Preface

All praise is due to Allaah and peace be upon Muhammad ﷺ, his family, his Companions and all those who follow his footsteps until the Last Day.

This is a translation of the book ‘Mu’aawiyyah ibn Abee Sufyaan’ by the Sheikh and Muhaddith ‘Abdul-Muhsin Ibn Hamad Al ‘Abbaad. The book addresses the importance of loving the Companions including Mu’aawiyyah.

Inshaallaah this will end much talk without knowledge about a Companion who has been criticised by many of the Sheee’ah and political activists which is based upon emotion and not knowledge.

I have used:

ﷺ to mean: may the peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him, ﷺ to mean: may Allaah be pleased with him and ﷺ to mean: may Allaah be pleased with them throughout the book.

Before printing this book, it was checked by Abu Ishaaq Nadeem Ahsan Shah. May Allaah reward him and the brother whom the Shaykh and Muhaddith ‘Abdul-Muhsin Ibn Hamad Al ‘Abbaad had asked to check the translation. May Allaah reward the brothers for spending their time and effort in checking the translation of this book. May Allaah reward our families for their patience, encouragement and help with this book.
The Prophet ﷺ said,

"Indeed actions are but by intentions and every person will have what he intended..."\(^{1}\)

May Allaah make our intentions purely for Him and our actions according to the Sunnah.

Introduction

الحمد لله رب العالمين الرحمن الرحيم مالك يوم القدر
إياك نعبد وإياك نستعين اهدنا الصراط المستقيم صراط
الذين أنعمت عليهم غير المغضوب عليهم ولا الضالين

"All the praises and thanks be to Allaah, the Lord of all that exists. The Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. The Owner of the Day of Recompense. You (Alone) we worship, and You (Alone) we ask for help. Guide us to the Straight Way. The Way of those on whom You have bestowed Your Grace. Not (the way) of those who earned Your Anger (such as the Jews), nor of those who went astray (such as the Christians)." ²

² Soorah Al-Faatihah : 1-7
O Allaah! Send Your graces, honour and mercy on Muhammad and on the family and followers of Muhammad, as You sent Your graces, honour and mercy on Iibreem and on the family and followers of Iibreem, for You are the Most Praise-worthy, the Most Glorious. O Allaah! Send Your blessings on Muhammad and on the family and followers of Muhammad as You sent Your blessing on Iibreem and on the family and followers of Iibreem, for You are the Most Praise-worthy, the Most Glorious.

O Allaah, be pleased with all the Companions and those who follow them upon righteousness until the Day of Judgement and be pleased with us by your grace and blessings, O Most Merciful, Most Kind.

رَبَّنَا اغْفِرْلَنَا وَلِإِخْرَاجَنَا الْذِّنَينَ سَبُوقًا بِالإِيمَانِ وَلَا تَجْعَلْنَا فِي قُلُوبِنَا غِ lå لِلْذِّينَ آمَنُوا رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ رَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ

"Our Lord! Forgive us and our brethren who have preceded us in Faith, and put not in our hearts any hatred against those who have believed. Our Lord! You are indeed Full of Kindness, Most Merciful."

3 Soorah Al-Hasbr: 10.
Our dearest brothers, this topic concerns Mu‘aawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan from the sayings of the just and reliable scholars.

I do not want to speak about his tribal origin or his life and sayings that he narrated nor about that which is concerning him (personally). Rather, it will be regarding a particular area. It is the speech of those who possess justice regarding him, those whom Allaah has made fortunate to tread the just path. Such that they speak concerning him with that which befits him and reflects his status. They did not fall into that which many people who were unfortunate fell into. Those who did not achieve that in which their safety, salvation and happiness would lie.

Mu‘aawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan is one of the Companions who Allaah blessed to accompany Prophet Muhammad . So everything that can be said regarding the overall virtue of the Companions and what is obligatory towards them in general also includes Mu‘aawiyah .

These trustworthy scholars have sayings pertaining to him in particular, showing how he should be described and be spoken about, may Allaah be pleased with him.

What I present here is no more than to merely transmit from books whose authors have put a lot of appreciated effort in serving the Prophetic Sunnah and in clarifying what is obligatory towards the Companions, may Allaah be pleased with them.

I will mention general statements concerning all of the Companions, Mu‘aawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan Ṣ being one of them.⁵ Then I will mention statements pertaining specifically to him Ṣ.

⁵ Shaykh Saleh Al-Fawzan mentions in ‘Kitaab at-Tawheed’ p.85, “And what is obligatory regarding them (Companions) is to believe that they are the best nation and best of generations due to their precedence over others and being chosen to accompany the Prophet ﷺ They fought Jihaad with him, carried the legislation from him and propagated it after him. Furthermore, Allaah has spoken good of them in his book…”{Tr.}
The Reason For Choosing To Speak About Mu'aawiyah

Yet a person might say, “Why have you chosen Mu‘aawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan and specified him with this topic in particular instead of others?” The answer to this is contained in a famous saying that one of the pious predecessors Abu Tawbah Al-Halabee said and that is:

“Indeed Mu‘aawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan is a curtain for the Companions of Allaah’s Messenger so whoever lifts this curtain, will have the audacity to speak about those behind it.”

Whoever has the audacity to speak unbefitting statements about Mu‘aawiyah will find it easy to speak about others. The situation will not stop at him but it will be easy for that person to go to the extent of speaking about those who are better and superior to Mu‘aawiyah. They will speak about the best of the people after the Prophets and Messengers, Abu Bakr As-Siddeeq, then ‘Umar Ibnul-Khattab, then ‘Uthmaan Ibn ‘Affaan⁶ and then

⁶ Sayid Qutb already lifted that curtain by speaking about Mu‘aawiyah and he then spoke about ‘Uthmaan saying: “And we tend to the opinion that the Khilaafah of ‘Alee was the natural extension of the Khilaafah of the two Shaykhs (i.e Abu Bakr and ‘Umar) and that the era of ‘Uthmaan was merely a gap (or opening) in between.”‘al adaalaat ul Ijtima‘iyya’ab’ p.206 5th edition}. Sayid Qutb also said: “And it is unfortunate that the Khilaafah came to ‘Uthmaan when he was an old man. His determination had weakened and did not reach the goals intended by Islaam, and bis ‘Alee Ibn Abees Taalib.’ Likewise other Companions have had words said about them negatively and they are not deserving or befitting of those statements. In reality, if words were said about them in their favour then they deserve it and are befitting of it and the speaker of these words should be praised and complimented. It is for this reason that these predecessors who resolve was too weak to steadfastly face the plots of Marwaan and plots of Umayyah beyond that.” ‘Al-‘Adalaatul-Ijtima‘iyaab’ p.186 5th edition. Sayid Qutb further says: “Indeed it was a trial that ‘Alee was not the third of the rightly guided Khaleefahs.” ‘Al-‘Adalaatul-Ijtima‘iyaab’ p.162 5th edition. {Tr.}

7 Imaam Al-Laalakaa‘ee (d.418h) in his book ‘Sharh Usool Itiqaad Ablis-Sunnah wal Jama‘ab’ mentions the superiority of ‘Uthmaan in volume 7/8, p.1419 – 1434. As does Imaam Al-Bukhaaree (d.256h) in his ‘Sabeeb’ volume 5(English/Arabic), Imaam Al-Ajurree (d.360h) in his book ‘Ash-Shareeqab’ volume 3 p.5-11, Imaam Al-Tabaaawi (d.320h) in his book ‘Al-Agedatu-Tabaaawiyah’ on p.478 – 482 and Imaam As-Saaboonee (d.449h) in his book ‘Agedatus-Salaf wa As-baabdul-Hadeeth,’ on p.98 – 105, Imaam Ibn Qudaama al-Maqdasee (d.620h) in his book ‘Lum’atul-Iltiqaad’ mentions the superiority of ‘Uthmaan being in paradise on p.96. Imaam Barbabaaree (d.329h) in his book ‘Sharhus-Sunnah’ mentions the superiority of Companions and respecting them on p.28,120,124,133,137,147,161,162,164,169. Imaam Ibn Abees ‘Aasim Ash-Shaibaaanee (d.287h) in his book ‘Kitaab Sunnah’ mentions an authentic badeeth that the Prophet  said, “You will continue to be upon goodness so long as there is amongst you those who have seen me.” With the addition that includes those who saw the Companions and those who saw those among them, p.616 badeeth no.215.

