṭabarānī, al-Kabīr #1005, al-Asaṣṣ #1476 records on the authority of ibn Masʿūd that the Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Whoever goes to a fortune teller or a magician or a soothsayer and believes him in what he says has disbelieved in what was revealed to Muḥammad (ﷺ).”

cf. Chapter 26 of the author’s Kitāb al-Tawḥīd

145 ar: tāḥbūt

The word is derived from tugbyān which means to exceed the bounds and is a sifāt musḥabbabah. A descriptive word derived from al-fā’l al-lāzīm and depicts a meaning intrinsically rooted in the thing described as opposed to a fleeting or temporary description.

‘Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb (rāḍī Allāhu ‘anhu) said, ‘Tāḥbūt is Shayṭān,’ and Jābir (rāḍī Allāhu ‘anhu) said, ‘Tāḥbūt are the soothsayers upon whom the devils would descend,’ these were recorded by Bukhārī as taʿlīq reports with the full isnāds being provided by ibn Abī Ḥātim. Ibnu Abī Ḥātim also recorded that Mālik said, ‘Tāḥbūt is everything that is worshipped besides Allāh.’ Ibn al-Qayyim, Ibtām al-Muwaffaqīn, vol. 1, pg. 50 said, ‘It refers to everything whose bounds are transgressed by the servant, be it connected to what one follows, worships, or obeys.’

146 Allāh, Most High, says, “Do you not see those who claim that they have faith in what has been sent down to you and what was sent down before you, still desiring to turn to a satanic source for judgement in spite of being ordered to reject it? Shayṭān wants to misguide them far away. When they are told, ‘Come to what Allāh has sent down and to the Messenger,’ you see the hypocrites turning away from you completely. How will it be when a disaster strikes them because of what they have done, and then they come to you swearing by Allāh: ‘We desired nothing but good and reconciliation?’” [al-Nisā’ (4): 60-62]

He also says, “Do they then seek the judgment of the Time of Ignorance? Who could be better at giving judgment than Allāh for people with certainty.” [al-Mā’idah (5): 50]

Ten things which breach Islām
With the Name of Allāh, the All-Merciful, the Most Merciful

Know that there are ten things which breach (a person’s profession of) Islām:

1. Associating partners in the worship of Allāh.

Allāh, Most High, says,

إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ الْكَفَارَةَ الْكَبِيرَةَ وَالْمُخَالِفَةَ مَعَهُ وَمِنْ بَعْدِهَا
ذَلِكَ لِمَنْ كَذَّبَۛ

“Allāh does not forgive anything being associated with Him but He forgives whoever He wills for anything other than that.”

۷۶۷ من يَشَّرَكُ بِيَدَيْهِ فَقَدْ حَرَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
الجَنَّةَ وَمَا أُوْلِيَ الْجَنَّةِ وَمَا فَوْقَهُ مِنَ الْفَضْلِ الْكَبِيرِ

1 al-Nisa’ (4): 48
“If anyone associates anything with Allāh, Allāh has forbidden him the Garden and his refuge will be the Fire. The wrongdoers will have no helpers.”

Subsumed by this is slaughtering for another besides Allāh such as slaughtering for the sake of a Jīnn or grave.

2. Whoever appoints intermediaries between him and Allāh, supplicating to them, requesting intercession from them, and placing his absolute reliance on them has disbelieved by the consensus (of scholars).

3. Whoever does not declare the polytheists to be disbelievers, or doubts their disbelief, or believes that their belief is valid.

4. Anyone who believes that a path other than the guidance of the Prophet (ﷺ) is the better of the two, or believes that the ruling of another is better than his ruling. An example of this is a person who prefers the judgment of false gods over his judgment.

5. Whoever hates anything the Messenger (ﷺ) came with, even if he acts by it, has disbelieved.

6. Whoever mocks any aspect of the religion of the Messenger (ﷺ), or any aspect of its reward or punishment, has disbelieved.

\[\text{al-Mā'idah (5): 72}\]
The proof for this is His, Most High, saying,

قل أياً لله وءاينه
ورسلته كسرت فسه مورت لا تستدر وافذ كفرم
بصد النسيمكـ

"Say, ‘Would you make a mockery of Allāh and His Signs and His Messenger? Do not try to excuse yourselves, you have disbelieved after having believed.”

7. Magic - included here are spells that would repel or endear one person to another. Whoever practises it or approves of its performance has disbelieved.

The evidence for this is the saying of Allāh, Most High,

وما يعلمُ من أحدٍ حتى يجول الأنَماخنو فتنة فلا تكتَر

“They taught no one without first saying to him, ‘We are merely a trial and temptation, so do not disbelieve.’”

8. Supporting and assisting the polytheists against the Muslims.

The evidence for this is His, Most High, saying,

3 al-Tawbah (9): 65-66

4 al-Baqarah (2): 102
“Any of you who takes them as friends is one of them, Allâh does not guide wrongdoing people.”⁵

9. Anyone who believes that it is permissible for some people not to adhere to the Shari'ah of Muḥammad (ﷺ) as it was permissible for Khādîr not to follow the Shari'ah of Mūsâ (‘alayhis-salām) is a disbeliever.

10. Turning away from the religion of Allâh, Most High: not learning it and not acting by it.

The evidence for this is His, Most High, saying,

“Who could do greater wrong than someone who is reminded of the Signs of his Lord and then turns away from them? We will take revenge on the evildoers.”⁶

⁶ al-Sajdah (32): 22
The Five Maxims

al-Masāʾil al-Khams al-Wājiba

Maʿrifatuhā
The Five Maxims

It is obligatory on you to know five issues:

The First

When Allâh sent Muhammad (ﷺ) with guidance and the religion of truth,¹ the first statement that He enjoined upon him was,

ﷺ "You who are enveloped in your cloak! Arise and warn..."²

The meaning of, "and warn," is to warn against associating partners with Allâh. The polytheists had made shirk part of their religion by which they would seek to draw closer to Allâh, Most High. They would also knowingly commit an untold number of lew'd acts and wrongs. When one fully grasps this and then real-ises that Allâh ordered him (۪) to warn against their religion through which they sought to draw closer to Allâh before warn-ing them against fornication and incestuous relationships, and one grasps the actual form of the shirk they would commit, some astonishing things will come to light. He will soon realise that the shirk committed by many people today is worse than what they practised. Allâh, Most High, says,

² al-Muddaththir(74): 1-2

\text{وَإِذَا مَسَّ الَّذِينَ كُفَّارٍ نَّفَسَ الْإِنسَانِ صَدْرَهُ بِمَيِّبِهِ إِلَيْهِ مُبَيِّنًا إِلَيْهِ مَّا إِلَّا أَحْزَٰلُهُمُ ٤٨}

"When harm touches man he calls upon his Lord, turning to Him in repentance. Then when He grants him a blessing from Him, he forgets what he was calling for before and ascribes rivals to Allâh, so as to misguide others from His Way. Say, 'Enjoy your disbelief for a little while; you are among the Companions of the Fire.'\(^3\)

The Second

Alongside warning them against shirk, he enjoined them to Tawhid. Tawhid is to make the religion sincerely for Allâh, Most High, and this is what is meant by the words,

\(^3\) al-Zumar (39): 8

Allâh, Most High, says, "When harm touches man, he calls on Us, lying on his side or sitting down or standing up. Then when We remove the harm from him he carries on as if he had never called on Us when the harm first touched him." [Yûnus (10): 12]
"...and magnify your Lord."\textsuperscript{4}

i.e. magnify Him through sincerity. What is not meant by this verse is the takbîr for the call of prayer or the likes since this was legislated in Madînah.

