1. The first condition of worship is that it should be sincerely for the sake of Allah without any shirk in it.
2. The opposite of the first condition is to worship Allah and then commit shirk with Him.
3. The second condition of worship is to follow the Messenger.
4. The opposite of the second condition is any form of worship which the Prophet did not come with.

The kuffar of our time are worse in their shirk than the kuffar who came before. This is because those who came before committed shirk during times of ease and made worship purely for Allaah during times of difficulty. However, the shirk of the kuffar of our time is continuous, during times of ease and difficulty.