Shaykh Saleeb Fawzan in his ‘Kitaab at-Tawheed’ on p.86 says: “The best of the Companions are the four Khaleefahs; Abu Bakr, ‘Umar Ibnul-Khattab, ‘Uthmaan Ibn Affan and ‘Alee Ibn Abees Talib, then the ten promised paradise by name; Talha, Zubayr, ‘Abdulrahman Ibn ‘Auf, Abu ‘Obaydah Ibnul-Jarrah, Sa’d Ibn Abees Waqqas and Sa’eed Ibn Zayd. And the Mubaajiroon (the Migrants) are considered better than the Ansaar (the Helpers), the people of Badr, the people who pledged the allegiance of Ridbwan, the ones who were killed before the victory of Makkah and those who died after the victory.”

Shaykh Abdul-Maalik Ramadhaanee says, “This is why the Prophet  would put the Mubaajiroon (the Migrants) in front of the Ansaar (the Helpers) when they would go out in war expeditions.” (mentioned in a collection of four tapes recorded in Dammam 1420h). {Tr.}
talked positively about the righteous Companionsﷺ are always mentioned in goodness on the tongues. Their beautiful statements are cited, mercy is sought for them and they are often praised due to the obligation they fulfilled towards the Companionsﷺ of Allaah’s Messengerﷺ.

As for the ones who speak about the Companionsﷺ with unbefitting sayings, he in reality has not harmed them but only harmed himself, because the Companionsﷺ have already put forward much good. Theyﷺ put forward great actions that they did while being with the Messenger of Allaahﷺ. So not only does this person harm himself but he also increases the Companionsﷺ in good deeds and raises their status. For if he speaks about them unjustly, his good deeds will be added to theirs, if he has any good deeds and thereby their ranks are raised. However, if he does not have any good deeds then as is said:

The Virtues And Merits Of The Companions

When Allaah, the Most High, sent His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ, making the Message permanent, complete and sealing by him all previous messages, until Allaah inherits the earth and those on it, He chose the Companions ﷺ to accompany him.

He willed that they be present in his time. They remained upright as far as they were able to by struggling and striving in Jihaad with him ﷺ for the sake of Allaah, spreading his ﷺ Sunnah, taking whatever came from him ﷺ. They became the connection between the Messenger of Allaah ﷺ and those who came after them. So whoever insults them, insults the connection and firm tie that ties the Muslims to the Messenger of Allaah ﷺ.

Therefore, they gained a specific distinction and that is being chosen to accompany the Messenger of Allaah ﷺ. Allaah honoured them in this worldly life to be able to see him ﷺ and this was not gained by anyone except them ﷺ. Allaah honoured them such that they heard directly from his noble mouth ﷺ. They received this good, this light and guidance and passed it on to those after them. Due to this, the Companions have a favour and superiority over those who came after them. This is because this guidance, light and good that happened to those who followed, would not have occurred except by the connection of those chosen ones ﷺ.
It has been established that the Messenger ﷺ said, "Whoever calls to guidance will have a reward similar to all those who follow him without their reward diminishing in any way and whoever calls to misguidance, he will carry a sin similar to all those who follow him without their sins decreasing in any way."

This noble hadith primarily necessitates a great portion and fortune for the Companions ﷺ because they are the ones that took this guidance and light from the Messenger ﷺ and passed it on to those after them. So all those who benefited from it, the Companions ﷺ will have the reward similar to theirs up until Allaah inherits the earth and those upon it.

Yet preceding them in this fortune is the Messenger ﷺ, since he came with this good and this guidance. Allaah will reward His Prophet ﷺ with the same reward as He gives to all those who were guided, entered the Religion of Allaah and did good deeds, without their reward decreasing in any way. This is because the Prophet ﷺ is the one who called the people firstly to this guidance. Therefore he has the same reward as all those who benefited from it due to him ﷺ.

The Companions of the Messenger of Allaah will have a great portion and fortune from that reward for they are the ones who obtained this guidance and passed it on to those after them. They are the ones who collected the Qur’aan. They are the ones who memorised it. They are the ones who passed it on to those who came after them. They are those who obtained the Sunnah of Allaah’s Messenger ﷺ. They passed it on to those who came after them thereby gaining much reward and recompense. They will receive a great reward and a great fortune through the supplication of the Messenger ﷺ.

8 Sabeel Muslim (4/2060).
In the authentic hadith, he said,

“May Allaah brighten the face of a person who heard one of my sayings, understood it and passed it on just as he has heard it.”

The Companions are the ones who heard from the Messenger directly, without any intermediary, so this special characteristic was gained by them, may Allaah be pleased with them. Therefore, these good people, these predecessors are the strong connection that ties us with the Messenger. Whoever insults them has severed that connection between himself and the Prophet. This is sufficient misguidance and humiliation and Allaah’s refuge is sought.

Sayings Of The Pious Predecessors Regarding The Companions

Now, I will mention to you some sayings of the pious predecessors of this Ummah stating the rights of the Companions of Allaah’s Messenger ﷺ, in general, Mu’aawiyah being one of them. I will then mention what they have said regarding the rights of Mu’aawiyah ﷺ specifically.

Imaam At-Tahaawiyy says in his famous ‘Al-‘Aqeedatut-Taabaawiyyyah’, “We love the Companions of the Messenger ﷺ and we do not become extreme in loving any one of them nor do we renounce any one of them. We hate those that hate them and speak ill of them. We only make mention of them with good. Loving them is part of the Religion (Deen), faith (Eeman) and righteousness (Ihsaan) and hating them is disbelief (Kufr), hypocrisy (Nifaaq) and transgression (Tugbyaan).”

Ibn Abil-Izz Ibn ‘Abdis-Salaam\(^{11}\) (d.792), the explainer of At-Taabaawiyyah says, “Who is more astray than one who has hatred in his heart for the best of the believers after the Prophets and the leaders of Allaah’s friends, the Most High. Rather the Jews and Christians are better than the Rawaafidh by one characteristic and that is it was said to the Jews: Who are the best in your religion? They said, 'the Companions of Moosaa (Moses) ﷺ'. It was said to the Christians: Who are the best in your religion? They said, 'the Companions of ‘Eesaa (Jesus) ﷺ'. It was said to the Raafidhab: Who are the worst people in your religion? They said, 'the Companions of Muhammad', excluding but a few. Amongst the ones they insulted are those who are many times better than those they excluded.”

Imaam Al-Baghawee says in ‘Sharhus-Sunnab,’ “Maalik said, ‘Whoever hates anyone from the Companions of Allaah’s Messenger and holds malice in his heart, has no right to the war-booty of the Muslims.’ Then he recited:

What Allaah gave as booty (Fai’) to His Messenger (Muhammad) from the people of the townships, it is for Allaah, His Messenger (Muhammad), the kindred (of the Messenger Muhammad), the orphans, the poor, and the wayfarer, in order that it may not become a fortune used by the rich among you. And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad) gives you, take it; and whatsoever he forbids you, abstain (from it). And fear Allaah; verily Allaah is Severe in punishment.