When a person realises that abandoning shîrk is of no benefit unless and until it is accompanied with donning the raiment of sincerity, and he truly grasps what sincerity means, he will understand the false concept of sincerity held by many people. He will also appreciate the falsity of the belief that abandoning supplication to the righteous is to detract from their status. Look at the Christians: they accused Muḥammad (ﷺ) of demeaning ʿĪsā when he stated that he was a servant of Allâh and His Messenger, and that he should not be worshipped alongside Allâh, Most High.

Whoever understands all of this will realise the strangeness of Islâm. The point will strike home when he sees how those who claim to be scholars oppose this issue and how they rule those who hold the belief (of sincerity), who strive against them and those who worship the shrine of Abû ʿṬâlîb and al-Kuwâz, to be disbelievers. They have passed religious edicts that our blood and property is lawful for them because we have left what they follow.

These two issues will only truly be realised when you bring to mind how they deal with the people of sincerity and compare that to how they deal with the polytheists. You will then apprehend the fact that Islâm is not just knowledge; Iblîs and Pharaoh knew it, and the People of the Book knew him as they knew their own sons. Islām is (to know and then) to act, it is to love, to hate, and to abandon allegiance to parents and sons for its sake.

\textsuperscript{4} al-Muddaththir (74): 3

The Third

You must believe with all your heart that Allāh, Glorious is He, sent the Messenger to be believed and followed. He did not send him to be denied and disobeyed. Now, turn to those who claim to be scholars and consider their acknowledgement of Tawhīd, their profession that this was the religion of Allāh and His Messenger, and contrast it to their assertion that whoever accepts and follows Tawhīd is one of the Khawārij whose blood and property becomes lawful. Moreover, contrast this to their vindication of those who hate Tawhīd, abuse it and turn people away from it, stating that they are upon the truth! Now, consider their acknowledgement of (the evil of) shirk and contrast this to the claim that they have no shrines which they worship.

When a person understands this third issue as is fitting, he will know that these stances are self-contradictory and incompatible with each other. They are mere folly. How can one accept that Tawhīd is the religion of Allāh and His Messenger yet, at the same time, hate it and oppose it! How can one think that grave worship is shirk, yet not state that what people do at the shrines is shirk, arguing instead that they are the Largest Group\(^5\) and therefore upon the truth! Astonishingly, one would think that these contradictory beliefs would not coexist in the heart for a single day, yet some people have been living with them for more than twenty years!

\(^5\) ar: al-sawād al-ʿazīm
THE FIVE MAXIMS

This issue will then highlight the wonder of Allâh’s power (and how He changes hearts),\(^6\) and it will lead a person to become acquainted with Allâh and with his own self. Whoever knows his self and knows his Lord has perfected his affair.

The Fourth

You must know that Allah revealed to His Messenger,

وَلَعَدَّ أَوَّلَيْكَ إِلَيْهِ وَإِلَى الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلَكَ لَنُهِجْنَ أَمْرَكَ لَيْكُنْ عَمَّاكَ وَلَكُنْ مِنَ الْخَيْرِينَ

(\footnote{6} cf. the author’s Kitâb al-Tawhîd, chpt. 19)

“It has been revealed to you and those before you: ‘If you associate others with Allâh, your actions will come to nothing and you will be among the losers.’ No! Worship Allâh and be among the thankful.’”

He said this because they had attempted to elicit one word, or one deed of shîrkh out of him, promising him that they would then accept Islâm. If the master of the Sincere, the one with the most righteous deeds, was to say one word of shîrkh, all the while hating it, so that others would be guided to Islâm, his deeds would come to nothing and he would be one of the losers. What then of a person who shows himself to be one of them, who says hundreds of such words so that his trade be profitable, or, when the people of Tawhîd were barred from performing Hajj, articulates them so that he can perform it?! Look to the Prophet ( ﷺ) who was barred from performing Hajj until Allâh allowed him to conquer Mecca.

\footnote{7} al-Zumar (39): 65-66

When a person fully grasps this, he will realise the magnitude of Tawhid with Allāh, Mighty and Magnificent, and the severity of shirk. Even if it takes you four years to learn this, you will have greatly benefited. I mean learning it as you know that a single drop of urine released annuls the state of ritual ablution, wudu’, even if this was done without your volition.

The Fifth

The Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) obligated belief in all that he came with without differentiating one part from another. Anyone who believes in one part and disbelieves in another is a disbeliever. One must believe in the entire Book.

Some people pray and fast and abandon many proscribed acts, but they do not bequeath women, thinking that this is the path that should be followed. Indeed, if a person did bequeath a woman, the hearts of those around him would reject his act. Some of them reject that a woman should spend her prescribed waiting period, ‘iddah, in her husband’s house despite knowing that Allāh, Most High, has said,

	ext{لا تخرجوها}

\text{من بيتهن ولا تخرجن إلا أن يأتين في عدة ثانية}

“Do not evict them from their homes, nor should they leave, unless they commit an outright indecency.”

8 al-Talāq (65): 1
They think that her staying in her husband’s house is unbefitting and that she should be evicted. Other people reject the fact that the greeting should be with the salām, knowing full well that Allāh has legislated it, preferring instead the greetings of Jāhiliyyah simply because they are accustomed to them. Such people have all disbelieved because they have believed in a part and disbelieved in another. This is not the case with people who commit a sin or leave an obligation, for example, committing fornication or leaving good treatment of parents while knowing that they are mistaken, and that what Allāh has ordered is correct.9

I have given these three examples so that you may follow and extrapolate from them. There are many such examples where people are opposing the limits set by Allāh in the Qur’ān. It is there customs which they now regard to be the good, and if a person was to do something that Allāh has mentioned, or leave their customs; they would object and deride him. Again, this is not the same as someone who does something wrong, or leaves something that must be done, while knowing that he is in the wrong and believes in what Allāh has said.

Know that these five issues are incredibly important for people to learn, especially so in our times where Islām has become something strange. Allāh knows best.10 9 i.e. the first group of people knowingly preferred custom to the laws of Allāh. The second group did what they did believing it to be bad.

The Four Principles

al-Qawā'id al-Arba'

95
The Four Principles

I ask Allāh, the Kind and Lord of the Magnificent Throne, to protect you in this world and the next and to make you one of those who are grateful when given, patient when tested and repentant after sinning. These three are the benchmarks of felicity.

Know, may Allāh direct you to obey Him, that the pure, upright faith: the religion of Ibrāhīm is to worship Allāh, making the religion sincerely and solely His. It was for this that Allāh created the whole of mankind and it was this that He imposed upon them. Allāh, Most High, says,

وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُونِ

“I only created jinn and mankind to worship Me.”

After acknowledging that Allāh created you to worship Him, know that worship cannot be considered such unless and until it is accompanied by Tawḥīd, in exactly the same way that ṣalāh cannot be considered so unless and until it is accompanied by purification, tabarab. When shirk enters worship, it is sullied and annulled in the same way that minor ritual impurity, hadath, annuls the state of purification. Allāh, Most High, says,

\[1\] al-Dhāriyāt (51): 56

Ma'akkal lilmusirākīn
An yiqṣuma l-masjīd Allāh na'ismāhu l-rabī'īn aynān fa'īsāhum yal-kifūr
Awātārak hīgtā ummāhum wa fīn nārāhum khalidūn

"It is not for the polytheists to frequent the masjids of Allāh, bearing witness against themselves of their disbelief. They are the ones whose actions will come to nothing and they will be in the Fire timelessly, forever."