The ‘Raafidhab’ are an extreme group amongst the Shee‘ab sect. {Tr.}

Sharb Al-Tabaawiyah p.469.

Soorah Al-Ha’sar: 7.
(And there is also a share in this booty) for the poor emigrants, who were expelled from their homes and their property, seeking Bounties from Allaah and to please Him, and helping Allaah (i.e. helping His Religion) and His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ). Such are indeed the truthful (to what they say).

أولئك هم المفلحين

(And the spoils of war is also for) those who, before them, had homes (in Al-Madeenah) and had adopted the Faith, love those who emigrate to them, and have no jealousy in their hearts for that which they have been given (from the booty of Banu An-Nadir), and give them (migrants) preference over themselves even though they were in need of that. And whosoever is saved from his own greediness, such are they who will be the successful.

أعفنا عن ذنوبنا إلّا أن نجعل في فُؤادنا غلا لِلذين آمنوا إلّا أن نُعفْفَ فِي رَحْمَتِ رَبِّنَا رَبِّ الْكَفَّارَةِ ﴿15﴾

15 Soorah Al-Hasr: 8.
And those who came after them say: Our Lord! Forgive us and our brethren who have preceded us in Faith, and put not in our hearts any hatred against those who have believed. Our Lord! You are indeed Full of Kindness, Most Merciful.\textsuperscript{17}

A man was mentioned to Imaam Maalik, who spoke ill of the Companions of Allaah’s Messenger ﷺ so he recited this Verse:

\textit{\textit{Mٌحَمَّدُ رَسُولُ الَّذِينَ مَعَهُ أَشْدَأَ عَلَى الْكُفَّارِ رَحمَةُ بِيَّنَّهُمْ تَزَاهَمُ رُكُبَّاً سَجَدًا يَبْغُونَ فَضَلاً مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَرَضُوْانَ سَيَتَهُمْ فِي رَوْحِهِمْ مِّنْ أَثْرٍ السُّجُودِ ذَلِكَ مَثَلُهُمْ فِي الْقُرْآنِ وَمَثَلُهُمْ فِي الْإِنْجِيلِ كُرُزَّعُ أَخْرَجُ شَطَّةً قَازَرَةٌ فَاسْتَفْلَظَ فَاسْتَوَى عَلَى سُوقِهِ يُعْجِبُ الزَّرَاعَ لَيْغَيْظَ بِهِمْ الْكُفَّارِ}\textsuperscript{17}

\textit{Muhammad (ﷺ) is the Messenger of Allaah. And those who are with him are severe against the disbelievers, and merciful among themselves. You see them bowing and falling down prostrating (in prayer), seeking Bounty from Allaah and (His) Good Pleasure. Their mark of Faith is on their faces from the traces of prostration. This is their description in the Torah. And their description in the Injeel (Gospel) is like a (sown) seed which sends forth its shoot, then makes it strong, and becomes thick and it stands straight on its stem, delighting the sowers so that He may enrage the disbelievers through them.}\textsuperscript{18}

\textsuperscript{18} Soorah Al-Fath: 29.
Then he said, "Whoever from the people has malice in his heart towards any one of the Companions of the Prophet has been struck by this Verse."

Imaam Ash-Shawkaanee said regarding the explanation (Tafseer) of the Verse:

وَالذِّينَ حَمَاوُا مَنْ بَعْدِهِمْ يَتُولُونَ رَبَّنَا إِفْخَرْتُ لَنَا وَلِإِخْوَانَنَا اَلْذِّينَ سَبِقُونَا بِالإِيمَانِ وَلَا تَجْعَلُ فِي قُلُوبِنَا غَلاً"لِلذِّينَ آمَنَا رَبَّنَا إِلَّهُ رَبِّي وَرَحِيمٌ"

(And those who came after them say: Our Lord! Forgive us and our brethren who have preceded us in Faith, and put not in our hearts any hatred against those who have believed. Our Lord! You are indeed Full of Kindness, Most Merciful.)

"Those who came after them', means those who came after the Muhajireen and the Ansaar,’ which means, "those who followed them correctly, up until the Day of Judgement."

Then he said, "Allaah ordered them that after seeking forgiveness for the Muhajireen and the Ansaar, that they ask Allaah to remove all malice from their hearts towards the believers in general. The Companions are included in this first and foremost, since they are the most honorable of the believers and since the context refers to them. Whoever does not seek forgiveness for the Companions in general and asks Allaah to be pleased with them has opposed what Allaah has ordered in this Verse.

19 Sharbus-Sunnah (1/229).
20 Soorah Al-Hashr: 10.
21 Referring clearly to the saying of Allaah in Soorah Taubah:100. {Ed.}
If he finds malice in his heart towards them then the satan's incitement to evil has affected him. And he has fallen largely into disobedience of Allaah having shown enmity to the friends (of Allaah) and the best of the nation of Muhammad ﷺ.

A door will be opened for him from betrayal taking him towards the Hell Fire if he does not turn to Allaah supplicating to Him to remove any malice from his heart he has towards the best of people and the most honourable of this nation.

If he goes further to revile anyone of them, then he has complied with satan's leash which results in the anger and wrath of Allaah. This incurable disease affects those who have been put to trial by having had a teacher from the Raafidhibah or by accompanying somebody from the enemies of the best nation. Satan has played with him making his lies seem beautiful to him. This is done along with false stories and fabricated superstitions. Hence, turning them away from the Book of Allaah, whereby falsehood cannot reach it (the Qur'aan) through anyone from the front or from behind and turning them away from the Sunnah of the Messenger ﷺ which is transmitted to us by the narrations of the greatest scholars in every time and age. They purchased misguidance at the expense of guidance and chose a great loss instead of the great success. And satan, the rejected one, continues to move them from place to place and level by level until they become the enemies of the Book of Allaah, the Sunnah of the Messenger ﷺ, the best nation, the righteous servants and the rest of the believers. They have neglected the obligations of Allaah and they have left the sacred rites of this Religion and they have endeavoured to plot against Islaam and its people with every effort. They threw stones and mud at the Religion and its people and Allaah's Knowledge encompasses them from behind.”
This is what Ash-Shawkaanee ṭabī‘ahullah has said in his explanation of this Verse. Then he said that Ibn Mardawiah and Imaam Al-Haakim reported, Al-Haakim authenticating it, on the authority of Sa’d Ibn Abee Waqqas who said, “The people are upon three levels. Two levels have passed (Muhajirun and the Ansaar) and one remains. So the best that you have been created upon is to be upon this level, which is left.” Then he recited:

«وَالَّذِينَ جَاءُوا مَنْ بَعْدهُمْ يَقُولُونَ رَبّنَا اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَلِإِخْوَانَنَا الَّذِينَ سَبَقُونَا إِلَيْهِ الْإِيمَانَ وَلَا تَجْعَلْ فِي قَلْبِنَا غَلَاً لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبّنَا إِنَّكَ رَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ»

It has been reported by ‘Abd Ibn Humaid, Ibnul-Mundhir, Ibn Abee Haatim, Ibnul-Anbaaree in the scrolls and Ibn Mardawiah from ‘Aa’ishah, may Allaah be pleased with her, who said, “they were ordered to seek forgiveness for the Companions of the Prophet but they cursed them,” then she recited the Verse:

22 Soorah Al-Hasbr: 10.
And those who came after them say: Our Lord! Forgive us and our brethren who have preceded us in Faith, and put not in our hearts any hatred against those who have believed. Our Lord! You are indeed Full of Kindness, Most Merciful.\(^23\)

Imaam Muslim reported this hadeeth at the end of his Saheeh without the recitation of this Verse.