When you have acknowledged that shirk, when mixed with worship, annuls it and voids the deed, and that the person who perpetrated it will be in the Fire forever, you will apprehend that this is the most important thing for you to learn so that hopefully Allāh would save you from this snare: associating partners with Allāh. This is achieved through understanding four principles, all of which Allāh has mentioned in His Book:

The First

The disbelievers whom the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) fought accepted that Allāh was the Creator, the Provider, the giver of life, the causer of death, and the One who regulates all affairs. Yet this acceptance was not enough to allow them entry into the fold

---

2 al-Tawbah (9): 17
of Islām. The evidence for this lies in His saying,

قُلْ مِن يَنْزِلُ فِي رُءاٰسِكُمْ
مِنَ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالأَرْضِ أَمْنَ يَبْلِيُكُمُ السَّمَاعُ وَالأَبْصَارُ بَعْدَ مَا يَجِرُ
الْحَيٌّ مِنَ الْمَيْتَ وَيُحْيِي الْمَيْتَ مَرَّتينَ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ وَمِنْ يَدَّيْنِ اِلَّا أَنَّهُ
فَسْتَيْعِنُونَ اللَّهُ فَقَلْ أَفَلاَ تُنَافِقُونَ؟

"Say: ‘Who provides for you out of heaven and earth? Who controls the hearing and sight? Who brings forth the living from the dead and the dead from the living? Who directs the whole affair?’ They will say, ‘Allāh.’ Say, ‘Will you not then be mindful of Him?’”

The Second

They would say, ‘We only supplicate to them and turn to them in the hope that they will draw us nearer (to Allāh) and that they will intercede on our behalf. In reality, we want from Allāh, not them, but we are asking (Him) through their intercession, and we seek to draw closer to Him through them.’ The evidence for the point about drawing closer to Allāh lies in His saying,

ولَيْقَوْنَ إِلَى اللَّهِ رَفِقًا
اللَّذِينَ أَحْصَرُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ مَالِمِهِمْ إِلَّا

"Those who take protectors besides Him - ‘We only worship them so that they may bring us nearer to Allāh.’”

3 Yūnus (10): 31

4 al-Zumar (39): 3
The evidence for the point about intercession lies in His saying,

وَيَعْبَدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لاَ يَضُرُّهُمْ
وَلاَ يَفْوِهُمْ وَيُقُولُونَ هَتَّؤُلَاءَ شَفَعَانَا عَنْدَ اللَّهِ

“They worship, instead of Allah, what can neither harm them nor help them, saying, “These are our intercessors with Allah.””

Intercession is of two types: one type that has been negated and one type that has been affirmed. The category that has been negated is that which is sought from others besides Allah in matters that only Allah is able to do. The evidence for this lies in His saying,

َيَأْيُوبُهَا اللَّهُمَّ امْتَنّوا أَفْقَهُوا
مَمَاتُكُمْ مِنْ قَبْلُ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَا يَبْعِثُ فِيهِمْ وَلَا يَخْشَوْلَا
شَفَعَةُ وَالَّذِينَ كَتَبَوْنَهُمُ الظَّابِلُونَ

“You who have faith! Give away some of what We have provided for you before a Day arrives on which there is no trading, no close friendship and no intercession. It is the disbelievers who are the wrongdoers.”

The category that has been affirmed is that which only Allah can do, and is sought from Him. The one who is interceding has, in reality, been ennobled with intercession, and the person inter-

5 Yūnus (10): 18

6 al-Baqarah (2): 254
ceded for is one whose words and deeds Allah is pleased with, after having been authorised. The evidence for this lies in His saying,

الله لا إله إلا هو
ال바قي البقوم لا تأخذه سنة ولا نوم لا يعظم الله من الصبر واحده
في الأرض من ذا القدر يشفى عذبه لا بإذنه

“Allah, there is none worthy of worship save Him, the Living, the Self-Sustaining. He is not subject to drowsiness or sleep. Everything in the heavens and the earth belongs to Him. Who can intercede with Him except by His permission?” ⁷

The Third

The Prophet (ﷺ) appeared amongst people who practised greatly divergent acts of worship. Some would worship the sun and the moon, some would worship Angels, and some would worship trees and rocks. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) fought them all and did not differentiate one category from the other. The evidence for this lies in His saying,

وقال لهما حق
لا تكون في سنة ويدعون الله من سلامة

“Fight them until there is no more fitna and the religion is Allah’s alone.” ⁸

⁷ al-Baqarah (2): 255

⁸ al-Anfāl (8): 39
The evidence that they worshipped the sun and the moon is to be found in His saying,

وَمِن اِلَّاِلْيَلَّوْلَيْلِهِ فَنْفُقُلُ اللَّهُ وَلَيْسَ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ مُرَكَّبَةٌ

„Among His Signs are the night and day and the sun and moon. Do not prostrate to the sun or to the moon, prostrate to Allāh who created them, if you worship Him.”

The evidence for the point about the Angels is found in His words,

وَلَكِنِ اسْتَجْبَحْنَ َعَلَى مَجَالِدِهِمْ عَنْ ذَٰلِكَ الْمُكَخَّرَ

„On the Day We gather them all together and then say to the Angels, ‘Was it you whom these people were worshipping?’ They will say, ‘Glory be to You! You are our Protector, not them.’ No, they were worshipping the jinn; they mostly had faith in them.”

The evidence for the point about the Prophets lies in His saying,

9 Fussilat (41): 37

10 Saba’ (34): 40-41
"And when Allah asks, "Isa son of Maryam! Did you say to people, "Take me and my mother as gods besides Allah?"" He will reply, 'Glory be to You! It is not for me to say what I have no right to say! If I had said it, You would have known it.'"\(^{11}\)

\[\text{وإذا قال الله يحيى ابن مريم، أنت فلئت للناس أن تجدهم}
\[\text{أو أني إلهي من دون الله فسأحننك ما يكون لي أن أقول ما ليس لي ببحي يكفت قلتي فقد علمنا.}

"He would never command you to take the Angels and Prophets as lords. Would He command you to disbelief after being Muslim?"\(^{12}\)

Concerning the righteous, the evidence is,

\[\text{ولا تأمركم أن تسعدوا الظلمة}
\[\text{والمسلمين أركبا أيذكم بالكفر بعد إذ أنتم مسلمون.}

"Say, 'Call on those you make claims for apart from Him. They possess no power to remove any harm from you or to change anything.'"\(^{13}\)

\(^{11}\) al-Ma'idah (5): 116

\(^{12}\) Al-i Imran (3): 80

\(^{13}\) al-Isra' (17): 56
Concerning trees and rocks, evidence is found in His words,

وَمَنْسَةُ أَلْلَهَةَ الْأُخَرَ١⁴

"Have you really considered al-Lāt and al-‘Uzzah and Manāt, the third, the other one?"¹⁴