Imaam Nawawee in his explanation says: Al-Qaadhee\(^24\) says, “It seems that she said this when she heard the people of Egypt saying what they were saying about ‘Uthmaan, the people of Shaam saying what they were saying about ‘Alee and the Harooriyah\(^25\) saying all that they were saying.” The order to seek forgiveness that she pointed to refers to His saying:

وَالَّذِينَ جَاءُوا مَنْ بَعْدَهُمْ يُقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَلِإِخْوَانِنَا الْذِينَ سَبَقُونَا بِالإِيمَانِ وَلَا تَجَفَّ فِي قُلُوبِنَا غَلاًٰ

\(^25\) to Al-Haajr: 29.

And those who came after them say: Our Lord! Forgive us and our brethren who have preceded us in Faith, and put not in our hearts any hatred against those who have believed. Our Lord! You are indeed Full of Kindness, Most Merciful.\(^26\)

\(^23\) Soorah Al-Hasr: 10.
\(^24\) Referring to Qaadhee ‘Iyaad.
\(^25\) The Harooriyah (Khawaarij) are a people whose ascription is to a place called Haroor near Kofaj in Iraq. Imaam Maalik used this as a proof that, “there is no right to the spoils (of war) for those who revile the Companions, because Allaah specified it for those who came after the Companions, seeking forgiveness for them.”

Ibn Mardawaih has reported on the authority of Ibn ‘Umar, that he heard a man speaking ill of some of the Muhaajireen, so he recited to him:

Then he said, “Are you from amongst these Muhaajireen?” the man said “No.” Then he recited upon him:

27 See Sharh an-Nawawee (18/158).
28 Soorah Al-Hasr: 8.
(And the spoils of war is also for) those who, before them, had homes (in Al-Madeenah) and had adopted the Faith, love those who emigrate to them, and have no jealousy in their hearts for that which they have been given (from the booty of Banu An-Nadir), and give them (emigrants) preference over themselves even though they were in need of that. And whosoever is saved from his own greediness, such are they who will be the successful.)

Then Ibn ‘Umar said, “Are you from amongst these Ansaar?” The man said “No.” Then he recited upon him:

«وَالَّذِينَ جَاءُوا مَنْ يُعْدَهُمْ يَقُولُوْنَ رَبّنَا اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَلِإِخْوَانِنَا الَّذِينَ سَبَقَنَا بِالإِيمَانِ وَلَا تَجْعَلْ فِي قُلُوبِنَا غَلَا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبّنَا إِنَّكَ رَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ»

(And those who came after them say: Our Lord! Forgive us and our brethren who have preceded us in Faith, and put not in our hearts any hatred against those who have believed. Our Lord! You are indeed Full of Kindness, Most Merciful.)

Then Ibn ‘Umar said, “Are you from amongst these?” The man said, “I hope so.” Then Ibn ‘Umar said, “Those that revile the Companions are not from amongst these.”

30 Soorah Al-Hashr: 10.
31 See Faith Al-Qadeer (5/198).
Imaam Ahmad Ibn Hanbal in his book, 'as-Sunnah' says, "From the Sunnah is to mention the good aspects of all of the Companions of Allaah’s Messenger ﷺ remaining silent about what transpired between them. So whoever reviles the Companions of the Messenger ﷺ or anyone of them, is an innovator, a Raafidhi. Loving them is (in agreement to the) Sunnah, supplicating for them is nearness, taking them as examples is a means (to get closer to Allaah) and to take their statements is an honour.” He said, “It is not allowed for anyone to mention anything of their errors, nor to insult any of them. Whoever does this, then it is upon the leader to punish him and not to forgive him but rather to confront him and call him to repent. If he repents, it is accepted from him. If he does not repent then he is again confronted and kept in jail until he repents and turns back.”

Imaam Aboo ‘Uthmaan As-Saaboonee in his book ‘Aqeedatus-Salaf wa As-haabul-Hadeeth’ says, “And their position (Ablus-Sunnah) is that one should withhold their tongues regarding what occurred between the Companions of Allaah’s Messenger ﷺ and to purify the tongues from what is considered finding fault or deficiencies in them and they hold the position of asking mercy for them and loving them.”

Shaykhul-Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah says in ‘Al-‘Aqeedatul-Waasitiyyah’, “From the foundation of Ablus-Sunnab wal Jamaa’ab is the purity of their hearts and tongues towards the Companions of Allaah’s Messenger ﷺ as Allaah described them in His saying:

وَأَلْدَيْنِ ۖ جَاءَوْا مَنْ بَعْدَهُمْ يُقُولُونَ رَبّنَا اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَلِإِخْوَانِنَا الَّذينَ سَبِّقَنَا بالإِيمَانِ وَلَا تَجْعَلْ فِي قُلُوبِنَا غَلَاً لِلَّذِينَ آمَنَوا رَبّنَا إِلَّكَ رَعِيْفٌ رَحِيمٌ

And in the obedience to the Prophet ﷺ in his saying:

"Do not revile my Companions, for by the One in Whose Hands is my soul, if any one of you gave the size of Uhud in gold as charity, he would not even reach a handful of theirs nor half of that (in reward)."

Shaykhul-Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah said, "And they free themselves from the way of the Raafidhah, those who hate the Companions and revile them and also the Nawaasib sect, those who harm the Prophet’s Family ﷺ with their sayings and actions. They withhold their tongues regarding what occurred between the Companions. They say regarding the narrations that are reported concerning their errors that they contain fabrications and narrations that have additions and deletions in them, misconstruing the true picture. What is authentic regarding these narrations, they (the Companions) are excused from since they tried their best to attain correct judgement. In spite of this, Ablus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ab do not believe anyone of the Companions is infallible from major or minor sins. Rather it is possible for them to sin in general yet they have past virtues that necessitate forgiveness of what occurred from them, if anything. They are forgiven for sins which no other nation after them will be forgiven for as they have certain good deeds which those after them do not have, such that they wipe out their bad deeds. It has been established that Allaah's Messenger ﷺ has said that they are the best of all generations and that one handful of their charity is better than the size of Mount Uhud in gold of those after them. Also if one of them committed a sin then either he repented from it, or had good deeds that wiped them out, or was forgiven by virtue of his precedence (in Islaam), or by the intercession of Muhammad ﷺ since the Companions are the most deserving of his intercession. Or he has been tried with a calamity in this life thereby expiating his sins. If this then is the situation regarding the Companions' actual sins, then what about those aspects where they strived to attain a correct ruling, such that if they were correct they will receive two rewards and if they were mistaken they will receive one reward, the mistake being forgiven.

Also the amount of objectionable deeds of some of them is negligible in comparison to their virtues and their good deeds of belief in Allaah and His Messenger ﷺ, Jihaad in the path of Allaah, migration, support, beneficial knowledge and righteous actions. Whoever looks into their lives with knowledge, insight and into the virtues Allaah blessed them with would know with certainty that they are the best of creation after the Prophets. There never was and there will never be any like them. They are the elite in the generations of this nation which is the best and most noble of the nations to Allaah.”

Shaykh Yahyaa Ibn Abee Bakr al-'Amree al Yamanee in his book 'Ar-Riyaadh Al-Mustataabah fee man labu Riwaayah fis-Sabeehain minas-Sabaabah' (those Companions who have a narration in the two Saheeh books, Al-Bukhaareee and Muslim): “It is a must for every sane, religious person to excuse the Companions of all that occurred between them in terms of dispute and to make an excuse for those who erred from them. To seek a good way out for them and to accept the correctness of their consensus upon what they agreed, due to their knowledge. They are the most knowledgeable with regard to their situation and the one present sees what the absent one does not. The way of the people of knowledge is to overlook deficiencies and the way of the hypocrites is to look for shortcomings. If it is a must in the Religion to hide the faults of the Muslims so what about the Companions of the final Prophet ﷺ? Consider his ﷺ saying, “Do not revile any of my Companions.” And his ﷺ saying, “A sign of a man perfecting his Islaam is that he leaves off that which does not concern him.” This is the way of the pious predecessors and all besides it is just desires and loss.”

Al-Haafidh Ibn Hajr in ‘Fathul-Baaree’ mentioned the saying of Abul-Mudhaffar As-Sam‘aaneet, “Exposing the faults of the Companions is a sign of betrayal from the one who does it. Further, it is an innovation and misguidance.”

Imaam Al-Maimooni said: Ahmad Ibn Hanbal said to me, “O Abul-Hasan if you see a man mention any of the Companions with evil then question his Islaam.”

Al-Khateeb Al-Baghdaadee narrated in his book ‘Al-Kifaayah’ with his chain of narration to Abee Zur‘ah Ar-Raazeet that he said, “If you see a man defaming any of the Companions of Allaah’s Messenger ﷺ then know that he is a heretic, because we believe in the Messenger of Allaah ﷺ and in the Qur’aan as being true. It is the Companions who have conveyed this Qur’aan and the Prophetic guidance to us. Yet they seek to criticise our witnesses (to the Revelation) so as to nullify the Book and the Sunnah. They are more deserving to be refuted and they are the heretics.”

Imaam Ibn Katheer said in explaining Allaah's saying:

"The first to embrace Islaam from the Emigrants (Muhjaajiroon) and the Helpers (Ansaaar) and those that follow them upon righteousness, Allaah is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him."

“Allaaah the Exalted informed us that He is pleased with the first to embrace Islaam from the Emigrants and the Helpers and those who follow them correctly. So accursed be those who hate them or revile all or some of them, especially the best of the Companions after the Messenger ﷺ. The best and most superior of them, I mean the great truthful one, the great Khaleefah Abu Bakr Ibn Abeed Qubbaafah, for the forsaken amongst the Rawaafidh have enmity towards the best of the Companions and they hate and revile them, we seek refuge in Allaah from this. This shows that their intellect is upturned and their hearts are reversed. Where do these people stand in terms of belief in the Qur’aan if they revile those whom Allaah is pleased with? As for Ablas-Sunnah (the People of the Sunnah) they seek Allaah’s pleasure for those whom Allaah is pleased with, and they curse those whom Allaah and His Messenger ﷺ curse. They show allegiance to those whom Allaah is friends with and they have enmity to those whom Allaah shows enmity to. They are followers not innovators and they imitate42 and do not initiate (newly invented matters in the religion). This is why they are the successful party of Allaah and are His believing servants.”

Al-Haafidh Ibn Hajr Al-‘Asqalaanee rahimahullaah said, “Ahlus-Sunnah have agreed that it is obligatory to forbid cursing any one of the Companions due to the fighting that took place between them even if those in the right were known. This is so because they did not fight each other except after considering themselves upon the Truth, and Allaah, the Most High, has excused the one who errs in striving to reach a correct ruling. Rather, it is established that the one who errs will be rewarded with one reward and the one who is correct in his judgement will receive two rewards.” 43

The Sayings Of Trustworthy Scholars Regarding Mu‘aawiyah Ibn Abees Sufyaan

Ibn Qudaama al-Maqdasee said in ‘Lum’atul ‘Itiqaad’, “Mu‘aawiyah is the maternal uncle of the believers and the scribe of Allaah’s revelation and one of the Muslim Khaleefahs – May Allaah be pleased with them.”

The commentator of Tahaawiyyah (Ibn Abil-‘Izz Ibn ‘Abdis-Salaam) said, “The first of the Muslim kings was Mu‘aawiyah and he was the best of the Muslim kings.”

Imaam Ad-Dhahabee says in ‘Siyar ‘Alam an-Nubalaah’: “(Mu‘aawiyah is) the leader of the believers and king of Islaam.”

Al-Bayhaqi narrated from Imaam Ahmad that he said, “The Khaleefahs are Abu Bakr, ‘Umar, ‘Uthmaan and ‘Alee.” It was said to him, “What about Mu‘aawiyah?” He said “There was no one in the time of ‘Alee more deserving of being the Khaleefah than ‘Alee and may Allaah have mercy on Mu‘aawiyah.”
Ibn Abee Dunyaa\textsuperscript{44} narrated with his chain up to ‘Umar Ibn ‘Abdulaziz that he said, “I saw the Messenger \textsuperscript{5} in a dream and Abu Bakr and ‘Umar were sitting with him so I greeted him and I sat down. While I was sitting ‘Alee and Mu‘aawiyah were brought in. They were made to enter a house and the door was closed and I was watching. In no time ‘Alee came out saying it has been judged in my favour, I swear by the Lord of the Ka‘ba. Then, in no time, Mu‘aawiyah came out saying, "My Lord has forgiven me, I swear by the Lord of the Ka‘ba.”

Ibn ‘Asaakir narrated on the authority of Abu Zur‘ah Ar-Raazee, that a man said to him, “I hate Mu‘aawiyah”. So he said to him, “Why?” The man replied, “because he fought against ‘Alee.” He said, “Woe to you, indeed Mu‘aawiyah’s Lord is Merciful and his disputant is noble so what is your reason for entering between them, may Allaah be pleased with them both.”

Imaam Ahmad was asked concerning that which had occurred between ‘Alee and Mu‘aawiyah, so he recited:

\begin{quote}

\textbf{تَلْكَ آيَةَ الْحَقُّ خَلَتْ لَهَا مَا كَسَبَّتُ وَلَكُمُ مَا كَسَبْتُمْ وَلَا}

\textbf{نَسَأَلُونَ عَمَّا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ}

\begin{quote}
\textit{That was a nation who has passed away. They shall receive the reward of what they earned and you of what you earn. And you will not be asked of what they used to do.}\textsuperscript{45}
\end{quote}

Similar statements have been made by more than one of the pious predecessors.

\textsuperscript{45} Soorah Al-Baqarah:134.
'Abdullaah Ibn Mubaarak was asked about Mu’aaWiyyah. He replied, "What should I say about a man who, when the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Sami’allaahu liman hamidah’ (Allaah responds to the one who praises Him), Mu’aaWiyyah , standing behind him, said, ‘Our Lord to You belongs praise’.

It is well known that “Sami’a” here means 'responds to'. Mu’aaWiyyah ﷺ gained the superiority of praying behind the Messenger ﷺ. The Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Allaah responds to the one who praise Him.’ And Mu’aaWiyyah ﷺ praying behind the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Our Lord to You belongs praise’.

It was said to ‘Abdullaah Ibn Mubaarak, “Which of the two is better, Mu’aaWiyyah or ‘Umar Ibn ‘Abdulaziz?” So he said, “The dust gathered in the nose of Mu’aaWiyyah with the Messenger ﷺ is better and superior than ‘Umar Ibn ‘Abdulaziz.”

Mu’aafah Ibn ‘Umran was asked, “Which of the two is better, Mu’aaWiyyah or ‘Umar Ibn ‘Abdulaziz?” So he became angry and said to the questioner, “Are you likening a man from the Companions to a man from the successors (followers of the Companions)? Mu’aaWiyyah is his Companion, his brother in law, his scribe, his trust upon the revelation of Allaah.”

46 Compare this statement to that of Maududi in his book ‘Al Khilaafah waal Mulk’ when he accused Mu’aaWiyyah with deception (p.66, p.78, p.84) and said of him, “Mu’aaWiyyah has clearly gone against the book of Allaah and the Sunnah of the Messenger ﷺ” (p. 113). Maududi further said, “Mu’aaWiyyah took on board, due to political gains what opposes a part of the legislation” (p.113). Sayid Qutb said in his book ‘Kutob wa Shakhhsiyyat,’ “And when Mu’aaWiyyah and his companion were established upon lies, cheating, deception, hypocrisy, bribery and the selling of the Muslims’ honour; ‘Alee did not go down to this lowest level” (p.242). {Tr.}
Al-Fadl Ibn Ziyaad said, “I heard Abu ‘Abdillaah (Imam Ahmad) when he was asked regarding a man who had degraded Mu‘aawiyah and ‘Amr Ibn ‘Aas, is he to be called a Raafidee? He replied, ‘Indeed no one has the audacity to attack them except that he has a hidden evil. No one degrades any of the Companions except that he has an evil soul.”