Evidence is also found in the ḥadīth of Abū Wāqid al-Laythī (raḍiyy Allāhu ‘anhu) who said, ‘We left with the Prophet (ﷺ) for Hunayn. We had only recently abandoned disbelief and the polytheists had a lotus-tree to which they would retreat in devotion and upon which they would hang their weapons. It was called Dhāt Anwāt. We passed by this tree and said, ‘Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ), appoint for us a Dhāt Anwāt like theirs.’ The Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) exclaimed, ‘Allāh is great! These are the practices! By Him in whose hand is my soul your words are like those said by the Children of Israel to Mūsā,

مَا كَانُوا يَصُلُّونَ
فَأَلْيَّكُمُ قَوْمٌ يَنْهَوْلُونَ إِنَّ هٰذُ الْأَكْثَرُ مَنْ بَعْدَ هَذِهِ مَوْتُهُمْ فَيَنْطَلُ
أَجْعَلْنَا إِلَيْهَا كَمَا فَلَمْمَ الْهَيْثَّ١⁵

"‘Make for us a god just as they have gods.’ He said, ‘Indeed you are a people behaving ignorantly. What these people are doing is destined for destruction.’”¹⁵,¹⁶

¹⁴ al-Najm (53): 19-20

¹⁵ al-Aʿrāf (7): 138-139

¹⁶ Ahmad #21897-21900-21902, Tirmidhī #2180, Nasāʿī, al-Kubrā #11185, Humaydī #848, Ṭayālīṣī #1346
The Fourth

The shirk of the polytheist of our times is worse than that of those before. At times of difficulty, the polytheists of old would be sincere to Allāh and at times of ease, they would associate partners with Him. The polytheists of our time, however, commit shirk all the time, in times of ease as well as times of hardship. The evidence for this lies in His saying,

فإذا رجعوا في
الله بحکم لله خاصین
ألا يُفْلَمَّ يُسْحَرُونُ

The wording of Tirmidhī is, ‘When the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) left for Ḥunayn, he passed by a tree belonging to the polytheists called Dhāt Anwāt upon which they would hang their weapons. They said, “Messenger of Allāh, appoint for us a Dhāt Anwāt like theirs!” He said, “Glory be to Allāh! This is like what the people of Mūsā said, ‘Make for us a god just as they have gods.’ By the One in whose hand is my soul, you will follow the ways of those who came before you.’” Tirmidhī said it was hasan ṣahih. It was ruled ṣahih by ibn Hibbān #6702, ibn Haij, al-Īṣābāh, vol. 4, pg. 216, Albānī, Ṣaḥīḥ al-Tirmidhī and Arna’ūṭ.

The wording of Aḥmad #21900 has the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) saying, “Allāh is great! This is like what the Children of Israel said to Mūsā, ‘Make for us a god just as they have gods.’ You will surely follow the ways of those who came before you.” The wording of ibn Hibbān #6702 has the Messenger of Allāh (saw) saying, “Allāh is great! These are the practices! By Him in whose hand is my soul you have said the same as was said by the Children of Israel to Mūsā, ‘Make for us a god just as they have gods.’ He said, ‘Indeed you are a people behaving ignorantly.’” Then he (ﷺ) said, “You will follow the ways of those who came before you.”

A witness to the last sentence is also recorded by Bukhārī #3456–7320 and Muslim #2669 on the authority of Abū Sa‘īd with the words, “You will surely follow the ways of those before you, hand-span by hand-span, cubit by cubit, to the point that were they to enter a lizard hole, you would follow them in.” The Companions asked, ‘Messenger of Allāh, do you mean the Jews and Christians?’ He (ﷺ) replied, “Who else?”
"When they embark on ships, they call on Allâh, making their religion sincerely His, but then when He delivers them safely to the land, they associate others with Him."\(^{17}\)

Therefore, the supplicant is actually worshipping (the supplicated). The evidence for this is His saying,

\text{وَمَنْ أَصَلَّى مَسَّنَ يَدَّ عَرَوَينَ دُونَ آلِ اللَّهِ مَنَادُونَ}
\text{لَيْسَ مِنَ الْحَقِّ إِلَّا يَوُى الْقَبْسَةَ وَهُمْ عَنْ مَا يَا بُعْثُ مُغْلِبُونَ}

"Who could be further astray than those who call on other things besides Allâh, which will not respond to them until the Day of Rising and which are unaware of their prayers?"\(^{18}\)

\[\text{Allâh, Glorious is He, knows best.}\]
\[\text{Peace and blessings be upon Muhammad, his family and his Companions.}^{19}\]

THE FOUR PRINCIPLES
The Four Principles of the Testification of Faith
The Four Principles of the Testification of Faith

These are four principles which Allāh has mentioned in the unequivocal verses of His Book through which a person will come to understand the testification that none has the right to be worshipped save Allāh, and by which he will be able to differentiate the Muslim from the polytheist. Consider them well and lend an attentive ear, may Allāh have mercy on you, for they are of great benefit.

The First

Allāh has mentioned that the disbelievers at the time of the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) accepted that Allāh was the Creator and the Provider and that none shared with Him in this, not an Angel brought near, nor a Prophet who had been sent. They believed that He alone was the source of provision and that He, Glorious is He, alone had the dominion of the heavens and the earth. Moreover, they believed that all the Prophets and Messengers were His servants, under His control and protection.
When this is understood, and one of the polytheists was to ask you for evidence, recite the following words of Allah concerning the disbelievers to him,

"Say: 'To whom does the earth belong, and everyone in it, if you have any knowledge?' They will say, 'To Allah.' Say: 'So will you not pay heed?' Say: 'Who is the Lord of the Seven Heavens and the Lord of the Mighty Throne?' They will say, 'Allah.' Say: 'So will you not have taqwa?' Say: 'In whose hand is the dominion over everything, He who gives protection and from whom no protection can be given, if you have any knowledge?' They will say, 'Allah's.' Say: 'So how have you been bewitched.'"\(^1\)

\(^1\) al-Mu'minun (23): 84-89
THE FOUR PRINCIPLES OF THE TESTIFICATION

"Say: 'Who provides for you out of heaven and earth? Who controls the hearing and sight? Who brings forth the living from the dead and the dead from the living? Who directs the whole affair?' They will say, 'Allāh.' Say, 'Will you not then be mindful of Him?'"\(^2\)

The Second

The belief they held in the Angels, the Prophets and the Āwliyā' was because of their closeness to Allāh, Most High. Concerning those who held their belief in the Angels, Allāh, Most High, says,

\[\text{وَيَوَمَّ نَصْرَهُمَا جَمِيعًا يَقُولُونَ لِلاَّلِيُّ مَلَكُكَ أَهْلُكَهُمْ إِبَّانَكُونَ}
\[\text{يَبْعَدُونَ} \]
\[\text{فَأُولَٰئِكَ كَانُوكَ نَيَّةً وَلَا إِنَّكَ مِنَ الْمَوْمِبِينَ} \]
\[\text{يَبْعَدُونَ} \]

"On the Day We gather them all together and then say to the Angels, 'Was it you whom these people were worshipping?' They will say, 'Glory be to You! You are our Protector, not them.' No, they were worshipping the jinn; they mostly had faith in them."\(^3\)

Allāh says about those who held their belief in the Prophets,

\(^2\) Yūnus (10): 31

\(^3\) Saba’ (34): 40-41
“The Messiah, the son of Maryam, was only a Messenger, before whom other Messengers came and went, his mother was a woman of truth and both of them ate food. See how We make the Signs clear to them! Then see how they are perverted! Say, ‘Do you worship, besides Allāh, something which has no power to harm or help you when Allāh is the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing?’”

Concerning their belief in the Āwliyā’, He says,

“Those they call on are themselves seeking the means by which they might approach their Lord, (striving) as to which of them are the closest to Him, and are hoping for His mercy and fearing His punishment.”

4 al-Mā‘idah (5): 75-76

5 al-Isrā’ (17): 57
The Third

In His Book, Allāh, the Highest of the high, stated that the disbelievers only supplicated to the righteous in the hope that they would bring them closer to Allāh, and that they would intercede on their behalf. They accepted that only Allāh regulates all affairs as already mentioned. If the polytheist was to ask after the evidence for this, recite to him the words of Allāh,

وَيَعتَبْدُونَ مَنْ دُوَّرَ عَلَيْهِمْ مَا لَيْسِهِمْ وَلَا يَقُولُونَ وَيَقُولُونَ هَذَا لَنَفْعَلْنَا
عَنْدَ اللَّهِ قَلْ أَسْتَغْفِرِينَ اللَّهَ يَمْلَأُ الْعَسَمَةَ وَلَا
فِي الْأَرْضِ سَبْحَانَهُ وَقَلْنَا عَلَى يَدَيْنِكَ أُلْهَيْنِ

“They worship, instead of Allāh, what can neither harm them nor help them, saying, ‘These are our intercessors with Allāh.’ Say, ‘Would you inform Allāh of something about which He does not know either in the heavens or on the earth?’ May He be glorified and exalted above what they associate with Him!”

وَالَّذِينَ أَخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَآءَ أُلْهَهُمْ إِلَى اللَّهِ مُرْتَجِعًا
ليَقْفُوُنَّ إِلَى اللَّهِ مُرْتَجِعًا

“Those who take protectors besides Him - ‘We only worship them so that they may bring us nearer to Allāh.’”

6 Yūnus (10): 18

7 al-Zumar (39): 3
The Four Principles of the Testification of Faith

Understand this and fully grasp the fact that the disbelievers knew these three issues and accepted them. To reiterate: 1) Only Allāh alone creates and provides, raises and lowers, and regulates all affairs. No partner has any share in this. 2) They sought to draw closer to Allāh through the Angels and the Prophets because of their closeness to Him. 3) They accepted that harm and benefit was in Allāh’s hand, however their hope was that the Angels and Prophets would draw them closer to Allāh and intercede with Him on their behalf.

Carefully think on this, repeat it to yourself hour after hour for few are the people who know this, especially those who claim to have knowledge! When you understand them, some astonishing things will come to light. Then, after this, understand and realise the fourth issue:

The Fourth

The contemporaries of the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) would not associate partners with Allāh all the time: sometimes they would, and at other times they enact Tawhīd and abandon supplication to the Prophets and devils. In times of ease, they would supplicate to them and hold their beliefs in them. When stricken with harm or severe difficulty, they would abandon them and make their religion sincere for Allāh, realising that the Prophets and righteous had no power to bring them good or harm.

If anyone was to doubt this, recite these words of Allāh to him,
"When harm occurs to you at sea, those you call on vanish - except for Him alone! But when He delivers you to dry land, you turn away. Man truly is ungrateful.”

"When harm touches man he calls upon his Lord, turning to Him in repentance. Then when He grants him a blessing from Him, he forgets what he was calling for before and ascribes rivals to Allâh, so as to misguide others from His Way. Say, ‘Enjoy your disbelief for a little while; you are among the Companions of the Fire.’”

This person who made the religion sincerely for Allâh on some occasions, and for the Angels or Prophets on others is one of the Companions of the Fire. Allâh, Most High, says,

8 al-Isrâ’ (17): 67

9 al-Zumar (39): 8
"Say, 'What do you think? If Allâh's punishment were to come upon you or the Hour, would you call on other than Allâh if you are being truthful?' It is Him you call on and, if He wills, He will deliver you from whatever it was that made you call on Him; and you will forget what you associated with Him."

Peace and blessings be on Muhammad, his family and his Companions.

The Four Principles
Differentiating the Muslim from the Polytheist
The Four Principles
Differentiating the Muslim from the Polytheist

These are four principles of the religion by which a Muslim can differentiate the belief of the Muslims from the belief of the polytheists.

The First

The polytheists whom the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) fought accepted that Allāh was the Creator, the Provider, the bestower of life and disposer of death, the One who regulates all affairs, causes harm and grants benefit. However, this acceptance did not avail them because they did not supplicate to Allāh alone. The evidence for this is His sayings,
"Say: ‘Who provides for you out of heaven and earth? Who controls the hearing and sight? Who brings forth the living from the dead and the dead from the living? Who directs the whole affair?’ They will say, ‘Allâh.’ Say, ‘Will you not then be mindful of Him?’”

"Say: ‘To whom does the earth belong, and everyone in it, if you have any knowledge?’ They will say, ‘To Allâh.’ Say: ‘So will you not pay heed?’ Say: ‘Who is the Lord of the Seven Heavens and the Lord of the Mighty Throne?’ They will say, ‘Allâh.’ Say: ‘So will you not have taqwâ?’ Say: ‘In whose hand is the dominion over everything, He who gives protection and from whom no protection can be given, if you have any knowledge?’

1 Yûnus (10): 31
They will say, ‘Allāh’s.’ Say: ‘So how have you been bewitched.’”

قد أدعوا اللّهدولة يعمم من دون
اللّه يعمم كونك مثل دراهم السمند وتلا في
الأرض وما أعلم فيها من شرك ومالك. إنهم من ظهير

“Say: ‘Call on those you make claims for besides Allāh. They have no power over even the smallest particle, either in the heavens or in the earth. They have no share in them and He has no need of their support.”

وأليت
ندعوكم من دونه ما يمل كون من قطع
ندعوكم لا يسمعون دعاءك ولا سمعوا ما استجابوا لك

“Those you call on besides Him have no power over even the smallest speck. If you call on them they will not hear your call, and were they to hear, they would not respond to you.”

---

2 _al-Mu'minūn_ (23): 84-89

3 _Saba’_ (34): 22

4 _Fātir_ (35): 13-14
"Say: 'Have you thought about those you call upon apart from Allah? Show me what they have created on the earth; or do they have a partnership in the heavens? Produce a Book for me before this one or a shred of knowledge if you are telling the truth.' Who could be further astray than those who call on other things besides Allah, which will not respond to them until the Day of Rising and which are unaware of their prayers? When mankind is gathered together, they will be their enemies and will reject their worship.'