‘Abdullaah Ibn Mubaarak said, on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Muslim who said, on the authority of Ibraheem Ibn Maysara who said, “I never saw ‘Umar Ibn ‘Abdulaziz hit any person except one who reviled Mu‘aawiyah. This one he whipped many times.”

Abu Tawbah Ar-Rabee’ Ibn Naafi’ Al-Halabee said, “Mu‘aawiyah is a curtain for the rest of the Companions of Muhammad so if a man lifts that curtain he will have the audacity to speak against those behind it.”

Most of the aforementioned statements can be found in ‘Al-Bidaayah wa Nihaayah’ by Ibn Katheer, in the biography of Mu‘aawiyah 49.

Imaam Al-Bukhaaree rahimabullaah included a chapter in the section, ‘The Virtues of the Companions’ in (Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree) saying, ‘Chapter: Mention of Mu‘aawiyah – may Allaah be pleased with him’. He mentioned therein three hadeeths, the first being:

On the authority of Ibn Abeed Mulaika, who said, “Mu‘aawiyah offered one Rak‘a (unit of prayer) for Witr after the Ishaa prayer.” Ibn ‘Abbass was approached about this and he said, “Leave him for he has accompanied the Messenger of Allaah”.

48 A Raafidee is the singular of Rawaaafidh. They are an extreme sect from the Shee’ah. Literally Raafidee is a person who has rejected the truth. {Ed.}
49 ‘Al-Bidaayah wa Nihaayah’ Vol.8 (p.130,139).
The second hadith: On the authority of Ibn Abee Mulaika, it was said to Ibn ‘Abbass "Will you speak to the Chief of the Believers Mu'aawiyah for he does not offer except one unit of the Witr prayer?" So Ibn ‘Abbass replied, "he is indeed a faqeeh (a learned man)."

The third hadith: On the authority of Mu'aawiyah ﷺ, who said, "Indeed you offer a prayer that we, who accompanied the Prophet ﷺ did not see him pray. Indeed he forbade it, "meaning praying two rakabs (units of prayer) after the ‘Asr prayer.”

Al-Haafidh Ibn Hajr in his explanation said, "Al-Bukhaaree expressed in this chapter by saying, ‘Mention of Mu’aawiyah’ and not, ‘The Merits of Mu’aawiyah’ or ‘The Excellence of Mu’aawiyah’ because his superiority is not clear from the hadiths mentioned, except that the apparent testification from Ibn ‘Abbass for him having scholarly knowledge and Companionship is a proof of great superiority.

Ibn Abee ‘Aasim wrote a small book about his excellence as did Abu ‘Amr Ghulam Tha’lab and Abu Bakr An-Naqaash. Ibnul-Jawzee set forth in (his book) in ‘Al- Mawdu’aat’ (the book of fabricated narrations) some of the hadiths which they mentioned then he followed it with the statement of Ishbaaq Ibn Rabawayh, “There is nothing authentic concerning the virtue of Mu’aawiyah ” 50 This is the secret why Imaam Al-Bukhaaree left out the word ‘excellence’ following the statement of his teacher. Yet, with his deep outlook, he derived that which would repel the heads of the Rawaafidh (extreme Shee’ah)." 51

50 There is some doubt over the authenticity of this statement because “in its chain there is a man whose condition is unknown, See ‘Tabseel ma faata at -Tabdeeth’ by Amr Ibn Abdul-Muniem Saleem (p.144).” See ‘Mukhtasar Tat -beerul-Janaan wal- lisaan ‘anil khawd wat- Tafawub bi-thalb Mu’aawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan’ by Ibn Hajr al Haitami summarised by Sulaiman Ibn Salib al Kburashi. {Tr.}
51 See Fatbul-Baaree (7/103/104).
It is narrated in Saheeh Muslim that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said regarding Mu’aawiyah, “may Allah not fill his stomach.” Imaam Muslim narrates with his chain reaching to Ibn ‘Abbass who said: I was once playing with young children and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came so I hid behind the door. He came and struck me between my shoulders (playfully) with his hand and said, “Go and call Mu’aawiyah.” I went then came back and said, “He is eating.” He ﷺ said, “Go and call him.” I went then came back and said, “He is eating.” He ﷺ said, "May Allah not fill his stomach."

Imaam Muslim rahimahullaah concluded with this hadeeth, those hadeeths showing the supplication the Prophet ﷺ made. Hence any disparaging or supplication that he gave against anyone who was not deserving of that, will be considered a purification for them or a reward or mercy. This is similar to his ﷺ saying, “may your hands be covered in dust,” and “may your mother be bereaved,” 52 and “may she be childless” 53, and “may you never age.” 54 He set forth in his Saheeh many of these hadeeths.

One of them is this hadeeth and it was preceded by the hadeeth of Anas Ibn Maalik 55 ﷺ who said:

52 This was said to Mu’aadh Ibn Jabal  ﷺ when he said, "shall we be questioned about what we say with our tongue?" (Tr.)
53 See ‘an-Nibaayah fi Ghareeb al-Hadeeth wal Athbar’ of Ibn Atheer, p.630. Dar Ibn Jawzee. This was mentioned to Safiyyah when it was said to him  ﷺ that she is in her menstruation then be said to her, “may she be childless” which means that Allaah has made her barren. (Tr.)
54 As in the above hadeeth. (Tr.)
55 “When the Prophet ﷺ went to Madeenah, Umm Anas went to see the Messenger ﷺ and with her was her son Anas Ibn Maalik. She said: O Messenger of Allaah take this boy who may serve you. He ﷺ accepted this and his (Anas Ibn Maalik) age then was 10 years old. He continued to serve the Messenger until he ﷺ passed away while being pleased with him. He used to pray and lengthen his prayer until his feet bled. When he completed the recitation of the Qur’aan, he gathered his children and family and supplicated for them. He accompanied the Messenger ﷺ in eight battles. He lived in Madeenah and Umm Sulaim\textsuperscript{56} had an orphan girl with her (Umm Sulaim being the mother of Anas). The Messenger of Allah \textsuperscript{5} saw her once and said, "Is it you? You have grown, may you never age." The orphan girl returned to Umm Sulaim crying and Umm Sulaim said to her, "What is wrong with you O daughter?" The young girl said, "The Prophet \textsuperscript{5} supplicated against me that I do not ever age so now I shall never grow in age." Or she said, "I shall never grow in my life." Umm Sulaim went out in a hurry wrapping her head with a covering until she met the Prophet \textsuperscript{5}. He said \textsuperscript{5} to her, "what is wrong O Umm Sulaim?" She said, "O Messenger of Allah, did you supplicate against my orphan girl?" The Prophet \textsuperscript{5} said, "And what was that?" She said, "She claims that you supplicated against her, that she never grows in age or in life." The Messenger \textsuperscript{5} laughed and then said, "O Umm Sulaim, don't you know that I have put a condition upon my Lord saying: "(O my Lord!) I am a human being, I feel pleasure just as human beings feel pleasure and I get angry just as human beings get angry.