The Second

Through their worship of them, these polytheists whom the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) fought only wanted to draw nearer to Allah and to have them intercede on their behalf with Him. Allah has absolved Himself of anyone who has a protector or intercessor besides Him, instead He has commanded us to sincerity. Sincerity is not to appoint an intermediary between Him and man, that only He be turned to for succour and that only His help be sought. The evidence for this lies in His words,

وَالَّذِينَ أَتَٰهُمْ مِن طَاعَةٍ أَوْ دُونِهِ أُولِيَ الْكُلَايَةِ مَانَعُبْهُمْ إِلَّا

وَلا يَفْعَلُونَ هَذَّهُ لَا شَفَاعَةٌ عَنْدَ اللَّهِ

"They worship, instead of Allāh, what can neither harm them nor help them, saying, 'These are our intercessors with Allāh.'"\(^7\)

أَيَأْتَهُمْ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ شُفَاعَةٌ

قَلْ أَوْلَوْ سَكَانُوا لا يَمْكُونُ شُفَاعَةٌ أَوْ لَبَعَفُوْتُ

"Or have they adopted intercessors besides Allāh? Say, 'Even though they do not control a thing and have no awareness?' Say, 'Intercession is entirely Allāh’s affair. The kingdom of the heavens and earth is His. Then you will be returned to Him.'"\(^8\)

The Third

The Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ) was sent to a people, some of whom worshipped inanimate idols, magicians, fortune-tellers and devils, and some of whom worshipped Angels and the righteous. He did not differentiate between the two, instead he fought them all until the religion was wholly Allâh’s. The evidence for this:

قُلِٰ أَدْعُوا اللَّهَ الَّذِينَ زُفْرَمُنَّهُمْ دُوَّارًا
بَلْ كُلُّ مَيْلٌ كُفَّرْنَاهُمْ وَلَا تَجْزَاهُمْ أَبَا الْكُفَّارِ
يَدْعُونَ يَدْعُونَ إِلَى رَبِّهِمْ الوَسْبِيْلَةَ أَيْمِهِمْ أَقْرَبُ وَيَهْجُونَ
رَحْمَتَهُ وَيَغْفُرُ عَذَابَهُ

“Say, ‘Call on those you make claims for apart from Him. They possess no power to remove any harm from you or to change anything.’ Those they call on are themselves seeking the means by which they might approach their Lord, (striving) as to which of them are the closest to Him, and are hoping for His mercy and fearing His punishment. The punishment of your Lord is truly something to be feared.’

وَمَا يَكُونُ عُرُضَهُمْ لِلْجَمِيعِ مِنْ قَوْلِ الْمَلِيْكِ أَهْتَوَلَّهُ إِلَّا كَانَ كَأَنَّهُ
يَعْبُدُونَ أَوَّلًا أَمَامَهُنَّ أَمَّا وَلَسَنَّهُ مَا دُرِّيْتُهُمْ بِلَاءَ أَنَا
يَعْبُدُونَ الَّذِينَ أَصْرَرُوهُمْ بِهِمْ مَوْسِعَةً

“On the Day We gather them all together and then say to the Angels, ‘Was it you whom these people were worshipping?’ They will say, ‘Glory be to You!

9 al-Isrâ’ (17): 56-57
You are our Protector, not them.' No, they were worshipping the jinn; they mostly had faith in them.”

“On the Day We gather them all together, We will say then to those who associated others with Allâh, ‘To your place, you and your partner-gods!’ Then We will sift them out, and their partner-gods will say, ‘It was not us you worshipped.’”

The Fourth

When stricken with severe harm, these polytheists whom the Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ) fought left their intermediaries and supplicated to Allâh alone, making the religion sincerely His. The evidence for this lies in His words,

“When they embark on ships, they call on Allâh, making their religion sincerely His, but then when He delivers them safely to the land, they associate others

11 Yûnus (10): 28
with Him.”

فَمَنْ مَّقَضَّد

“When the waves hang over them like canopies, they call on Allāh, making their religion sincerely His. But then, when He delivers them safely to the land, some of them are ambivalent.”

THE FOUR PRINCIPLES DIFFERENTIATING
Succinct Counsel
Succinct Counsel

All praise is due to Allāh, Lord of the worlds. Peace and blessings be upon the Master of the Messengers and the Imām of those mindful of Allāh. You, may Allāh have mercy on you, have asked me to write some words that would be of benefit to you.

The first thing I counsel you with is to turn to what Muḥammad (ﷺ) came with from Allāh, the Blessed and Most High. He was sent by Allāh with everything that man would need, he has left nothing that would bring them nearer to Allāh and His Paradise without enjoining them to it. He has left nothing that would take them away from Allāh and bring them closer to His punishment except that he proscribed it and warned against it. Through him, Allāh established the evidence against His creation and, after his sending, none has an argument left that can be used as justification against Allāh. Allāh, Mighty and Magnificent, says about him and his brother Messengers,
"We have revealed to you as We revealed to Nūḥ and the Prophets who came after him. And We revealed to Ibrāhīm and Ismā‘īl and Isḥāq and Ya‘qūb and the Tribes, and ʿĪsā and Ayyūb and Yūnus and Hārūn and Sulaymān. And We gave Dāwūd the Zabūr. There are Messengers We have already told you about and Messengers We have not told you about; and Allāh spoke directly to Mūsā - Messengers bringing good news and giving warning so that people will have no argument against Allāh after the coming of the Messengers. Allāh is Almighty, All-Wise.”

The greatest thing he brought from Allāh and called man to was the Tawḥīd of Allāh which is to worship Him alone with no partners and to make the religion sincerely His. This injunction came before the command to pray, give alms, fast and perform Ḥajj. Allāh, Mighty and Magnificent, says,
“You who are enveloped in your cloak! Arise and warn, and magnify your Lord.”

The meaning of “and magnify your Lord,” is to magnify Him through Tawhîd and the sole, sincere worship of Him alone with no partner. This injunction came before the other commands of Islām. The meaning of, “Arise and warn,” is to warn against associating partners in the worship of Allāh, and this came before the warning against fornication, interest, stealing, oppression and other mortal sins.

This is the most important fundament of the religion and the most obligatory, and for it was creation created,

وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجَنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِلَّا لِيَشْهَدَا "I only created jinn and mankind to worship Me.”

Because of it were the Messengers sent and the Books revealed, وَلْقُلْنَا لِسَلَّمَ وَرَسُولَ أَوْلَٰئِكَ لَنَشْهَدَا بِاللَّهِ "We sent a Messenger among every people [saying]:

2 al-Muddaththir (74): 1-3

3 al-Dhārīyāt (51): 56

4 al-Nabd (16): 36
Worship Allāh and keep clear of all false gods.”

And because of it was man divided into the Muslim and the disbeliever.

Whoever comes to Allāh on the Day of Rising as one who lived by Tawḥīd, not having associated any partners with Him, will enter Paradise. Whoever comes to Him having associated partners with Him will enter the Fire even if he was the most devout of people. This is the meaning of La ilāh illā Allāh for an ilāh, god, is one who is supplicated, hoped in for the promotion of good and the curbing of harm, who is feared and is relied on.

When you have apprehended this, you must learn four principles which we have mentioned before and hence will not repeat here.6

5 None has the right to be worshipped save Allāh.

مسائل الجاهلية

THE ARABIC TEXT
قال الشيخ محمد بن عبد الرحمان رحمه الله تعالى:

هذئ أمور خالفت فيها رسول الله ﷺ ما عليه أهل الجاهلية الكتابيين والأشعريين، فيما لا يخفى للمسلمين عن معرفتها.

فالصدام يظهر خشية الضد، ويضحك كبين الأشياء.

فأهم ما فيها وأصحها خطرًا عند إيمان القلب بما جاء به الرسول ﷺ فإن الصاف إلى ذلك استحسان ما عليه أهل الجاهلية تعب الخطارة، كما قال تعالى: ﴿وَأَلَّهَ يَسْتَمِعُ بِالْمَقْطَعِ وَيَسْتَمِعُ بِالْخُفْرِ﴾ [العنكبوت].