witnessed the victories (over other lands). Then he moved to Basra and died there at 93 years being the last of the Companions to die in Basra. 1286 hadith have been reported from him. He was one of the distinguished Companions who narrated many hadith. The Prophet \textsuperscript{5} supplicated for him to be blessed in his provisions and children. Allah willed this and when he died, he had 98 offspring from his children and their children and their children. As for his provision, then clouds would bring rain to his field sometimes and it would not rain elsewhere." See 'al-Fawaa'id ad-Dhaababiyya min Arba'een an-Nawawiyya' a compilation of benefits from various scholars collected by Abu 'Abdillaab Hamood Ibn 'Abdillaab al-Mattar and Abu Anas 'Alee Ibn Hussein Abu Lawz p. 58. \{Tr.\}

\textsuperscript{56} "She accepted Islam with the early Muslims from the Ansaar. Abu Talha proposed to her. She said 'O Abu Talha, don't you know that your god that you worship comes from the ground which a Haba sbee from such and such tribe carves?' He said 'yes.' She said to him, 'Don't you have any shame in worshipping wood? If you became a Muslim then I'd not want any other dowry but that.' He said, 'I will first look at my situation.' He went and then came and said, 'I testify that none has the right to be worshipped except Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah.' Then she said, 'O Anas marry Abu Talha to me, and so be did.'" See 'Juz'on Feebi Fawaaid Hadeeth Abi 'Umayr' p.8 by Imaam Abil 'Abass Ahmad Ibn Abee Ahmad at-Tabaree al-Baghdadee ash-Shaa'ifi. \{Tr.\}
So, any person from my Ummah, whom I have supplicated against and he is not deserving of it then let it be a source of purification, charity and a pious act that brings him nearer (to You) on the Day of Judgement."

Straight after this hadeeth, Imaam Muslim narrated the hadeeth where the Messenger of Allaah said about Mu‘aawiyah, “may Allaah not fill his stomach,” and this is from his (rahimabullaah) articulacy and his excellency in arranging his Saheeh. This also shows his precise understanding and good derivation (rahimabullaah).

Imaam An-Nawawee in his explanation of Saheeh Muslim says, “Imaam Muslim understood from this hadeeth that Mu‘aawiyah was not deserving of the supplication against him and for this reason he included it under this chapter. Others besides him considered it from the virtues of Mu‘aawiyah.” 57 Meaning that others besides Imaam Muslim considered it from the virtues of Mu‘aawiyah because in reality it becomes a supplication for him.

Ibn Katheer said in his explanation of the Verse:

وَمَنْ قُتِّلَ مَظْلَومًا فَقَدْ جَعَلْنَاهُ لَوْلَايَةً سُلْطَانًا فَلا يُسْرِفَ فِي الْقُتْلِ إِلَّا كَانَ مَنْ صُورًا

(And whoever is killed oppressively (intentionally with hostility and oppression and not by mistake), We have given his heir the authority. But let him not exceed limits in the matter of taking life. Verily, he will be helped (by Allaah and the Islamic law).) 58

57 Sharh Saheeh Muslim, Imaam Nawawee V. 16 p.156.
58 Soorah Al-Israa: 33.
“Ibn ‘Abbass, the scholar of this Ummah understood from the generality of this blessed Verse to refer to the leadership of Mu‘aawiyah and that he would take sovereignty as he was ‘Uthmaan’s heir and ‘Uthmaan was killed oppressively, may Allaah be pleased with him.
Mu‘aawiyah was demanding that ‘Alee hand over ‘Uthmaan’s killers so that he may take vengeance from them, as he was also an Umayyid.
‘Alee was asking Mu‘aawiyah for respite until he had established himself and then he would hand them over. At the same time he was requesting Mu‘aawiyah to surrender Shaam to him. However, Mu‘aawiyah refused that until ‘Alee surrendered those who killed ‘Uthmaan. He also refused to take the pledge of allegiance to ‘Alee, both he and the people of Shaam.
After some contention, he established himself and leadership was passed over to him as Ibn ‘Abbass said and derived from this blessed Verse. This is a matter of amazement.”

In Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree there occurs on the authority of Anas Ibn Maalik, that the Prophet said, “the sign of Faith is love for the Ansaaar and the sign of hypocrisy is hatred for the Ansaaar.”

Al-Haafidh Ibn Hajr mentioned in ‘Fathul-Baaree’, “This virtue of the Ansaaar is shared by those who have in common the reason that earned them that virtue, that is aiding Allaah’s Messenger.” Then he said, “And it has been established in Saheeh Muslim on the authority of ‘Alee who said, the Prophet said (to me), “None loves you except a believer and none hates you except a hypocrite.” This follows without exception to the prominent amongst the Companions. The author of 'Mufhim' said, "As for the wars that occurred between them, if some of them showed hatred for others, it is not of this type. Rather it is an extraordinary situation that necessitated differences, and for this reason they did not accuse each other with hypocrisy. Their position in that situation was one of those striving to reach a correct ruling, the one being correct receiving two rewards and the one who erred receiving one reward. And Allaah knows best."

Shaykh Yahyaa Ibn Abee Bakr Al-Aamri Al-Yamani said in his book 'Al Riyaadh al Mustataabah fee Tarjumati Abee Moosaa Al-Ash'aree radiallyahu 'anhu': The Shareef Imaam Muhammad Ibn Ibraheem Ibn Murtada, may Allaah be pleased with him, mentioned that, "hating 'Alee was a sign of hypocrisy early on in Islaam for it was heavy upon the hypocrites and for this reason it was said regarding the Ansaar that hating them was also a sign of hypocrisy. Loving them and 'Alee was a sign of Faith."

He used as proof that, "the Khawaarij hated 'Alee and declared him a disbeliever yet it is agreed they were not considered hypocrites even though their sin was great and their leaving Islaam was something mentioned by the Prophet ﷺ. The Baatiniyyah love 'Alee even though their state of disbelief is agreed upon. Likewise the Raafidbah love him even upon their state of misguidance and transgression. In any case no one with a clean heart and upright Religion begins to revile the early people, the Companions and begins to find faults in them and looks and searches for their errors and shortcomings, we ask Allaah for forgiveness and security."

67 Lit. The Hiders. They are an extreme sect of the Shee'ab. {Ed.}
Al-Haafidh Ad-Dhahabee said in his book ‘Meezanul-I’tidaal’, “If it is said: How is it allowed to consider an innovator as reliable when the definition of reliability is justice and precision? So how can a person of innovation be just? The answer is that innovations are of two types: The lesser innovation, such as the innovation of extreme tashayu’ ⁶⁹ and tashayu’ without extremism and enmity. This was present in many of the Companions’ successors and those that followed them, while preserving righteousness, piety and truthfulness. If their narrations were rejected, much of the Prophetic sayings would be lost, this harm being clear. The (second type of innovation) which is the greater innovation includes the innovation of complete Rafdb ⁷⁰ and having extremism in that. This includes lowering the status of Abu Bakr and ‘Umar, may Allaah be pleased with them both, and calling to this. These do not have their narrations accepted and they have no honour. Also I do not find now, in this type, a trustworthy man, rather lying is their mark, deceit and hypocrisy is their trait. So how can narrations be accepted from those whose condition is like this, far be it and never! An extreme person from the Shee’ah in the time of the early Muslims and according to them was one who spoke ill of and reviled ‘Uthmaan Ibn ‘Affaan, Zubair Ibnul-Awaam, Talba, Mu’aaawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan and a group who fought ‘Alee, may Allaah be pleased with him. Whereas an extreme Shee’ah in our time and according to us is one who declares them disbelievers and renounces himself from Abu Bakr and also ‘Umar. This one is a misguided liar.” ⁷¹

⁶⁹ Tashayu’is the early form of Shee’ism, which merely preferred the Prophet’s family over other Companions. {Ed.}
⁷⁰ Rafdb refers to the way of the Rawaafsib, an extreme sect of the Shee’ah who curse and declare as disbelievers almost all of the Companions except some of the family of the Prophet (Ablul Bait). {Tr.}
⁷¹ Meezanul-I’tidaal (1/5).
Of the scholars of hadeeth who were described as giving preference to the Prophet's family (tashayyu') is Al-Fadl Ibn Dukayn Abu Nu'aim, the Shaykh of Al-Bukhaaree. Al-Haafidh Ibn Hajr mentioned in his introduction to 'Fathul-Baaree', "There has been much praise for Al-Fadl Ibn Dukayn in terms of his memory and precision. Yet there are some people who spoke against him due to 'tashayyu'. Despite this Al-Fadl Ibn Dukayn was known to have said, "never have the recording Angels written against me that I abused Mu'aawiyah"."  72

Of those also described with tashayyu' is Muhammad Ibn Fudail Ibn Ghazwaan Al-Koofee. Al-Haafidh Ibn Hajr said, "Those who hesitated in narrating from him only did so due to his tashayyu'." Ahmad Ibn 'Alee Al-Abaar said that Abu Hashim narrated to him saying, "I heard Ibn Fudayl say, "May Allaah have mercy on Uthmaan and may He have no mercy for those who do not seek Allaah's mercy for him. Abu Haashim said, "And I saw the signs of Ablu-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah in him, may Allaah have mercy upon him." 73

Shaykhul-Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah said 74, "It is forbidden to curse or revile anyone from the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ. Whoever curses anyone from them such as Mu'aaawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan, 'Amr Ibn 'Aas and those like them, or those better than them, such as Abu Moosaa Al-Ash'aaari, Abu Hurayrah and others, or those who are better than these like Talha Ibn 'Ubaydillaab, Az-Zubair Ibnul-'Awaam, 'Uthmaan Ibn 'Affaan, 'Alee Ibn Abee Taalib, Abu Bakr As-Siddeeq, 'Umar Ibnul-Khattab or 'Aa'ishah, the Mother of the Believers and others from the Companions of the Messenger ﷺ, then he deserves an extreme punishment by agreement of the scholars of this Religion. The scholars differed as to whether this person is punished by killing or by something less."

72 Introduction of Fathul-Baaree, p. 434.
73 Introduction of Fathul-Baaree, p. 441.
74 What follows is a series of statements made by Shaykhul-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah ﷺ in answering a question about Mu'aaawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan.
“There is not one amongst the first and the last of the Emigrants 75, who has been accused of hypocrisy. Rather all of them are believers whose faith has been testified to.”

“As for Mu‘aawiyah Ibn Abee Sufyaan and those who had been set free, who embraced Islaam after the Conquering of Makkah 76 like ‘Ikrima Ibn Abee Jahl, Al-Haarith Ibn Hisham, Subail Ibn ‘Amr, Safwaan Ibn Umayyah and Abu Sufyaan Ibnul-Haarith Ibn ‘AbdulMuttalib. These and others are from those who perfected their Islaam by the agreement of the Muslims. Nobody ever accused them of hypocrisy and Mu‘aawiyah was taken by the Prophet as his scribe from the time he embraced Islaam.”

“When Yazeed Ibn Abee Sufyaan died during the Khilaafah of ‘Umar Ibnul-Khattab 77, he gave charge to his brother Mu‘aawiyah. ‘Umar Ibnul-Khattab was amongst the greatest of those with insight (on matters) and of the most informed about the conditions of people. He was the most upright in and the most knowledgeable of the truth.”

“Never did ‘Umar or Abu Bakr give charge over the Muslims to a hypocrite. Neither did they choose their relatives and never did they fear the reproach of those that found fault.”

“It is known that Mu‘aawiyah and ‘Amr Ibnul-‘Aas and others had some discord between them, yet no one accused them of lying about the Prophet neither their supporters nor those fighting them. Rather all of the knowledgeable Companions and their successors after them are in agreement that they were truthful about the Messenger of Allaah. They were trusted when they narrated from him but a hypocrite is not trusted for he lies about the Prophet”

75 Those who migrated to Madeenah to live beside the Prophet. (Ed.)
76 Which was in the year 8H. (Ed.)
“None of Ablu-Sunnah wal-Jamaa‘ah and the scholars of this Religion believe in the infallibility of anyone of the Companions, their relatives, the early generations or others. Rather it is possible for them to fall into sins and Allaah forgives them once they repent, raising their station by that. He forgives them by means of expiation through their good deeds or other ways and means. This is regarding those sins they actually fell into, whereas in those affairs which they strived to attain a ruling they sometimes were correct and at other times were incorrect. When they strived to attain a ruling and were correct, they would receive two rewards and if they were incorrect they would get one reward for their effort, their error being forgiven.”

“Mu‘aawiyah did not call for himself to be khaleefah and was not given the oath of allegiance to it when he fought ‘Alee. He fought not because he considered himself to be the khaleefah or deserving of the khilaafah. This they all agreed upon and he himself would affirm this to whoever asked him. He and his companions did not consider it permissible that they initiate the fight against ‘Alee and his companions. But ‘Alee, (may Allaah be pleased with him) and his companions believed that Mu‘aawiyah and his companions must pledge allegiance and show obedience to ‘Alee, due to his authority such that there be only one khaleefah for the Muslims. Considering them defecting from this obligation he decided that Mu‘aawiyah and his companions should be fought until they fulfilled it. All this so that obedience and unity occur. Mu‘aawiyah and his companions did not see that it was obligatory upon them and if they were fought against they would consider themselves oppressed because ‘Uthmaan was killed oppressively as was agreed by all the Muslims and his killers were in ‘Alee’s camp, be having authority over them.”
“Also the hadeeth “Ammaar will be killed by the transgressing group”\textsuperscript{77} is not a clear proof against Mu‘aawiyah and his companions, as it may be referring to the group which attacked ‘Ammaar until they killed him, which was a group from the main army. However, those pleased with ‘Ammaar’s killing would be under the same ruling as those who killed him. And it is known that there were amongst the main army those who were not pleased with the killing of ‘Ammaar such as ‘Abdullaah Ibn ‘Amr Ibnul-‘Aas and others. Rather all the people renounced the killing of ‘Ammaar, even Mu‘aawiyah and ‘Amr.”

\textsuperscript{77} Referring to ‘Ammaar Ibn Yaasir who was killed by Mu‘aawiyah’s army in the fight against ‘Alee (Tr.)
Conclusion

In conclusion, it is obligatory for the right minded person to have good opinion about the blessed Companions ﷺ, with regard to the trials and tribulations that occurred between them and to withhold from speaking about them except with good, seeking Allaah’s pleasure for all of them. He must also have love and allegiance to them being certain that they are between one or two rewards (because they exerted all their efforts in trying to seek the truth).

The explainer of At-Tabaawiyah (Ibn Abil-'Izz Ibn ‘Abdis-Salaam) did well when he referred to what transpired between ‘Alee and Mu’aawiyah, may Allaah be pleased with them both, saying:

“We speak good of them all (as Allaah says):

ْرِبَّنَا اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَإِخْوَانٍ الَّذِينَ سَبَقُونَا بِالإِيمَانِ وَلا تُجَعَّلْ فِي قُلُوبِنَا غَلَّةً لِّلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رِبَّنَا إِنَّكَ رَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ”

78 Soorah Al-Hasbor: 10.
Then he said, "Allaah has safeguarded our hands from the trials and tribulations that took place in his time (meaning the era of the Leader of the Believers ‘Alee, may Allaah be pleased with him), so we ask Him by His Grace and Generosity to safeguard our tongues from it."

All praise is due to Allaah, the Lord of the Worlds and may prayers, peace and blessings be upon the best of His creation and best Messenger, our Prophet and Leader, Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdillaah, upon his family, his Companions and those who follow them in righteousness until the Day of Judgement.