المشائحة الأولى: أنهم يتعبدون بإشراك الصالحين في دعاء الله وعبادته، يريدون رفعهم عند الله ليطفهم أن الله يحب ذلك وأن الصالحين يحبونه. كنما قال تعالى: ﴿وَسَيَسْتَمِعُونَ بِالْبَحْرِ وَيَسْتَمِعُونَ بِالْجِبَالِ﴾ [يونس: 18]. وقال تعالى: ﴿وَأَلْيَكَ آمَنُوا بِمَن ذُو نُبُوَّةٍ أَوْلَـيْكَ مَا تُضَلُّوا إِلَّا لَيْسَ إِلَيْهِ يَزْوَجُونَ﴾ [الزمر: 23].

وهذه أعظم مشائحة خالفهم فيها رسول الله ﷺ، فأتي بالخلاص، وأخبر الله ﷺ: ذِنَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ بِجَمِيعِ الرَّسُولِ، وأنه لا يقبل من الأعمال إلا الخالص، وأخبر أنه ﷺ: ﴿وَأَخْرَجَ أَمْنَٰ مِنْ فَعْلٍ مَا أَشْتَهِسُوا فَقَدْ حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيهِ الْجِنَّةَ وَمَاوَآهُ الْقَارَى﴾ [البقرة: 134].
وَهَذِهِ هِيَ الْمَسَأَلَةُ الْأُنَحَّ لَتَفْرَقُ الْأَقْلَ بِنَيْنَ مُسْلِمٍ وَكَافِرٍ، وَعِنْدَهَا
وَقَطَبَ الْعَدْوَةُ، وَلاَ جَلِيلَهَا شُعُبُ الجَهَدَةُ، كَمَا قَالَ تَعَالَى: ﴿وَقَنِيبُوهُمُّ حَتَّى لا تَكُونَ فِي نَفْسِهِ وَيَكُونُ الْأَقْلَ صَغِيرَٰٓ﴾ (الأنفال: 39).

الثانية: أنَّهُمْ مُتَفْرَقُّونَ فِي دِينِهِمْ، كَمَا قَالَ تَعَالَى: ﴿قَلْ جَزِيبًا يَا لَدِينَهُمْ
فِي الرَّوْمِ﴾ (الروم)، وَكَذَٰلِكَ فِي دُنْيَاهُمْ، وَيُبَيِّنُ أَنَّذَلَّ هُوَ الصُّوابُ، فَأَنَّى
بِالإِجْتِبَاطِ فِي الْدُّنْيَا بِمَا يَقُولُهُ: ﴿تَعْقُرُّ لَكُمْ مِمَّنْ أَلَفْتُ أَلَفًا وَأَلَفًا
أَوْحَيْتُ إِلَيْكُمْ وَمَا رَضِيْتُ بِهِ إِنْ عَلِمْتُ وَمَا رَحُولُو تُفْرَقُونَ فِيهِ﴾
(الشعرى: 13). وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: ﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ فَرَقُوا فِي دِينِهِمْ وَكَاذَّبُوا شَيْئًا أَنَّهُمْ فِي
شَوْلٍ﴾ (الأنم: 159)، وَنَهَانَا عَنْ مَشَامِلَهُمْ بِمَا يَقُولُونَ: ﴿وَلَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ
تَفَرَّقُوا وَأَخْتَلَفُوا مِنْ بَعْدٍ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْبَيِّنَةُ﴾ (آل عمران: 105)، وَنَهَانَا عَنْ التَّفَرُّقِ
في الْذِّلِيلَا بِمَا يَقُولُهُ: ﴿وَاتَّلَّهُمْ يَحْبَسُ اللهُ جَمِيعًا وَلَا تَفَرَّقُوا﴾
(آل عمران: 103).

الثالثة: أنَّ مَخَالَفَةً وَلَيْلَةُ الْأَمَرِ وَعَمَّ الْإِقْلِيَادُ لَفِضْلِهِ، وَالسَّمِيعُ وَالطَّاعَةَ لِهُ
ذُلٌ وَمَهَاءَةٍ، فَخَالَفْهُمْ رَسُولُ اللهِ ﷺ، وَأَمَرَ بِالصَّبِرِ عَلَى جُوُرِ الْوَلَايَةِ، وَأَمَرَ
بِالسَّمِيعِ وَالطَّاعَةِ لِهُمْ وَالْتَّصِيَّةِ، وَغَلَّفَ فِي ذَلِكَ، وَأَبَدًا فِيهِ وَأَعَادَ.
وَهَذِهِ الْثَلَاثُ هِيَ الْأُنَحَّ جَمِيعَ نِيْنَهَا فِي صَدَقَةٍ فِي الصَّحِيحِينِ، أَنَّهُ
قَالَ: ﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْرَزَّ لَكُمْ دُلَّانَا: أَنْ يَعْبُدُوا وَلَا يَتَفَرُّقُوا كَانَوا بِهِ مَكِسَّانًا، وَأَنْ
تَعْصَمُوا بِحُجَّةِ اللَّهِ جَمِيعًا وَلَا تَفَرَّقُوا وَأَنْ يَنَادُوا مَنْ أَمَرَهُمَا وَلَأَمْرُكُمَا﴾
وَلَمْ يَقْعُ خَالِلٌ فِي دِينِ النَّاسِ وَذُنُوبَهُمُ الَّذِي يُسَبِّبُ الْإِخْلَالِ بِهِذَهُ الْثَلَاثِ أَوْ
الرايحة: أن دينهم مبني على أصول أعظمها التقليد، فهو القاعد الكبیر
لجميع التكفير، أولهم وأخوهم; كما قال تعالى: "وكذلك ما أرسلتني قبلي في
قرىتين مذير إلا قال مغفرًا. إنا وضدًا عابدين على أنت ونارا على مشردين" 12
(الزخرف). وقال تعالى: «وإذا قيل لهم أتبعوا ما أنزل الله فلولا
بل نتبع ما وجدنا عليه. فابدأنا أول سكان السيطان بتعويهم إلى عذاب السيرير" 13
(القدمان). فاسبأ اليهود يقولون: "قل إنيما أطيعكم يرجموني أن تعوموا أنت
وهذرني ثم تنفسين مهما يصابيكم من يمنين" 14 (سبأ: 41). وقوله: "أطيعونا
أولئك الذين ركبو ولا تنفعون من دوابه أوهية قليلًا ما نذكرنون" 15 (الأعراف).

الخامسة: أن من أكثر قوؤدهم الأغترار بالأکثر، ويخترعون به على
صخحة الشيء، وتنسطرون على بطلان الشيء بغونه ولا تغلبه. فأنه مبتدأ
ذلك، وواضح له في غير موضوع من الفرائش.

السادسة: الاستحلاج بالصدقين، كقوله: "قلما ذا الفرائش الأول" 16 (طه). فتأسیرمهم ما بدأ في آبائنا الأولين 17 (المؤمنون).

السابعة: الاستيلال بقوم أعطوا قوى في الأفهام والأعمال وفي الملك
والمال والجناح؛ فرد الله ذلك بقوله: "ولقد مكثتم فيما إننا نقتلكم
فيهم" (الحج: 32). وقاله: "وكانوا من قبلك ينتمون إلى أخرين كفارا
فلما جاءهم ما أردنو حكروا يبه" (البقرة: 89). وقوله: "يمتلون كنما
يتوفرون أبواءهم" (البقرة: 146).
الشائعة: الاستذلال على بطلان الشهيد: وبأنه لم يتبع إلا الضعفاء.
كقوله: { أنتم لله وأنتم لله أزورون [الشعراء]. وقوله: أهلكوا من الله عليه من بني إسرائيل [الأنعام: 52]. فأرض الله يقوله: { آللَّه يَأْتِمُ الْمُهْتَدِينَ [الأنعام]}

الناشئة: الاتباعة بفسفة العلماء والعلماء: فأتي بقوله: { يتبعها السَّيِّد} ماتمًا أن ستمتربم بالأتراك والفرانكي. لا تكون أموال الناس بالضطل وتصدرون عن سبيل الله [النبوة: 34]. وقوله: { لتأخروا في دينهم غير الحق} ولا تتبعوا أموات قوم قد سكروا من قبل وأمحلوا صحيرًا وضلوا عن سوء الصبيان [الائدة].

العاصفة: الاستذلال على بطلان الدين: يقلل أنهم أهل وعدهم جنحيهم.
كقولهم: { باود آل زاني} [هود: 27].

الحادية عشرة: الاستذلال بالقياس الفاسد: كقولهم: { إن أنتم إلا بشر} [إبراهيم: 10].

الثانية عشرة: إنكار القياس الصحيح؛ والجامع لهذا وما قبله عدوم نهم الجامع والفارق.

الثالثة عشرة: الفُلُؤْفُ في العلماء والصالحين: كقوله: { يتأهل} [المكتوب لا تتبع في دينه وسلم ولا تتعوَّل على الله إلا الحق} [النساء: 171].

الرابعة عشرة: أن كلما تقدم في شيء على قاعدة، وهو الشرعي والإجماع، فيتبعون الهوى والظن ويعترضون عما جاء به الوصلى.

137
السادسة عشرة: اعتيادهم عن التباع ما أثَنَّاهُم الله بعدم السلام، كقولهم:

۸۸[البقرة: ۸۸]. [هود: ۹۱].

فألَبِّنُوهُم الله، وتَبَيَّن أن ذلك يِبَدَّل الطَّلْب على فِلُوْبِهِم، وأن الطَّلْب يِبَدَّل كَفِّهِم.

السبعة عشرة: اعتيادهم عدم أن أثَنَّاهُم من الله بكتُب السحر، كما ذكر الله ذلك في قوله:

۱۰۱[البقرة: ۱۰۱]. وقوله: [۱۰۰]. ما كان له عليهم مالا ولا نصرًا.

الثامنة عشرة: تتافَّضهم في الأنساب، ينتسبون إلى إبراهيم مع أظهارهم تزل أتباعهم.

التاسعة عشرة: قَلَحُوهُم في بعض السُّلاَجِين يفَعَّل بعض المنْتَسِبين.

العشرة: قَلَحَهُم في بعض السُّلاَجِين يفَعَّل بعض المنْتَسِبين.

الإثني عشرة: قَلَحَهُم في بعض السُّلاَجِين يفَعَّل بعض المنْتَسِبين.

الثالثة عشرة: قَلَحَهُم في بعض السُّلاَجِين يفَعَّل بعض المنْتَسِبين.

الإنسان والنجوم: لَا يَعْمَلُونَ عَلَى رَضَا مُنْتَسِبينٍ.

۶۷[آل عمران: ۶۷].
الرابعة والعشرون: تَرْكُ الدَّخُولِ فِي الْحَقِّ إِذَا سَيَقَامُ الحَقُّ إِلَيْهِ الضَّعْفُاءُ تَكْبِرُ وَأَنْفِسُهُ; فَأَنْزُلَ اللَّهُ نَعْلَمَى: ﴿وَلَا تَظْلِمُ الْقَرْنِينَ يَنْظُرُونَ زِبْهُمْ...﴾ الآيات.

[النعام: 52 وفما بعدها]

السادسة والعشرون: تحرف كتاب الله من بعد ما عقلته وهم يغمون.

الثامنة والعشرون: تصريف الكتب الباطلة ونسبتها إلى الله، كقوله: ﴿وَقَلِّلُ لَّدٌيَّ بِكُتُبِ الْكِتَابِ يَأْتِيهِمْ مَثِيلَ هَذَا مِنْ عِينَ اللَّهِ﴾ [البقرة: 79].

التاسعة والعشرون: أنهم لا يقبلون من الحق إلا اللذي مع طائفتهم، كقوله: ﴿قَالَوُا رَبَّنَا يَزِيدْنَا عَلَى ٱلْعَلِیْشَةَ﴾ [البقرة: 91].

العاشرة والعشرون: أنهم مع ذلك لا يعلمون بما قوله طائفتهم، كما براء الله تعالى عليه يقوله: ﴿فَلَقِ فِي مَشْقَقَ مَذَابِيَةٍ أَلْيَةٍ مِّنَ الْخَيْرَاتِ فَمَتَّعْنَ بِهِمْ مُّؤْمِنِينَ﴾ [البقرة].

الإثنا عشرة والعشرون: وهي من عجائب آيات الله، أنهم لما تأركوا وصية الله بالاجتماع، وارتكبوا ما نهى الله عنه من الافتراء، صلى الله عليه وسلم حزب مما أذينهم.

الحادية والعشرون: وهي من أعجيب الآيات أيضا: معاذتهم الذين الذي انتسبوا إليه غاية العداوة، ومحتجاتهم دين الكفار الذين عادواهم وعادوا نبيهم.

‘ILM: knowledge.

ĪMĀN: The firm belief, complete acknowledgement and acceptance of all that Allāh and His Messenger have commanded to have faith in, submitting to it both inwardly and outwardly. It is the acceptance and belief of the heart that includes the actions of the heart and body, therefore it encompasses the establishment of the whole religion. TĀBI‘ĪN: The generation following that of the Companions.

TAB‘ TĀBI‘ĪN: The generation following that of the Tābi‘īn.

TAQWĀ: the basic meaning of which is setting a barrier between two things. This is why it is said that one ittaqā with his shield, i.e. he set it as a barrier between him and the one who wished him evil. Therefore it is as if the one who has taqwa (muttaqī) has used his following the commands of Allāh and avoiding His prohibitions as a barrier between himself and the Punishment. Hence he has preserved and fortified himself against the punishment of Allāh through his obeying Him.

TARQ: the practice of divination through drawing lines in the earth or equally the practice of throwing gravel onto the ground and divination by the shapes subsequently formed therein.

TAWHĪD: unification, monotheism, the belief in the absolute Oneness of Allāh. It is to believe that Allāh Alone is the creator, nourisher, and sustainer of the worlds; it is to believe that Allāh Alone deserves to be worshipped; and it is to believe that He has unique and perfect Names and Attributes that far transcend anything that one can imagine.

TIYARAHA: seeing bad omens in things.

WAḤDATU-L-WUJŪD: The unity of existence, the heretical belief that Allāh is everywhere and everything.

WARA’: pious caution, scrupulousness. A mannerism through which the heart is purified of all that would sully it and has been excellently summarised in the saying of the Prophet (ﷺ), "From the excellence of ones Islām is his leaving that which does not concern him." It is to leave all that causes one doubt, all that does not concern him, to continuously bring oneself to account and to devote oneself to Allāh. Some of the Salaf said, 'None attains the reality of taqwā until he leaves that which is harmless for fear of falling into that which is harmful.'
